SUMMARY

This prospectus relates to one offering of Securities. The purchaser of any offering will acquire a Security linked to a single Underlying Stock.

The following summary does not contain all the information that may be important to you. You should read this summary together with the more detailed information that is contained in the related Pricing Supplement and in its accompanying Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement. You should carefully consider, among other things, the matters set forth in "Risk Factors" in the related Pricing Supplement, which are summarized on page 5 of this document. In addition, we urge you to consult with your investment, legal, accounting, tax and other advisors with respect to any investment in the Securities.

What are the Securities?

The Securities are interest paying, non-principal protected securities issued by us, ABN AMRO Bank N.V., and are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by our parent company, ABN AMRO Holding N.V. The Securities are senior notes of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. These Securities combine certain features of debt and equity by offering a fixed interest rate on the principal amount while the payment at maturity is determined based on the performance of the Underlying Stock to which it is linked.

What will I receive at maturity of the Securities?

The payment at maturity of each Security will depend on (i) whether or not the closing price of the Underlying Stock to which such Security is linked fell below the knock-in level on any trading day during the Knock-in Period, and if so, (ii) the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock on the determination date. To determine closing prices, we look at the prices quoted by the relevant exchange.

If the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock on the relevant exchange has not fallen below the applicable knock-in level on any trading day during the Knock-in Period, we will pay you the principal amount of each Security in cash.

If the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock on the relevant exchange has fallen below the applicable knock-in level on any trading day during the Knock-in Period, we will either:

deliver to you the applicable stock redemption amount, in exchange for each Security, in the event that the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock is below the applicable initial price on the determination date; or pay you the principal amount of each Security in cash, in the event that the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock is at or above the applicable initial price on the determination date.

If due to events beyond our reasonable control, as determined by us in our sole discretion, shares of the Underlying Stock are not available for delivery at maturity we may pay you, in lieu of the Stock Redemption Amount, the cash value of the Stock Redemption Amount, determined by multiplying the Stock Redemption Amount by the Closing Price of the Underlying Stock on the Determination Date.

Why is the interest rate on the Securities higher than the interest rate payable on your conventional debt securities with the same maturity?

The Securities offer a higher interest rate than the yield that would be payable on a conventional debt security with the same maturity issued by us or an issuer with a comparable credit rating. This is because you, the investor in the Securities, indirectly sell a put option to us on the shares of the applicable Underlying Stock. The premium due to you for this put option is combined with a market interest rate on our senior debt to produce the higher interest rate on the Securities.

What are the consequences of the indirect put option that I have sold you?

The put option you indirectly sell to us creates the feature of exchangeability. If the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock on the relevant exchange falls below the applicable Knock-In Level on any trading day during the Knock-In Period, and on the Determination Date the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock is less than the applicable Initial Price, you will receive the applicable Stock Redemption Amount. The market value of the shares of such Underlying Stock at the time you receive those shares will be less than the principal amount of the Securities and could be zero. Therefore you are not guaranteed to receive any return of principal at maturity.

How is the Stock Redemption Amount determined?

The Stock Redemption Amount for each $1,000 principal amount of any Security is equal to $1,000 divided by the Initial Price of the Underlying Stock linked to such Security. The value of any fractional shares of such Underlying Stock that you are entitled to receive, after aggregating your total holdings of the Securities linked to such Underlying Stock, will be paid in cash based on the closing price of such Underlying Stock on the Determination Date.

What interest payments can I expect on the Securities?

The interest rate is fixed at issue and is payable in cash on each interest payment date, irrespective of whether the Securities are redeemed at maturity for cash or shares.

Can you give me an example of the payment at maturity?

If, for example, in a hypothetical offering, the interest rate was 10% per annum, the initial price of a share of underlying stock was $45.00 and the knock-in level for such offering was 80%, then the stock redemption amount would be 22.222 shares of underlying stock, or $1,000 divided by $45.00, and the knock-in level would be $36.00, or 80% of the initial price.

If the closing price of that hypothetical underlying stock fell below the knock-in level of $36.00 on any trading day during the Knock-in Period, then the payment at maturity would depend on the closing price of the underlying stock on the determination date. In this case, if the closing price of the underlying stock on the determination date is $30.00 per share at maturity, which is below the initial price level, you would receive 22.222 shares of underlying stock for each $1,000 principal amount of the securities. (In actuality, because we cannot deliver fractions of a share, you would receive on the maturity date for each $1,000 principal amount of the securities 22 shares of underlying stock plus $6.66 cash in lieu of 0.222 fractional shares, determined by multiplying 0.222 by $30.00, the closing price per shares of underlying stock on the determination date.) In addition, over the life of the securities you would have received interest payments at a rate of 10% per annum. In this hypothetical example, the market value of those 22 shares of underlying stock (including the cash paid in lieu of fractional shares) that we would deliver to you at maturity for each $1,000 principal amount of security would be $666.66, which is less than the principal amount of $1,000, and you would have lost a portion of your initial investment. If, on the other hand, the closing price of the underlying stock on the determination date is $50.00 per share, which is above the initial price level, you will receive $1,000 in cash for each $1,000 principal amount of the securities regardless of the knock-in level having been breached. In addition, over the life of the Securities you would have received interest payments at a rate of 10% per annum.

Alternatively, if the closing price of the underlying stock never falls below $36.00, which is the knock-in level, on any trading day during the Knock-in Period, at maturity you will receive $1,000 in cash for each security you hold regardless of the closing price of the underlying stock on the determination date. In addition, over the life of the securities you would have received interest payments at a rate of 10% per annum.

This example is for illustrative purposes only and is based on a hypothetical offering. It is not possible to predict the closing price of any of the Underlying Stocks on the determination date or at any time during the life of the Securities. For each offering, we will set the Initial Price, Knock-In Level and Stock Redemption Amount on the Pricing Date.

Do I benefit from any appreciation in the Underlying Stock over the life of the Securities?

No. The amount paid at maturity for each $1,000 principal amount of the Securities will not exceed $1,000.

What if I have more questions?

You should read the "Description of Securities" in the related Pricing Supplement for a detailed description of the terms of the Securities. ABN AMRO has filed a registration statement (including a Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement) with the SEC for the offering to which this communication relates. Before you invest, you should read the Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement in that registration statement and other documents ABN AMRO has filed with the SEC for more complete information about ABN AMRO and the offering of the Securities. You may get these documents for free by visiting EDGAR on the SEC web site at www.sec.gov. Alternatively, ABN AMRO, any underwriter or any dealer participating in the offering will arrange to send you the Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement if you request it by calling toll free (888) 644-2048.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risks of the Securities to which this communication relates and whether these Securities are suited to your particular circumstances before deciding to purchase them. It is important that prior to investing in these Securities investors read the Pricing Supplement related to such Securities and the accompanying Prospectus and Prospectus Supplement to understand the actual terms of and the risks associated with the Securities. In addition, we urge you to consult with you investment, legal, accounting, tax and other advisors with respect to any investment in the Securities.

Credit Risk

The Securities are issued by ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and guaranteed by ABN AMRO Holding N.V., ABN AMRO's parent. As a result, investors in the Securities assume the credit risk of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and that of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. in the event that ABN AMRO defaults on its obligations under the Securities. Any obligations or Securities sold, offered, or recommended are not deposits on ABN AMRO Bank N.V. and are not endorsed or guaranteed by any bank or thrift, nor are they insured by the FDIC or any governmental agency.

Principal Risk

The Securities are not ordinary debt securities: they are not principal protected. In addition, if the closing price of the applicable Underlying Stock falls below the applicable Knock-In Level on any trading day during the Knock-In Period, investors in the Securities will be exposed to any decline in the price of the applicable Underlying Stock below the closing price of such Underlying Stock on the date the Securities were priced. Accordingly, you may lose some or all of your initial investment in the Securities.

Limited Return

The amount payable under the Securities will never exceed the original principal amount of the Securities plus the applicable aggregate fixed coupon payment investors earn during the term of the Securities. This means that you will not benefit from any price appreciation in the applicable Underlying Stock, nor will you receive dividends paid on the applicable Underlying Stock, if any. Accordingly, you will never receive at maturity an amount greater than a predetermined amount per Security, regardless of how much the price of the applicable Underlying Stock increases during the term of the Securities or on the Determination Date. The return of a Security may be significantly less than the return of a direct investment in the Underlying Stock to which the Security is linked during the term of the Security.

Liquidity Risk

ABN AMRO does not intend to list the Securities on any securities exchange. Accordingly, there may be little or no secondary market for the Securities and information regarding independent market pricing of the Securities may be limited. The value of the Securities in the secondary market, if any, will be subject to many unpredictable factors, including then prevailing market conditions.

It is important to note that many factors will contribute to the secondary market value of the Securities, and you may not receive your full principal back if the Securities are sold prior to maturity. Such factors include, but are not limited to, time to maturity, the price of the applicable Underlying Stock, volatility and interest rates.

In addition, the price, if any, at which we or another party are willing to purchase Securities in secondary market transactions will likely be lower than the issue price, since the issue price included, and secondary market prices are likely to exclude, commissions, discounts or mark-ups paid with respect to the Securities, as well as the cost of hedging our obligations under the Securities.

Tax Risk

Pursuant to the terms of the Knock-in Reverse Exchangeable Securities, we and every investor in the Securities agree to characterize the Securities as consisting of a Put Option and a Deposit of cash with the issuer. Under this characterization, a portion of the stated interest payments on each Security is treated as interest on the Deposit, and the remainder is treated as attributable to a sale by you of the Put Option to ABN AMRO (referred to as Put Premium). Receipt of the Put Premium will not be taxable upon receipt.

If the Put Option expires unexercised (i.e., a cash payment of the principal amount of the Securities is made to the investor at maturity), you will recognize short-term capital gain equal to the total Put Premium received. If the Put Option is exercised (i.e., the final payment on the Securities is paid in the applicable Underlying Stock), you will not recognize any gain or loss in respect of the Put Option, but your tax basis in the applicable Underlying Stock received will be reduced by the Put Premium received.

Significant aspects of the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Securities are uncertain, and no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will accept, or a court will uphold, the tax treatment described above.

This summary is limited to the federal tax issues addressed herein. Additional issues may exist that are not addressed in this summary and that could affect the federal tax treatment of the transaction. This tax summary was written in connection with the promotion or marketing by ABN AMRO Bank

N.V. and the placement agent of the Knock-in Reverse Exchangeable Securities, and it cannot be used by any investor for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be asserted against the investor under the Internal Revenue Code. You should seek your own advice based on their particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

On December 7, 2007, the U.S. Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service released a notice requesting comments on the U.S. federal income tax treatment of "prepaid forward contracts" and similar instruments. While it is not entirely clear whether the Securities are among the instruments described in the notice, it is possible that any Treasury regulations or other guidance issued after consideration of the issues raised in the notice could materially and adversely affect the tax consequences of ownership and disposition of the Securities, possibly on a retroactive basis.

The notice indicates that it is possible the IRS may adopt a new position with respect to how the IRS characterizes income or loss (including, for example, whether the option premium might be currently included as ordinary income) on the Securities for U.S. holders of the Securities.

You should consult your tax advisor regarding the notice and its potential implications for an investment in the Securities.

Table of ContentsRISK FACTORS

*In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement-prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption Forward-Looking Statements, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for adoption of the merger agreement.*

Risks Related To The Merger.You May Not Receive the Form of Merger Consideration that you Elect.

The merger agreement contains provisions that are designed to ensure that the actual form of merger consideration that each American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder will receive will be subject to proration so that 65% of the outstanding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock will be exchanged for shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock and 35% of the outstanding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock will be exchanged for cash. Therefore, if American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders elect to receive cash for more than 35% of the outstanding shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, the amount of cash that each such stockholder would receive from Investors Bancorp, Inc. will be reduced on a pro rata basis. Instead, these stockholders will receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock as consideration for any American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. shares for which they do not receive cash. Similarly, if American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders elect to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock for more than 65% of the outstanding shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., the amount of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock that each such stockholder would receive from Investors Bancorp, Inc. will be reduced on a pro rata basis. Instead, such stockholders will receive cash as consideration for any American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. shares for which they do not receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock. Accordingly, there is a risk that you will not receive a portion of the merger consideration in the form that you elect, which could result in, among other things, tax consequences that differ from those that would have resulted had you received the form of consideration you elected. In the event that by May 31, 2009, Investors Bancorp, Inc. has not received the required regulatory approvals to issue shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock in the Merger, Investors Bancorp, Inc. may elect to proceed with the Merger on an all cash basis and merge a newly created merger subsidiary with and into American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.

An American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder's allocation of the consideration to be received for his or her shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. may also be adjusted if the aggregate value of the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock to be delivered as of the effective time of the merger minus the amount of cash paid in lieu of fractional shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock (the Stock Value) is less than 42.5% of the sum of (i) the aggregate value of the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock and cash to be delivered as of the effective time of the merger, plus (ii) the value of any consideration described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(e)(1)(ii), plus (iii) cash paid to holders of dissenting shares, plus (iv) the value of any consideration paid by Investors Bancorp, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries (or any related person of either within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(e)(3)) to acquire shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock prior to the effective time of the merger (such sum, the Aggregate Value), then Investors Bancorp, Inc. may reduce the number of shares of outstanding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock entitled to receive cash, and correspondingly increase the number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock entitled to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock by the minimum amount necessary to cause the Stock Value to equal 42.5% of the Aggregate Value.

Table of ContentsYou May Not Receive the Value of Merger Consideration that You Anticipate.

The stock portion of the merger consideration is subject to a fixed exchange ratio, the value of which will depend upon the value of the common stock of Investors Bancorp, Inc. as of the closing of the transaction. The value of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock has fluctuated significantly over the last several months, as have the stocks of many financial services companies.

The following table shows trading information for American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock and Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock as of market close on December 12, 2008, March 13, 2009 and _____, 2009. December 12, 2008 was the last trading date before the parties announced the merger and March 13, 2009 was the last trading date before the parties announced the first amendment to the merger agreement. [date TBA] is a recent date before this proxy statement-prospectus was finalized.

Investors Bancorp, Inc. May Fail to Realize the Anticipated Benefits of the Merger.

The success of the merger will depend on, among other things, Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s ability to realize anticipated cost savings and to combine the businesses of Investors Savings and American Bank of New Jersey in a manner that permits growth opportunities and does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of American Bank of New Jersey nor result in decreased revenues resulting from any loss of customers. If Investors Bancorp, Inc. is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

Investors Bancorp, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. Certain employees of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. will not be employed by Investors Bancorp, Inc. after the merger. In addition, employees of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. that Investors Bancorp, Inc. wishes to retain may elect to terminate their employment as a result of the merger which could delay or disrupt the integration process. Risks About Investors Bancorp, Inc.

Our Liabilities Reprice Faster Than Our Assets and Future Increases in Interest Rates Will Reduce Our Profits.

Our ability to make a profit largely depends on our net interest income, which could be negatively affected by changes in interest rates. Net interest income is the difference between:

the interest income we earn on our interest-earning assets, such as loans and securities; and the interest expense we pay on our interest-bearing liabilities, such as deposits and borrowings.

The interest income we earn on our assets and the interest expense we pay on our liabilities are generally fixed for a contractual period of time. Our liabilities generally have shorter contractual maturities than our assets. This imbalance can create significant earnings volatility, because market interest rates change over time. In a period of rising interest rates, the interest income earned on our assets may not increase as rapidly as the interest paid on our liabilities. See Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Management of Market Risk.

In addition, changes in interest rates can affect the average life of loans and mortgage-backed and related securities. A reduction in interest rates causes increased prepayments of loans and mortgage-backed and related securities as borrowers refinance their debt to reduce their borrowing costs. This creates reinvestment risk, which is the risk that we may not be able to reinvest the funds from faster prepayments at rates that are comparable to the rates we earned on the prepaid loans or securities. Conversely, an increase in interest rates generally reduces prepayments. Additionally, increases in interest rates may decrease loan demand and/or make it more difficult for borrowers to repay adjustable-rate loans.

Changes in interest rates also affect the current market value of our interest-earning securities portfolio. Generally, the value of securities moves inversely with changes in interest rates. At December 31, 2008, the fair value of our total securities portfolio was $1.16 billion. Unrealized net losses on securities-available-for-sale are reported as a separate component of equity. To the extent interest rates increase and the value of our available-for-sale portfolio decreases, our stockholders' equity will be adversely affected.

We evaluate interest rate sensitivity using models that estimate the change in our net portfolio value over a range of interest rate scenarios. Net portfolio value is the discounted present value of expected cash flows from assets, liabilities and off-balance sheet contracts. At December 31, 2008, in the event of a 200 basis point increase in interest rates, whereby rates ramp up evenly over a twelve-month period, and assuming management took no action to mitigate the effect of such change, the model projects that we would experience a 5.9% or $10.6 million decrease in net interest income.

Because We Intend to Continue to Increase Our Commercial Originations, Our Lending Risk Will Increase.

At December 31, 2008, our portfolio of commercial real estate, multi-family and construction loans totaled $757.4 million, or 13.5% of our total loans. We intend to increase our originations of commercial real estate, multi-family and construction loans. In addition we recently began offering commercial and industrial (C&I) loans. Commercial real estate, multi-family, construction and C&I loans generally have more risk than one- to four-family residential mortgage loans. As the repayment of commercial real estate loans depends on the successful management and operation of the borrower's properties or related businesses, repayment of such loans can be affected by adverse conditions in the real estate market or the local economy. We anticipate that several of our borrowers will have more than one commercial real estate loan outstanding with us. Consequently, an adverse development with respect to one loan or one credit relationship can expose us to significantly greater risk of loss compared to an adverse development with respect to a one- to four-family residential mortgage loan. Finally, if we foreclose on a commercial real estate loan, our holding period for the collateral, if any, typically is longer than for one- to four-family residential mortgage loans because there are fewer potential purchasers of the collateral. Because we plan to continue to increase our originations of these loans, it may be necessary to increase the level of our allowance for loan losses because of the increased risk characteristics associated with these types of loans. Any such increase to our allowance for loan losses would adversely affect our earnings.

