In April 2014, WA received a confidential information inquiry from the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") in connection with the purchase of shares in a secondary public offering which occurred in 2012. WA fully cooperated with the SEC and voluntarily reviewed historical trading activity to identify any other potential instances of inadvertent violations of Rule 105 of Regulation M under the Exchange Act ("Rule 105"). Based on this review, WA identified four additional instances in 2011 and 2012 where WA participated in a secondary offering during a restricted period. All of these instances were voluntarily disclosed to the SEC. The violations allegedly occurred between January 2011 and June 2012. Rule 105 generally prohibits purchasing an equity security in a registered follow-on public offering if the purchaser sold short the same security during the shorter of the period: (1) beginning five business days before the pricing of the offered securities and ending with such pricing; or (2) beginning with the initial filing of a registration statement or notification on Form 1-A or Form 1-E and ending with the pricing.

In July 2014, WA voluntarily submitted to an offer of settlement with respect to the five alleged violations of Rule 105, without admitting or denying the SEC's allegations. The SEC accepted the offer of settlement, and imposed a cease-and-desist order from future violations of Rule 105. The settlement involved the payment by WA of disgorgement of $788,779, prejudgment interest of $48,553.49 and a civil money penalty of $365,592.83 (for a total of $1,202,925.30) to the U.S. Treasury.

Section 3.2 Due Authorization; No Conflict.

(a) The execution, delivery, and performance by each Purchaser of this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of such Purchaser.

(b) The execution, delivery, and performance by each Purchaser of this Agreement does not and will not (i) violate any material provision of federal, state, or local law or regulation applicable to such Purchaser, the Governing Documents of such Purchaser, or any order, judgment, or decree of any court or other governmental authority binding on such Purchaser, (ii) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under any material contract to which such Purchaser is a party, or by which such Purchaser is bound, or to which any property of such Purchaser is subject, except to the extent that any such conflict, breach or default has been waived or could not individually or in the aggregate reasonably be expected to cause Purchaser Material Adverse Change. No authorization, consent, approval, waiver, license, qualification or written exemption from, nor any filing, declaration, qualification or registration with, any governmental authority or any other Person which has not been obtained on or prior to the date hereof is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by any Purchaser of this Agreement.

Section 3.3 Binding Obligations. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each Purchaser and is the legally valid and binding obligation of such Purchaser, enforceable against such Purchaser in accordance with its terms, except as enforcement may be limited by equitable principles or by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or similar laws relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally.

Section 3.4 Certain Fees. No broker, finder or investment banker is entitled to any brokerage, finder's or other fee or commission payable by any Purchaser with respect to the purchase of its Purchased Shares or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 3.5 Investment Representations.

(a) Accredited Investor Status; Sophisticated Purchaser. Each Purchaser is either an Accredited Investor as defined under the Securities Act or a non-U.S. Person that is also an Accredited Investor. Each Purchaser (i) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks (including for tax, legal, regulatory, accounting and other financial purposes) of its prospective investment in its Purchased Shares; (ii) is financially able to bear the economic risk of an investment in its Purchased Shares and has adequate means to provide for its current needs and other contingencies and to withstand the loss of the entire investment in its Purchased Shares and has no need for liquidity with respect to its investment in its Purchased Shares; (iii) in making its investment in its Purchased Shares, it did not rely on the advice or recommendations of the Company or any of its Affiliates (or any representatives of any of the foregoing); (iv) has conducted and relied upon its own investigation and assessment of the offer of its Purchased Shares, including the particular United States federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, and disposition of its Purchased Shares in light of its particular situation as well as any consequences arising under the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction, and it acknowledges that it has not relied on the Company or any of its representatives or Affiliates for advice as to any tax consequences related to such investment or the acquisition, ownership or disposition of its Purchased Shares or for the preparation and filing of any tax returns and elections required or permitted to be filed by it in connection therewith; and (v) has determined that an investment in its Purchased Shares is suitable and appropriate for it.

(b) Acquisition for Own Account. Each Purchaser is acquiring its Purchased Shares pursuant to this Agreement for its own account for investment purposes and not with a view toward, or for resale or transfer in connection with, the sale or distribution of its Purchased Shares within the meaning of the Securities Act that would be in violation of the Securities Act.

(c) Reliance on Exemptions. Each Purchaser understands that its Purchased Shares are being privately placed by the Company pursuant to an exemption from registration provided under Section 4(a)(2) and/or Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Securities Act and neither the offer nor sale of any of its Purchased Shares pursuant to this Agreement has been registered under the Securities Act or any state “blue sky” laws, and that the Company is relying upon the truth and accuracy of, and each Purchaser’s compliance with, the representations, warranties and agreements, which are true, correct and complete, of such Purchaser set forth herein in order to determine the availability of such exemptions and the eligibility of each Purchaser to acquire its Purchased Shares.

(d) Hedging Transactions. Each Purchaser has not, and agrees not to, engage in hedging transactions with respect to its Purchased Shares except in compliance with the Securities Act.

