5.03.

On July 23, 2009, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Mettler-Toledo International Inc. (the “Company”) approved certain amendments to the Amended By-laws of the Company (the “By-laws”), effective immediately.

The advance notice provisions in Article I, Sections 10-11 of the By-laws were amended to provide, among other things, that: (i) stockholders must generally give the Company notice of a stockholder proposal or director nomination 90 to 120 days before the anniversary date of the previous year’s annual meeting (the old provision generally required notice 60 to 90 days in advance of the annual meeting), subject to extension under certain circumstances; (ii) proposing stockholders must disclose additional information about themselves and any other interested parties, including information about hedging or derivative transactions with respect to the Company’s securities; (iii) if the size of the Board is expanded, stockholders will, under certain circumstances, have additional time to provide notice of their director nomination; (iv) the advance notice provisions do not apply to stockholder proposals made pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; (v) the postponement or adjournment of a meeting does not restart or extend the period for giving notice; and (vi) a stockholder proposing business or nominating a person for director must appear at meeting in person or by proxy.

The provisions in Article I, Section 2 of the By-laws relating to stockholder requests for special meetings were amended to provide, among other things, that: (i) a meeting must be set for between 90 and 100 days after the date of a properly made stockholder request; (ii) stockholders requesting special meetings should disclose the same information as that required by the advance notice provisions and must comply with certain form and delivery requirements; and (iii) stockholders requesting a special meeting must appear at that meeting in person or by proxy to present a proposal.

The foregoing description of the amendments does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of (i) the prior By-laws, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3.2 to the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K dated February 16, 2007 and incorporated herein by reference, and (ii) the By-laws as amended and restated on July 23, 2009, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
