BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Corporation's directors, executive officers and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Corporation's equity securities to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock of the Corporation. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Corporation with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Corporation's knowledge, based solely on review of copies of such reports furnished to the Corporation and written representations that no other such reports were required, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were complied with except that C. Carter Walker, Jr., a director of the Corporation, filed late with the SEC two Form 4's for fiscal 2004 relating to two sales of Common Stock.

VOTING PROCEDURES

The election of directors requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to so vote. Shares of Common Stock represented by proxies which are marked "withhold authority" with respect to the election of any one or more nominees for election as director will not be voted with respect to the nominee or nominees so indicated. The ratification of the selection of independent auditors of the Corporation requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to so vote. Shares of Common Stock represented by proxies which are marked "abstain" with respect to this matter will be counted for the purpose of determining the number of shares present and entitled to vote, and shall therefore have the same effect as if the shares represented thereby were voted against such matter. Broker non-votes (where a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner and such nominee does not possess or choose to exercise his discretionary authority with respect thereto) will be treated as present but not entitled to vote at the Meeting for the purpose of determining the number of votes needed with respect to each item to be voted upon, and shall therefore have no effect on such vote.

PROPOSAL 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors recommends the election of five directors to hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. If any nominee for director is unable or declines to serve, for any reason not now foreseen, the discretionary authority provided in the proxy will be exercised to vote for a substitute. All the nominees have consented to become directors and all were elected at the last Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Duly authorized proxies for Common Stock will be voted for the election of Mr. Donald G. Calder, Mr. Jay R. Inglis, Mr. Dudley D. Johnson, Mr. Wilmot H. Kidd and Mr. C. Carter Walker, Jr.

The address of each nominee is c/o Central Securities Corporation, 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, 10111.

The Board of Directors held ten regular meetings in 2004. All directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of the committees on which they served. The Board of Directors maintains an Audit Committee and a Nominating Committee. Both the Audit Committee and the Nominating Committee consist of Messrs. Calder, Inglis, Johnson and Walker, each of whom are independent as defined in Section 121(A) of the American Stock Exchange's listing standards and none of whom are "interested persons" as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The Board of Directors does not have a Compensation Committee.

The Nominating Committee met once during 2004. This committee is responsible for the review and recommendation of candidates for the Board of Directors. The committee operates subject to a charter which may be viewed on the Corporation's website at www.centrasecurities.com. The Nominating Committee will consider director nominee recommendations by stockholders provided the names of such nominees, accompanied by relevant biographical information, are submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. Any such recommendation must be accompanied by a written statement from the individual of his or her consent to be named as a candidate and, if nominated and elected, to serve as a director.

In making its recommendations, the Nominating Committee identifies candidates who meet the current needs of the Board. The Nominating Committee does not have any specific minimum qualifications that must be met by a nominee. The Nominating Committee considers, among other things, an individual's judgment, background and experience including business experience, industry experience, and financial background. The Nominating Committee also considers whether the individual meets the independence requirements of the American Stock Exchange and whether the individual would be considered an "interested person" under the Investment Company Act of 1940. With respect to nomination of continuing directors, the individual's past service to the Board is also considered. In addition, the Nominating Committee is guided by the following criteria: each Director should have integrity and the ability to work constructively with others; each Director should have sufficient time available to devote to the affairs of the Corporation in order to carry out the responsibilities of a Director; and each director should be free of any conflict which would interfere with the proper performance of the responsibilities of a Director. There are no differences in the manner in which the Nominating Committee evaluates nominees for directors if the nominee is recommended by a stockholder.

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors by overseeing the accounting and financial reporting process of the Corporation and the audits of its financial statements. It operates subject to a charter which has been reviewed by the Audit Committee and approved and adopted by the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee met four times during 2004.

Stockholders may send written communications to any member of the Board of Directors c/o Corporate Secretary, Central Securities Corporation, 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, 10111. All communications will be compiled by the Corporate Secretary and submitted to the director.

Each of the Corporation's directors is encouraged to attend the annual meeting of stockholders in person. All of the Corporation's directors attended the Corporation's 2004 Annual Meeting.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee has reviewed the audited financial statements of the Corporation for the year ended December 31, 2004, and has met with management and KPMG LLP, the Corporation's independent auditors, to discuss the audited financial statements.

In connection with its review, the Audit Committee has also discussed with KPMG LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61.

Based on its review and discussions with management and KPMG LLP, the

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL SECURITIES CORP - Form DEF 14A

Each member of the Audit Committee and the Nominating Committee is paid $1,000 for each Committee meeting attended. Directors are reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings.

Profit Sharing Plan

For the year ended 2004, the Corporation contributed 15% of employee compensation to the Profit Sharing Plan, subject to Internal Revenue Code limitations. Generally, all salaried employees of the Corporation are eligible to participate in the Plan. The Plan provides for contributions by the Corporation from its profits of up to 25% of an employee's compensation. The vested contributions credited to an employee's account are payable at normal (age 65), early, or disability retirement, death or other termination of employment and may be paid in various forms, including a lump sum cash payment or a monthly annuity. The officers referred to above are fully vested in all contributions to the Plan.

Employees may withdraw the amounts of any voluntary contributions made prior to 1991 and may, under certain conditions, withdraw or borrow against vested Corporation contributions. Under the Plan, each employee is permitted to invest the assets in his account in the capital stock of one or more regulated investment companies from a selection provided from time to time by the Plan Administrator. Such regulated investment companies include, among others, U.S. Treasury funds; short-term, government and international bond funds; and general and specialized stock funds.

AUDIT FEES

During the last two fiscal years, the Corporation engaged KPMG LLP for its services as follows:

	2004	2003

(2) Includes fees for services performed with respect to tax compliance and tax planning.

Pursuant to its charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for recommending the selection, approving compensation and overseeing the independence, qualifications and performance of the independent accountants. The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent accountants. In assessing requests for services by the independent accountants, the Audit Committee considers whether such services are consistent with the auditor's independence; whether the independent accountants are likely to provide the most effective and efficient service based upon their familiarity with the Corporation; and whether the service could enhance the Corporation's ability to manage or control risk or improve audit quality. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. Any pre-approvals by a member under this delegation are to be reported to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

All of the audit and tax services provided by KPMG LLP in fiscal year 2004 (described in the footnotes to the table above) and related fees were approved in advance by the Audit Committee.

PROPOSAL 2. RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Stockholders are invited to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP as independent auditors of the Corporation for the year 2005. KPMG LLP has no direct or material indirect financial interest in the Corporation other than its employment in such capacity.

At a meeting held January 26, 2005, a majority of the directors who were not "interested persons" (as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940) selected KPMG LLP to act as auditors for the Corporation during 2005. A representative of KPMG LLP is not expected to be present at the Corporation's Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR this selection.