The Financial Sector Is Experiencing An Economic Downturn. A Deterioration of Our Current Non-performing Loans or An Increase In The Number of Non-performing Loans Will Have An Adverse Effect On Our Operations.

Both nationally and in the State of New Jersey we are experiencing an economic downturn that is having a significant impact on the prices of real estate and related assets. The residential and commercial real estate sectors have been adversely affected by weakening economic conditions and may negatively impact our loan portfolio. Total non-performing assets increased from $19.4 million at June 30, 2008 to $47.8 million at December 31, 2008, and total non-performing loans as a percentage of total assets increased to 0.67% at December 31, 2008 as compared to 0.30% at June 30, 2008. If loans that are currently non-performing further deteriorate or loans that are currently performing become non-performing loans, we may need to increase our allowance for loan losses, which would have an adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operations.

Further Decline In Value In Certain Investment Securities Held By Investors Bancorp, Inc. Could Require Write-Downs, Which Would Reduce Our Earnings.

Our securities portfolio includes pooled trust preferred securities backed by banks, insurance companies, and real estate investment trusts. During the six months ended December 31, 2008, Investors Bancorp, Inc. recorded a $156.7 million pre-tax non-cash other-than-temporary impairment charge on our pooled bank trust preferred CDOs which resulted in an amortized cost of $20.8 million for these securities. Continued adverse economic conditions could impact our securities portfolio and result in additional other-than-temporary impairment write-downs which would reduce our earnings.

Our Expenses Will Increase as a Result of Increases in FDIC Insurance Premiums.

The FDIC imposes an assessment against all depository institutions for deposit insurance. This assessment is based on the risk category of the institution and, prior to 2009, ranged from 5 to 43 basis points of the institution's deposits. On February 27, 2009, the FDIC published a final rule raising the current deposit insurance assessment rates to a range from 12 to 45 basis points beginning April 1, 2009. Additionally, the FDIC issued an interim final rule that would impose a special 20 basis points special assessment on all insured deposits as of June 30, 2009, which would be payable on September 30, 2009. Investors Bancorp, Inc. estimates that this special assessment will be approximately $9.4 million for Investors Bancorp, Inc. and approximately $10.4 million including American Bank of New Jersey on a pro forma basis.

The Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008 (EESA) temporarily increased the limit on FDIC insurance coverage for deposits to $250,000 through December 31, 2009. In addition, the FDIC announced the Temporary Liquidity Guarantee (TLG) Program. The TLG Program covers two programs: the Transaction Account Guarantee Program and the Debt Guarantee program. Investors Bancorp, Inc. has elected to participate in the Transaction Account Guarantee Program, which will increase the insurance coverage for the following deposit accounts in excess of $250,000: all non-interest bearing accounts, NOW accounts (as long as the interest rate paid is equal to or below 50 basis points) and IOLTA accounts. The cost of the program to Investors Bancorp, Inc. will be 10 basis points annualized and the expiration of the program is December 31, 2009.

These actions will significantly increase Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s non-interest expense in 2009 and in future years as long as the increased premiums are in place.

If Our Allowance for Loan Losses is Not Sufficient to Cover Actual Loan Losses, Our Earnings Could Decrease.

We make various assumptions and judgments about the collectability of our loan portfolio, including the creditworthiness of our borrowers and the value of the real estate and other assets serving as collateral for the repayment of many of our loans. In determining the amount of the allowance for loan losses, we review our loans and our loss and delinquency experience, and we evaluate economic conditions. If our assumptions are incorrect, our allowance for loan losses may not be sufficient to cover losses inherent in our loan portfolio, resulting in additions to our allowance. Material additions to our allowance would materially decrease our net income. Our allowance for loan losses of $26.5 million was 0.47% of total loans and 55.53% of non-performing loans at December 31, 2008.

In addition, bank regulators periodically review our allowance for loan losses and may require us to increase our provision for loan losses or recognize further loan charge-offs. A material increase in our allowance for loan losses or loan charge-offs as required by these regulatory authorities would have a material adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

There Is No Assurance That Our Strategy to Change the Mix of Our Assets and Liabilities Will Succeed.

We previously emphasized investments in government agency and mortgage-backed securities, funded with wholesale borrowings. This policy was designed to achieve profitability by allowing asset growth with low overhead expense, although securities generally have lower yields than loans, resulting in a lower interest rate spread and lower interest income. In October 2003, we implemented a strategy to change the mix of our assets and liabilities to one more focused on loans and retail deposits. As a result of this strategy, at December 31, 2008, our mortgage-backed and other securities accounted for 16.1% of total assets, while our loan portfolio accounted for 78.2% of our total assets.

Our Inability to Achieve Profitability on New Branches May Negatively Affect Our Earnings.

We have expanded our presence throughout our market area, and we intend to pursue further expansion through de novo branching. The profitability of our expansion strategy will depend on whether the income that we generate from the new branches will offset the increased expenses resulting from operating these branches. We expect that it may take a period of time before these branches can become profitable, especially in areas in which we do not have an established presence. During this period, the expense of operating these branches may negatively affect our net income.

Our Return on Equity Has Been Low Compared to Other Financial Institutions. This Could Negatively Affect the Price of Our Common Stock.

Net income divided by average equity, known as return on equity, is a ratio many investors use to compare the performance of a financial institution to its peers. For the year ended June 30, 2008, our return on average equity was 1.92% compared to a return on average equity of 3.01% for all publicly traded savings institutions organized in the mutual holding company form. We expect our return on equity to remain below the industry average until we are able to further leverage the additional capital we received from our 2005 stock offering. Our return on equity has been low principally because of the amount of capital raised in the offering, higher expenses from the costs of being a public company, and added expenses associated with our employee stock ownership plan and the stock-based incentive plan. Until we can increase our net interest income and other income, we expect our return on equity to be below the industry average.

Strong Competition Within Our Market Area May Limit Our Growth and Profitability.

Competition in the banking and financial services industry is intense. In our market area, we compete with numerous commercial banks, savings institutions, mortgage brokerage firms, credit unions, finance companies, mutual funds, insurance companies, and brokerage and investment banking firms operating locally and elsewhere. Some of our competitors have substantially greater resources and lending limits than we have, have greater name recognition and market presence that benefit them in attracting business, and offer certain services that we do not or cannot provide. In addition, larger competitors may be able to price loans and deposits more aggressively than we do. Our profitability depends upon our continued ability to successfully compete in our market area. The greater resources and deposit and loan products offered by some of our competitors may limit our ability to increase our interest-earning assets. For additional information see Business of Investors Savings Bank Competition.

If We Declare Dividends on Our Common Stock, Investors Bancorp, MHC Will be Prohibited From Waiving the Receipt of Dividends by Current Federal Reserve Board Policy, Which May Result in Lower Dividends for All Other Stockholders.

The Board of Directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc. has the authority to declare dividends on its common stock, subject to statutory and regulatory requirements. So long as Investors Bancorp, MHC is regulated by the Federal Reserve Board, if Investors Bancorp, Inc. pays dividends to its stockholders, it also will be required to pay dividends to Investors Bancorp, MHC, unless Investors Bancorp, MHC is permitted by the Federal Reserve Board to waive the receipt of dividends. The Federal Reserve Board's current policy does not permit a mutual holding company to waive dividends declared by its subsidiary. Accordingly, because dividends will be required to be paid to Investors Bancorp, MHC along with all other stockholders, the amount of dividends available for all other stockholders will be less than if Investors Bancorp, MHC were permitted to waive the receipt of dividends.

Investors Bancorp, MHC Exercises Voting Control Over Investors Bancorp, Inc.; Public Stockholders Own a Minority Interest.

Investors Bancorp, MHC owns a majority of Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s common stock and, through its Board of Directors, exercises voting control over the outcome of all matters put to a vote of stockholders (including the election of directors), except for matters that require a vote greater than a majority. Public stockholders own a minority of the outstanding shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s common stock. The same directors and officers who manage Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank also manage Investors Bancorp, MHC. In addition, regulatory restrictions applicable to Investors Bancorp, MHC prohibit the sale of Investors Bancorp, Inc. unless the mutual holding company first undertakes a second-step conversion. Following the completion of the merger, the depositors and borrowers of American Bank of New Jersey will have no rights as such to participate in any secondary offering by Investors Bancorp, MHC.

We operate in a highly regulated industry, which limits the manner and scope of our business activities.

We are subject to extensive supervision, regulation and examination by the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance and by the FDIC. As a result, we are limited in the manner in which we conduct our business, undertake new investments and activities and obtain financing. This regulatory structure is designed primarily for the protection of the DIF and our depositors, and not to benefit our stockholders. This regulatory structure also gives the regulatory authorities extensive discretion in connection with their supervisory and enforcement activities and examination policies, including policies with respect to capital levels, the timing and amount of dividend payments, the classification of assets and the establishment of adequate loan loss reserves for regulatory purposes. In addition, we must comply with significant anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism laws. Government agencies have substantial discretion to impose significant monetary penalties on institutions which fail to comply with these laws.

If Our Investment in the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York is Classified as Other-Than-Temporarily Impaired or as Permanently Impaired, Our Earnings and Stockholders' Equity Could Decrease

We own common stock of the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York (FHLB-NY). We hold the FHLB-NY common stock to qualify for membership in the Federal Home Loan Bank System and to be eligible to borrow funds under the FHLB-NY's advance program. The aggregate cost and fair value of our FHLB-NY common stock as of December 31, 2008 was $86.6 million based on its par value. There is no market for our FHLB-NY common stock.

Recent published reports indicate that certain member banks of the Federal Home Loan Bank System may be subject to accounting rules and asset quality risks that could result in materially lower regulatory capital levels. In an extreme situation, it is possible that the capitalization of a Federal Home Loan Bank, including the FHLB-NY, could be substantially diminished or reduced to zero. Consequently, we believe that there is a risk that our investment in FHLB-NY common stock could be deemed other-than-temporarily impaired at some time in the future, and if this occurs, it would cause our earnings and stockholders' equity to decrease by the after-tax amount of the impairment charge.

Future Acquisition Activity Could Dilute Book Value.

Both nationally and in New Jersey, the banking industry is undergoing consolidation marked by numerous mergers and acquisitions. From time to time we may be presented with opportunities to acquire institutions and/or bank branches and we may engage in discussions and negotiations. Acquisitions typically involve the payment of a premium over book and trading values, and therefore, may result in the dilution of Investors Bancorp's book value and net income per share.

As of December 31, 2008, American Bank of New Jersey had total assets of $628.8 million, total deposits of $459.2 million and total loans of $491.4 million.

Our core business is using retail deposits in order to fund a variety of mortgage and consumer loan products. We operate as a traditional community bank, offering retail banking services, one- to four-family residential mortgage loans, including first mortgages, home equity loans and lines of credit, commercial loans, including multi-family and non-residential mortgage loans, construction loans and business loans and lines of credit, as well as consumer loans. We also invest in mortgage-related securities, including mortgage-backed pass through securities and collateralized mortgage obligations, and other investment securities. The principal source of funds for our lending and investing activities is retail deposits, supplemented with Federal Home Loan Bank borrowings.

Our results of operations depend primarily on our net interest income. Net interest income is the difference between the interest income we earn on our interest-earning assets and the interest we pay on interest-bearing liabilities. It is a function of the average balances of loans and investments versus deposits and borrowed funds outstanding in any one period and the yields earned on those loans and investments and the cost of those deposits and borrowed funds. Our interest-earning assets consist primarily of one- to four-family residential mortgage loans, commercial loans and consumer loans, as well as residential mortgage-related securities and U.S. Agency debentures. Interest-bearing liabilities consist primarily of retail deposits and borrowings from the Federal Home Loan Bank of New York.

Merger Consideration; Cash or Stock Election

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding share of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock (other than dissenting shares) will be given the opportunity to convert into the right to receive either: $12.50 in cash, assuming payment solely of cash in exchange for American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock; or 0.9218 shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock for each share of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock, assuming payment solely of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock in exchange for American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock.

Stockholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. may elect to receive all cash, all Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock, or a combination of both for their American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock. No fractional shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, Investors Bancorp, Inc. will make a cash payment to each American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder who would otherwise receive a fractional share. Each share of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock that is exchanged for Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock would be converted into 0.9218 shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock. Based upon the closing price of Investors Bancorp, Inc. on _____, each 0.9218 shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. would have a value of $____.

It is possible that the consideration may be adjusted prior to the effective date of the merger. The merger agreement provides that if the average closing price of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock during the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the first date on which all bank regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) is less than $9.49 and Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s common stock has under-performed the SNL Thrift index of financial institutions by more than 30% during the five day period after all bank regulatory approvals necessary for consummation of the merger are received compared to a measurement period prior to the announcement of the merger agreement, then American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. may elect to terminate the merger agreement unless Investors Bancorp, Inc. elects to increase the merger consideration. See The Merger and the Merger Agreement Termination; Amendment; Waiver. If under these circumstances Investors Bancorp, Inc. elected to increase the merger consideration, it would have the option of paying the additional merger consideration by adjusting the exchange ratio of 0.9218 (Exchange Ratio) to one of the following quotients at its sole discretion: (i) a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the initial Investors market value of $13.56 (Initial Investor Market Value), the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), and the Index Ratio minus 0.30, and the denominator of which is equal to the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock for the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the first date on which all regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) (Determination Date) (Investors Market Value); or (ii) the quotient determined by dividing the Initial Investors Market Value by the Investors Market Value on the Determination Date, and multiplying the quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and 0.70.

Please note that approval by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders authorize its Board of Directors to terminate the merger agreement or proceed therewith at its sole discretion. If the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. terminates the merger agreement pursuant to this provision, Investors Bancorp, Inc. may increase the merger consideration pursuant to this prescribed formula and compel American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. to complete the merger.

Stockholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. will have the opportunity to elect the form of consideration to be received for shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., subject to allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement which are intended to ensure that 65% of the outstanding shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock will be converted into the right to receive shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock and the remaining 35% of the outstanding shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash. In the event that by May 31, 2009, Investors Bancorp, Inc. has not received the required regulatory approvals to issue shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock in the Merger, Investors Bancorp, Inc. may elect to proceed with the Merger on an all cash basis and merge a newly created merger subsidiary with and into American Bancorp.

It is unlikely that elections will be made in the exact proportions provided for in the merger agreement. As a result, the merger agreement describes procedures to be followed if American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders in the aggregate elect to receive more or less of the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock than Investors Bancorp, Inc. has agreed to issue. These procedures are summarized below.

If Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock is oversubscribed: If American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders elect to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock for more than 65% of the outstanding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock, the holders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. who elected to receive cash for some or all of their shares or who made no election for some or all of their shares shall receive cash. All holders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock who elected to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock for some or all of their shares will receive stock for a pro rata portion of the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. shares which they elected to convert into Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock and will receive cash for those shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock not converted into Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock. American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders pro rata portion shall be calculated by multiplying the total number of shares such holder elected to convert into Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock by a fraction, the numerator of which is a number equal to 65% of the outstanding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock and the denominator of which is the total number of shares which all stockholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. elected to convert.

If Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock is undersubscribed: If American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders elect to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. stock for fewer than 65% of the outstanding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock (the difference between such numbers being the Shortfall), then the stockholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. who elected to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. stock for some or all of their shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. shall receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. stock as elected. Holders of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock for which an election was made to receive cash or for which no election was made shall receive cash and/or Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock as follows:

If the Shortfall is less than or equal to the number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. for which no election was made, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders who elected to receive cash for some or all of their American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock shall receive cash as elected. The holders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock for which no election was made shall receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. stock for that number of shares held by such holder for which no election was made multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall, and the denominator of which is the total number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock for which no election was made. Cash shall be paid for the remainder of the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock of such holder for which no election was made.

If the Shortfall is greater than the number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock for which no election was made, then the holders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock for which no election was made shall receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock for such American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock. The holders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock who elected to receive cash shall instead receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. stock for a number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock equal to the total number of shares for which such holder elected to receive cash, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall, and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock for which an election was made to receive cash. The balance of shares held by such holder for which an election to receive cash was made, shall receive cash.

Notwithstanding these allocation procedures, in order for the transaction to qualify as a tax-free reorganization, the allocation of the consideration may also be adjusted if the aggregate value of the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock to be delivered as of the effective time of the merger minus the amount of cash paid in lieu of fractional shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock (the Stock Value) is less than 42.5% of the sum of (i) the aggregate value of the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock and cash to be delivered as of the effective time of the merger, plus (ii) the value of any consideration described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(e)(1)(ii), plus (iii) cash paid to holders of dissenting shares, plus (iv) the value of any consideration paid by Investors Bancorp, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries (or any related person of either within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(e)(3)) to acquire shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock prior to the effective time of the merger (such sum, the Aggregate Value), then Investors Bancorp, Inc. may reduce the number of shares of outstanding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock entitled to receive cash, and correspondingly increase the number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock entitled to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock by the minimum amount necessary to cause the Stock Value to equal 42.5% of the Aggregate Value.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amounts of cash or stock you elect. As a result of the allocation procedures and other limitations outlined in this document and in the merger agreement, you may receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock or cash in amounts that vary from the amounts you elect to receive.

