SPECIAL REVIEW REPORT

The Board of Directors and Shareholders
Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A.

- 1) We have performed a special review on the Pro Forma Consolidated Quarterly Information of Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. and subsidiaries as of the quarters ended on March 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related consolidated balance sheet, pro forma consolidated statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and changes in financial position, in accordance with the accounting practices adopted in Brazil. The Pro Forma consolidated financial statements assume that GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. was incorporated on January 1, 2001.
- 2) We conducted our review in accordance with the specific rules established by IBRACON – Brazilian Independent Accountants Institute, coupled with the Federal Accounting Council, consisting mainly of: (a) inquiry and discussion with the managers in charge of the Company's accounting, financial and operating areas in relation to the main criteria adopted in the preparation of the Quarterly Information; and (b) review of information and subsequent events which have or would have relevant effects on the financial situation and the Company's operations.
- 3) Based on our special review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the Pro Forma Consolidated Quarterly Information referred to above for them to be in conformity with the accounting practices adopted in Brazil, in accordance to the rules issued by the Brazilian Securities Commission, specifically applicable to the preparation of the Quarterly Information.
- 4) The financial statements related to year ended on December 31, 2004 whose values are presented for comparison purposes, were audited by us, and our audit report, unqualified, was dated as of February 22, 2005.
- 5) As described in note 1, pursuant to the resolution of the Securities and Exchange Commission of Brazil – CVM, the Company restated the Pro Forma Consolidated Quarterly Information for the period ended on March 31, 2005. The adjustments made pursuant to the resolution of Securities and Exchange Commission of Brazil – CVM do not change our review report issued on May 02, 2005 on the Pro Forma Consolidated Quarterly Information.

São Paulo, May 2, 2005, except for Note 1 and Note 10, for which the date is March 6, 2006.

NOTES TO THE PRO FORMA QUARTERLY INFORMATION (UNAUDITED)

Period from January 1 to March 31, 2005 and 2004

(In thousands of Reais)

1. Restatement of the financial statements as of December 31, 2004

According to the Brazilian Securities Commission (CVM) deliberation, in compliance with the Official letter/CVM/SEP/GEA-I/ #098/2006, dated March 06, 2006, the financial statements for the period ended on December 31, 2004 were restated to reflect in that fiscal year the expenses incurred on funds raised to acquire new aircraft in the amount of R$27,401, previously classified as prepaid expenses. The Company had adopted this procedure since it can clearly match fund raising expenses to its future expansion projects including the acquisition of aircraft under construction. As the fund raising will produce future benefits represented by the financial revenues created by the cash during the construction phase of aircraft ordered from suppliers until the agreement payment date, the Company had registered such fund raising expenses in assets as prepaid expenses to be amortized as the benefits were realized. The CVM concluded that by the Brazilian standards, such costs must be fully expensed in the fiscal year in which occurred. The effects of the adjustments determined by the CVM were a decrease in total assets and shareholders equity at December 31, 2004. Quarterly information from March 31, 2005 was restated to reflect the effects of the adjustments on that date, which were a decrease in total assets and shareholders equity in the amount of R$ 14,146 and R$ 14,463, respectively, the increase in current liabilities in the amount of R$ 317 and the increase in quarterly net income in the amount of R$1,217. In addition, note 10 was re-stated, as determined by the CVM, to expand the disclosure on contingencies for which losses are considered remote.

2. Business Overview

Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (the Company or GLAI) operates based on the low-cost low-fare concept, with an aircraft fleet of 30 Boeing 737, one of the industry's newest and most modern fleets, with low maintenance, fuel and training costs, and high usage and efficiency ratios.

During the quarter ended as of March 31, 2005, the Company began to operate 2 new aircraft and 2 new bases in João Pessoa State of Paraíba and Petrolina State of Pernambuco.

On January 20, 2005, the Company obtained the authorization from the Committee of Studies Related to International Air Navigation (CERNAI) to operate regular flights from Brazil to Santa Cruz de La Sierra, Bolivia. The Company's Management expects to start operating those flights as of 2Q05.

Exempting the continuity of the growth and expansion plans, there were no changes in the Company's operations for the quarter ended as of March 31, 2005.

Gol Transportes Aéreos S.A.	100%
Gol Finance LLP (GOL UK)	100%

3. Basis of Preparation and Presentation of the Financial Statements

The Company's unaudited pro forma Consolidated Quarterly Information and subsidiaries were prepared in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in Brazil and the provisions contained in the Brazilian corporation law, in the Chart of Accounts prepared by the Civil Aviation Department - DAC and the supplementary rules of the Brazilian Securities Commission - CVM, consistently applied to the financial statement of the year ended on December 31, 2004.

