ITEM 2.01

COMPLETION OF ACQUISITION OR DISPOSAL OF ASSETS

As previously disclosed in our Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended April 30, 2009, on June 4, 2009, Navistar International Corporation (“Navistar”), through its wholly owned subsidiary Workhorse International Holding Company, completed the acquisition of certain assets of Monaco Coach Corporation (“Monaco”) for cash consideration of approximately $45 million. Navistar funded the purchase price with cash on hand. Monaco filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy relief March 5, 2009 in the District of Delaware and the transaction was consummated following court approval. Under the terms of the asset purchase agreement, Navistar acquired five manufacturing facilities, intellectual property and trademarks and certain inventory. Daniel C. Ustian, Navistar’s Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer was on the board of directors of Monaco and recused himself from any vote related to the transaction. Navistar and Monaco have a previous relationship through their joint venture, Custom Chassis Products LLC.

Forward Looking Statements

Information provided and statements contained in this report that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements only speak as of the date of this report and the Company assumes no obligation to update the information included in this report. Such forward-looking statements include information concerning our possible or assumed future results of operations, including descriptions of our business strategy. These statements often include words such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “estimate,” or similar expressions. These statements are not guarantees of performance or results and they involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. For a further description of these factors, see Item 1A, Risk Factors, of our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2008, which was filed on December 30, 2008, and Item 1A, Risk Factors, included within our Form 10-Q for the period ended April 30, 2009, which was filed on June 8, 2009. Although we believe that these forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, there are many factors that could affect our actual financial results or results of operations and could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. All future written and oral forward-looking statements by us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to above. Except for our ongoing obligations to disclose material information as required by the federal securities laws, we do not have any obligations or intention to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances in the future or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