American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. is not making any recommendation as to whether American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders should elect to receive cash or Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock in the merger. Each American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder must make his or her own decision with respect to such election.

Reasons and Background for the Merger

From time to time over the last few years, the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. received updates from various industry professionals on the state of the bank and thrift equity market as well as the merger and acquisition market. Since its second step conversion and offering of common stock in October 2005, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. has embarked on a plan to enhance shareholder value by further developing its retail franchise. In this regard, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. added three branches over the last three years and grew assets from $517 million at the completion of the second step offering to $622 million as of September 30, 2008. Further American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. also paid a regularly quarterly dividend of $0.04 per share to $0.05 per share since its second step offering and has repurchased 3,678,676 shares of common stock at a weighted average price of $11.38 for a total cash outlay of $41.8 million. Partially as a result of the costs of opening the three new branch offices, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s earnings remained below its peers, with a return on average assets of 0.21% for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008 compared to a median return on average assets of 0.30% for a peer group of publicly traded Mid-Atlantic thrifts between $250 million and $750 million in assets. In addition, notwithstanding its stock repurchase program and common stock dividend, the trading price of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s common stock fell from $10.72 per share at September 14, 2005, the closing price on the first day of trading following American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s second step conversion, to $10.30 per share at September 30, 2008. The Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. felt it prudent to explore a strategic alliance as a way to further enhance shareholder value.

On September 12, 2008, representatives of Keefe Bruyette & Woods met with the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. to review alternative strategic directions, including remaining independent and seeking a possible strategic affiliation with another entity. Discussions included: (1) an analysis of the current banking market; (2) valuation of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock; and (3) detailed pro forma analyses examining multiple strategic partners. Keefe Bruyette & Woods met again with the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. on October 8, 2008 to further assess the benefit to shareholders of a strategic partnership. Discussions at this meeting included: (1) process and timing of a transaction; (2) examination of historic comparable transaction pricing; (3) identification of potential acquirors and their ability to pay; and (4) financial detail on potential strategic partners. All of these issues were analyzed in conjunction with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s goal to continue to increase shareholder value. On October 8, 2008, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. officially engaged Keefe Bruyette & Woods to provide investment banking services in connection with exploring a possible strategic alliance.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, working with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., prepared financial and operating information about American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.. In mid October, 2008, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, on behalf of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., began a confidential inquiry and contacted 12 potential candidates. Five of those candidates executed confidentiality agreements, including Investors Bancorp, Inc., and received the information package. In late October, two financial institutions submitted preliminary, non-binding indications of interest to acquire American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.. Following receipt of the preliminary indications of interest, on November 5, 2008 Keefe Bruyette & Woods reviewed with the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. the pricing and terms of each proposal. After discussing the proposals, the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. invited both parties to conduct further due diligence to allow each to refine or strengthen its proposal. The potential acquirors were given access to additional information and management of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. met with both parties to answer questions about the operations of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.

In a letter dated December 2, 2008, Investors Bancorp, Inc. confirmed its interest in a merger with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. at $12.50 per share, stating that the consideration would be a mixture of cash and stock, the mix of which was to be discussed further to ensure maximum benefit to both parties shareholders. Circumstances in the market over the due diligence period negatively impacted the other party s stock price and consequently its ability to submit a competitive proposal, and no revised bid was submitted. On December 5, 2008, the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. met to consider the Investors Bancorp, Inc. proposal. At that meeting, the Board was informed by Keefe Bruyette & Woods that it had been informally contacted by a third institution that had not elected to conduct due diligence or submit a preliminary indication of interest. This third party indicated an interest in considering a merger at $10.00 per share. The Board determined not to take any action with regard to this third party. Keefe Bruyette & Woods then made a detailed presentation to the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Board regarding the Investors Bancorp, Inc. proposal. The Board voted to proceed with its due diligence of and negotiation of a definitive merger agreement with Investors Bancorp, Inc., but stated that if another party submitted a competitive bid before a definitive merger agreement is executed, the Board would consider the proposal.

On December 12, 2008, the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board met with Keefe Bruyette & Woods and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s legal counsel. Approximately three days prior to this meeting, a preliminary draft of the merger agreement was distributed to the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. for its review.

At the December 12 meeting, legal counsel reviewed the merger agreement with Board, highlighting the changes that had been made to the draft initially sent to the Board. Counsel reviewed with the Board the deal structure and timing, discussed the representations, warranties, covenants and responsibilities of the parties, discussed the provisions related to the treatment of employees of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and American Bank of New Jersey and the conditions to approval of the agreement. Counsel also specifically discussed the definition of material adverse effect and its import on the transaction given the significant volatility in the banking industry and the market for bank and bank holding company stocks. The Board asked numerous questions of counsel, including the mechanics of American Bancorp of New Jersey s ability to terminate the agreement if the provisions of the double trigger walk away were met, and counsel explained the reasons for and the functioning of this provision. Counsel also explained the Board s fiduciary responsibilities in the event a superior proposal is received, and how the provisions of the agreement work to allow the Board to fulfill its fiduciary responsibilities. Lastly, counsel informed the Board that the final details of the merger agreement were still being negotiated, and were expected to be completed within 36 hours.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods then discussed with the Board the results of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s due diligence investigation of Investors Bancorp, Inc. Management of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. joined in this discussion, as senior management participated in the due diligence investigation. Both Keefe Bruyette & Woods and senior management of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. advised the Board that nothing was discovered that would cause Keefe Bruyette & Woods or management to recommend against proceeding with the transaction.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods then gave an updated financial analysis of the proposed merger and delivered its oral opinion that, as of that date, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock was fair to such holders from a financial point of view.

The Board then adjourned the meeting without taking any action, pending final completion of the merger agreement.

The Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. met again on December 14, 2008. At this meeting counsel discussed the final changes to the merger agreement and Keefe Bruyette & Woods delivered its updated fairness opinion. The Board voted unanimously to authorize the execution of the merger agreement and related documents. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the merger agreement and recommend that American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders adopt the merger agreement, the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors consulted with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including:

the effect of the merger on American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s employees, customers and the communities in which they conduct business.

Given the significant volatility in the stock market, particularly as it relates to financial services companies, the parties agreed to increase the aggregate amount of cash consideration that will be paid to the stockholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. from 30% to 35% of the total merger consideration. In addition, and in conjunction with the above, the provision enabling American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. to terminate the merger in the event the price of Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s stock declines and declines by more than the decline in a peer group index, as well as the formula that Investors Bancorp, Inc. can use to increase the merger consideration under certain circumstances, were also revised. Under the amended merger agreement, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. may terminate the merger agreement if Investors Bancorp, Inc. stock price declines by more than 30% from $13.56 and this decline is more than 30% greater than the decline in the SNL Thrift Index.

The American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors also considered several factors that did not support a decision to proceed with the merger, including, among others, the following:

the challenges associated with seeking the regulatory approvals required to complete the merger in a timely manner;

the risks and costs to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. if the merger is not completed, including the diversion of management and employee attention;

the requirement that American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. conduct its business in the ordinary course and the other restrictions on American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s conduct of its business prior to completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger; and the fact that a termination fee is payable to Investors Bancorp, Inc. under specified circumstances.

The American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors determined that the factors supporting the merger were substantially more persuasive than the factors not supporting the merger.

The discussion of the information and factors considered by the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors. The American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of American Bancorp of New Jersey s management and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s legal and financial advisors, and reached the unanimous decision that the merger was in the best interests of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and its stockholders. The American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors considered these factors as a whole, and overall considered them to be favorable to, and to support its determination. Analysis of Recent Comparable Acquisition Transactions

In rendering its opinion, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. analyzed two sets of comparable merger and acquisition transactions: Recent Thrift Transactions of Comparably Profitable Companies and Recent Thrift Transactions of Comparable Size.

Comparable Transactions by Profitability

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. analyzed certain comparable merger and acquisition transactions of both pending and completed thrift deals, comparing the acquisition price relative to tangible book value, last twelve months earnings, and premium to core deposits. All comparative metrics were as of each respective deal's announcement date. The analysis included a comparison of the minimum, median and maximum of the above ratios for pending and completed acquisitions where the seller was a thrift and pricing metrics were available, based on the following three criteria:

- (i) Deal is pending or was completed on or after September 30, 2007;
- (ii) Target had assets less than $1.0 billion at announcement; and
- (iii) Target had a Return on Average Assets Ratio between 0.2% and 1.0% at announcement.

The selected comparable transactions that the three criteria produced were as follows:

Acquiror	Target
First Community Bancshares Inc.	Coddle Creek Financial Corp.
Capstone Bancshares Inc.	Security Federal Bancorp Inc.
Eastern Bank Corporation	MASSBANK Corp.
MutualFirst Financial Inc.	MFB Corp.
First Bancorp	Great Pee Dee Bancorp Inc.
LaPorte Bancorp Inc.	City Savings Financial Corp.
New York Community Bancorp	Synergy Financial Group Inc.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. derived the minimum, median and maximum pricing metrics of the three aforementioned criteria as stated below:

	Price to		Core
	Tangible	Earnings	Deposit
	Book		Premium
Minimum	102.1%	23.2x	11.0%
Median	151.7%	43.0x	12.5%
Maximum	174.7%	56.9x	17.8%
American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Merger Consideration*	154.4%	50.5x	13.8%

* Valued at $12.50 per share, based on Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s closing price of $13.56 on December 12, 2008; American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. price / earnings ratio based on 2009 budget net income.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. viewed the three aforementioned criteria as the most appropriate in deriving a comparable transaction value based on the institution's size and profitability. Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. viewed the fact that the combined criteria produced a comparable group with seven transactions since September of 2007 as being significant for the purposes of comparison. Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. viewed the three resulting metrics (price to tangible book value, price to last twelve months earnings and core deposit premium) from the comparable group on a minimum, median and maximum basis, as the three key metrics used to evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the transaction.

Given that the value of the consideration to be paid in the Merger, as of the date of the opinion, exceeds the median for all three metrics, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. believes that this analysis supports the fairness, from a financial point of view, to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and its shareholders of the consideration to be paid in the merger.

Comparable Transactions by Size

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. analyzed certain comparably sized merger and acquisition transactions of both pending and completed thrift transactions, comparing the acquisition price relative to tangible book value, last twelve months earnings, and premium to core deposits. All comparative metrics were as of each respective deal's announcement date. The analysis included a comparison of the minimum, median and maximum of the above ratios for pending and completed acquisitions where the seller was a thrift and pricing metrics were available, based on the following two criteria:

- (i) Deal is pending or was completed on or after September 30, 2007; and
- (ii) Transaction value was between $25 million and $500 million.

Table of Contents

The selected comparable transactions that the two criteria produced were as follows:

Harleysville National Corp.
First Community Bancshares Inc.

First Niagara Financial Group
Washington Federal Inc.

Synergy Financial Group Inc.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. derived the minimum, median and maximum pricing metrics of the two aforementioned criteria as stated below:

	Price to		Core
	Tangible	LTM	Deposit
	Book	Earnings	Premium
Minimum	102.1%	20.8x	2.0%
Median	162.7%	30.8x	11.0%
Maximum	238.6%	56.9x	20.8%
American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Merger Consideration*	154.4%	50.5x	13.8%

* Valued at $12.50 per share, based on Investors Bancorp, Inc. s closing price of $13.56 on December 12, 2008; American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. price / earnings ratio based on 2009 budget net income.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. viewed the two aforementioned criteria as the most appropriate in deriving a comparable transaction value based on the transaction s size. Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. viewed the fact that the combined criteria produced a comparable group with eleven transactions since September of 2007 as being significant for the purposes of comparison. Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. viewed the three resulting metrics (price to tangible book value, price to last twelve months earnings and core deposit premium) from the comparable group on a minimum, median and maximum basis, as the three key metrics used to evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the transaction.

Given that the value of the consideration to be paid in the Merger, as of the date of the opinion, exceeds the median for two of the metrics, and is close to the median on the remaining metric, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. believes that this analysis supports the fairness, from a financial point of view, to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and its shareholders of the consideration to be paid in the merger.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of intrinsic values per share of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock. This range was determined by adding (1) the present value, which is a representation of the current value of a sum that is to be received some time in the future, of the estimated future cash flows that American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. could generate over the next five years and (2) the present value of a terminal value, which is a representation of the current value of an entity at a specified time in the future. The terminal value was determined by applying a range of price to earnings multiples based on similar publicly traded institutions.

Table of Contents

The Discounted Cash Flow Analysis based on a trading multiple applied a range of year five terminal value multiples of 12.0x to 20.0x based on a midpoint price to last twelve months earnings multiple of 16.0x. The midpoint terminal multiple was based on the median price to last twelve months earnings multiple for fully public thrifts with assets between $250 million and $750 million. The discount rate applied to the projected cash flows and calculated terminal value ranged from 10.0% to 14.0%. Based on the foregoing criteria and assumptions, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. determined that the stand-alone present value of the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock ranged from $7.88 to $10.96 per share, with a midpoint price of $9.30 per share.

Given that the value of the consideration on a per share basis to be paid in the Merger, as of the date of the opinion, exceeds all points in the intrinsic value range derived from the discounted cash flow analysis, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. believes that this analysis supports the fairness, from a financial point of view, to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and its shareholders of the consideration to be paid in the Merger.

The intrinsic values of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. derived using discounted cash flow analysis do not necessarily indicate actual values or actual future results and do not purport to reflect the prices at which any securities may trade at the present or at any time in the future. Discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of this methodology are highly dependent upon numerous assumptions that must be made, including earnings estimates, terminal values and discount rates.

Based on the above analyses Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. concluded that the consideration paid in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to shareholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.. This summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analysis performed by Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. and should not be construed independently of the other information considered by Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. in rendering its opinion. Selecting portions of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc.'s analysis or isolating certain aspects of the comparable transactions, without considering all analyses and factors, could create an incomplete or potentially misleading view of the evaluation process.

In rendering its opinion, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial information provided to it by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and Investors Bancorp, Inc. In its review, with the consent of the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. did not undertake any independent verification of the information provided to it, nor did it make any independent appraisal or evaluation of the assets or liabilities and potential or contingent liabilities of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or Investors Bancorp, Inc..

The fairness opinion of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. is limited to the fairness as of its date, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid in the Merger and does not address the underlying business decision to effect the Merger (or alternatives thereto), nor does it constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Merger. Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. did not update its fairness opinion in connection with the execution of the amended merger agreement.

Furthermore, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. expresses no opinion as to the price or trading range at which shares of the pro forma entity will trade following the consummation of the Merger.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements.

In preparing its analysis, Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey. The analyses performed by Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses and do not purport to be appraisals or reflect the prices at which a business may be sold.

Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc. will receive a fee of 1.00% of the closing deal value, as set forth in the Engagement Letter dated October 8, 2008, for services rendered in connection with advising and issuing a fairness opinion regarding the Merger. Each person who is an employee of American Bank of New Jersey as of the closing of the merger (whose employment is not specifically terminated upon the closing) will become an employee of Investors Bancorp, Inc. or Investors Savings Bank. All American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. employees who become employees of Investors Bancorp, Inc. at the effective time generally will be given credit for service at American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or its subsidiaries for eligibility to participate in and the satisfaction of vesting requirements (but not for pension benefit accrual purposes) under Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s compensation and benefit plans (but not for any purpose under the Investors Bancorp, Inc. employee stock ownership plan).

See Interests of Directors and Officers In the Merger below for a discussion of employment agreements.

Interests of Directors and Officers In the Merger

Employment Agreements.

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 7.8.3 of the Merger Agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. was required to execute an Executive Acknowledgment and Agreement. These agreements set forth the methodology for calculating the amount that will be due to each director and executive officer as a result of the change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. All benefits provided to the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. executive officers are subject to reduction to avoid the payment of any excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. The following details the total amounts due to each director and executive officer pursuant to all contracts and benefit plans in place for these individuals which are not also provided to all employees.

Payments Under Existing Employment Agreements. Messrs. Kliminski and Kowal each have employment agreements with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. providing that if their employment is involuntarily terminated during the term of the agreement following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, or within 24 months following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, they will be entitled to an amount equal to 2.99 times their five-year average annual taxable compensation, subject to reduction to avoid the payment of any excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, payable in a lump sum.

Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier each have employment agreements with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. providing that if their employment is involuntarily terminated during the term of the agreement following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, or within 12 months following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, they will be entitled to an amount equal to 2.00 times their five-year average annual taxable compensation, subject to reduction to avoid the payment of any excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, payable in a lump sum.

Accelerated Vesting of Stock Options and Restricted Stock for Executive Officers. As described under The Proposed Merger Treatment of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Stock Options and Restricted Stock, each option to purchase shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become vested, to the extent not already vested. At the effective time of the merger, each holder of an option to purchase shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock will receive a cash payment equal to $12.50 less the exercise price per share of the stock option, multiplied by the number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock subject to the stock option. All outstanding shares of restricted stock that are not vested at the time of the merger will become vested in full, and each holder of restricted stock of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. will be entitled to receive the merger consideration in exchange therefore, on the same basis as all other shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock.