The financial statements are presented in appliance with the rules established by IBRACON NPC 27 - Accounting Statements - Presentation and Disclosure. The following significant re-classifications were performed in 2005 and 2004 due to the application of NPC 27:

i. Financial investments at R$ 660,210 (R$ 443,361 on December 31, 2004) were segregated as short-term investments.

ii. The net financial result was segregated between financial expenses and revenues based on the concepts established by NPC 27, as described in note 2 k.

3. Basis of Preparation and Presentation of the Financial Statements - Continued

Additionally, the following re-classification and grouping were performed for adequacy and comparability purposes to the current year:

- i. The Company revised the profit sharing concept, considering that the profit sharing program also includes other operating goals, the total benefits are classified as operating payroll expenses on March 31, 2005 and 2004.
- ii. The commercial leases payable in the short-term were included in other provisions and liabilities. The long term payable lines were grouped in accounts payable and provisions, in long-term liabilities, due to the relevance of the figures involved.
- iii. Differed investments were grouped in other permanent assets.

The main accounting principles and consolidation criteria adopted by the Company are described in the financial statements as of the year ended on December 31, 2004 and remain unchanged.

The unaudited pro forma Consolidated Quarterly Information as of March 31, 2005 were prepared to reflect the financial and equity situation and the consolidated operating income as if GLAI had been incorporated on January 1, 2001, and as if it already held stock ownership in GOL, mentioned above, since that date.

The unaudited pro forma Consolidated Quarterly Information must not be taken as a basis for dividend calculation or for any other corporate purposes besides providing comparative information on the Company's operating performance.

Additionally, aiming the continuous improvement of information available to the market, the company began to adopt the following principles:

a) Employee Profit Sharing

The provision for the employee profit sharing is constituted, monthly, based on the Management's estimates, in view of the established goals for the current year, and recorded as personnel expenses while considered as provision, classified as employee's profit sharing when confirming the accomplishment of the year's goals.

b) Managed Account

The Company is a quota holder of a managed account, whose investment in securities and liabilities resulting from the fund activity portfolio began to be presented in a consolidated basis.

Securities from the managed account portfolio are acquired with the aim of being frequently and actively traded and, as provided by for the Brazilian Central Bank, are classified as securities for negotiation and booked based on the market value, having the realized and unrealized gains and losses recognized in the results.

The balances on December 31, 2004 were reclassified in the presentation of the note of available funds for adequacy and comparability purposes to the current quarter.

c) Accounting of operations with derivatives

Aiming at recording, stating and disclosing transactions with derivative financial instruments performed by the Company, based on formal policies of risk management, the Company began to adopt, as from January 2005, accounting principles of derivative instruments in line with USGAAP, whose concepts which are used and described below result from SFAS133 and the regulations from the Brazilian Central Bank.

The derivative financial instruments used by the Company, with the specific purpose of covering market risks, are measured based in its fair values, and the non-effective installment of income realized from transaction with financial instruments is directly recognized in quarter income, while the effective risk coverage is recognized in a way to adjust the revenues and expenses related to the items subject to the contracted coverage. The criteria for the effective measurement were defined in consonance with the USGAAP SFAS133 concepts which consider effective the instruments that offset between 80% and 120% of the volatility of the item for which the protection was contracted.

The market value of derivative financial instruments is calculated based on the usual market practices, using the closing values of the period, considering the relevant subjacent quotations, except for option contracts, whose values are determined through the Black and Scholes pricing methodology, whereby the variables and the information related to the volatility coefficient are obtained through well-known insiders.

3. Basis of Preparation and Presentation of the Financial Statements Continued

The pro forma consolidated balance sheet on December 31, 2004, presented for comparison purposes, included in the Pro Forma Quarterly information, was extracted from the financial statements audited in the year ended on the aforementioned date and does not include all notes required by the accounting principles applicable to Brazil for the presentation of complete financial statements. The accounting principles and the other notes related to the consolidated financial statements are described in the Company's audited pro forma financial statements.

d) Financial revenues (expenses)

The financial revenues represent the interests, the effect of the exchange rate on assets and gains from financial investments and financial derivative instruments. The financial expenses include interest payments on loans, the effect of the exchange rate liabilities and losses from financial derivative instruments.

e) Provision for Contingencies

The provision for contingencies is supported by the opinion of the legal consultants with sufficient amounts to cover possible losses and gains.

The Company adopted concepts established by NPC N°22, concerning Provisions, Liabilities, Contingencies for Liabilities and Assets, on the constitution of provisions for and releases on subjects involving legal disputes and contingencies.

f) Conciliation between information and the disclosures based on USGAAP

Preferred shares of Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. are traded as American Depositary Shares (ADS) on the NYSE in the United States of America and are subject to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Each ADS represents 2 preferred shares, being traded under the ticker GOL. The Company prepares the pro forma financial statements according to the generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (USGAAP). Aiming at fulfilling the need for information on the markets in which it operates, the Company's practice is to simultaneously disclose its corporate information and the USGAAP.

