News release

On April 23, 2001, HEI issued the following news release:

HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC INDUSTRIES, INC. REPORTS FIRST QUARTER 2001 EARNINGS

HONOLULU--Hawaiian Electric Industries, Inc. (NYSE--HE) today reported net income for the three months ended March 31, 2001 of $27.7 million, or 84 cents per share, compared with $29.0 million, or 90 cents per share, in the same quarter of 2000.

"The company had a mixed first quarter, with earnings down 4.2%. Despite a 1.7% increase in kilowatthour sales, utility net income was down 9.7% as purchased power and other operation and maintenance expenses at the utility increased," said Robert F. Clarke, HEI chairman, president and chief executive officer. "However, our savings bank had a good quarter with net income up 5.8%, mainly due to higher interest and fee income," said Clarke.

Electric utility net income in the first quarter was $21.4 million versus $23.7 million in the same period last year. Higher kilowatthour sales were largely a result of warmer weather. "However, purchased power and maintenance expenses were higher in the first quarter of 2001 as compared with the same period in 2000 due to the timing of overhauls by both the company and its major independent power supplier on Oahu," said Clarke.

Savings bank net income in the first quarter was $11.9 million compared to $11.2 million in the same period last year. Interest income increased 5.0% due to an increase in interest earning assets of 1.9%. However, the bank's interest rate spread--the difference between the yield on earning assets and cost of funds--was lower at 3.01% in the recent quarter versus 3.28% for the same period in 2000.

International power results were relatively flat for the quarter, excluding a gain from a $1.5 million partial release of a loan guarantee that was previously recorded. A $0.6 million tax benefit related to this reversal is included in the other segment results.

HEI will hold its annual meeting tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. in Honolulu, Hawaii to elect five directors and an independent auditor.

HEI is a diversified holding company. Its core businesses are electric utilities, a savings bank and an international power subsidiary.

This information should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto incorporated by reference in HEI's Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000 and the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto in HEI's Quarterly Report on SEC Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2001 (when filed).

Results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for future interim periods or the full year.

Net income for the quarter and the twelve months ended March 31, 2000 does not include equity in net losses of EPHE Philippines Energy Company, Inc. (EPHE, owner of approximately 91.7% of the common shares of East Asia Power Resources Corporation). An indirect subsidiary of HEI Power Corp. (HEIPC) acquired a 50% interest in EPHE on March 7, 2000. The accounts of HEIPC and subsidiaries are consolidated on a one month lag due to the time needed to consolidate the subsidiaries.