Executive Salary Continuation Agreements. Messrs. Kliminski, Kowal, Heyer and Ms. Bringuier have Executive Salary Continuation (SERP) Agreements that provide for a lifetime annual retirement benefit equal to 50%, 45%, 40% and 30%, respectively, of the executive s average base salary. Average base salary is calculated using the average of the highest three out of the last five years of employment. Upon a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., the executives are entitled to their full retirement benefits under the SERP upon attaining age 65 as if the executive had been continuously employed by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. until age 65, subject to the Section 280G cutback described above. Investors Bancorp, Inc. and the executives have agreed to satisfy the SERP obligation by payment of a lump sum to the executives immediately prior to closing of the merger. The lump sum is discounted to reflect the present value of the payment. Because Mr. Kliminski is 65 and fully vested and accrued in his SERP benefit, he is not subject to any additional discount factor or Section 280G limitation on his SERP benefit. Mr. Kowal, however, is 56 years old, neither fully vested nor fully accrued in his SERP benefit, and is subject to a Section 280G cutback. Thus, he will experience a significant reduction in his SERP benefit. Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier are fully vested in their SERP benefits but because each is 46 years old and not fully accrued in their SERP benefit, both will be subject to a significant reduction in their SERP benefit.

Split Dollar Life Insurance Agreements. Each named executive officer has a split dollar life insurance agreement with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. providing for life insurance protection equal to 300% of the executive s highest annual base salary in effect during the three calendar years preceding his or her death. Because these agreements are subject to a cutback pursuant to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, each of the executives has entered into an agreement with Investors Bancorp, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. which provides that no benefit is required to be paid by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or Investors Bancorp, Inc. pursuant to these agreements. The Executive Acknowledgment and Agreement signed by each executive provides that the executive may elect, but is not obligated to, either (a) have the benefit under the Split Dollar Agreement continued, provided the executive timely and fully pays to Investors the current annual cost of the term life insurance protection, or (b) enter into an agreement with Investors Bancorp, Inc. to have the split dollar agreement continued on behalf of the executive in exchange for an agreed-upon reduction in the payment due to the executive under the Executive Acknowledgment and Agreement, provided that the amount of the reduction in payment is sufficient to avoid any excise taxes under Section 280G. Investors Bancorp, Inc. is not obligated to agree to any such election by the executive officer.

Total Payments to Executive Officers. The total payment to Messrs. Kliminski, Kowal, Heyer and Ms. Bringuier under the compensation arrangements discussed above, subject to adjustment regarding the Split Dollar Life Insurance Agreements, is expected to be approximately $3,215,405, $1,587,893, $1,057,673 and $987,664, respectively, based, in part, on a $12.50 value of the merger consideration. Assuming merger consideration of $_____, the total payment to Messrs. Kliminski, Kowal, Heyer and Ms. Bringuier under the compensation arrangements discussed above, subject to adjustment regarding the Split Dollar Life Insurance Agreements, is expected to be approximately $_____, $_____, $_____ and $_____, respectively.

Accelerated Vesting of Stock Options and Restricted Stock for Directors. As described under The Proposed Merger Treatment of American Bancorp of New Jersey Stock Options and Restricted Stock, each option to purchase shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will become vested, to the extent not already vested. At the effective time of the merger, each holder of an option to purchase shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock will receive a cash payment equal to $12.50 less the exercise price per share of the stock option, multiplied by the number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock subject to the stock option. All outstanding shares of restricted stock that are not vested at the time of the merger will become vested in full, and each holder of restricted stock of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. will be entitled to receive the merger consideration in exchange therefore, on the same basis as all other shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock.

Directors Consultation and Retirement Plan. This plan provides for monthly retirement benefits to non-employee directors, payable for the life of the director with a minimum payment of 144 months, equal to 0.0833 times the highest annual fees paid (including retainer fees and regular board meeting fees) during the most recently completed three calendar years ending on or before the retirement date. All non-employee directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. are fully vested in this plan. In the event of a change in control, all directors are presumed to have reached the retirement date and each director is entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to the present value of his future benefits under the plan.

Total Payments to Non-Employee Directors. The total payments to Messrs. Parker, Ward, Gaccione, North and Rospond under the Directors Consultation and Retirement Plan and the total value of the stock options and restricted stock awards owned by such individuals is expected to be $1,138,232, $1,396,178, $1,138,232, $1,214,116 and $1,138,232, respectively, based on a $12.50 value of the merger consideration. The total payments to Messrs. Parker, Ward, Gaccione, North and Rospond under the Directors Consultation and Retirement Plan and the total value of the stock options and restricted stock awards owned by such individuals is expected to be $_____, $_____, $_____, $_____ and $_____, respectively, based on a $_____ value of the merger consideration.

Indemnification. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Investors Bancorp, Inc. has agreed that from and after the effective date of the merger through the sixth anniversary thereof, it will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each present and former officer, director or employee of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Indemnified Parties) against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorney s fees), liabilities, judgments and amounts that are paid in settlement (with the approval of Investors Bancorp, Inc., which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (each a Claim), based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or its subsidiaries if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the closing date to the fullest extent to which directors and officers of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. are entitled under applicable law, Investors Bancorp, Inc. s Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, or other applicable law in effect on the date of the merger agreement (and Investors Bancorp, Inc. will pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding to the fullest extent permitted to under applicable law, provided that the person to whom such expenses are advanced agrees to repay such expenses if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification.)

Directors and Officers Insurance. Investors Bancorp, Inc. has further agreed, for a period of six years after the effective date, to cause the persons serving as officers and directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. immediately prior to the effective date to continue to be covered by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s current directors and officers liability insurance policy (provided that Investors Bancorp, Inc. may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous than such policy) with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective date which were committed by such officers and directors in their capacity as such. Investors Bancorp, Inc. is not required to spend more than 175% of the annual cost currently incurred by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. for its insurance coverage.

Appointment to Boards of Directors. Effective as of the consummation of the merger, Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank shall each increase the size of its Board of Directors by one member and appoint James H. Ward III to their respective Boards of Directors.

Management and Operations of American Bank of New Jersey After the Merger

Upon consummation of the merger between American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and Investors Bancorp, Inc., American Bank of New Jersey will be merged into Investors Savings Bank and its separate existence will cease. The directors and officers of Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank immediately prior to the merger will continue to be its directors and officers, except as disclosed above.

An analysis of the post-merger branch system determined that all branches of Investors Savings Bank and American Bank of New Jersey will remain open, although American Bank of New Jersey s corporate headquarters will be closed. The post merger branch system remains under review, and branch consolidations, closings and sales may be determined to be in the best interests of the combined bank.

Effective Date of Merger

The parties expect that the merger will be effective in the second quarter of 2009 or as soon as possible after the receipt of all regulatory and stockholder approvals and after the expiration of all regulatory waiting periods. The merger will be completed legally by the filing of the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of Delaware. If the merger is not consummated by September 30, 2009, the merger agreement may be terminated by either American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or Investors Bancorp, Inc. unless the failure to consummate the merger by this date is due to the breach by the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement of any of its obligations under the merger agreement. See Conditions to the Merger below.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

The merger agreement contains various restrictions on the operations of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. before the effective time of the merger. In general, the merger agreement obligates American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. to conduct its business in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and use reasonable efforts to preserve its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises. In addition, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. has agreed that, except as expressly contemplated by the merger agreement or specified in a schedule to the merger agreement, without the prior written consent of Investors Bancorp, Inc., it will not, among other things:

enter into, amend in any material respect or terminate any contract or agreement except in the ordinary course of business; change compensation or benefits, except for pay increases or cash bonuses consistent with past practice in the ordinary course of business;

incur any capital expenditures in excess of $25,000 individually or $75,000 in the aggregate other than pursuant to binding commitments or necessary to maintain existing assets in good repair;

issue any additional shares of capital stock except under outstanding options, or grant any options, or declare or pay any dividend except for its current quarterly cash dividend;

purchase any securities (other than Federal Home Loan Bank stock as required), or purchase any securities other than securities (i) issued by a federal government agency, and (ii) with a weighted average life of not more than one year; and

In addition to these covenants, the merger agreement contains various other customary covenants, including, among other things, access to information, each party's efforts to cause its representations and warranties to be true and correct on the closing date and each party's agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a tax-free reorganization.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains a number of customary representations and warranties by Investors Bancorp, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. regarding aspects of their respective businesses, financial condition, structure and other facts pertinent to the merger that are customary for a transaction of this kind. They include, among other things:

the organization, existence, and corporate power and authority and capitalization of each of the companies;

the absence of conflicts with and violations of law and various documents, contracts and agreements;

the existence, performance and legal effect of certain contracts;

All representations, warranties and covenants of the parties, other than the covenants in specified sections which relate to continuing matters, terminate upon the merger.

the shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock to be issued to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders in the merger must have been approved for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market; with respect to each of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and Investors Bancorp, Inc., the representations and warranties of the other party to the merger agreement must be true and correct, except where the failure to be true and correct has not had or is reasonably not expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or Investors Bancorp, Inc., as applicable. If a representation or warranty was qualified as to materiality, it has to be true or correct after giving effect to the materiality standard;

neither American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. nor Investors Bancorp, Inc. shall have suffered a material adverse effect since September 30, 2007 and June 30, 2008, respectively;

Investors Bancorp, Inc. received a legal opinion from its counsel that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization under United States federal income tax laws; and all necessary third party consents shall have been obtained.

The parties may waive conditions to their obligations unless they are legally prohibited from doing so. Stockholder approval and regulatory approvals may not be legally waived.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

General. American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and Investors Bancorp, Inc. have agreed to use all reasonable efforts to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental entities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the merger. This includes the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Reserve Board of Governors and the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance. Investors Bancorp, Inc. has filed the applications necessary to obtain these regulatory approvals. In addition, Investors Bancorp, Inc. has submitted a letter to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York requesting the modification of a prior commitment by Investors Bancorp, Inc. to issue equity securities to any company other than Investors Bancorp, MHC only with the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. If the Federal Reserve Bank of New York does not grant this request by May 31, 2009, Investors Bancorp, Inc. may elect to proceed with the Merger on an all cash basis and merge a newly created merger subsidiary with and into American Bancorp. The merger cannot be completed without such approvals. Investors Bancorp, Inc. cannot assure that it will obtain the required regulatory approvals, when they will be received, or whether there will be conditions in the approvals or any litigation challenging the approvals. We also cannot assure that the United States Department of Justice or any state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, or what the outcome will be if such a challenge is made.

We are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the merger other than those described below. We presently contemplate that we will seek any additional governmental approvals or actions that may be required in addition to those requests for approval currently pending; however, we cannot assure that we will obtain any such additional approvals or actions.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The merger of American Bank of New Jersey into Investors Savings Bank is subject to approval by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. We have filed the required application, but we have not yet received the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's approval.

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation may not approve any transaction that would result in a monopoly or otherwise substantially lessen competition or restrain trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed by the public interest. In addition, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation considers the financial and managerial resources of the companies and their subsidiary institutions and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. Under the Community Reinvestment Act, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation must take into account the record of performance of each company in meeting the credit needs of its entire communities, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, served by each company. Investors Savings Bank has an outstanding CRA rating and American Bank of New Jersey has a satisfactory CRA rating. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation also must consider the effectiveness of each company involved in the proposed transaction in combating money laundering activities.

Federal law requires publication of notice of, and the opportunity for public comment on, the applications submitted by Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank for approval of the merger and authorizes the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to hold a public hearing in connection with the application if it determines that such a hearing would be appropriate. Any such hearing or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is subject to review. In addition, under federal law, a period of 30 days must expire following approval by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, within which period the Department of Justice may file objections to the merger under the federal antitrust laws. This waiting period may be reduced to 15 days if the Department of Justice has not provided any adverse comments relating to the competitive factors of the transaction. If the Department of Justice were to commence an antitrust action, that action would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's approval of the merger unless a court specifically orders otherwise. In reviewing the merger, the Department of Justice could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and thus it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation regarding the merger's competitive effects.

New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance. The bank merger is also subject to the prior approval of the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance under certain provisions of the New Jersey Banking Act of 1948. Investors Bancorp, Inc. filed an application with the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance in January, 2009 for approval of the bank merger. In determining whether to approve such application, the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance may consider, among other factors whether the merger will be in the public interest and whether Investors Savings Bank, the surviving bank in the bank merger, has the minimum capital stock and surplus required under the New Jersey Banking Act of 1948.

The New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance approved the bank merger on March 10, 2009.

Federal Reserve Board of Governors. The merger is subject to prior approval by the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act (BHCA). The BHCA requires the Federal Reserve Board, when approving a transaction such as the merger, to take into consideration the financial and managerial resources (including the competence, experience and integrity of the officers, directors and principal shareholders) and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In considering financial resources and future prospects, the Federal Reserve Board will, among other things, evaluate the adequacy of the capital levels of the parties to a proposed transaction.

Table of Contents

The BHCA prohibits the Federal Reserve Board from approving a merger if it would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States, or if its effect in any section of the country would be substantially to lessen competition or to tend to create a monopoly, or if it would in any other manner result in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of a merger are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In addition, under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended (the CRA), the Federal Reserve Board must take into account the record of performance of the existing institutions in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by such institutions.

Applicable federal law provides for the publication of notice and public comment on applications filed with the Federal Reserve Board and authorizes such agency to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approvals required for consummation of the merger.

No Solicitation

Until the merger is completed or the merger agreement is terminated, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. has agreed that it, and its subsidiaries, its officers and its directors will not:

initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage any inquiries or the making of any proposal to acquire American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.;

participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any proposal to acquire American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any person any information or data with respect to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or otherwise relating to an acquisition proposal;

release any person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. is a party; or enter into any agreement, agreement in principle, or letter of intent with respect to any proposal to acquire American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., or approve or resolve to approve an acquisition proposal.

American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. may, however, furnish information regarding American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. to, or enter into and engage in discussions with, any person or entity in response to a bona fide unsolicited written proposal by the person or entity relating to an acquisition proposal if:

American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such proposal may be or could be superior to the Investors Bancorp, Inc. merger from a financial point-of-view for American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s stockholders;

Table of Contents

American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s board of directors determines, after consultation and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal and that failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with their fiduciary obligations under applicable law;

American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. notifies Investors Bancorp, Inc. within at least two business days prior to such determination; and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. receives a confidentiality agreement from a third party with terms no less favorable to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. than the existing confidentiality agreement between American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and Investors Bancorp, Inc.

Termination; Amendment; Waiver

The merger agreement may be terminated prior to the closing, before or after approval by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. s stockholders, as follows:

by mutual written agreement of Investors Bancorp, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.;

by either Investors Bancorp, Inc. or American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. if the merger has not occurred on or before September 30, 2009, and such failure to close is not due to the terminating party s material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement;

by Investors Bancorp, Inc. or American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. if American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders do not approve the merger agreement;

by a non-breaching party if the other party (1) breaches any covenants or undertakings contained in the merger agreement or (2) breaches any representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement, in each case if such breach has not been cured within thirty days after notice from the terminating party and which breach would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the merger;

by either party if any required regulatory approvals for consummation of the merger or the bank merger is not obtained;

by Investors Bancorp, Inc. if American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. shall have received a superior proposal and the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. board of directors enters into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal and terminated the merger agreement or failed to recommend that the stockholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. approve the merger agreement or has withdrawn, modified or changed such recommendation in a manner which is adverse to Investors Bancorp, Inc.; or by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. in order to accept a superior proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, which has been received and considered by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. in compliance with the applicable terms of the merger agreement, provided that American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. has notified Investors Bancorp, Inc. at least four business days in advance of any such action and given Investors Bancorp, Inc. the opportunity during such period, if Investors Bancorp, Inc. elects in its sole discretion, to negotiate amendments to the merger agreement which would permit American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. to proceed with the proposed merger with Investors Bancorp, Inc.

Under the latter two scenarios described above, if the merger agreement is terminated, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. shall pay to Investors Bancorp, Inc. a fee of $5.6 million.

Additionally, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. may terminate the merger agreement if, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the first date on which all bank regulatory approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period) (the Determination Date), such termination to be effective ten days thereafter if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

the average of the daily closing sales price of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock for the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date (the Investors Bancorp, Inc. Market Value) is less than $9.49; and the number obtained by dividing the Investors Bancorp, Inc. Market Value on the Determination Date by $13.56, (the closing sales price of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock on December 12, 2008, the last trading day immediately preceding the date of the public announcement of the merger agreement (the Initial Investors Bancorp, Inc. Market Value)) is less than the quotient obtained by dividing the sum of the average of the daily closing sales prices for the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date of a group of financial institution holding companies comprising the SNL Thrift Index as reported by SNL Securities (the Final Index Price) by the sum of the average of the daily closing sales price of those financial institution holding companies comprising the SNL Thrift Index on the trading day ended two days preceding the execution of the merger agreement (the Initial Index Price), minus 0.30.

If American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. elects to exercise its termination right as described above, it must give prompt written notice thereof to Investors Bancorp, Inc. During the five-day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Investors Bancorp, Inc. shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock who are to receive Investors Bancorp, Inc. s common stock by adjusting the Exchange Ratio to one of the following at its sole discretion: (i) a quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Initial Investors Market Value, the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect), and the Index Ratio minus 0.30, and the denominator of which is equal to Investors Market Value on the Determination Date; or (ii) the quotient determined by dividing the Initial Investors Market Value by the Investors Market Value on the Determination Date, and multiplying the quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and 0.70. If Investors Bancorp, Inc. elects, it shall give, within such five-day period, written notice to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. of such election to pay the additional merger consideration, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred and the merger agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except as the merger consideration shall have been so modified). Because the formula is dependent on the future price of Investors Bancorp, Inc. s common stock and that of the index group, it is not possible presently to determine what the adjusted merger consideration would be at this time, but, in general, more shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock would be issued or cash paid, to take into account the extent the average price of Investors Bancorp, Inc. s common stock exceeded the decline in the average price of the common stock of the index group.

