PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of The Aristotle Corporation (the "Company") of proxies to be used at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the Hyatt Regency Greenwich, 1800 E. Putnam Avenue, Old Greenwich, Connecticut on August 8, 2007 at 3:30 P.M., EDT. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, the directors, officers and employees of the Company may solicit proxies personally, by telephone, facsimile, or telegram. The expense of all such solicitation, including the cost of preparing, printing and mailing this Proxy Statement, will be borne by the Company. The Company will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks, or other persons for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding proxy material to beneficial owners of the Company's shares. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy and the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders, which contains financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, will first be mailed to stockholders of the Company on or about July 11, 2007.

If the enclosed form(s) of proxy are signed and returned, they will be voted as directed by the stockholder. If no directions are given, proxies will be voted FOR the election as directors of all of the nominees specified therein. A proxy may be revoked at any time, insofar as the authority granted thereby has not been exercised at the meeting, by filing with the Secretary of the Company a written revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. Any stockholder present at the meeting may vote personally on all matters brought before the meeting and, in that event, such stockholder's proxy will not be used at the meeting by holders of the proxy.

Only stockholders of record as of the close of business on June 29, 2007 will be entitled to vote at the meeting. On June 29, 2007, the Company had outstanding and entitled to one vote per share, 17,903,346 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"). The Company also had outstanding as of June 29, 2007, 1,091,560 shares of Series I Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share ("Series I Preferred Stock"), currently entitled to one-half (.5) of a vote per share. The 10,984,971 shares of the Company's Series J Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, outstanding do not have any voting rights. The holders of at least one-third of the voting power of the shares of Common Stock and Series I Preferred Stock outstanding on the record date, together as a single class, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business.

Shares of Common Stock and/or Series I Preferred Stock which are held by a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee are held in "street name" on behalf of the "beneficial owner" of any such shares. If a stockholder's shares of Common Stock and/or Series I Preferred Stock are held in street name, this Proxy Statement is being forwarded to such stockholder by his/her bank, brokerage firm or other nominee (the "record holder"), along with a voting instruction card. As a beneficial holder, a stockholder has the right to direct the record holder how to vote their shares of Common Stock and/or Series I Preferred Stock. If a beneficial owner does not give instructions to its bank, brokerage firm or nominee, it will nonetheless be entitled to vote such stockholder's shares of Common Stock and/or Series I Preferred Stock in its discretion on the election of directors.

Each director must be elected by the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting by the holders of shares of Common Stock and Series I Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class, represented in person or by proxy. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of directors.

Management does not know of any other matters to be brought before the meeting at this time; however, if any other matters may properly be brought before the meeting, the proxy holder shall vote in his discretion with respect to the matter. In the event a stockholder specifies a different choice on the proxy, such stockholder's shares will be voted or withheld in accordance with the specifications so made. Should any nominee for director named herein become unable or unwilling to accept nomination or election, it is intended that the persons acting under proxy will vote for the election of such other person as the Board of Directors of the Company may recommend unless the number of directors is reduced by the Board of Directors. Each person named as a nominee has consented to his nomination, and the Company has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unable or unwilling to serve if elected.

Your vote is very important. Please vote whether or not you plan to attend the meeting.

Corporate Governance Matters

Director Independence and Selection Process

The Company's Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Harkavy, Lahey, Tatum and Whritner is an independent director pursuant to the definition of independent director under Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4200(a)(15).

The Company qualifies as a controlled company as defined in Rule 4350(c)(5) of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules because more than 50% of the Company's voting power is held by Geneve. Therefore, the Company is not subject to the requirements of Rule 4350(c) that would otherwise require the Company to have (i) a majority of independent directors on the Board of Directors; (ii) compensation of the Company's executive officers determined by a majority of the independent directors or a compensation committee composed solely of independent directors; (iii) director nominees selected, or recommended for the Board of Directors selection, either by a majority of the independent directors or a nominating committee composed solely of independent directors; and (iv) adopted a formal written charter or board resolution addressing the nomination process and related matters.

In light of Geneve's voting power, the Board of Directors has determined that the Board of Directors, rather than a nominating committee, is the most appropriate body for identifying director candidates and selecting nominees to be presented at the meeting. The Board of Directors seeks candidates who will bring outstanding business experience that will benefit all of the stockholders of the Company. The Board of Directors has further determined that a policy with respect to consideration of candidates recommended by security holders would not be appropriate.

Board of Directors Meetings; Committees of the Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors held seven meetings in 2006. Each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of: (i) the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors held during the period in which such person was a director; and (ii) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board of Directors on which such person served.