The accounting principles adopted in Brazil are different from those generally accepted in the United States USGAAP applicable to the air transport segment, especially the allocation of expenses with income maintenance. On March 31 2005, the net income for the quarter, in accordance to accounting principles adopted in Brazil (BR GAAP), was R$ 19,829 lower due to this difference and the respective tax effects in comparison to net income in USGAAP. On this same date, stockholder s equity presented in the BR GAAP financial statements was R$170,106 lower due to, mainly, the accumulated difference in the allocation of expenses with maintenance and respective tax effects, also as the result of the accrual in USGAAP financial statements of net proceeds received through share issuance and the accounting of shares purchase options conceded to executives and employees. There are also differences in the classification of liabilities, assets and income items, from which the main difference is the classification of immediately available financial investments. The Company holds the policy of disclosing main information of transactions in a consistent way at the BR GAAP financial statements and in accordance to USGAAP.

The Company entered into an Agreement for the Adoption of Level 2 Differentiated Corporate Governance Practices with the São Paulo Stock Exchange BOVESPA, starting to be listed on the Bovespa s Novo Mercado index, created to set apart a selected group of companies that undertake to adopt differentiated corporate governance practices. The Company s information contemplates the additional requirements of BOVESPA s Novo Mercado (New Market).

The financial statements include statements of cash flow, presented as information and also consistently elaborated to the financial statements of the year ended on December 31, 2004 supplementary to the financial statements of the year ended on December 31, 2004.

Additionally, the Company is presenting to the market, separately, the complete comparative pro forma consolidated financial statements as if Gol Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. was incorporated on January 1, 2001, and that, since then, it held the totality of the capital stock of its subsidiary Gol Transportes Aéreos S.A..

No meaningful changes occurred in the course of lawsuits in accordance to disclosures in the financial statements of the last fiscal year ended on December 31, 2004.

The Company is questioning in court the non-incidence of VAT (ICMS) in aircraft and engine imports under operating leasing in transactions made with lessors headquartered in foreign countries. The Company's Management understands that these transactions are mere leases, in view of the contractual obligation to return the object of the contract, which will never integrate the Company's assets, neither now nor in the future. Given that there is no circulation of goods, the tax triggering event is not characterized.

Estimated aggregated value of the current lawsuits on March 31 2005, estimate based on the 4% rate applied to the price of the lease aircraft and engines, taking these assets' estimated useful life over the average period of the Company's commercial leases is of R$31,000 monetarily restated and excluding eventual default fees.

On January, 2005 the Company entered into an agreement with Boeing Company to close a purchase order of 17 737-800 Next Generation aircraft, together with purchase options of more 26 737-800 Next Generation aircraft.

On May 17, 2004, the Company signed an agreement with the Boeing Company, ensuring the purchase order of 17 737-800 Next Generation aircrafts, jointly with the purchase option of over 26 737-800 Next generation aircrafts.

Considering contract amendments, on March 31, 2005, the Company placed a firm order for the acquisition of 30 Boeing 737-800. The firm orders for the aircraft purchase, at the approximate amount of US$ 1,980 million based on the aircraft list price (corresponding to approximately R$ 5,280 million based on the exchange rate as of March 31, 2005), have deliveries expected for 2006 (six aircraft), 2007 (thirteen aircraft), 2008 (seven aircraft) and 2009 (four aircraft).

The Company has been making the initial payments related to the acquisition of these aircraft, using its own funds arising from the primary public offering of its shares and loans contracted through short-term credit lines and supplier s financing. Future payments referring to firm orders and options for the purchase of 63 aircraft, set forth based on the aircraft price list, determined in US dollars and converted to Reais based on the exchange rate as of March 31, 2005, have the following composition per year:

16. Commitments Continued

The obligations with the purchase of aircraft will be financed up to 85% through long-term financing guaranteed by the US Exim Bank.

The Company maintains an agreement, which expires in 2014, for the use of the Open Skies sales system, which may be terminated by the hirer with a prior notice of 180 days. The future payments of that agreement depend on the number of passengers carried and the minimum monthly price is R$ 333, corresponding to US$ 125 converted by the exchange rate as of March 31, 2005. From January 1 to March 31, 2005 the payments to Open Skies totaled R$ 4,153 (R$ 4,506 in 1Q04).