Approval by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders authorizes its Board of Directors to terminate the merger agreement or proceed therewith at its sole discretion. If the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. terminates the merger agreement pursuant to this provision, Investors Bancorp, Inc. may increase the merger consideration pursuant to this prescribed formula and compel American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. to complete the merger.

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after approval of the merger agreement by the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders. However, after such approval, no amendment may be made without their approval if it reduces the amount, value or changes the form of consideration to be delivered to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders.

The parties may waive any of their conditions to closing, unless they may not be waived under law.

Fees and Expenses

Investors Bancorp, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. will each pay its own costs and expenses in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby except as described above.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences Of The Merger

General. The following discussion sets forth the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or foreign jurisdiction. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the regulations of the U.S. Treasury Department and court and administrative rulings and decisions in effect on the date of this document. These laws may change, possibly retroactively, and any change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust that (1) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more United States persons or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

This discussion assumes that you hold your shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. Further, the discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances or that may be applicable to you if you are subject to annual treatment under the United States federal income tax laws, including if you are:

a financial institution;

a tax-exempt organization;

an S corporation or other pass-through entity;

an insurance company;

a mutual fund;

a dealer in securities or foreign currencies;

a trader in securities who elects the mark-to-market method of accounting for your securities;

a American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder whose shares are qualified small business stock for purposes of Section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code or who may otherwise be subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Internal Revenue Code;

a American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder who received American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan;

a person that has a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

a holder of options granted under any American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. benefit plan; or a American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder who holds American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock as part of a hedge, straddle or a constructive sale or conversion transaction.

If a partnership (including an entity treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) holds American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of such partner and the activities of the partnership.

Based on representations contained in letters provided by Investors Bancorp, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and on certain customary factual assumptions, all of which must continue to be true and accurate in all material respects as of the effective time of the merger, it is the opinion of Luse Gorman Pomerenk & Schick, P.C., counsel to Investors Bancorp, Inc., that the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger are as follows:

the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or will be treated as part of a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and the merger of American Bank of New Jersey into Investors Savings Bank will not adversely effect this result;

no gain or loss will be recognized by Investors Bancorp, Inc., its subsidiaries or American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey by reason of the merger;

you will not recognize gain or loss if you exchange your American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock solely for Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock, except to the extent of any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock;

you will recognize gain or loss if you exchange your American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock solely for cash in the merger (or receive cash in lieu of fractional shares) in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash you receive and your tax basis in your shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock;

subject to the following paragraph, you will recognize gain (but not loss) if you exchange your American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock for a combination of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock and cash in an amount equal to the lesser of:

the excess, if any, of:

the sum of the cash (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock) and the fair market value of the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock you receive (including any fractional share of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock you are deemed to receive and exchange for cash); over your tax basis in the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock surrendered in the merger; or

the cash that you receive in the merger.

your tax basis in the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock that you receive in the merger (including any fractional share interest you are deemed to receive and exchange for cash), will equal your tax basis in the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock you surrendered, increased by the amount of taxable gain, if any, you recognize on the exchange and decreased by the amount of any cash received by you in the merger; and your holding period for the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock that you receive in the merger will include your holding period for the shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock that you surrender in the merger.

If you acquired different blocks of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock at different times and at different prices, any gain or loss you recognize will be determined separately with respect to each block of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock, and the cash and Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock you receive will be allocated pro rata to each such block of common stock. In addition, your basis and holding period in your Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock may be determined with reference to each block of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock.

Additional Considerations Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend. All or part of the gain you recognize could be treated as ordinary dividend income rather than capital gain if (i) you are a significant stockholder of Investors Bancorp, Inc. or (ii) if taking into account constructive ownership rules, your percentage ownership in Investors Bancorp, Inc. after the merger is not less than 80% of what your percentage ownership would have been if you had received Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock rather than cash in the merger. This could happen, for example, because of your purchase of additional Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock, a purchase of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock by a person related to you or a share repurchase by Investors Bancorp, Inc. from other Investors Bancorp, Inc. stockholders. The test for dividend treatment is made as though you received solely Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock in the exchange, and subsequently had a portion of such stock redeemed for cash. If this redemption (i) does not result in a meaningful reduction in your interest in the company (which should not be the case as long as you are a minority stockholder, taking into account the attribution rules under Section 318 of the Internal Revenue Code) or (ii) decreases your stock ownership in Investors Bancorp, Inc. by 20% or less, dividend treatment could apply. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends upon your particular circumstances, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, you should consult your own tax advisor regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to you.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. You will generally recognize capital gain or loss on any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis allocated to such fractional share.

Taxation of Capital Gain. Any gain or loss that you recognize in connection with the merger will generally constitute capital gain or loss and will constitute long-term capital gain or loss if your holding period in your American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock is greater than one year as of the date of the merger. For the rate of tax on capital gains, see below under Tax Rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Alternative Structure. In the event Investors Bancorp, Inc. has not received the required regulatory approvals to issue shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock in the merger by May 31, 2009, Investors Bancorp, Inc. may elect, but is not required, to proceed with the merger on an all cash basis. In such an event, the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger will be different than those discussed above. Instead, if the merger occurs on an all cash basis, you will recognize gain or loss upon the exchange of your American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and your tax basis in the shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. exchanged therefore, which gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if such shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. were held for more than one year.

Holding Investors Bancorp, Inc. Common Stock. The following discussion describes the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a holder of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock after the merger. Any cash distribution paid by Investors Bancorp, Inc. out of earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax law, will be subject to tax as dividend income and will be includible in your gross income in accordance with your method of accounting. See below under Tax Rates for information regarding the rate of tax on dividends. Cash distributions paid by Investors Bancorp, Inc. in excess of its earnings and profits will be treated as (i) a tax-free return of capital to the extent of your adjusted basis in your Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock (reducing such adjusted basis, but not below zero), and (ii) thereafter as gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset.

Upon the sale, exchange or other disposition of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock, you will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized upon the disposition and your adjusted tax basis in the shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock surrendered. Any such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if your holding period with respect to the Investors Bancorp, Inc. common stock surrendered is more than one year at the time of the disposition. For the rate of tax on capital gains, see below under Tax Rates.

Tax Rates. The top individual rate for long-term capital gains is 15 percent. The top individual rate for qualified dividend income is also 15 percent. To be considered qualified dividend income to a particular holder, the holder must have held the common stock for more than 60 days during the 120 day period beginning 60 days before the ex-dividend period as measured under section 246(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Dividend income that is not qualified dividend income will be taxed at ordinary income rates. You are urged to consult your tax advisor to determine whether a dividend, if any, would be treated as qualified dividend income.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. Unless an exemption applies, the exchange agent will be required to withhold, and will withhold, 28% of any cash payments to which a holder of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. common stock or other payee is entitled pursuant to the merger, unless the stockholder or other payee provides his or her tax identification number (social security number or employer identification number) and certifies that the number is correct. Each American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholder and, if applicable, each other payee, is required to complete and sign the Form W-9 that will be included as part of the transmittal letter to avoid being subject to backup withholding, unless an applicable exemption exists and is proved in a manner satisfactory to Investors Bancorp, Inc. and the exchange agent.

Limitations on Tax Opinion and Discussion. As noted earlier, the tax opinion is subject to certain assumptions, relating to, among other things, the truth and accuracy of certain representations made by Investors Bancorp, Inc. and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., and the consummation of the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement and applicable state law. Furthermore, the tax opinion will not bind the Internal Revenue Service and, therefore, the IRS is not precluded from asserting a contrary position. The tax opinion and this discussion are based on currently existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, existing and proposed Treasury regulations, and current administrative rulings and court decisions. There can be no assurance that future legislative, judicial, or administrative changes or interpretations will not adversely affect the accuracy of the tax opinion or of the statements and conclusions set forth herein. Any such changes or interpretations could be applied retroactively and could affect the tax consequences of the merger.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you. Thus, we urge American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stockholders to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them resulting from the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, and other applicable tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

State Anti-Takeover Statutes

Investors Bancorp, Inc. Under the business combination statute of Delaware law, a corporation is prohibited from engaging in any business combination involving an interested shareholder, together with its affiliates or associates, for a three (3) year period following the time the shareholder becomes an interested shareholder, unless:

prior to the time the shareholder became an interested shareholder, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the shareholder becoming an interested shareholder;

the interested shareholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation, excluding specified shares, upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the shareholder becoming an interested shareholder; or at or subsequent to the time the shareholder became an interested shareholder, the business combination is approved by the board of directors of the corporation and authorized by the affirmative vote, at an annual or special meeting and not by written consent, of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation, excluding shares held by that interested shareholder.

Under Delaware law, an interested shareholder generally means any person that is the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation at any time within the three year period immediately prior to the date of a proposed business combination.

mergers, consolidations and sales or other dispositions of 10% or more of the assets of a corporation to or with an interested shareholder; specified transactions resulting in the issuance or transfer to an interested shareholder of any capital stock of the corporation or its subsidiaries; and other transactions resulting in a disproportionate financial benefit to an interested shareholder.

The provisions of the Delaware business combination statute do not apply to a corporation if, subject to certain requirements, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation contain a provision expressly electing not to be governed by the provisions of the statute or the corporation does not have voting stock listed on a national securities exchange, authorized for quotation on an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association or held of record by more than two thousand (2,000) shareholders. Investors Bancorp, Inc. has not adopted a provision in its Certificate of Incorporation to opt out of the Delaware business combination statute. Accordingly, the statute is applicable to business combinations involving Investors Bancorp, Inc.

An interested shareholder is defined under the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Certificate of Incorporation as any person who or which:

Declaration of Dividends.

Investors Bancorp, Inc. Delaware law provides that directors of a corporation may declare and pay dividends upon the shares of its capital stock either (1) out of its surplus, as defined in and computed in accordance with Delaware law, or (2) in case there shall be no such surplus, out of its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year. If Investors Bancorp, Inc. pays dividends to its stockholders, it also will be required to pay dividends to Investors Bancorp, MHC, unless Investors Bancorp, MHC is permitted by the Federal Reserve Board to waive the receipt of dividends. The Federal Reserve Board's current policy does not permit a mutual holding company to waive dividends declared by its subsidiary. Accordingly, because dividends will be required to be paid to Investors Bancorp, MHC along with all other stockholders, the amount of dividends available for all other stockholders will be less than if Investors Bancorp, MHC were permitted to waive the receipt of dividends. Investors Bancorp, Inc. is not subject to any other express regulatory restrictions on payments of dividends and other distributions.

The ability of Investors Bancorp, Inc. to pay distributions to the holders of its common stock will depend, however, to a large extent upon the amount of dividends received from Investors Savings Bank, which is subject to restrictions imposed by bank regulatory authorities. The declaration, payment and amount of future dividends will depend on business conditions, operating results, capital, reserve requirements and the consideration of other relevant factors by the board of directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc.

Investors Bancorp, Inc. has no present plans to issue preferred stock.

Certain Provisions of the Investors Bancorp, Inc. Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

The following discussion is a summary of certain provisions of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Investors Bancorp, Inc. that relate to corporate governance. The description is necessarily general and qualified by reference to the certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

Classified Board of Directors. The Board of Directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc. is required by its certificate of incorporation to be divided into three staggered classes. Each year one class will be elected by stockholders of Investors Bancorp, Inc. for a three-year term. A classified board promotes continuity and stability of management, but makes it more difficult for stockholders to change a majority of the directors because it generally takes at least two annual elections of directors for this to occur.

Authorized but Unissued Shares of Capital Stock. Following the offering, Investors Bancorp, Inc. will have authorized but unissued shares of preferred stock and common stock. See Description of Capital Stock of Investors Bancorp, Inc. Although these shares could be used by the Board of Directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc. to make it more difficult or to discourage an attempt to obtain control of Investors Bancorp, Inc. through a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise, it is unlikely that we would use or need to use shares for these purposes since Investors Bancorp, MHC owns a majority of the common stock.

How Shares are Voted. Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s certificate of incorporation provides that there will not be cumulative voting by stockholders for the election of directors. No cumulative voting rights means that Investors Bancorp, MHC, as the holder of a majority of the shares eligible to be voted at a meeting of stockholders, may elect all directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc. to be elected at that meeting. This could prevent minority stockholder representation on Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s Board of Directors.

Restrictions on Call of Special Meetings. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders can be called only by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the authorized number of directors. Stockholders are not authorized to call a special meeting of stockholders.

Limitation of Voting Rights. The certificate of incorporation provides that in no event will any record owner of any outstanding common stock which is beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by a person who beneficially owns more than 10% of the then outstanding shares of common stock, be entitled or permitted to vote any of the shares held in excess of the 10% limit. This restriction does not apply to Investors Bancorp, MHC or to any tax-qualified employee stock benefit plan established by Investors Bancorp, Inc. or Investors Savings Bank.

Restrictions on Removing Directors from Office. The certificate of incorporation provides that directors may only be removed for cause, and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting power of all of the outstanding stock entitled to vote (after giving effect to the limitation on voting rights discussed above in Limitation of Voting Rights.)

Procedures for Stockholder Nominations. The bylaws of Investors Bancorp, Inc. provide an advance notice procedure for certain business, or nominations to the Board of Directors, to be brought before an annual meeting of stockholders. In order for a stockholder to properly bring business before an annual meeting, or to propose a nominee to the Board of Directors, the stockholder must give written notice to the Secretary of Investors Bancorp, Inc. not less than 90 days prior to the date of Investors Bancorp, Inc. s proxy materials for the preceding year s annual meeting; provided, however, that if the date of the annual meeting is advanced more than 30 days prior to or delayed by more than 30 days after the anniversary of the preceding year s annual meeting, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is first made. The notice must include the stockholder s name, record address, and number of shares owned, describe briefly the proposed business, the reasons for bringing the business before the annual meeting, and any material interest of the stockholder in the proposed business. In the case of nominations to the Board of Directors, certain information regarding the nominee must be provided. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to require Investors Bancorp, Inc. to include in its proxy statement and proxy relating to an annual meeting any stockholder proposal that does not meet all of the requirements for inclusion established by the Securities and Exchange Commission in effect at the time such proposal is received.

Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. Amendments to the certificate of incorporation must be approved by Investors Bancorp, Inc. s Board of Directors and also by a majority of the outstanding shares of Investors Bancorp, Inc. s voting stock; provided, however, that approval by at least 80% of the outstanding voting stock (after giving effect to the 10% voting limitation discussed above) is generally required to amend the following provisions:

- (1) The limitation on voting rights of persons who directly or indirectly offer to acquire or acquire the beneficial ownership of more than 10% of the common stock of Investors Bancorp, Inc.;
- (2) The inability of stockholders to act by less than unanimous written consent;
- (3) The inability of stockholders to call special meetings of stockholders;
- (4) The division of the Board of Directors into three staggered classes;
- (5) The ability of the Board of Directors to fill vacancies on the board;

Table of Contents

- (6) The inability to deviate from the manner prescribed in the bylaws by which stockholders nominate directors and bring other business before meetings of stockholders;
- (7) The requirement that at least 80% of stockholders must vote to remove directors, and can only remove directors for cause; and
- (8) The ability of the Board of Directors to amend and repeal the bylaws.

The bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc. or the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the total votes eligible to be voted at a duly constituted meeting of stockholders.

Restrictions on the Acquisition of Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank

Federal regulations, as well as our mutual holding company structure, restrict the ability of any person, firm or entity to acquire Investors Bancorp, Inc., Investors Savings Bank, or their respective capital stock. These restrictions include the requirement that a potential acquirer of common stock obtain the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System before acquiring 10% or more of the shares of common stock of Investors Bancorp, Inc.

Under New Jersey law and our governing corporate instruments, at least 50.1% of Investors Bancorp, Inc.'s voting shares must be owned by Investors Bancorp, MHC, as long as Investors Bancorp, MHC is in existence. Investors Bancorp, MHC will be controlled by its Board of Directors, who will consist of persons who also are members of the Board of Directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank. Investors Bancorp, MHC will be able to elect all members of the Board of Directors of Investors Bancorp, Inc., and as a general matter, will be able to control the outcome of all matters presented to the stockholders of Investors Bancorp, Inc. for resolution by vote, except for matters that require a vote greater than a majority. Investors Bancorp, MHC, acting through its Board of Directors, will be able to control the business and operations of Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank, and will be able to prevent any challenge to the ownership or control of Investors Bancorp, Inc. by public stockholders. Accordingly, a change in control of Investors Bancorp, Inc. and Investors Savings Bank cannot occur unless agreed to by the Board of Directors of Investors Bancorp, MHC.

Director Independence

Directors Gaccione, North, Parker, Rospond and Ward qualify as independent in accordance with the published listing requirements of the NASDAQ Stock Market. The NASDAQ independence definition includes a series of objective tests, such as that the director is not an employee of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and has not engaged in various types of business dealings with the company. As further required by the NASDAQ rules, the Board has made a subjective determination as to each independent director that no relationships exist which, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. In making these determinations, the Board reviewed and discussed information provided by the directors and American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. with regard to each director's business and personal activities as they may relate to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and its management. In this regard, the Board considered American Bank of New Jersey's relationships with the law firms of which Directors Gaccione and Rospond are principals, as described under Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

Committees and Charters

The Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. has standing Audit, Compensation and Nominating Committees.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is comprised of Directors Parker, North and Ward, each of whom meets the independence standards for audit committee members under the NASDAQ rules. Each member of the Audit Committee is qualified under the NASDAQ rules to serve as a member of the Audit Committee; however, none qualifies as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of the regulations of the SEC. The Board has determined that, based on the business backgrounds and collective experience of the current members of the Audit Committee, it is not necessary for the committee to have a member who meets the audit committee financial expert definition. The Audit Committee is scheduled to meet at least quarterly and on an as-needed basis. In fiscal 2008, this committee met six times.

