On August 26, 2008, KBR Technical Services, Inc and its parent company, KBR, Inc., entered into severance and change in control agreements with certain officers of KBR, including: Klaudia J. Brace, Senior Vice President, Administration; Dennis L. Calton, Executive Vice President, Operations; Timothy B. Challand, President, Technology; T. Kevin DeNicola, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; Andrew D. Farley, Senior Vice President and General Counsel; John W. Gann, Jr., Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer; Thomas Mumford, Senior Vice President, Business Development Oversight; John W. Quinn, President, Downstream; John L. A copy of the form agreement is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The following summary of the terms of the form agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 10.1.

The agreement is effective August 26, 2008, and shall terminate automatically on the earlier of (i) the officer's termination of employment with KBR and its affiliates or (ii) in the event of a change in control during the term of the agreement, two years following the change in control.

The agreement provides for (i) severance termination benefits (prior to a change in control), (ii) double-trigger change in control termination benefits (on or after a change in control), and (iii) death, disability, and retirement benefits. As a condition of receipt of these benefits (other than the death and disability benefits), the officer must first execute a release and full settlement agreement. The agreement contains customary confidentiality, noncompetition, and nonsolicitation covenants, as well as a mandatory arbitration provision. In addition, the agreement contains a clawback provision that allows KBR to recover any benefits paid under the agreement if KBR determines within two years after the officer's termination of employment that the officer's employment could have been terminated for cause.

Both William P. Utt, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Bruce A. Stanski, President, Government and Infrastructure, have existing employment agreements and will remain subject to the terms of their existing employment agreements.