Section 3.6 Information. Each Purchaser has been given access to and an opportunity to examine such documents, materials and information concerning the Company as such Purchaser deems to be necessary or advisable in order to reach an informed decision as to an investment in the Company (including the SEC Reports), for itself and has had answered to each Purchaser’s full satisfaction any and all questions regarding such information. Each Purchaser made such independent investigation of the Company, its management, and related matters, for itself as such Purchaser deems to be necessary or advisable in connection with the purchase of its Purchased Shares, and is able to bear the economic and financial risk of its Purchased Shares. Neither such inquiries nor any other due diligence investigations conducted at any time by any Purchaser shall modify, amend or affect such Purchaser’s right (i) to rely on the Company’s representations and warranties contained in Article II above or (ii) to indemnification or any other remedy based on, or with respect to the accuracy or inaccuracy of, or compliance with, the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in this Agreement. Each Purchaser understands and acknowledges that its acquisition of its Purchased Shares involves a high degree of risk and uncertainty. Each Purchaser has sought such accounting, legal and tax advice as it has considered necessary to make an informed investment decision with respect to its acquisition of its Purchased Shares.

(a) Purchased Shares Not Registered. Each Purchaser has been advised by the Company and it understands that (i) its Purchased Shares are being privately placed by the Company pursuant to an exemption from registration provided under Section 4(a)(2) and/or Rule 506 of Regulation D and neither the offer nor sale of its Purchased Shares pursuant to this Agreement has been registered under the Securities Act or any state “blue sky” laws; and (ii) its Purchased Shares being acquired by such Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement are characterized as “restricted securities” under the Securities Act inasmuch as they are being acquired by Purchaser from the Company in a transaction not involving a public offering and, subject to Purchaser’s rights under this Agreement, each Purchaser must continue to bear the economic risk of the investment in its Purchased Shares indefinitely unless the offer and sale of its Purchased Shares are subsequently registered under the Securities Act and all applicable state securities or “blue sky” laws or an exemption from such registration is available.

(b) General Solicitation. Each Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that neither the Company nor any other Person offered to sell the Purchased Shares to it by means of any form of general solicitation or advertising, including any advertisement, article, notice or other communication published in any newspaper, magazine or similar media or broadcast over television or radio or any seminar or meeting whose attendees were invited by any general solicitation or general advertising. Each Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that it was solicited or became aware of the investment in its Purchased Shares, either through (i) a substantive, pre-existing relationship with the Company, (ii) direct contact with the Company outside of any public offering effort, and/or (iii) through contacts by the Company not identified through any public offering.

ARTICLE IV.

INDEMNIFICATION, COSTS AND EXPENSES

Section 4.1 Indemnification. The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Purchaser, the directors, officers, employees, Affiliates and agents of each Purchaser and each Person who controls each Purchaser within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act against any and all losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which they or any of them may become subject under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or other U.S. federal or state statutory law or regulation, at common law or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities or actions ("Losses") in respect thereof arise out of or are based upon any misrepresentation, breach or inaccuracy of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by the Company in this Agreement, and agrees to reimburse each such indemnified party, as incurred, for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by it in connection with investigating or defending such Losses in each case except for any Losses attributable to Purchaser's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Section 4.2 Indemnification Procedures. Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party under this Article IV of notice of the commencement of any action, such indemnified party will, if a claim in respect thereof is to be made against the indemnifying party under this Article IV, notify the indemnifying party in writing of the commencement thereof; but the failure so to notify the indemnifying party (i) will not relieve it from liability under Section 4.1 above unless and to the extent it did not otherwise learn of such action and such failure results in the forfeiture by the indemnifying party of substantial rights and defenses and (ii) will not, in any event, relieve the indemnifying party from any obligations to any indemnified party other than the indemnification obligation provided in Section 4.1 above. The indemnifying party shall be entitled to appoint counsel of the indemnifying party's choice at the indemnifying party's expense to represent the indemnified party in any action for which indemnification is sought (in which case the indemnifying party shall not thereafter be responsible for the fees and expenses of any separate counsel, retained by the indemnified party or parties except as set forth below); provided, however, that such counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party. Notwithstanding the indemnifying party's election to appoint counsel to represent the indemnified party in an action, the indemnified party shall have the right to employ separate counsel (including local counsel), and the indemnifying party shall bear the reasonable fees, costs and expenses of such separate counsel if (w) the use of counsel chosen by the indemnifying party to represent the indemnified party would present such counsel with a conflict of interest; (x) the actual or potential defendants in, or targets of, any such action include both the indemnified party and the indemnifying party and the indemnified party shall have reasonably concluded that there may be legal defenses available to it and/or other indemnified parties that are different from or additional to those available to the indemnifying party; (y) the indemnifying party shall not have employed counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party to represent the indemnified party within a reasonable time after notice of the institution of such action; or (z) the indemnifying party shall authorize the indemnified party in writing to employ separate counsel at the expense of the indemnifying party. An indemnifying party will not, without the prior written consent of the indemnified parties, settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any pending or threatened claim, action, suit or proceeding in respect of which indemnification or contribution may be sought hereunder (whether or not the indemnified parties are actual or potential parties to such claim or action) unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of each indemnified party from all liability arising out of such claim, action, suit or proceeding.
