FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GRILL CONCEPTS REPORTS INCREASED REVENUES FOR 2003 THIRD QUARTER; SAME STORE SALES UP 7.7 PERCENT

Edgar Filing: GRILL CONCEPTS INC - Form 8-K

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA - NOVEMBER 12, 2003 - Grill Concepts, Inc. (Nasdaq:GRIL) today reported results for the three and nine-month periods ended September 29, 2003.

For the 2003 third quarter, consolidated revenues, including management and license fees, increased 13.9 percent to $10.8 million from $9.5 million in the same period a year earlier. Total systemwide sales, including all restaurants, owned, operated, managed and licensed, rose 12.4 percent to $16.6 million from $14.7 million a year ago. Management believes total systemwide sales is a key measurement for assessing the current strength of The Grill on the Alley and Daily Grill restaurant brands against historical performance. Same store sales for the third quarter rose 7.7 percent. The company reduced its net loss to $342,000, or $0.06 per share, in the 2003 third quarter from a net loss of $454,000, or $0.08 per share, in the corresponding period a year earlier.

For the year-to-date period, consolidated revenues, including management and license fees, advanced 9.3 percent to $34.5 million from $31.5 million in the prior-year nine-month period. Total systemwide sales, including all restaurants, owned, operated, managed and licensed, rose 11.7 percent to $51.4 million from $46.0 million a year earlier. Same store sales for the first nine months of 2003 increased 6.1%. The company posted net income of $197,000, or $0.04 per diluted share, contrasted with a net loss of $302,000, or $0.05 per share, in the 2002 year-to-date period.

"The growth in revenues for the three and nine-month periods is attributed primarily to continued momentum in same store sales, as well as contributions from our South Bay Daily Grill, which opened in January of this year," said Robert Spivak, president and chief executive officer of Grill Concepts. "Our strong same store sales growth reflected increased guest counts and higher average check prices at both our Grill on the Alley and Daily Grill restaurants."

Despite industry-wide increases in beef costs, the company achieved gross margin improvements, benefiting from improved purchasing and menu refinements. Cost of sales as a percentage of total revenues were held below year-ago levels, resulting in higher gross margins, amounting to 72.5 percent and 72.9 percent for the current three and nine-month periods, compared with 72.4 percent and 72.8 percent, respectively, for the corresponding year-ago periods.

Spivak added: "We continued to make progress executing our strategic growth plan. In September 2003, we entered the Northwestern U.S. market with the opening of a Daily Grill restaurant in The Westin Portland Hotel in downtown Portland. We are excited about the prospects of this joint development project with Starwood Hotels and the Aspen Hotel Group, considering this full service restaurant is the food and beverage provider for the hotel's banquet facilities, as well as the exclusive room service provider for the 188-room hotel. We also look forward to expanding our network in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area later this year with a new Daily Grill restaurant in the heart of Bethesda, Maryland at the Hyatt Regency Bethesda. These restaurants underscore our strategy of developing restaurants in, or adjoining, key hotel properties or complexes situated to attract both the corporate and residential patron."
