The Registrant is unable to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The reasons causing the Registrant's inability to file timely are beyond its control and could not be eliminated by the Registrant without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Registrant recently entered a reinsurance transaction for a substantial portion of its business. In addition, the Registrant has received an unqualified opinion from its Independent Accountant for the year ended December 31, 2001, having received a going concern stipulation in its report for the year ended December 31, 2000. Both circumstances required additional time to complete.

The Registrant will file the Form 10-K on or before the 15th calendar day following the prescribed due date.

- o the Registrant will report revenues of $382.4 million for 2001, a decrease of $10.9 million (or 2.8%) from revenues of $393.3 million for 2000, primarily as a result of the Registrant's cessation of new sales during 2001;
- o the Registrant is recognizing an expense in 2001 of $61.8 million as an impairment of deferred policy acquisition costs, resulting from an actuarial determination of the reduction in future profitability due to anticipated future charges arising from the reinsurance transaction referred to in Part III above; and
- o the Registrant will report a net loss of $48.6 million for 2001, a decrease of $71.3 million (or 314%) from net income of $22.8 million for 2000, primarily attributable to cessation of new sales during 2001 and the impairment expense referred to above.
