IN THE LOOP

Friday September 28, 2018

Happy Friday! I hope everyone is off to a great start to autumn. Fall conference season just kicked off with EuroSpine in Barcelona last week and the annual meeting of the North American Spine Society in Los Angeles this week. The buzz surrounding our pending merger with Stryker was palpable. Our booth, as well as Stryker's, saw a nearly constant stream of surgeons, sales reps, investors, and analysts. All were eager to hear more about the future Stryker-K2M. Of course, I couldn't really share much at this stage other than our excitement about bringing together our entrepreneurial culture and innovation mindset to Stryker's global leadership.

And while on the surface within the office it may not seem like much is happening I can share that both leadership teams at K2M and Stryker are off and running on integration planning. We recognize how important communication is during this period. We are laying out a post-closing communication plan so we can share important updates as we progress through the integration.

As we close out Q3 and embark on Q4, continue to execute to the plan. We've been having a great year so far and want to close out 2018 strong.

Have a great weekend and thank you for all your support,

Eric
