CUSIP NO. 46609J106

The following constitutes Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (“Amendment No. 2”). This Amendment No. 2 amends the Schedule 13D as specifically set forth herein.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Item 3 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

The Shares purchased by each of Partners LP and Focus Fund were purchased with working capital (which may, at any given time, include margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business) in open market purchases. The aggregate purchase price of the 800,000 Shares beneficially owned by Partners LP is approximately $8,184,184, excluding brokerage commissions. The aggregate purchase price of the 120,000 Shares beneficially owned by Focus Fund is approximately $1,225,098, excluding brokerage commissions.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

On December 6, 2017, Marathon Partners delivered a third letter to the Issuer’s board of directors (the “Board”) following its review of the amended preliminary merger proxy statement (the “Proxy”) filed by the Issuer on November 17, 2017 in connection with the Special Meeting of Shareholders that will be held to consider the proposed merger (the “Transaction”) between the Issuer and 99 Restaurants, LLC (“99 Restaurants”). In the letter, Marathon Partners reiterated its strong opposition to the Transaction based on the Board’s conflicts of interest and the Transaction’s increasingly incompatible economic terms. As such, Marathon Partners believes that the Transaction is not in the best interests of shareholders and raised concerns including significant industry headwinds, unrealistically ambitious projections, and its belief that likely third party interest in the Issuer is being stymied by the unusual, entrenching no-shop provision that the Issuer unnecessarily agreed to in the Merger Agreement.

Marathon Partners noted the continued deterioration of 99 Restaurants’ financial performance based on its declining year-over-year guest traffic, down 2.1% versus last year, and identified its price-sensitive customer base as a major vulnerability given its low average check size and the rising labor costs in the industry. Marathon Partners also highlighted 99 Restaurants’ inability to meaningfully increase guest check size over the past decade.

Marathon Partners stated that 99 Restaurants is poorly positioned to adapt effectively to headwinds facing the casual dining industry, such as changes in dining habits, industry overcapacity and rising labor costs. Marathon Partners estimated that labor inflation alone would set 99 Restaurants’ operating profits back by $3 million to $4.5 million in 2018, absent other mitigating factors, thereby reducing its EBITDA and operating income by 14% and 24%, respectively, at the midpoint versus estimated 2017 results.

Marathon Partners cited the overly optimistic revenue projections for 99 Restaurants, noting that it would need to grow sales by 10% in Q4 2017 to meet management’s 2017 revenue projections, an increasingly challenging target in light of slowing sales growth at existing restaurants.

Marathon Partners further stated that if the Transaction is voted down by shareholders, it is confident that third-party sponsors would likely approach the Issuer to inquire about a potential buyout. Marathon Partners believes that an arms-length transaction with a third party acquirer would yield a much better outcome for shareholders compared to the Issuer relinquishing control of J. Alexander’s in exchange for a poorly positioned and profit-challenged casual dining concept such as 99 Restaurants.

CUSIP NO. 46609J106

Marathon Partners raised a series of questions to the Board after being deprived of the opportunity to do so during the Issuer's Q3 2017 earnings call. Marathon Partners asked the Board:

What level of inflation in restaurant labor and related costs is management projecting for 2018?
With less than 30 days remaining in Q4 2017, is 99 Restaurants still on track to meet management's revenue estimates provided in the proxy, and if not, will the projections for 2017 and beyond be reduced?
If these financial projections are reduced, will J. Alexander's provide its shareholders with new projections before they vote on the Transaction?
Why did management of J. Alexander's find it necessary to engage FNF/CHI in such a lucrative, $500,000 per month, Transition Services Agreement?
Marathon Partners concluded the letter by stating that value-protecting instruments such as contingent value rights should be offered to shareholders to induce them to support the Transaction.

The full text of the letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Items 5(a)-(c) are hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

The aggregate percentage of Shares reported owned by each Reporting Person is based upon 14,695,176 Shares outstanding, which is the total number of Shares outstanding as of November 8, 2017 as reported in in the Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 9, 2017.
