Preliminary Statement

This Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D includes disclosures about a nonbinding letter of intent (the Letter of Intent), attached to this Schedule as Exhibit 99.1, entered into by Bravo! Foods International Corp. (Bravo) and Coca-Cola Enterprises Inc. (CCE) on July 29, 2005. The Letter of Intent describes the parties' current understanding with respect to a proposed transaction in which CCE would possibly: (i) acquire approximately 50.01% of the issued and outstanding shares of Bravo (on a fully diluted basis), to be accomplished through (1) the exercise of the Options (defined below) (and the subsequent exercise or conversion of derivative securities that are covered by the Options) and (2) purchase of shares directly from Bravo; and (ii) enter into a master distribution agreement with Bravo.

This Schedule relates to 68,990,244 shares of the common stock, $0.001 per share (the Common Stock) of Bravo. CCE may acquire the Common Stock upon the exercise of separate options (the Options) granted by the shareholders of Bravo identified under Item 6 of this Schedule to CCE on July 13, 2005, pursuant to Stock Option Agreements (the Option Agreements) attached to this Schedule as Exhibit 99(a)-(i).

Item 1. Security and Issuer

Common Stock, $0.001 par value

Bravo! Foods International Corp
11300 US Highway 1, Suite 202
North Palm Beach, Florida 33408.

Item 2. Identity and Background

The person filing this statement is CCE, a corporation organized under Delaware law. The principal business of CCE is marketing, selling, manufacturing and distributing nonalcoholic beverages. The address of its principal business and its principal place of business is 2500 Windy Ridge Parkway, Atlanta, Georgia 30339.

Edgar Filing: BRAVO FOODS INTERNATIONAL CORP - Form SC 13D/A

The name, residence or business address, principal occupation or employment of each of the executive officers and directors of CCE are set forth on Schedule A hereto.

Neither CCE nor any of the individuals identified on Schedule A hereto has, during the last five years, been convicted in a criminal proceeding or been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding, become subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities law or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds and Other Consideration

The source of funds that were used to acquire the Options, and the funds that would be used to exercise the Options, has been, or will be, as the case may be, the general corporate funds of CCE. The cost of the Options purchased is $17,247.56; assuming all are exercised, the cost of exercise would be $24,836,487.84. The cost to acquire 81,030,000 shares of Common Stock, the minimum number of shares of Common Stock that would be acquired according to the Letter of Intent, would not exceed $13,163,323.50.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

On June 13, 2005, CCE purchased the Options to buy approximately 68,990,244 shares of common stock, or common stock equivalents in the form of convertible securities and warrants, from nine shareholders of Bravo. On July 29, 2005, Bravo and CCE entered into the nonbinding Letter of Intent reflecting their understanding that CCE would acquire 81,030,000 shares of Common Stock or such larger number of shares necessary to achieve 50.01% ownership of the issued and outstanding Common Stock (on a fully diluted basis) at a price not to exceed $0.16245 per share in a private placement from Bravo.

The Letter of Intent also states that CCE is negotiating with the management of Bravo for master distribution rights for Bravo's products.

The exercise of the Options is dependent on the satisfactory completion of due diligence and reaching agreement on the terms of the distribution and share purchase agreements. CCE has not yet decided whether to exercise the Options, even if these conditions to their exercise are satisfied. It is anticipated that CCE's total investment would be approximately $38 million upon exercise of the Options and the purchase of common shares from Bravo.

While CCE's rights under the Option Agreements may be assigned to The Coca-Cola Company, an affiliate of CCE or of The Coca-Cola Company, or to a joint venture formed by any of them, CCE has no current intention to effect any such assignment.

The distribution agreement and the definitive acquisition agreement are currently under negotiation, and there is no assurance that agreement will be reached with respect to any of these documents.

Even if CCE exercises the Options, it cannot predict whether or not it would subsequently decide to acquire any issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock not covered by the Options.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

As a result of the grant of the Options on June 13, 2005, CCE beneficially owns 68,990,244 shares of Common Stock computed in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which represents approximately 52.23% of the outstanding Common Stock. CCE does not beneficially own any shares other than those subject to the Options.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to the Securities of the Issuer

The Option Agreements with the Bravo shareholders listed below give CCE the option to purchase up to 68,990,244 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price per share of $0.36. The Options will terminate upon the earliest to occur of: (1) the written mutual agreement of the parties to an Option Agreement to terminate an Option, (2) August 31, 2005, or (3) the delivery of written notice of termination of negotiations with respect to a distribution agreement for Bravo's products.

The Option Agreements, by their terms, may be exercised only if CCE, The Coca-Cola Company, or an affiliate of either of them has entered into a definitive distribution agreement and share purchase agreement, described above under Item 4. It is the current intention that the Options would be exercised, if at all, by CCE or one of its affiliates. The Options, if exercised, must be exercised in their entirety and all at once.

The table below lists the Bravo shareholders with whom CCE has entered into Option Agreements and the number of shares of Common Stock subject to options granted by each such shareholder and whether held in the form of Common Stock, convertible notes, convertible preferred stock or warrants.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

Edgar Filing: BRAVO FOODS INTERNATIONAL CORP - Form SC 13D/A

Name	Number of Shares of Common Stock Subject To Option
	Common Stock	Convertible Notes	Convertible Preferred Stock	Warrants

Osher Capital Inc.		800,000

The Letter of Intent reflects the fact that CCE and Bravo are discussing a proposed transaction in which CCE would possibly: (i) acquire approximately 50.01% of the issued and outstanding shares of Bravo (on a fully diluted basis), to be accomplished through (1) the exercise of the Options (and the subsequent exercise or conversion of derivative securities that are covered by the Options) and (2) purchase of shares directly from Bravo; and (ii) enter into a master distribution agreement with Bravo.

In addition to the shares of Common Stock subject to the Options, CCE would purchase 81,030,000 shares of Common Stock or such larger number of shares necessary to achieve 50.01% ownership of the issued and outstanding Common Stock (on a fully diluted basis) at a price not to exceed $0.16245 per share in a private placement from Bravo.

Bravo would enter into a master distribution agreement with CCE (the Distribution Agreement), granting CCE distribution rights throughout North America and other territories in which CCE is licensed to bottle products of The Coca-Cola Company for all existing and future products of Bravo during the term of the Distribution Agreement.

As a binding term of the Letter of Intent, CCE has agreed that if it discontinues negotiations with respect to the proposed transaction, then from that date for a period of one year thereafter, CCE shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in a tender offer; proxy contest, merger proposal or other means of seeking control of Bravo, other than pursuant to a transaction which is approved by the Board of Directors of Bravo.
