Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On July 20, 2010, Thomas W. Horton was elected President of AMR Corporation (“AMR”) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, American Airlines, Inc. (“American”), effective July 22, 2010. Gerard J. Arpey, who has served as AMR’s and American’s President and Chief Executive Officer since April 2003 and Chairman since May 2004, continues to serve as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of AMR and American. Previously, Mr. Horton, age 49, served as Executive Vice President of Finance and Planning and Chief Financial Officer of AMR and American since March 2006, when he returned to American from AT&T Corp., a telecommunications company, where he had been Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer. Prior to leaving for AT&T Corp., Mr. Horton was Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of AMR and American from January 2000 to 2002. From June 1994 to January 2000, Mr. Horton served as a Vice President of American and prior to that served in various management positions of American beginning in 1985.

Also, Isabella D. Goren was elected Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of AMR and American and will be the principal accounting officer of each, effective July 22, 2010. Ms. Goren, age 50, previously served as American’s Senior Vice President of Customer Relationship Marketing and Reservations since March 2006. Prior to that position, she served as American’s Vice President – Interactive Marketing and Reservations from July 2003 to March 2006, Vice President – Customer Services Planning from October 1998 to June 2003, and President of AMR Services, a former subsidiary of AMR, from September 1996 to October 1998. Prior to that, Ms. Goren served in various management positions of American beginning in 1986.
