Prior to the appointments described above, Mr. Sheahan served as Chief Financial Officer of the Company and Rockland Trust and Mr. Jensen served as Controller and Principal Accounting Officer of the Company and Rockland Trust.

The term of office for each officer of the Company continues until the first meeting of the Company's Board of Directors following the next annual meeting of the Company's shareholders and/or until his earlier termination, retirement, resignation, death, removal, or disqualification. The term of office for each executive officer of Rockland Trust continues until their termination, retirement, resignation, death, removal, or disqualification.

In connection with these officer appointments the Company and/or Rockland Trust amended and restated pre-existing employment agreements with Mr. Sheahan and Mr. Jankowski and, entered into new employment agreements with Mr. Cozzone and Mr. Jensen. Mr. Sheahan's and Mr. Jankowski's revised employment agreements reflect their new titles, base salaries, and certain updates necessary or advisable to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

The new employment agreements entered into with Mr. Cozzone and Mr. Jensen provide for annual base salaries as specified in each agreement, as well as benefits on the same basis as other similarly situated executives, including eligibility to participate in the Company's Executive Incentive Compensation Plan and any modification of the Rockland Trust Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. Each of these agreements is terminable at will by either party and contains the Company's standard provisions for executive officers with respect to severance and other benefits upon certain termination events, as described in the section titled "Executive Officer Employment Agreements" contained in the Company's Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 26, 2013. Each new employment agreement also contains a one year post-employment nonsolicitation obligation. An executive who breaches this covenant forfeits any future payments or benefits.
