Aristides Pittas, Chairman and CEO of Euroseas commented: We are very pleased with the performance of our company in the fourth quarter of 2007 during which we reaped the benefits of our fleet growth and employment strategy. With a fleet of 15 vessels we have reached a critical size that allows us to balance our employment strategy and take advantage of market developments as we did during the fourth quarter of 2007. The growth of our dividend from $0.79 per share in 2006 to $1.08 per share in 2007, a 37% increase, is the best evidence of the effectiveness of our investment and employment strategy, especially since it represents only a fraction of our net income and cash flow. We have a strong balance sheet and we are well positioned to take advantage of additional investment opportunities to deploy the funds we raised in November 2007. We will continue executing our plan to grow our fleet by focusing on age and size segments of the drybulk and containership sectors which we believe maximize our risk-adjusted shareholder returns, a strategy that we believe will enable us to continue providing consistent and significant dividends and overall returns to our shareholders.

Tasos Aslidis, Chief Financial Officer of Euroseas commented: The results of 2007 reflect significantly higher revenues compared to 2006 due to the higher number of vessels in our fleet and the higher average time charter equivalent rate our vessels have achieved. Specifically during 2007, our fleet averaged 11.48 vessels vs. 8.09 in 2006 and earned on average $21,468 per vessel per day compared to $14,313 per vessel per day during 2006.

As of today, 65% of our ship capacity days in 2008 have been fixed under time charter contracts or protected from market fluctuations. We believe that our contract coverage gives us a solid revenue base for 2008 and beyond, more predictable cash flows and sufficient downside protection, while still allowing us to participate in the potential upside of the spot market.

Fourth quarter 2007 Results:

For the fourth quarter of 2007, the Company reported total net revenues of $31.5 million and net income of $15.3 million representing a 165.1% and 222.7% increase, respectively, over total net revenues of $11.9 million and net income of $4.8 million during the fourth quarter of 2006. (1) Average number of vessels is the number of vessels that constituted our fleet for the relevant period, as measured by the sum of the number of calendar days each vessel was a part of our fleet during the period divided by the number of calendar days in that period.

(2) Calendar days. We define calendar days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession including off-hire days associated with major repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys. Calendar days are an indicator of the size of our fleet over a period and affect both the amount of revenues and the amount of expenses that we record during that period.

(3) Available days. We define available days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession net of off-hire days associated with scheduled repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys. The shipping industry uses available days to measure the number of days in a period during which vessels were available to generate revenues.

(4) Voyage days. We define voyage days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession net of off-hire days associated with scheduled and unscheduled repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys or days waiting to find employment or other offhire. The shipping industry uses voyage days to measure the number of days in a period during which vessels actually generate revenues.

(5) Fleet utilization. We calculate fleet utilization by dividing the number of our voyage days during a period by the number of our available days during that period. The shipping industry uses fleet utilization to measure a company's efficiency in finding suitable employment for its vessels and minimizing the amount of days that its vessels are off-hire for reasons such as unscheduled repairs or days waiting to find employment.

(6) Time charter equivalent, or TCE, is a measure of the average daily revenue performance of a vessel on a per voyage basis. Our method of calculating TCE is consistent with industry standards and is determined by dividing revenue generated from voyage charters net of voyage expenses by available days for the relevant time period.

Voyage expenses primarily consist of port, canal and fuel costs that are unique to a particular voyage, which would otherwise be paid by the charterer under a time charter contract, as well as commissions. TCE is a standard shipping industry performance measure used primarily to compare period-to-period changes in a shipping company's performance despite changes in the mix of charter types (i.e., spot voyage charters, time charters and bareboat charters) under which the vessels may be employed between the periods.

(7) Daily vessel operating expenses, which includes crew costs, provisions, deck and engine stores, lubricating oil, insurance, maintenance and repairs are calculated by dividing vessel operating expenses by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

(8) Daily general and administrative expense is calculated by dividing general and administrative expense by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

(9) Total vessel operating expenses, or TVOE, is a measure of our total expenses associated with operating our vessels. TVOE is the sum of vessel operating expenses and general and administrative expenses. Daily TVOE is calculated by dividing TVOE by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

Adjusted EBITDA

EBITDA Reconciliation:

Euroseas Ltd. considers Adjusted EBITDA to represent net earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation, amortization and amortization of deferred revenues from above or below market time charters acquired. Adjusted EBITDA does not represent and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or cash flow from operations, as determined by United States generally accepted accounting principles, or U.S. GAAP, and our calculation of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to that reported by other companies. Adjusted EBITDA is included herein because it is a basis upon which we assess our financial performance and liquidity position and because we believe that it presents useful information to investors regarding a company's ability to service and/or incur indebtedness. The Company's definition of Adjusted EBITDA may not be the same as that used by other companies in the shipping or other industries.