17. Employee Benefits

At an Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting held on May 25, 2004, the shareholders approved an executive program of stock option purchase targeting senior executives, executive officers and other Company managers. Still on May 25, 2004, the Board of Directors approved the issuance of 937,412 preferred stock options at the price R$ 3.04 per share, from which 50% became exercisable from October 25, 2004, and the remaining 50% exercisable quarterly on a pro rata basis until the second quarter of 2006. After becoming exercisable, the holder of each option may exercise it for a period of 24 months.

On January 19, 2005, the Compensation Committee, within the scope of its functions and in conformity with the Company's Stock Option Plan, approved the grant of 82,586 options for the purchase of the Company's preferred shares at R$ 33.06 per share.

If the Company had accounted for the effect of this compensation as an expense, the operating result for the period ended on March 31, 2005 would be lower by approximately R$ 2,129 (R$10,000 on December 31, 2004), considering the intrinsic value of options granted.

17. Employee Benefits--Continued

The employee profit sharing is also provided for in the Bylaws of the Company and the subsidiary Gol. The employee profit sharing plan is subject to economic and financial results measured based on the Company's performance indicators which presume the accomplishment of the Company's performance goals, from units and the individuals. On March 31, 2005 the provision constituted based on the Management's estimates and expectations is R$ 4,500.

18. Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company is exposed to several market risks arising from its operations. Such risks involve mainly the effects of changes in price and fuel availability, foreign exchange rate risk, because the revenues thereof are generated in Reais and the Company has significant obligations in US dollars, credit risks and interest rate risks. The Company uses derivative financial instruments to manage those risks. The Company maintains a formal risk management policy under the management of the executive officers and the Board of Directors.

The management of these risks is performed through control policies, establishing limits, as well as other accompanying techniques, mainly mathematical models adopted for the continuous monitoring of exposures. All derivative instruments used shall present a certain level of liquidity in order to permit position adjustments.

The managed account which the Company is a quota holder is used as an instrument for the contraction of risk coverage in accordance to the Company's risk management policies.

18. Derivative Financial Instruments--Continued

(a) Fuel price risk and availability

In order to manage risks resulting from the price changes in fuel, GOL uses derivative financial instruments to measure the oil's price changes represented by futures contracts and commodities options. The prices of crude oil are extremely linked to the fuel, which makes crude oil derivatives efficient in the compensation of fuel prices, providing some protection in the short term, relating to an elevated increase in the average fuel prices.

The Company makes use of options and oil swap. The Company records the derivative instruments related to fuel hedge as cash flow hedges, according to SFAS 133. The fair value of the Company's fuel derivative instruments on March 31, 2005 corresponded to an unrealized net gain of approximately R$2,978.

The gains with measured financial instruments as effectively accounted in fuel expenses in the quarter totaled R$3,084.

As of December 31, 2004, GOL held derivative agreements for the purchase of up to 120,000 barrels of oil, in the nominal value of US$5.1 million and the fair value of US$ 5.2 million, for one month period, from which the results from the transactions with such derivatives were not recognized as adjustments to the items which refer to the financial statements. The changes in the fair value of such agreements totaled R$1,466 during 2004 and were accounted as financial revenues.

The fuel purchase is substantially made from a single supplier, which is responsible for the supply of 95% of the annual fuel consumption.

(b) Foreign exchange risk

As of March 31, 2005, the main assets and liabilities in foreign currency are related to aircraft leasing operations. The installments relating to renegotiated loans are recorded under current and long-term liabilities.

19. Insurance Coverage

Management holds an insurance coverage at amounts that it deems necessary to cover possible losses, due to the nature of the assets and the inherent risks associated to the activity, observing the limits established in lease agreements. As of March 31, 2005, the insurance coverage, by nature, considering GOL's aircraft fleet and in relation to the maximum indemnifiable amounts, is the following:

Aeronautic Type	R$	US$
Warranty Hull	1,932,382	724,770
Civil Liability per occurrence/aircraft	1,599,720	600,000
Warranty Hull/War	1,932,382	724,770
Inventories	106,648	40,000

By means of the Law 10,605, of December 18, 2002, the Brazilian government committed itself to supplement eventual civil liability expenses against third parties, caused by acts of war or terrorist attacks, occurred in Brazil or abroad, for which GOL may be demanded, for the amounts that exceed the insurance policy limit effective on September 10, 2001, limited to the equivalent in Reais to one billion US dollars.

20. EBITDA and EBITDAR PRO FORMA

The Company uses EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) and EBITDAR (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization plus operating costs with aircraft leases and supplementary aircraft leases) as indices for measuring its economic performance.

EBITDA and EBITDAR are not measurements accepted by accounting rules. The Company uses EBITDA and EBITDAR because they are standard financial statistical measures, widely used in the civil aviation industry. The Company believes that these are useful financial data that indicate its performance and also to compare it with other airline Companies.
