CURRENT REPORT

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 3, 2007, Visa Inc. (“Visa”) announced that it had completed restructuring transactions in preparation for its initial public offering (“IPO”). As part of this restructuring, Capital City Bank Group, Inc. (“CCBG”), as a member of Visa U.S.A. Inc. (“Visa U.S.A.”), will receive its proportionate share of Class USA shares of Visa common stock. In filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), Visa stated that it expects to apply a portion of the proceeds from its IPO to fund an escrow account to cover certain litigation judgments and settlements (the “Covered Litigation”), including a lawsuit by American Express Co. (“American Express”) and Discover Financial Services (“Discover”), and may conduct follow-on offerings to increase the size of the escrow account.

On November 7, 2007, Visa announced that it had reached a settlement regarding the litigation with American Express. On December 21, 2007, Visa filed its annual report on Form 10-K in which it disclosed that it recorded a litigation reserve for the litigation with Discover.

Visa U.S.A. believes that its member banks are required to indemnify Visa U.S.A. for potential losses arising from the Covered Litigation. Although CCBG has not accepted the Visa U.S.A.’s assertions, CCBG has determined that it is required to recognize certain contingent obligations. While the estimation of any potential losses related to the Covered Litigation is highly speculative, based on Visa’s announced settlement with American Express and its recorded reserve for the Discover litigation, CCBG will recognize, in its fourth quarter financial statements, a charge of approximately $992,000, or $0.03 per diluted common share to recognize the contingent liability related to the American Express and Discover lawsuits.

In the event the IPO occurs, Visa has stated in its filings with the SEC that Visa’s escrow account discussed above will be used to pay the Covered Litigation judgments and settlements. Thus, provided that the escrow account has sufficient funds, the liability recorded on CCBG’s books would no longer be required.

At this time, with respect to the remaining Covered Litigation, CCBG does not know the probable outcome of such litigation and cannot reasonably estimate a range of loss. CCBG will continue to monitor both the litigation and Visa’s proposed IPO, and will properly reflect these activities in its financial statements, when and if appropriate.
