THE OFFERING

This prospectus relates to the offer and sale of our common stock by the selling shareholders. We will not offer or sell any shares hereunder.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this prospectus, the following risk factors should be considered carefully in evaluating an investment in equity securities offered hereby.

Because we operate a low margin business, our operating results are very sensitive to inflation and other economic conditions.

The foodservice distribution industry is characterized by relatively high inventory turnover with relatively low profit margins. We make a significant portion of our sales at prices that are based on the cost of products we sell plus a percentage markup. As a result, our profit levels may be negatively impacted during periods of product cost deflation, even though our gross profit percentage may remain relatively constant. Prolonged periods of product cost inflation may also have a negative impact on our profit margins and earnings to the extent such product cost increases are not passed on to customers due to resistance to higher prices. The foodservice industry is sensitive to national and regional economic conditions. Inflation, fuel costs and other factors affecting consumer confidence and the frequency and amount spent by consumers for food prepared away from home may negatively impact our sales and operating results. Sales and operating results are also sensitive to, and may be adversely affected by, other factors, including:

- o difficulties with the collectability of our accounts receivable;
- o competitive price pressures;
- o severe weather conditions; and
- o unexpected increases in fuel or other transportation-related costs.

Although these factors have not had a material adverse impact on our past operations, there can be no assurance that one or more of these factors will not adversely affect future operating results.

We have significant leverage and debt service obligations.

Because historically a substantial part of our growth has been the result of acquisitions and capital expansion, our continued growth depends, in large part, on our ability to continue this expansion. As a result, our inability to finance acquisitions and capital expenditures through borrowed funds could restrict our ability to expand. Moreover, any default under the documents governing our indebtedness could have a significant adverse effect on the market value of our common stock and constrain our ability to raise equity capital. Further, our leveraged position may also increase our vulnerability to competitive pressures. As of April 2, 2005, we had approximately $1.4 billion of long-term indebtedness outstanding, including current maturities. On April 19, 2005, we filed a shelf registration statement with the SEC that allows us to issue an additional $1.5 billion of debt securities from time to time.

Product liability claims could have a material adverse impact on our business.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-3

SYSCO, like any other seller of food, faces the risk of exposure to product liability claims in the event that the use of products sold by us causes injury or illness. With respect to product liability claims, we believe we have sufficient primary or excess umbrella liability insurance. However, this insurance may not continue to be available at a reasonable cost, or, if available, may not be adequate to cover all of our liabilities. We generally seek contractual indemnification and insurance coverage from parties supplying our products, but this indemnification or insurance coverage is limited, as a practical matter, to the creditworthiness of the indemnifying party and the insured limits of any insurance provided by suppliers. If we do not have adequate insurance or contractual indemnification available, product liability relating to defective products could materially reduce our net earnings and earnings per share.

We may be unable to service our customers, and may lose customers if the third parties that supply us are either unwilling or unable to do so on a timely basis.

We obtain substantially all of our foodservice and related products from third party suppliers. For the most part, we do not have long-term contracts with its suppliers committing them to provide products to us. Although our purchasing volume can provide leverage when dealing with suppliers, suppliers may not provide the foodservice products and supplies needed by us in the quantities requested. Because we do not control the actual production of the products we sell, we are also subject to delays caused by interruption in production based on conditions outside our control. These conditions include:

- o job actions or strikes by employees of suppliers,
- o weather,
- o crop conditions,
- o transportation interruptions, and
- o natural disasters or other catastrophic events

Our inability to obtain adequate supplies of our foodservice and related products as a result of any of the foregoing factors or otherwise, could mean that we not be able to fulfill our obligations to customers. As a result, our customers may turn to other distributors, and our revenues, liquidity and operating results could be adversely affected.

Work stoppages or labor disputes could have a material adverse effect on our business.

As of July 3, 2004, approximately 9,100 employees at 51 of our operating companies were members of 59 different local unions associated with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and other labor organizations. In the remainder of fiscal 2005 and 2006, approximately 19 agreements covering approximately 3,100 employees will expire. Failure of the operating companies to effectively renegotiate these contracts could result in work stoppages. Although our operating subsidiaries have not experienced any significant labor disputes or work stoppages to date, and we believe they have satisfactory relationships with their unions, a work stoppage due to failure of one or more operating subsidiaries to renegotiate a union contract, or otherwise, could have a material adverse effect on us.

