Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On March 7, AMREP Corporation (the "Company") notified Arthur Andersen LLP ("Andersen") that the Company would change its external auditors to McGladrey & Pullen LLP for its fiscal year ending April 30, 2002. Andersen and its predecessor partnership had been the independent auditor for the Company since 1981.

Prior to such notification, the Company did not consult with McGladrey &

Pullen LLP regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction or any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event. The Company also did not consult with McGladrey & Pullen LLP regarding the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

The reports of Andersen on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended April 30, 2001 and 2000 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. In connection with its audits for the fiscal years ended April 30, 2001 and 2000 and the subsequent interim period preceding the Company's notification to Andersen of its intention to dismiss such firm, there has been no disagreements with Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure that, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Andersen, would have caused such firm to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report.

The Company's Audit Committee participated in and approved the decision to change the Company's external auditors and the Board made the appointment.

The Company has requested that Andersen furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements.