The Audit Committee operates under a formal written charter adopted by the Board, a copy of which was attached to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 20, 2006. The Audit Committee assists our Board in its oversight responsibility relating to the integrity of our financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The Audit Committee, among other things:

- oversees the entire audit function for American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc., both internal and independent;
- hires, terminates and/or reappoints our independent auditors;
- ensures the existence of effective accounting and internal control systems;
- approves non-audit and audit services to be performed by the independent auditors;
- reviews and approves all related party transactions for potential conflict of interest situations; and
- reviews and assesses the adequacy of the Audit Committee charter on an annual basis.

The report of the Audit Committee is set forth below under Audit Committee Report.

make recommendations with regard to the compensation of directors; overseeing the administration of our employee benefit plans covering employees generally; and

The Compensation Committee operates under a formal written charter adopted by the Board, a copy of which was attached to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 23, 2008.

The charter of the Compensation Committee does not specifically provide for delegation of any of the authorities or responsibilities of the committee. As discussed under Compensation Discussion and Analysis, in setting certain components of the compensation of executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer, the Compensation Committee considers the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer and President and Chief Operating Officer.

Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee is currently comprised of Directors Gaccione and Ward, each of whom is an independent director under the NASDAQ rules. This Committee met one time during fiscal 2008. The Nominating Committee is responsible for identifying and recommending director candidates to serve on the Board of Directors. Final approval of director nominees is determined by the full Board, based on the recommendations of the Nominating Committee. The nominee for election at the annual meeting was recommended to the Board by the Nominating Committee.

The Nominating Committee operates under a formal written charter adopted by the Board, a copy of which was attached to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 20, 2006, under which the Nominating Committee has the following responsibilities:

Additionally, the Committee may consider persons recommended by shareholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and the Committee's evaluation of such persons will not differ from the manner of evaluation of persons recommended by directors or officers of the American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or the American Bank of New Jersey.

- b) as to the shareholder giving the notice, (i) the name and address, as they appear on American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s books, of the shareholder and any other shareholders known by the shareholder to be supporting the shareholder's nominees, and (ii) the class and number of shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. stock which are beneficially owned by the shareholder and, to the extent known, by any other shareholders known by the shareholder to be supporting the shareholder's nominees on the date of the shareholder's notice.

In addition, nominations submitted by shareholders must be accompanied by a certification, under oath before a notary public, by each nominee that he or she meets the eligibility requirements to be a director as set forth in Article III of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s bylaws.

The foregoing description is a summary of our nominating process. Any shareholder wishing to nominate a candidate or recommend a nominee to our Nominating Committee for its consideration should Effective July 30, 2002, the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 was amended by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 to require all auditing services and non-audit services provided by an issuer's independent auditor to be approved by the issuer's audit committee prior to such services being rendered or to be approved pursuant to pre-approval policies and procedures established by the issuer's audit committee. American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s Audit Committee has not established pre-approval procedures and instead specifically approves each service prior to the engagement of the auditor for all audit and non-audit services.

If a director agrees to become a consulting director to our board upon retirement, he will receive a monthly payment for life but in no event for less than 144 months, equal to 0.0833 times the highest aggregate annual fees paid (including retainer fees and regular board meeting fees) during the most recently completed three calendar year periods ending on or before the retirement date. In the event of a change in control, all directors will be presumed to have reached the retirement date and each director will receive a lump sum payment equal to the present value of future benefits payable.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the compensation earned by or awarded to each director, other than Messrs. Kliminski and Kowal, who served on the Board of Directors of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. in fiscal 2008.

Executive Compensation

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview. This Compensation Discussion and Analysis provides important information about our executive compensation program (the program) as it relates to the named executive officers of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.. The discussion and analysis will first present an overview of program governance followed by a review of the goals and objectives of the program. Next, we will identify the executive officers to whom the program applies followed by a review of the specific components of our executives' compensation and the manner in which each generally supports our program's objectives. We will then highlight the specific program oversight and administration activities undertaken by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and how such activities affected executive compensation during fiscal 2008. Finally, this discussion and analysis will present an overview of certain accounting and income tax considerations that are relevant to the program.

Governance of the Program. The Compensation Committee (the committee) of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s Board of Directors, which consists solely of outside directors, is responsible for the governance of our executive compensation program. These responsibilities include establishing the goals and objectives of the program and developing and implementing the program based upon those goals and objectives. The committee's responsibilities also include all program oversight and administration activities through which the various components of the program are regularly reviewed and modified, where necessary, to ensure their continued alignment with the program's goals and objectives.

Goals and Objectives of our Executive Compensation Program. The program is fundamentally based upon the goal of preserving the financial strength, safety and soundness of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and American Bank of New Jersey while supporting long term growth in shareholder value. Toward that end, the committee has established the following objectives for the program:

To attract and retain talented and experienced executives whose knowledge, skills and performance are critical to our success in a highly competitive community banking industry,

To provide a reasonable, fair and competitive level of current compensation to our executives in relation to their roles and responsibilities,

To provide a reasonable, fair and competitive level of retirement compensation to our executives in relation to their roles and responsibilities,

To provide meaningful and significant financial incentives to executives to achieve our stated business plan goals and objectives,

To reward executives for corporate performance that exceeds our business plan goals and objectives,

To reward executives for individual job performance that exceeds the requirements and expectations of their roles and responsibilities, and

To align the financial interests of our executives with those of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s shareholders toward the shared goal of growth in shareholder value.

Table of Contents

The goals and objectives listed above are the guiding principles upon which the committee has developed and implemented American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s executive compensation program. These same goals and objectives serve as the primary criteria against which the committee regularly reviews and judges the effectiveness of the structure of the program and the terms of its specific components.

Identification of Named Executive Officers. The named executive officers falling within the purview of this discussion and analysis include our principal executive officer, our principal financial officer and the two other most highly compensated executive officers serving at fiscal year end based upon total compensation for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008. These named executive officers are:

Joseph Kliminski, Chief Executive Officer,

Fred G. Kowal, President and Chief Operating Officer,

Eric B. Heyer, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and Catherine M. Bringuier, Senior Vice President and Chief Lending Officer.

Components of Executive Compensation. The committee has established a compensation package for our executives that includes base salary, annual performance-based incentive compensation, equity-based compensation, retirement benefits, medical and insurance benefits and perquisites. Our executive officers may also be protected under employment agreements with severance and change in control provisions.

The committee uses a variety of quantitative and qualitative factors in determining if, and to what extent, the named executive officers participate in the specific components of the executive compensation program. For any particular executive, the committee establishes the level of compensation within each applicable component to support a balanced achievement of the program's goals and objectives noted above.

The remainder of this section will present an overview of the specific components of our executive compensation program. This overview will identify and describe each component, its specific purpose in relation to the program's goals and objectives, the eligible executives whose compensation includes that component and the general criteria used by the committee to determine the level of an executive's compensation within that component.

Base Salary. A base salary is that component of an executive's compensation that represents remuneration for their effective performance of the day-to-day activities and responsibilities that are required based upon the executive's specific role within American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.

In relation to the goals and objectives of the executive compensation program, an executive's base salary generally serves two primary purposes:

To attract and retain talented and experienced executives whose knowledge, skills and performance are critical to our success in a highly competitive community banking industry, and

To provide a reasonable, fair and competitive level of base compensation to our executives in relation to their roles and responsibilities.

Executive base salaries are generally reviewed by the committee annually and modified, where appropriate, to support the achievement of this component's goals and objectives as stated above. The committee utilizes outside resources, in part, to ascertain the appropriate level of base salary for each of the named executive officers given their specified role within American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Such outside sources may include role-based compensation surveys published for the banking industry by one or more qualified, independent resources. The committee is also cognizant of the salaries paid by other financial services companies within our market area with which we compete for executives. The committee also evaluates the effectiveness with which the executive has performed their specific role in considering any modification to an executive's level of base salary. The committee is solely responsible for evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer. However, the committee considers the feedback of the Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer in their evaluation of performance of the two remaining named executive officers.

Performance-Based Incentive Compensation. Performance-based incentive compensation generally represents remuneration for an executive's contribution toward the achievement of specific goals and objectives outlined in American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s business plan. Toward this end, the committee has established and maintains the Management Incentive Plan (MIP) which is the primary source of short-term incentive compensation payable to the eligible named executive officers. MIP compensation is generally paid annually based upon fiscal year performance.

In relation to the goals and objectives of the executive compensation program, the MIP serves three primary purposes:

To provide meaningful and significant financial incentives to executives to achieve our stated business plan goals and objectives,

To reward executives for corporate performance that exceeds our business plan goals and objectives, and

To reward executives for individual job performance that exceeds the requirements and expectations of their roles and responsibilities.

A named executive officer's participation in the MIP is determined annually by the committee during the initial phase of the MIP administration cycle described below. Eligibility to participate in the MIP is largely determined based upon the executive's corporate role and responsibilities and their resulting influence on, and contribution to, our success as measured by the MIP.

The MIP is generally administered by the committee on an annual cycle. The administration process begins with the completion of the business plan and budgeting process for the current fiscal year. Once that process is complete, the committee establishes the MIP basis upon which each eligible executive's potential incentive compensation for that year is based, representing the targeted incentive award amount for the executive. Generally, the MIP basis is calculated as a percentage of an executive's base salary. The committee then establishes specific performance targets for each executive based upon the corporate goals and objectives outlined in our updated business plan and budget as well as targets relating to individual job performance. Performance targets may include both quantitative and qualitative factors which are established for the executive based upon their specific role and responsibilities within American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.. Quantitative factors are based upon measurable, numerical values while qualitative factors utilize numerical scalars to measure performance for certain non-quantifiable targets. These factors are then weighted by the committee in relation to one another to reflect the strategic priorities of our business plan. Such weightings determine the pro-rata allocation of the MIP basis by factor for each eligible executive.

Committee members and executives monitor corporate and individual performance throughout the year in relation to the levels targeted for each applicable factor. Upon completion of the fiscal year, the committee measures actual performance for each executive's factors against the targeted levels. With regard to qualitative factors, the committee is solely responsible for measuring the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer. However, the committee may consider the feedback of the Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer in measuring the performance of the other eligible named executive officers in relation to applicable qualitative factors.

Subject to certain performance caps and floors established by the committee, the degree to which each measured factor meets, exceeds or falls below the targeted level determines the percentage of the MIP basis earned by the executive for that factor. The compensation earned by the executive through the MIP for all applicable factors determines their total incentive compensation for the fiscal year.

The incentive compensation earned by each of the eligible executive officers for fiscal 2008 is reported in the Summary Compensation Table below.

Equity-Based Compensation. As utilized within executive compensation program, equity-based compensation represents non-cash remuneration earned by executives in the form of restricted shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s stock and stock options on shares. American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. has implemented two sets of restricted stock (RSP) and stock option (SOP) plans. The first set of plans was approved by shareholders in January 2005 through which up to 208,295 restricted shares and 694,315 stock options were approved for award to employees and directors. The number of restricted shares and options for this first set of plans reflects an adjustment for the exchange of minority offering shares during American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s second step conversion. The second set of plans received shareholder approval in May 2006 through which up to a total of 358,484 restricted shares and 722,633 options were approved for award to employees and directors.

Of the 566,779 restricted shares made available through American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s equity-based compensation plans, a total of 327,909 or 57.9% were awarded to the named executive officers. Similarly, of the 1,416,948 stock options made available through American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s plans, a total of 788,528 or 55.6% were awarded to the named executive officers. The remaining number of available restricted shares and stock options were awarded to outside directors and other officers. Each award of restricted stock or stock options was granted subject to a five year vesting period with 20% of such shares or options vesting annually commencing on the first anniversary date of each award. The exercise price of all stock options awarded was based upon the closing share value of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s stock on the date of grant.

In relation to the goals and objectives of the executive compensation program, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s equity-based compensation plans serve two primary purposes:

Table of Contents

To align the financial interests of our executives with those of its shareholders toward the shared goal of growth in shareholder value, and

To attract and retain talented and experienced executives whose knowledge, skills and performance are critical to our success in a highly competitive community banking industry.

The committee has awarded restricted shares and stock options from the two sets of plans noted above to each of the named executive officers. The number of restricted shares and stock options awarded to each executive was determined by the committee, in part, based upon the executive's corporate role and responsibilities and their individual contribution to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s strategic achievements during their employment to date. The number of RSP and SOP awards granted to executives also reflects the comparative level of employment retention incentive established by the committee for each executive.

Retirement Benefits. American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. maintains two forms of retirement benefits in which substantially all employees, including the named executive officers, are eligible to participate. These benefits include American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) and American Bank of New Jersey's 401(k) profit sharing plan (401(k) plan). Additionally, our executive compensation program includes a supplemental executive retirement plan, in which each of the named executive officers participates. The terms of the supplemental executive retirement plan are established within Executive Salary Continuation Agreements (SERP agreements) between American Bank of New Jersey and each of the named executive officers. In all cases, the compensation received by employees through these plans is income tax deferred and the benefits relating to these plans are subject to vesting.

ESOP. The ESOP was initially established as part of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s minority stock offering in October 2003 and then substantially augmented through its second step conversion in October 2005. Through these transactions, the ESOP borrowed from American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. the funds necessary to purchase a total of 1,133,571 shares of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s stock. Shares issued to the ESOP are allocated to eligible participants as of the end of each calendar year based on principal and interest repayments made by the ESOP on the loan from American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.. The loan is secured by American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. shares purchased with the loan proceeds and is being repaid by the ESOP with funds from American Bank of New Jersey's discretionary contributions to the ESOP and earnings on the ESOP's assets. Principal and interest payments are scheduled to occur over a twenty-year period.

401(k) Plan. The 401(k) plan is designed to provide tax deferred retirement savings and income to eligible employees. Prior to the augmentation of the ESOP through American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s second step conversion, American Bank of New Jersey had made annual, discretionary profit sharing contributions to this plan. However, such contributions to the plan were discontinued after the ESOP was augmented. As such, bank contributions in recent years have been limited to the 401(k) component of the plan. Through this component, American Bank of New Jersey provides a defined contribution into each participant's 401(k) account that matches up to 50% of the first six percent of the wages and salaries that are contributed by the employee into the plan. Investments held by the 401(k) include a variety of mutual funds and other managed accounts including one fund comprised entirely of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s stock.

SERP Agreements. The SERP agreements are intended to provide defined benefit retirement income to the named executive officers to augment that provided through American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s other plans and outside resources such as Social Security. Benefits under the SERP agreements are calculated as a percentage of an executive's average base salary during the years immediately preceding retirement with post-retirement benefits paid in equal monthly installments until the death of the participant.

American Bank of New Jersey has purchased bank-owned life insurance policies on each of the named executive officers to provide income in the form of growth in each policy's cash surrender values over time to offset the costs of the SERP agreements. Additionally, these policies provide a form of life insurance benefit under the terms of a Life Insurance Endorsement Method Split Dollar Plan Agreement between the named executive officer and American Bank of New Jersey. This agreement provides for the payment of the value of the expected SERP agreement benefit to the named executive officer's designated beneficiaries in the event of the named executive officer's death.

In relation to the goals and objectives of the executive compensation program, the ESOP, 401(k) plan and SERP benefits included in our executive compensation program serve two primary purposes:

To provide a reasonable, fair and competitive level of retirement compensation to our executives in relation to their roles and responsibilities, and

To attract and retain talented and experienced executives whose knowledge, skills and performance are critical to our success in a highly competitive community banking industry.

Each of the named executive officers participates in the ESOP. All employees share ratably in the number of ESOP shares allocated annually. The number of shares allocated to any eligible employee, including the named executive officers, is based upon their annual wages and salaries in relation to that of all eligible participants, subject to certain caps for highly compensated employees. Such caps currently limit the number of shares allocated annually to the Chief Executive Officer and President & Chief Operating Officer. Similarly, each of the named executive officers also participates in the 401(k) plan.

As noted above, American Bank of New Jersey has entered into SERP agreements that provide for supplemental retirement benefits to each of the named executive officers. The SERP agreements for Mr. Kliminski and Mr. Heyer were executed in December 2002. Ms. Bringuier's SERP agreement was executed in April 2003. The SERP agreement for Mr. Kowal, who joined the institution in March 2005, was executed in December 2006.

Within each of the SERP agreements, the key variable in determining the level of an executive's supplemental retirement benefit is the percentage of average base salary that will be paid to the executive as a post-retirement benefit. In determining the appropriate percentage for each executive, the committee considered the aggregate amount of post-retirement income which the executive would be forecasted to receive through their employment with American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. assuming continuation of their current role and responsibilities. The committee considered such sources of retirement income to include SERP agreement payments, distributions from the 401(k) plan, distributions from the ESOP as well as payments received by the executive through Social Security. The aggregated level of expected post retirement income was then evaluated by the committee in relation to the projected level of the executive's base salary at retirement. The level of SERP agreement benefit was generally targeted to provide an aggregate level of post-retirement income in approximate ranges of projected pre-retirement base salary of 65% to 75% for Mr. Kliminski and Mr. Kowal, 55% to 65% for Mr. Heyer and 45% to 55% for Ms. Bringuier.