Our failure to successfully integrate acquired companies could have a material adverse effect on our business.

If we are unable to integrate acquired businesses successfully and realize anticipated economic, operational and other benefits in a timely manner, our profitability may decrease. Integration of an acquired business may be more difficult when we acquire a business in a market in which we have limited or no expertise, or with a corporate culture different from ours. If we are unable to integrate acquired businesses successfully, we may incur substantial costs and delays in increasing our customer base. In addition, the failure to integrate acquisitions successfully may divert management's attention from our existing business and may damage our relationships with key customers and suppliers.

Charter and Stockholder Rights Plan

Under our Restated Certificate of Incorporation, our Board of Directors is authorized to issue up to 1.5 million shares of preferred stock without stockholder approval. Issuance of these shares could make it more difficult for anyone to acquire us without approval of the Board of Directors, depending on the rights and preferences of the stock issued. In addition, if anyone attempts to acquire us without approval of our Board of Directors, our stockholders may have the right to purchase shares of preferred stock pursuant to our Stockholder Rights Plan, which could result in substantial dilution to a potential acquiror. The existence of either of these provisions could deter hostile takeover attempts that might have resulted in an acquisition of us that would have been financially beneficial to our stockholders.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus contains forward-looking statements that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. You can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as "may," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "could" and "continue" or similar words. You should read statements that contain these words carefully for the following reasons:

- o the statements discuss our future expectations;
- o the statements contain projections of our future results of operations or of our financial condition; and
- o the statements state other "forward-looking" information.

We believe it is important to communicate our expectations to our investors. There may be events in the future, however, that we are not accurately able to predict or over which we have no control. The risk factors listed in this section, as well as any cautionary language in this prospectus, provide examples of risks, uncertainties and events that may cause our actual results to differ materially from the expectations we describe in our forward-looking statements. Before you invest in our common stock, you should be aware that the occurrence of any of the events described in these risk factors and elsewhere in this prospectus could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. In such case, the trading price of our common stock could decline and you may lose all or part of your investment.

USE OF PROCEEDS

This prospectus relates to the offer and sale of our common stock by the selling shareholders. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock. We will pay all expenses related to the registration of the common stock except underwriting discounts and commissions and fees and expenses of counsel for the selling shareholders.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholders may offer and sell shares of common stock offered by this prospectus during the 90-day period beginning on the date of this prospectus, unless such period is extended, in one or more of the following transactions:

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-3

- o on the New York Stock Exchange or any other securities exchange that lists the common stock for trading;
- o in the over-the-counter market;
- o in transactions other than on such exchanges or in the over-the-counter market;
- o in negotiated transactions;
- o in short sales of the common stock, in transactions to cover short sales or otherwise in connection with short sales;
- o by pledge to secure debts and other obligations or on foreclosure of a pledge;
- o through put or call options, including the writing of exchange-traded call options, or other hedging transactions related to the common stock; and
- o in a combination of any of the above transactions.

The selling shareholders may sell their shares at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at negotiated prices or at fixed prices. The transactions listed above may include block transactions. We have been advised by the selling shareholders that they have not made any arrangements with any underwriters or broker-dealers relating to the distribution of the shares covered by this prospectus.

The selling shareholders may sell their shares directly to purchasers, use broker-dealers to sell their shares or may sell their shares to broker-dealers acting as principals. If this happens, broker-dealers may either receive discounts or commissions from the selling shareholders, or they may receive commissions from purchasers of shares for whom they acted as agents, or both. If a broker-dealer purchases shares as a principal, it may resell the shares for its own account under this prospectus. We will pay all registration fees and expenses for the common stock offered by this prospectus.

The selling shareholders and any agent, broker or dealer that participates in sales of common stock offered by this prospectus may be deemed "underwriters" under the Securities Act of 1933 and any commissions or other consideration received by any agent, broker or dealer may be considered underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. We have agreed to indemnify the selling shareholders against certain liabilities arising under the Securities Act from sales of common stock. Selling shareholders may agree to indemnify any agent, broker or dealer that participates in sales of common stock against liabilities arising under the Securities Act from sales of common stock.

