Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking” statements that are made pursuant to the Safe Harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, regarding the prospective resolution of the putative class action consolidated complaint. Such forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, are predictive in nature, and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company’s actual outcomes and results to differ materially from those projected or contemplated in the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the risk that the settlement will not be finalized or approved. If the settlement is not finalized, the ultimate resolution and its impact on the Company cannot be assessed. Forward-looking statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K should be evaluated and read in conjunction with the other risks and uncertainties that affect the Company’s business, including those found under the captions “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” and “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, “Forward Looking Statements” and “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2010, and in other filings by the Company with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, which contain discussions of the Company’s business and the various factors that may affect it. Given these risks and uncertainties, we can give no assurances that any results or events projected or contemplated by our forward-looking statements will in fact occur and we caution you not to place undue reliance on these statements.
