Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On August 18, 2016, The NASDAQ Stock Market (“NASDAQ”) granted Prism Technologies Group, Inc. (the “Company”) an additional 180 calendar days, or until February 13, 2017, to regain compliance with the $1.00 per share minimum bid requirement for continued listing on the NASDAQ Capital Market (the “Minimum Bid Price Rule”).

As previously reported, on February 17, 2016, NASDAQ notified the Company that the bid price of the Company’s common stock had closed below the $1.00 per share minimum for 30 consecutive days. The Company was provided 180 calendar days, or until August 15, 2016, to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Rule. The Company, however, was unable to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Rule by August 15, 2016. The NASDAQ determination to grant the second compliance period was based on the Company meeting all applicable requirements for continued listing on the NASDAQ Capital Market, with the exception of the bid price requirement, and the Company’s written notice of its intention to cure the deficiency during the second compliance period by effecting a reverse stock split, if necessary.

To regain compliance, the bid price of the Company’s common stock must close at or above $1.00 per share for a minimum of ten consecutive business days at any time during the second 180-day compliance period. The Company intends to monitor the closing bid price of its common stock and may consider implementing available options, including submitting a reverse stock split for approval by the Company’s stockholders, to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Rule. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company will be able to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Rule or maintain compliance with the other listing requirements necessary for the Company to maintain the listing of its common stock on the NASDAQ Capital Market.

The Notice has no effect on the listing of the Company’s common stock at this time and the Company’s common stock will continue to trade on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol “PRZM.”
