Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On May 7, 2001, WidePoint Corporation (the "Company") determined that the firm of Arthur Andersen LLP ("AA") would no longer serve as the Company's independent accounting firm. AA had served in that capacity since 1996. The Company decided that a change in its independent accounting firm would be appropriate.

During the years ended December 31, 1999 and 2000, there were no disagreements between the Company and AA on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of AA, would have been referred to in their reports. AA's reports on the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 1999 and 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

The decision to change independent accountants was approved by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

Attached as an exhibit to this Form 8-K is a letter from AA indicating their agreement or disagreement with the statements made by the Company in this Form 8-K.

On May 7, 2001, the Company engaged the independent accounting firm of Grant Thornton LLP ("Grant Thornton") to serve as its new auditors.

During the years ended December 31, 1999 and 2000 and the subsequent interim period, the Company did not consult with Grant Thornton regarding either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Form 8-K) or a reportable event (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Form 8-K).

The decision to engage of Grant Thornton was approved by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.
