ECUADOR GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHES TARIFF CUTS TO AID MINING DEVELOPMENT

VANCOUVER, CANADA, November 18, 2008 - Ecuador's Council of External Commerce and Investment ("COMEXI") has approved a resolution (Resolution No. 448) to eliminate the import tariffs on a range of equipment, especially those related to mining. This equipment list includes crushers, mills, screens and grinding balls.

COMEXI is composed of representatives from a number of important Ecuador political institutions and Ministries, including Dr. Xavier Abad, who is also the Minister of Industries and Competitiveness. Commented Dr. Abad, "Resolution No. 448 of COMEXI is a clear signal of the decision of the Government to promote the development of mining projects in Ecuador that are responsible to the environment. The resolution expresses the spirit of COMEXI to facilitate the importation of capital items that are indispensable for mining activity."

ABOUT CORRIENTE
