Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On January 27, 2016, Media General, Inc., a Virginia corporation (“Media General”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Nexstar Broadcasting Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Nexstar”) and Neptune Merger Sub, Inc., a Virginia corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Nexstar (“Merger Sub”), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Media General (the “Merger”), with Media General surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Nexstar.

Transaction Structure

In the Merger, each share of Media General common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be converted into the right to receive (i) $10.55 in cash, without interest (the “Cash Consideration”) and (ii) 0.1249 of a share of Nexstar Class A common stock (the “Stock Consideration”). In addition, the terms of the Merger Agreement contemplate additional consideration to Media General shareholders in the form of a non-transferable contingent value right (“CVR”) for each Media General share. The CVR will entitle Media General shareholders to net cash proceeds as received from the sale of Media General's spectrum in the Federal Communication Commission's upcoming spectrum auction (the “FCC auction”), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement and the CVR agreement, the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 (the CVRs, together with the Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”). Depending on the timing of the FCC auction, the CVR may be issued before or at the time of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides that each unvested Media General stock option outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will become fully vested and will be converted into an option to purchase Nexstar Class A common stock, in the same amount and at the same price as provided in the underlying Media General stock option, adjusted to account for the Cash Consideration and the exchange ratio for the Stock Consideration. Additionally, unless the CVR has been issued prior to the effective time of the Merger, holders of Media General stock options will also be entitled to receive one CVR for each share subject to the Media General stock option immediately prior to the effective time. All other equity-based awards of Media General outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will vest in full and be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Governance

Following the Merger, Nexstar will increase the size of its board of directors from seven to nine directors and designate two current members of the Media General board of directors to serve as directors Nexstar (currently expected to be Dennis FitzSimons and John Muse).

Immediately following the Merger, the director of Merger Sub serving immediately prior to the Merger shall be the director of the Surviving Corporation and the officers of Merger Sub serving immediately prior to the Merger shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation.

Non-Solicit

Both parties have agreed, among other things, (i) not to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and (ii) subject to certain exceptions, not to engage in any discussions or negotiations with any third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals.

Prior to the time that Media General receives the necessary shareholder vote, (i) the Media General board of directors may, upon receipt of a bona fide acquisition proposal, contact the person making the acquisition proposal to clarify the terms and conditions thereof and if the Media General board of directors determines in its good faith business judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer in accordance with the Merger Agreement, and, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take certain actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Media General board of directors' fiduciary duties to Media General's shareholders under applicable law, then Media General may furnish information with respect to Media General and its subsidiaries to the person making the acquisition proposal and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person regarding such proposal; (ii) Media General may, subject to compliance with certain obligations set forth in the Merger Agreement, including the payment of a termination fee to Nexstar and customary notice and matching rights in favor of Nexstar, terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a bona fide acquisition proposal that constitutes a superior proposal in accordance with the Merger Agreement; and (iii) the Media General board of directors may change its recommendation to the Media General shareholders regarding adopting the Merger Agreement (x) in response to an intervening event if the Media General board of directors determines in its good faith business judgment after consultation with its outside counsel that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Media General's shareholders under applicable law, or (y) if the Media General board of directors determines in its good faith business judgment after consultation with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that a bona fide acquisition propose constitutes a superior offer in accordance with the Merger Agreement, subject in each case to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Nexstar.

Prior to the time that Nexstar receives the necessary Nexstar shareholder vote, (i) the Nexstar board of directors may, upon receipt of a bona fide acquisition proposal, contact the person making the acquisition proposal to clarify the terms and conditions thereof and if the Nexstar board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consulting with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior offer in accordance with the Merger Agreement, and, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to take certain actions would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Nexstar board of directors' fiduciary duties to Nexstar's shareholders under applicable law, then Nexstar may furnish information with respect to Nexstar and its subsidiaries to the person making the acquisition proposal and participate in discussions or negotiations with such person regarding such proposal, and (ii) the Nexstar board of directors may change its recommendation to the Nexstar shareholders regarding approval of the proposed transactions (x) in response to an intervening event if the Nexstar board of directors determines in good faith after consultation with its outside counsel that the failure to do so would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Nexstar's shareholders under applicable law, or (y) if the Nexstar board of directors determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel and a nationally recognized third-party financial advisor, that a bona fide acquisition proposal constitutes a superior offer in accordance with the Merger Agreement, subject in each case to customary notice and matching rights in favor of Media General.

Subject to the parties' rights to terminate the Merger Agreement, including Media General's right to terminate the Merger Agreement as described above, each party has agreed to submit the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, as applicable, to a vote of its shareholders for approval notwithstanding any change in recommendation by its board of directors.

Conditions to the Merger

The consummation of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain customary conditions, including, among others: (i) the receipt of approval from the Federal Communications Commission and the expiration or early termination of the waiting period applicable to the Merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (ii) the absence of certain legal impediments to the consummation of the Merger, (iii) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of Media General, (iv) the approval by the shareholders of Nexstar of certain actions in connection with the Mergers, (v) the effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-4 registering the Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger, (vi) the listing of the Nexstar Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and (vii) the receipt of certain third-party consents.

Other Terms of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants for a transaction of this nature. The Merger Agreement also contains customary mutual pre-closing covenants, including the obligation of Nexstar and Media General to conduct their respective businesses in all material respects in the ordinary course and to refrain from taking certain specified actions without the consent of the other party.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Nexstar and Media General. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specific circumstances, Media General will be required to pay Nexstar a termination fee. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in connection with Media General entering into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal, as well as under certain other circumstances, the termination fee payable by Media General to Nexstar will be $80 million. If the Merger Agreement is terminated because the required Media General shareholder vote is not obtained at a shareholder meeting duly held for such purpose, the amount of the termination fee payable by Media General to Nexstar will be $20 million. The Merger Agreement also provides that Nexstar will be required to pay a termination fee to Media General of $80 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances and a termination fee of $20 million if the required Nexstar shareholder vote is not obtained at a shareholder meeting duly held for such purpose.

In addition to the foregoing termination rights, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated on or before January 27, 2017, with an automatic extension to April 27, 2017, if necessary to obtain regulatory approval under circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this report as Exhibit 2.1 and which is incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Media General or Nexstar. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in confidential Disclosure Letters provided by each of Media General and Nexstar to the other in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. These confidential Disclosure Letters contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties and certain covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purposes of allocating risk between Media General and Nexstar rather than establishing matters as facts. In addition, investors are not third party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement should not be relied on as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Media General or Nexstar.

Voting Agreement

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, Nexstar, Media General and Media General shareholders holding approximately 8.8% of the issued and outstanding shares of Media General common stock entered into a voting and support agreement (the “Support Agreement”). The Support Agreement generally requires that the shareholders party thereto vote their Media General common stock in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and take certain other actions in furtherance of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Support Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Support Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and which is incorporated herein by reference.