Based on these considerations, the percentage of each executive's average base salary to be paid as a SERP agreement benefit was established as follows: Mr. Kliminski 50%, Mr. Kowal 45%, Mr. Heyer 40%, and Ms. Bringuier 30%. The average base salary providing the basis of the post-retirement SERP agreement benefit is defined within the applicable SERP agreements as the average of the three highest years' base salaries during the five years immediately preceding the executive's retirement.

Health Care and Life & Long Term Disability Insurance Benefits. Health care benefits are a form of non-cash compensation designed to cover a significant portion of the costs of providing health care protection to employees. We maintain a program of health care benefits covering medical, dental and vision benefits that are available to substantially all employees. We also maintain programs through which we provide life and long term disability insurance to substantially all employees.

In relation to the goals and objectives of the executive compensation program, the health care and other insurance benefits included in our executive compensation program serve two primary purposes:

To attract and retain talented and experienced executives whose knowledge, skills and performance are critical to our success in a highly competitive community banking industry, and

To provide a reasonable, fair and competitive level of current compensation to our executives in relation to their roles and responsibilities.

We generally provide health care and long term disability insurance benefits to each of the named executive officers through the same plans providing such coverage to other employees. Like all employees, executives are able to select from the applicable level of health care coverage that protects the individual employee and, where elected by the executive, their dependents. The level of dependent coverage determines the amount of mandatory contribution that is made by the executive through a payroll deduction to partially defray our cost of providing such coverage.

In the event that an employee were to incur a long term disability that prevented active employment, our disability insurance generally compensates the employee at 60% of their base salary through their normal retirement age as defined by the Social Security. Such protection is currently capped at $10,000 per month. Consequently, based upon their current base salaries, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier's long term disability protection is currently limited to $120,000 per year. The employment agreements for Mr. Kliminski and Mr. Kowal each contain provisions for supplemental long term disability compensation to be paid directly by American Bank of New Jersey during the remaining term of their respective contracts. Thereafter, Mr. Kliminski's and Mr. Kowal's long term disability compensation would be similarly capped at $120,000 per year.

We also provide life insurance benefits to the named executive officers. This benefit is provided through separate coverage than that provided to other employees. Specifically, in accordance with the terms of an Executive Life Insurance Agreement executed with American Bank of New Jersey, each named executive officer is provided with life insurance protection equivalent to 300% of the executive's highest annual base salary in effect during the three calendar years preceding their death. American Bank of New Jersey has purchased bank-owned life insurance policies on each of the named executive officers through which this coverage is provided.

Because of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s use of bank-owned life insurance to provide this benefit to its executives, there are no recurring premiums paid by American Bank of New Jersey to maintain this coverage. However, the underlying value of insurance benefit provided to each executive officer is included in their annual taxable income. This amount for each executive is reported in the Summary Compensation table below.

Perquisites. We limit our provision of executive perquisites to the Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer. Specifically, we lease automobiles for Mr. Kliminski and Mr. Kowal for their use in support of Company business. Our cost of leasing the automobiles for Mr. Kliminski and Mr. Kowal for fiscal 2008 was approximately $7,200 and $12,400 respectively. The automobiles are also available for each executive's personal use.

We also pay for Mr. Kliminski's country club membership, which is used to support the building of business relationships and support our community involvement. The cost of maintaining Mr. Kliminski's club membership during fiscal 2008 was approximately $7,800.

Employment Agreements. The manner in which we implement the compensation components outlined above may be supported by one or more agreements executed between American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey and the named executive officers. In particular, American Bank of New Jersey has executed individual employment agreements under which it specifically outlines the terms of employment of each of the named executive officers.

In relation to the goals and objectives of the executive compensation program, the employment agreements included in the program serve two primary purposes:

To attract and retain talented and experienced executives whose knowledge, skills and performance are critical to our success in a highly competitive community banking industry, and

Employment agreements achieve these purposes by codifying our level of commitment and assurance to honor and protect the terms of the executive's employment, while providing appropriate remuneration for potential changes thereto, in return for the executive's commitment and assurance of continued service to us.

American Bank of New Jersey has entered into employment agreements with Mr. Kliminski, Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier. The agreements with Mr. Kliminski and Mr. Kowal each have terms of three years while Mr. Heyer's and Ms. Bringuier's agreements each have terms of one year. Each of the agreements provides for an annual one-year extension of its terms upon determination by the committee that the executive's performance has met the requirements and the standards of the Board of Directors such that the remaining term of the agreement is reset to three years for Mr. Kliminski's and Mr. Kowal's agreements and one year for Mr. Heyer's and Ms. Bringuier's agreements.

As discussed in the more detailed description of the employment agreements that appears following the Grants of Plan-Based Awards table below, each of the employment agreements provides for certain payments and benefits if the executive's employment is terminated under certain scenarios, including, but not limited to, following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. The employment agreements thus requires a "double trigger" in order for any payments or benefits under the agreements to be provided to Mr. Kliminski, Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer or Ms. Bringuier following a change in control. In other words, both a change in control and an involuntary termination of employment (which includes a voluntary termination by the executive following a material reduction in his or her duties, responsibilities or benefits) must occur. The purpose of providing the change in control payments and benefits is to attract and retain top level executives of the highest caliber and mitigate the risk to these executives that their employment will be involuntarily terminated in the event American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. is acquired. At the same time, the mere sale of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. will not automatically trigger a payout, as our intention is to induce the executive to remain employed following a change in control so long as the acquiring company so desires without a material reduction in the executive's duties, responsibilities or benefits.

Program Oversight and Administration. The committee's program oversight and administration activities are generally conducted annually during the first fiscal quarter ending December 31 although such activities may be performed throughout the year as required by the committee to achieve program objectives. Through these activities, the committee reviews the executive compensation program to ensure that each of its individual components are functioning individually and collectively in a manner that supports the stated objectives of the program. Where appropriate, both the structure and terms of the individual components, and the named executive officers eligible to participate in each, are adjusted to support the program's overall goals and objectives.

The following discussion reviews the primary oversight and administration activities conducted by the committee for each applicable component of the executive compensation program as they related to the compensation of named executive officers during fiscal 2008.

Base Salary. The committee conducted its annual review and reassessment of executive base salaries during the quarter ended December 31, 2007. The committee's activities included the review of executive compensation information provided through a number of independent sources with the greatest emphasis placed on that provided by SNL Financial and L.R. Webber & Associates, Inc. Through these sources the committee compared, where available, the level of comparable compensation based upon each named executive officer's functional role or title for similar institutions based on asset size, geography and form of ownership.

Next, the committee qualitatively reviewed the manner in which each executive performed their individual job functions in relation to the Board of Directors standards and requirements for the executive's role and responsibilities within American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. Of particular importance to the committee was each executive's individual demonstrable role and influence on achieving the specific goals and objectives of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s business plan including, in particular, those relating to growth in commercial lending, de novo branch expansion, growth in core deposits and capital management.

Finally, the committee also considered the level of each executive's base salary in relation to the total compensation earned by the executive including, in particular, the level of equity-based and retirement compensation currently earned by each executive. Of particular importance to the committee was the level of current expense associated with the aggregate level of each executive's compensation in relation to the near-term net income projected in our updated business plan and budget.

In summary, the committee was generally satisfied that the level of base salary for Mr. Kliminski, Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier remained reasonable based on the information considered by the committee. However, the committee acknowledged the individual and collaborative efforts of Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier to successfully achieve the goals and objectives of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s business plan. As such, the committee increased the base salaries of Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier for calendar year 2008 from the levels paid in calendar year 2007. For those comparative periods, Mr. Kowal's base salary was increased to $258,750 from $225,000 while Mr. Heyer's base salary was increased to $165,328 from $155,328 and Ms. Bringuier's base salary was increased to $151,630 from $144,130. Mr. Kliminski's base salary remained unchanged at $258,750 for those same comparative periods. Additionally, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier began to receive monthly automobile allowances of $400 each during fiscal 2008.

Performance-Based Incentive Compensation. For fiscal 2008, the committee identified Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier as eligible participants in the MIP. The committee established ten percent of each executive's base salary as the MIP basis, or the targeted incentive award level for each executive, with twenty percent of each executive's base salary as the maximum award level. Next, based upon our updated business plan and budget, the committee established quantitative and qualitative performance targets to be used in each executive's MIP calculation for fiscal 2008. These performance targets were selected and weighted in relation to one another based upon the expected long term earnings impact and strategic value to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and each executive's specific role and responsibilities within American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.

Quantitative loan-related targets utilized in the 2008 MIP primarily included those relating to the origination of commercial loans, including multifamily and nonresidential real estate loans, construction loans and business loans, as well as one-to-four-family mortgages, including first mortgage loans, home equity loans and home equity lines of credit. Quantitative deposit-related targets primarily included those relating to net growth in noninterest-bearing checking account balances, net growth interest-bearing checking account balances and net growth in savings account balances. Finally, the committee generally increased the impact of targeted net income as a specific quantitative factors used in the 2008 MIP. The increased focus on net income as a quantitative target of the MIP emphasized the committee's expected improvement in fiscal 2008 earnings versus that reported for fiscal 2007 when net income was detrimentally impacted by the execution of the branching strategies outlined in our business plan.

Finally, qualitative performance targets were established based on applicable non-quantifiable criteria designed to support the achievement of goals and objectives of our updated business plan and budget. These performance targets were similarly based upon each executive's specific role and responsibilities within American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. and included criteria relating to asset quality, capital management, risk management and internal control and regulatory compliance including community support and reinvestment.

The table on the following page summarizes the total MIP compensation earned by each named executive officer during fiscal 2008 and the allocation of such compensation based upon the key performance targets and their respective weightings as determined by the committee. As described above under Components of Executive Compensation Performance-Based Incentive Compensation, the quantitative performance factors were based on objectively measurable numerical values while the qualitative performance factors were based on a subjective assessment by the committee, utilizing a numerical scale to rate performance under each qualitative factor.

As such, the committee made no changes to the retirement benefit component of the program during fiscal 2008.

Health Care and Life & Long Term Disability Insurance Benefits. Based upon the review of the health care and insurance benefits provided to named executive officers, the committee was satisfied that the structure and level of such compensation met stated goals and objectives of the program. Based upon the review of the limited perquisites provided to the eligible named executive officers, the committee was satisfied that the nature and level of such perquisites met stated goals and objectives of the program. As such, the committee made no changes to such perquisites component of the program during fiscal 2008.

Employment Agreements. Based upon the committee's review of each executive's performance of their role and the manner in which each executive executed and fulfilled their responsibilities in relation to the requirements of the Board of Director during fiscal 2008, American Bank of New Jersey extended the term of the employment agreements for Mr. Kliminski, Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuiet for an additional twelve month period.

Additionally, the committee's program administration activities during fiscal 2008 also included modifying the applicable employment and benefit plan agreements where required by newly-implemented Internal Revenue Service regulations.

Accounting and Income Tax Considerations. Based upon our executive compensation program, the accounting and income tax treatment of compensation has generally not been a factor in determining the forms and amounts of compensation for our executive officers. However, the committee and management have considered the accounting and income tax impact of program components and the compensation paid to each executive within each component and in the aggregate.

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally disallows a tax deduction for compensation paid to any covered employee (defined, per the guidance of the Internal Revenue Service, as the principal executive officer and the three other most highly compensated officers named in the Summary Compensation Table) in excess of $1.0 million per year, to the extent such compensation is not performance-based compensation under a plan approved by shareholders. The committee reviews and considers the potential consequences of Section 162(m) to American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.. Based upon American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.'s current executive compensation program, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. has no individuals with non-performance based compensation paid in excess of the Internal Revenue Code 162(m) tax deduction limit. However, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. reserves the right to use our discretion judgment to authorize compensation to any employee that does not comply with the Section 162(m) exemptions for compensation that we believe is appropriate.

Internal Revenue Code Section 280G. Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code provides that severance payments that equal or exceed three times the individual's base amount are deemed to be excess parachute payments if they are conditioned upon a change of control. Individuals receiving parachute payments in excess of the three times their base amount are subject to a 20% excise tax on the amount of the excess payments. If excess parachute payments are made, American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. would not be entitled to deduct the amount of the excess payments. Each employment agreement provides that severance and other payments that are subject to a change of control will be reduced as much as necessary to ensure that no amounts payable to the executive will be considered excess parachute payments.

Employment Agreements

American Bank of New Jersey has employment agreements with each of Mr. Kliminski, Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier. Mr. Kliminski's and Mr. Kowal's employment agreements have terms of three years, while Mr. Heyer's and Ms. Bringuier's agreements have terms of one year. Each of the agreements provides for an annual one-year extension of the term of the agreement upon determination of the Board of Directors that the executive's performance has met the requirements and standards of the Board, so that the remaining term of the agreement continues to be three years, in the case of Mr. Kliminski and Mr. Kowal, and one year, in the case of Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier.

If American Bank of New Jersey terminates the employment of Mr. Kliminski, Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer or Ms. Bringuier without just cause, as defined in the agreement, they will be entitled to a continuation of their salary from the date of termination through the remaining term of their agreement (but not less than two years for Mr. Kliminski and one year for Mr. Kowal, Mr. Heyer and Ms. Bringuier), plus the cost of their obtaining health, life, disability and other benefits which they would have been eligible to receive through the salary continuation period, at substantially the same benefit levels being provided on the employment termination date.

Mr. Kliminski's and Mr. Kowal's employment agreements provide that if their employment is involuntarily terminated without just cause, or voluntarily terminated following a specified diminution in their duties, responsibilities or benefits, during the term of the agreement following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, or within 24 months following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, they will be entitled to an amount equal to 2.99 times their five-year average annual taxable compensation, subject to reduction to avoid the payment of any excess parachute payment under the Internal Revenue Code, payable, at their election, in a lump sum or in monthly installments over a 36-month period.

Mr. Heyer's and Ms. Bringuier's employment agreements provide that if their employment is involuntarily terminated without just cause, or voluntarily terminated following a specified diminution in their duties, responsibilities or benefits, during the term of the agreement following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, or within 12 months following a change in control of American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc. or American Bank of New Jersey, they will be entitled to an amount equal to 2.00 times their five-year average annual taxable compensation, subject to reduction to avoid the payment of any excess parachute payment under the Internal Revenue Code, payable, at their election, in a lump sum or in monthly installments over a 24-month period. See Potential Payments Upon Termination of Employment.

Table of ContentsPension Benefits

American Bank of New Jersey maintains a supplemental executive retirement plan in the form of executive salary continuation agreements (SERP agreements) with each of the named executive officers. The SERP agreements provide for a lifetime annual retirement benefit, payable monthly commencing with the first month after the executive's retirement date (generally the December 31st nearest the executive's 65th birthday), equal to a specified percentage of the executive's average base salary based upon the average of the highest three out of the last five years of employment. These percentages are 50% for Mr. Kliminski, 45% for Mr. Kowal, 40% for Mr. Heyer and 30% for Ms. Bringuier.

If an executive's employment with American Bank of New Jersey terminates prior to retirement, either voluntarily by the executive or by American Bank of New Jersey without cause (other than following a change in control to the extent described below), then the executive will receive as severance compensation a lump sum amount equal to the accrued balance of the executive's liability reserve account multiplied by the executive's vested percentage. At September 30, 2008, Mr. Kowal was 65% vested in his account; all of the other named executive officers are 100% vested in their accounts. If an executive's employment with American Bank of New Jersey terminates due to disability, the executive will be entitled to receive 100% of his or her accrued liability balance at the time of disability, payable at American Bank of New Jersey's election either in a lump sum or in 15 annual payments with an equivalent present value. If an executive's employment with American Bank of New Jersey is terminated within 12 months after a change in control, either involuntarily by American Bank of New Jersey without cause or voluntarily by the executive if a specified diminution in the executive's duties, responsibilities or benefits occurs, then the executive will be entitled to his or her full retirement benefits under the SERP agreement upon attaining age 65, as if the executive had been continuously employed by American Bank of New Jersey until age 65, subject to reduction to avoid the payment of an excess parachute payment under the Internal Revenue Code. As long as the SERP agreement remains in effect, upon the death of the executive, the executive's beneficiary will be paid a death benefit under the terms of the Endorsement Method Split Dollar Life Insurance Agreement between the executive American Bank of New Jersey. No benefits are payable under the agreements upon termination for cause.

The following table sets forth information regarding benefits payable to the named executive officers under the SERP agreements:

The parties hereto agree to appropriately amend this Agreement and any related documents in order to reflect any such revised structure.

3.1.6. The consideration that any one ABNJ shareholder may receive pursuant to Article III is referred to herein as the Merger Consideration.

3.2. Election Procedures.

3.2.1. Holders of ABNJ Common Stock may elect to receive shares of Investors Common Stock or cash (in either case without interest) in exchange for their shares of ABNJ Common Stock in accordance with the procedures set forth herein; provided that, in the aggregate, and subject to the provisions of Section 3.2.7, 70% of the total number of shares of ABNJ Common Stock issued and outstanding at the Effective Time, excluding any Treasury Shares (the Stock Conversion Number), shall be converted into the Stock Consideration and the remaining outstanding shares of ABNJ Common Stock shall be converted into the Cash Consideration. Shares of ABNJ Common Stock as to which a Cash Election (including, pursuant to a Mixed Election) has been made are referred to herein as Cash Election Shares. of such Certificates to the Exchange Agent), in such form as ABNJ and Investors shall mutually agree (Election Form), shall be mailed no more than 40 business days and no less than 20 business days prior to the anticipated Effective Time or on such earlier date as Investors and ABNJ shall mutually agree (the Mailing Date) to each holder of record of ABNJ Common Stock as of five business days prior to the Mailing Date (the Election Form Record Date). Each Election Form shall permit such holder, subject to the allocation and election procedures set forth in this Section 3.2, (i) to elect to receive the Cash Consideration for all of the shares of ABNJ Common Stock held by such holder, in accordance with Section 3.1.3, (ii) to elect to receive the Stock Consideration for all of such shares, in accordance with Section 3.1.3, (iii) elect to receive the Stock Consideration for a part of such holder s ABNJ Common Stock and the Cash consideration for the remaining part of such holder s ABNJ Common Stock, or (iv) to indicate that such record holder has no preference as to the receipt of cash or Investors Common Stock for such shares. A holder of record of shares of ABNJ Common Stock who holds such shares as nominee, trustee or in another representative capacity (a Representative) may submit multiple Election Forms, provided that each such Election Form covers all the shares of ABNJ Common Stock held by such Representative for a particular beneficial owner. Any shares of ABNJ Common Stock with respect to which the holder thereof shall not, as of the Election Deadline, have made an election by submission to the Exchange Agent of an effective, properly completed Election Form shall be deemed Non-Election Shares.

