INFORMATION REGARDING CERTAIN FINANCIAL STATEMENTS INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE INTO THIS REGISTRATION STATEMENT

On July 23, 2002, our Audit Committee recommended and the Board approved the dismissal of Arthur Andersen LLP as our independent auditors. Arthur Andersen has been found guilty of federal obstruction of justice arising from the government's investigation of Enron Corp. It is likely that events arising out of this verdict may adversely affect the ability of Arthur Andersen to satisfy any claims against it including claims that may arise out of Arthur Andersen's audit of our financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001, which are incorporated by reference into this registration statement.

Section 11(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), provides that if any part of a registration statement at the time it becomes effective contains an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, any person acquiring a security pursuant to the registration statement (unless it is proved that at the time of the acquisition the person knew of the untruth or omission) may sue, among others, every accountant who has consented to be named as having prepared or certified any part of the registration statement or as having prepared or certified any report or valuation which is used in connection with the registration statement, with respect to the statement in the registration statement, report or valuation that purports to have been prepared or certified by the accountant.

Prior to the date of this registration statement, the Arthur Andersen partners who were responsible for the audit of our financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001, resigned from Arthur Andersen. As a result, after reasonable efforts, we have been unable to obtain Arthur Andersen's written consent to the incorporation by reference into this registration statement of its audit report with respect to our financial statements.

Under these circumstances, Rule 437(a) under the Securities Act permits the filing of this registration statement without including herein a written consent from Arthur Andersen. Accordingly, Arthur Andersen will not be liable under Section 11(a) of the Securities Act for statements made in this registration statement because it has not consented to being named as an expert in the registration statement. As a result, you will not be able to sue Arthur Andersen pursuant to Section 11(a)(4) of the Securities Act and, therefore, your right of recovery under that section may be limited as a result of the lack of consent.

Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this registration statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. ITEM 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Not applicable.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL.

Not applicable.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

RPC, Inc. ("RPC") is a Delaware corporation. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), RPC's Certificate of Incorporation and RPC's Bylaws.

II-1

RPC's bylaws provides that it shall indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL, each person who is involved in any litigation or other proceeding because of his or her position as a director or officer of RPC, against all expense, loss or liability reasonably incurred or suffered in connection with that litigation. RPC's bylaws and the DGCL provide that it may pay a director or officer expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition upon its receipt of an undertaking, by or on behalf of the director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification.

Section 145 of the DGCL permits a corporation to indemnify any director or officer of the corporation against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding brought by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director or officer of the corporation, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he had no reason to believe his conduct was unlawful. In a derivative action, indemnification may be made only for expenses actually and reasonably incurred by any director or officer in connection with the defense or settlement of an action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made if the person shall have been adjudicated to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought determines that the defendant is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for these expenses despite an adjudication of liability.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "1933 Act"), may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling RPC pursuant to the foregoing provision of the DGCL and RPC's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, RPC has been informed that indemnification is considered by the Securities and Exchange Commission to be against public policy and therefore unenforceable.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

II-2

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraph (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) shall not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the provisions described in Item 6, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceedings) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
