Item 8.01. Other Events.

On March 7, 2014, Northfield Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) announced that it had effectively completed its initial repurchase program, and that its Board of Directors had adopted a second repurchase program. Under the new repurchase program, the Company may repurchase up to 2,886,312 shares of its common stock, or approximately 5% of the to-be outstanding shares following the completion of the initial repurchase program.

The repurchase program permits shares to be repurchased in open market or private transactions, through block trades, and pursuant to any trading plan that may be adopted in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The repurchase program may be suspended, terminated or modified at any time for any reason, including market conditions, the cost of repurchasing shares, the availability of alternative investment opportunities, liquidity, and other factors deemed appropriate. These factors may also affect the timing and amount of share repurchases. The Company is not obligated to purchase any particular number of shares.