3.2.3. To be effective, a properly completed Election Form shall be submitted to the Exchange Agent on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the 25th day following the Mailing Date (or such other time and date as Investors and ABNJ may mutually agree) (the Election Deadline); provided, however, that the Election Deadline may not occur on or after the Closing Date. ABNJ shall use its reasonable best efforts to make available up to two separate Election Forms, or such additional Election Forms as Investors may permit, to all persons who become holders (or beneficial owners) of ABNJ Common Stock between the Election Form Record Date and the close of business on the business day prior to the Election Deadline. ABNJ shall provide to the Exchange Agent all information reasonably necessary for it to perform as specified herein. An election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline. An Election Form shall be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by one or more Certificates (or customary affidavits and indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such Certificates or the guaranteed delivery of such Certificates) representing all shares of ABNJ Common Stock covered by such Election Form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included with the Election Form. If an ABNJ shareholder either (i) does not submit a properly completed Election Form in a timely fashion or (ii) revokes its Election Form prior to the Election Deadline (without later submitting a properly completed Election Form prior to the Election Deadline), the shares of ABNJ Common Stock held by such shareholder shall be designated as Non-Election Shares. Any Election Form may be revoked or changed by the person submitting such Election Form to the Exchange Agent by written notice to the Exchange Agent only if such notice of revocation or change is actually received by the Exchange Agent at or prior to the Election Deadline. Investors shall cause the Certificate or Certificates relating to any revoked Election Form to be promptly returned without charge to the person submitting the Election Form to the Exchange Agent. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have discretion to determine when any election, modification or revocation is received and whether any such election, modification or revocation has been properly made. All Elections shall be revoked automatically if the Exchange Agent is notified in writing by Investors or ABNJ, upon exercise by Investors or ABNJ of its respective or their mutual rights to terminate this Agreement to the extent provided under Article XI, that this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with Article XI.

3.2.4. If the aggregate number of shares of ABNJ Common Stock with respect to which Stock Elections shall have been made (the Stock Election Number) exceeds the Stock Conversion Number, then all Cash Election Shares and all Non-Election Shares of each holder thereof shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, and Stock Election Shares of each holder thereof will be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Stock Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Stock Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Stock Conversion Number and the denominator of which is the Stock Election

Number, with the remaining number of such holder's Stock Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration.

3.2.5. If the Stock Election Number is less than the Stock Conversion Number (the amount by which the Stock Conversion Number exceeds the Stock Election Number being referred to herein as the Shortfall Number), then all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and the Non-Election Shares and Cash Election Shares shall be treated in the following manner:

(A) If the Shortfall Number is less than or equal to the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and the Non-Election Shares of each holder thereof shall convert into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Non-Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Non-Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number and the denominator of which is the total number of Non-Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Non-Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration; or

(B) If the Shortfall Number exceeds the number of Non-Election Shares, then all Non-Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and Cash Election Shares of each holder thereof shall convert into the right to receive the Stock Consideration in respect of that number of Cash Election Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of Cash Election Shares held by such holder by (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which (1) the Shortfall Number exceeds (2) the total number of Non-Election Shares and the denominator of which is the total number of Cash Election Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Cash Election Shares being converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration.

3.2.6. Adjustment to Preserve Tax Treatment. Notwithstanding anything in this Article III to the contrary, if the aggregate value of the Stock Consideration to be delivered as of the Effective Time, less the amount of cash paid in lieu of fractional shares of Investors Common Stock pursuant to Section 3.2.7 (the Stock Value), is less than 42.5% of the sum of (i) the aggregate value of the Merger Consideration to be delivered as of the Effective Time, plus (ii) the value of any consideration described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(e)(1)(ii), plus (iii) the value of any consideration paid by Investors or any of its Subsidiaries (or any related person to Investors or any of its Subsidiaries within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(e)(3)) to acquire shares of ABNJ Common Stock prior to the Effective Time (such sum, the Aggregate Value), then Investors may reduce the number of shares of outstanding ABNJ Common Stock entitled to receive the Cash Consideration and correspondingly increase the number of shares of ABNJ Common Stock entitled to receive the Stock Consideration by the minimum amount necessary to cause the Stock Value to equal 42.5% of the Aggregate Value.

3.2.7. No Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Investors Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to Investors Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share interest, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Investors. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Investors shall pay to each former holder of ABNJ Common Stock who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of Investors Common Stock, an amount in cash, rounded to the nearest cent and without interest, equal to the product of (i) the fraction of a share to which such holder would otherwise have been entitled and (ii) the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of Investors Common Stock as reported on the Nasdaq for the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date. For purposes of determining any fractional share interest, all shares of ABNJ Common Stock owned by a ABNJ shareholder shall be combined so as to calculate the maximum number of whole shares of Investors Common Stock issuable to such ABNJ shareholder.

No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable in lieu of fractional shares.

3.3.3. Rights of Certificate Holders after the Effective Time. The holder of a Certificate that prior to the Merger represented issued and outstanding ABNJ Common Stock shall have no rights, after the Effective Time, with respect to such ABNJ Common Stock except to surrender the Certificate in exchange for the Merger Consideration as provided in this Agreement. No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to Investors Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.3. After the surrender of a Certificate in accordance with this Section 3.3, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to shares of Investors Common Stock represented by such Certificate.

3.3.4. Surrender by Persons Other than Record Holders. If the Person surrendering a Certificate and signing the accompanying letter of transmittal is not the record holder thereof, then it shall be a condition of the payment of the Merger Consideration that: (i) such Certificate is properly endorsed to such Person or is accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name of the record holder appears on such Certificate, and is otherwise in proper form for transfer, or is accompanied by appropriate evidence of the authority of the Person surrendering such Certificate and signing the letter of transmittal to do so on behalf of the record holder; and (ii) the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment to a person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Investors nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Certificate for any Merger Consideration delivered in respect of such Certificate to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar law.

3.3.7. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Investors, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Investors may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof.

3.3.8. Withholding. Investors or the Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby to any holder of ABNJ Common Stock such amounts as Investors (or any Affiliate thereof) or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any applicable provision of U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law. Except as set forth in ABNJ DISCLOSURE SCHEDULE 4.7 (c), ABNJ and its Subsidiaries have not executed an extension or waiver of any statute of limitations on the assessment or collection of any material tax due that is currently in effect. reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal; (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any Person (other than Investors) any information or data with respect to ABNJ or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal; (iii) release any Person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which ABNJ is a party; or (iv) enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or approve or resolve to approve any Acquisition Proposal or any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent relating to an Acquisition Proposal. Any violation of the foregoing restrictions by ABNJ or any Representative, whether or not such Representative is so authorized and whether or not such Representative is purporting to act on behalf of ABNJ or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by ABNJ. ABNJ and its Subsidiaries shall, and shall cause each of ABNJ Representative to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any and all existing discussions, negotiations, and communications with any Persons with respect to any existing or potential Acquisition Proposal.

For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal shall mean any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Investors), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction. For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Transaction shall mean (A) any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving ABNJ or any of its Subsidiaries; (B) any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, any assets of ABNJ or any of its Subsidiaries representing, in the aggregate, fifteen percent (15%) or more of the assets of ABNJ and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (C) any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing fifteen percent (15%) or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of ABNJ or any of its Subsidiaries; (D) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of any class of equity securities of ABNJ or any of its Subsidiaries; or (E) any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 6.10(a), ABNJ may take any of the actions described in clause (ii) of Section 6.10(a) if, but only if, (i) ABNJ has received a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.10; (ii) ABNJ Board determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that (A) such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal and (B) the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to ABNJ's shareholders under applicable law; (iii) ABNJ has provided Investors with at least two (2) Business Days prior notice of such determination; and (iv) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to ABNJ or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, ABNJ receives from such Person a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to ABNJ than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement. ABNJ shall promptly provide to Investors any non-public information regarding ABNJ or its Subsidiaries provided to any other Person that was not previously provided to Investors, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other party.

For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal shall mean any bona fide written proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) made by a third party to enter into an Acquisition Transaction on terms that ABNJ Board determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor (i) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of ABNJ Common Stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of ABNJ and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (ii) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of the shares of ABNJ Common Stock that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to ABNJ s shareholders pursuant to this Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the Section 11.1.2 unless the breach of representation or warranty, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 9.2.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by ABNJ) or Section 9.3.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by Investors);

11.1.3. By the Board of Directors of either party (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a material failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which failure by its nature cannot be cured prior to the Termination Date or shall not have been cured within 30 days after written notice of such failure by the terminating party to the other party; provided, however, that neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1.3 unless the breach of covenant or agreement, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the terminating party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 9.2.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by ABNJ) or Section 9.3.2 (in the case of a breach of covenant by Investors);

11.1.4. At the election of the Board of Directors of either party if the Closing shall not have occurred by the Termination Date, or such later date as shall have been agreed to in writing by Investors and ABNJ; provided, that no party may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1.4 if the failure of the Closing to have occurred on or before said date was due to such party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement;

11.1.5. By the Board of Directors of either party if the shareholders of ABNJ shall have voted at its shareholders meeting on the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such vote shall not have been sufficient to approve such transactions;

11.1.6. By the Board of Directors of either party if (i) final action has been taken by a Bank Regulator whose approval is required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, which final action (x) has become unappealable and (y) does not approve this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or (ii) any court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority shall have issued an order, decree, ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;

11.1.7. By the Board of Directors of either party (provided, that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) in the event that any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such party to consummate the Merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by the date specified in Section 11.1.4 of this Agreement.

11.1.8. By the Board of Directors of Investors if ABNJ has received a Superior Proposal, and in accordance with Section 6.10 of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of ABNJ has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to the Superior Proposal, terminated this Agreement, or withdraws its recommendation of this Agreement, fails to make such recommendation or modifies or qualifies its recommendation in a manner adverse to Investors.

11.1.9. By the Board of Directors of ABNJ if ABNJ has received a Superior Proposal, and in accordance with Section 6.10 of this Agreement, the Board of Directors of ABNJ has made a determination to accept such Superior Proposal.

11.1.10. conditions are satisfied:

- (i) The Investors Market Value on the Determination Date is less than $10.85; and subject, however, to the following three sentences. If ABNJ elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 11.1.10, it shall give prompt written notice thereof to Investors. During the five business day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Investors shall have the option of paying additional Merger Consideration in the form of Investors Common Stock, cash, or a combination of Investors Common Stock and cash so that the Aggregate Investors Share Amount shall be valued at the lesser of (i) the product of 0.80 and the Initial Investors Market Value or (ii) the product obtained by multiplying the Index Ratio by the Initial Investors Market Value. If within such five business day period, Investors delivers written notice to ABNJ that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration, as contemplated by the preceding sentence, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 11.1.10 and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Merger Consideration shall have been so modified). Moreover, this Section 11.1.10 shall not apply if the Merger proceeds in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.5.

For purposes of this Section 11.1.10, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

If Investors declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, the prices of Investors Common Stock shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 11.1.10.

11.2. Effect of Termination.

11.2.1. In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to any provision of Section 11.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no further force, except that (i) the provisions of Sections 11.2, 12.1, 12.2, 12.6, 12.9, 12.10, and any other Section which, by its terms, relates to post-termination rights or obligations, shall survive such termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect.

11.2.2. If this Agreement is terminated, expenses and damages of the parties hereto shall be determined as follows:

(A) Except as provided below, whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

incurred by the non-breaching party as a result thereof or in connection therewith or with respect to the enforcement of its rights hereunder.

(C) As a condition of Investors' willingness, and in order to induce Investors, to enter into this Agreement, and to reimburse Investors for incurring the costs and expenses related to entering into this Agreement and consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, ABNJ hereby agrees to pay Investors, and Investors shall be entitled to payment of a fee of $5.6 million (the Investors Fee), within three business days after written demand for payment is made by Investors, following the occurrence of any of the events set forth below:

(D) If demand for payment of the Investors Fee is made pursuant to Section 11.2.2(C) and payment is timely made, then Investors will not have any other rights or claims against ABNJ, its Subsidiaries, and their respective officers and directors, under this Agreement, it being agreed that the acceptance of the Investors Fee under Section 11.2.2(C) will constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of Investors against ABNJ and its Subsidiaries and their respective officers and directors.

11.3. Amendment, Extension and Waiver.

Subject to applicable law, at any time prior to the Effective Time (whether before or after approval thereof by the shareholders of ABNJ), the parties hereto by action of their respective Boards of Directors, may (a) amend this Agreement, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party hereto, (c) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto, or (d) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein; provided, however, that after any approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby by the shareholders of ABNJ, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement which reduces the amount, value or changes the form of consideration to be delivered to ABNJ's shareholders pursuant to this Agreement, except as provided in Section 3.5 hereof. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party, but such waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

APPENDIX B

[Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. Letterhead]

December 14, 2008

The Board of Directors
American Bancorp of New Jersey, Inc.
365 Broad Street
Bloomfield, NJ 07003

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of American Bancorp of New Jersey (ABNJ) of the exchange ratio in the proposed merger (the Merger) of ABNJ into Investors Bancorp, Inc. (Investors), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 14, 2008, between ABNJ and Investors (the Agreement). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of ABNJ (the Common Shares) will be exchanged for, at the election of each shareholder, $12.50 in cash, 0.9218 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Investors, or a combination of $3.75 in cash and 0.6453 shares of Investors common stock, subject to an allocation procedure that will ensure 30% of the shares of ABNJ common stock will be exchanged for cash and 70% exchanged for stock. If, upon obtaining all regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the merger, Investors market value per share has declined by 20% or greater from the date of the Agreement, and has experienced a 20% greater decline than the performance of the SNL Thrift Index over the same time period, ABNJ may elect to terminate the merger. Should ABNJ elect to terminate the merger, Investors has the option of paying additional merger consideration as to make the aggregate consideration per share equal to 80% of the aggregate consideration per share on the date of the Agreement.

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. has acted as financial advisor to ABNJ. As part of our investment banking business, we are continually engaged in the valuation of bank and thrift, and bank and thrift holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, ABNJ and Investors, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of ABNJ and Investors for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such position as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to ABNJ. We have acted exclusively for the Board of Directors of ABNJ in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from ABNJ for our services. A portion of our fee is contingent upon the successful completion of the Merger.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of ABNJ and Investors, and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) the Agreement; (ii) the Annual Reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended September 30, 2008 of ABNJ, and for the three years ended June 30, 2008 for Investors; (iii) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of ABNJ and Investors and certain other communications from ABNJ and Investors to their respective stockholders; and (iv) other financial information concerning the businesses and operations of ABNJ and Investors furnished to us by ABNJ and Investors for purposes of our analysis. We have also held discussions with senior management of ABNJ and Investors regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry. In addition, we have compared certain financial and stock market information for ABNJ and Investors with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not independently verified the accuracy or completeness of any such information or assumed any responsibility for such verification or accuracy. We have relied upon the management of ABNJ and Investors as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefor) provided to us, and we have assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such managements. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed with your consent that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for ABNJ and Investors are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the property of ABNJ or Investors, nor have we examined any individual credit files.

We have considered such financial and other factors as we have deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of ABNJ and Investors; (ii) the assets and liabilities of ABNJ and Investors; and (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions involving banks and thrifts, and bank and thrift holding companies. We have also taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof. Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of ABNJ to engage in the Merger, or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to ABNJ.

We are not expressing any opinion about the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of ABNJ's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public shareholders of the Target.

This opinion has been reviewed and approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with our policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 2290 of the NASD Rules of the Financial Institutions Regulatory Authority.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the exchange ratio in the Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of the Common Shares.

Very truly yours,

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Article NINTH of the Certificate of Incorporation of Investors Bancorp, Inc. (the Corporation) sets forth circumstances under which directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation may be insured or indemnified against liability which they incur in their capacities as such:

NINTH:

A. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a proceeding), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director or an Officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, Officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an indemnitee), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a Director, Officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a Director, Officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section C hereof with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

B. The right to indemnification conferred in Section A of this Article NINTH shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an advancement of expenses); provided, however, that, if the Delaware General Corporation Law requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in his or her capacity as a Director or Officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such indemnitee, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an undertaking), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a final adjudication) that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section or otherwise. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in Sections A and B of this Article NINTH shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a Director, Officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee s heirs, executors and administrators.

C. If a claim under Section A or B of this Article NINTH is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the Delaware General Corporation Law, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article NINTH or otherwise shall be on the Corporation.

D. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article NINTH shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested Directors or otherwise.

E. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Director, Officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

F. The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article NINTH with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of Directors and Officers of the Corporation.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement; (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement; (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be a bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Act) may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the small business issuer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of, and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