Because selling shareholders may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, the selling shareholders will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act, which may include delivery through the facilities of the New York Stock Exchange pursuant to Rule 153 under the Securities Act. We have informed the selling shareholders that the anti-manipulation provisions of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 may apply to their sales of common stock.

Instead of selling common stock under this prospectus, selling shareholders may sell common stock in compliance with the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available.

Upon SYSCO being notified by a selling shareholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act, disclosing:

- o the name of each such selling shareholder and of the participating broker-dealer;

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-3

- o the number of shares involved;
- o the price at which such shares were sold;
- o the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer, where applicable;
- o that such broker-dealer did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus; and
- o other facts material to the transaction.

In addition, upon SYSCO being notified by a selling shareholder that a permitted transferee to which the right to utilize this prospectus, as determined in accordance with the registration rights agreement, has been transferred intends to sell more than 500 shares, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed.

The term "selling shareholders" may also include persons who obtain common stock from selling shareholders as a gift, for no consideration upon dissolution of a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, on foreclosure of a pledge or in another private transaction; provided, however, that if a permitted transferee intends to sell more than 500 shares of such SYSCO common stock, the filing of a supplement to this prospectus will be required.

The selling shareholders have engaged RBC Dominion Securities to sell all of the shares offered into the public market, in their capacity as a securities broker. This arrangement can be terminated by any party at will.

ITEM 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Charter and Bylaws. SYSCO's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide for indemnification of SYSCO's directors, officers, employees and other agents ("Agents") against all expense, liability and loss reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an Agent of the Registrant, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law (except that generally, indemnification is not available for proceedings brought by the Agent). This indemnification extends also to persons who serve as Agents for any entity at SYSCO's request, including, for example, persons who serve as Agents for SYSCO's employee benefit plans. In addition, SYSCO's Certificate of Incorporation includes a provision eliminating, to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for breaches of fiduciary duty.

Delaware Law. The Delaware General Corporation Law currently requires SYSCO to indemnify an Agent for all expenses incurred by him (including attorney's fees) when he is successful (on the merits or otherwise) in defense of any proceeding brought by reason of the fact that he is or was SYSCO's Agent. In addition, with respect to all Proceedings other than Proceedings by or in the right of the corporation (such as derivative lawsuits), Delaware law allows SYSCO to indemnify an Agent against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, even if the Agent is not successful on the merits, if he or she:

- o acted in good faith;
- o acted in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and
- o in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

SYSCO may indemnify Agents with respect to Proceedings brought by or in the right of the corporation (i.e., derivative lawsuits) to the same extent as with respect to other Proceedings, except that if the Agent is held liable to SYSCO in the Proceeding, then SYSCO may not indemnify the Agent unless the court determines that even though the Agent was held liable to SYSCO, the Agent is nonetheless fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification.

Except for indemnification mandated by law or ordered by a court, SYSCO may not indemnify an Agent without a formal determination that the required criteria have been met. In the case of officers and directors, the determination must be made by a majority of the disinterested directors (or a committee appointed by them), independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or the stockholders.

SYSCO may advance expenses incurred by a current officer or director in defending a Proceeding before the final disposition of the Proceeding, if the officer or director undertakes to repay the advanced amounts in the event it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified. SYSCO may advance expenses to other Agents upon whatever terms and conditions it deems appropriate.

Plan Provisions and Other Contractual Arrangements. Certain of SYSCO's employee benefit plans provide indemnification of directors and other Agents against certain claims arising from administration of such plans. In addition, SYSCO's Executive Severance Agreements entitle executive officers to require an indemnification agreement from SYSCO before taking any action otherwise required by the officer's Severance Agreement for the purpose of minimizing adverse tax

D&O Insurance. SYSCO maintains liability insurance for its directors and officers covering, subject to certain exceptions, any actual or alleged negligent act, error, omission, misstatement, misleading statement, neglect or breach of duty by such directors or officers, individually or collectively, in the discharge of their duties in their capacity as directors and officers of the Registrant.

ITEM 17. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows:

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-3

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) shall not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

II-2

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