Directors are elected annually and serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified, or until their earlier resignation or removal. Officers serve at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

All of the members of the Board of Directors are encouraged to attend the Company's annual meeting of stockholders. Six of the Company's directors were in attendance at the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The Board of Directors has an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, an Investment Committee and a Compensation Committee. The Executive Committee and the Audit Committee were established in June 2002, immediately following the Merger. The Compensation Committee was established in January 2004 and the Investment Committee was established in June 2004. The Executive Committee is comprised of one independent director, one non-employee director and one employee director. Each of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee is comprised exclusively of independent directors. The Investment Committee is comprised of one independent director and one non-employee director. The Company does not have a standing nominating committee or a nominating committee charter.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, which has all powers and authority of the Board of Directors with respect to the management of the business and affairs of the Company, currently consists of Messrs. Lapin, Edward Netter and Tatum. The Executive Committee met twice and took action by written consent once in 2006.

Compensation Committee. The principal functions of the Compensation Committee are to: (i) develop corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, evaluate the President and Chief Operating Officer's performance in light of such goals and objectives, and exercise sole authority to determine the President and Chief Operating Officer's compensation based upon such evaluation; (ii) make recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to the compensation of the Company's other executive officers; and (iii) administer the Company's 2002 Employee, Director and Consultant Stock Plan (the "2002 Plan").

Messrs. Harkavy, Tatum and Whritner are the current members of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee meets at least one time per year, and more often as the members of the Compensation Committee deem appropriate. The Compensation Committee operates under a written Compensation Committee Charter, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as an exhibit. The Compensation Committee met two times in 2006.

Investment Committee. The principal function of the Investment Committee is to consider and make recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding investment opportunities and strategies for the Company with respect to the utilization of excess cash generated by the Company's normal business operations. Messrs. Edward Netter and Tatum are the current members of the Investment Committee, which did not hold any meetings in 2006.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee operates under an amended and restated Audit Committee Charter adopted by the Board of Directors in March 2004, a copy of which was attached as an exhibit to the Company's Proxy Statement relating to the 2006 Annual Meeting. The principal functions of the Audit Committee are to: (i) select and engage the Company's independent registered public accounting firm ("independent auditors"); (ii) review and approve management's plan for engaging the Company's independent auditors during the year to perform non-audit services and consider what effect these services will have on the independence of the Company's independent auditors; (iii) review the Company's annual financial statements and other financial reports which require approval by the Board of Directors; (iv) oversee the integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's systems of disclosure controls and internal controls and the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; (v) review the scope of the Company's independent auditors audit plans and the results of their audit; and (vi) evaluate the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors.

The Audit Committee met four times during 2006. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Lahey, Tatum and Whritner. Mr. Tatum is the Chairperson of the Audit Committee. Each of these individuals meets the independence requirements of NASDAQ and applicable SEC rules and regulations. The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors have determined that each member of the Company's Audit Committee is financially literate and that Mr. Tatum qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by applicable SEC rules.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Messrs. Harkavy, Tatum and Whritner are the current members of the Compensation Committee. No member of the Compensation Committee has ever been an officer or employee of the Company. During 2006, (i) no executive officer of the Company served as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any entity that has one or more executive officers serving as a member of the Company's Compensation Committee; and (ii) no executive officer of the Company served as a member of a compensation committee of any entity that has one or more executive officers serving as a member of the Company's Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Compensation Objectives

For the President and Chief Operating Officer and all Named Officers (the President and Chief Operating Officer and the Named Officers are hereinafter collectively referred to as the named executive officers), compensation is intended to be performance-based. The Compensation Committee, which has responsibility for establishing the compensation for all of the named executive officers, believes that compensation paid to executive officers should be closely aligned with the performance of the Company on both a short-term and long-term basis, and that such compensation should assist the Company in attracting and retaining key executives critical to its long-term success.

In establishing compensation for executive officers, the following are the Compensation Committee's objectives:

- Attract and retain individuals of superior ability and managerial talent;

- Ensure senior officer compensation is aligned with the Company's corporate strategies, business objectives and the long-term interests of the Company's

stockholders;
and

Enhance the officers incentive to increase the Company's
stock price and maximize stockholder value, as well as promote retention of key people, by providing a portion of total compensation opportunities for senior management in the form of direct or indirect ownership in the Company.

The Company's overall compensation program is structured to attract, motivate and retain highly qualified executive officers by paying them competitively, consistent with the Company's success and their contribution to that success. To this end, base salary and bonus are designed to reward annual achievements and to be commensurate with the executive's scope of responsibilities, demonstrated leadership abilities, and management experience and effectiveness. Other elements of compensation focus on motivating and challenging the Company's executives to achieve superior, longer-term, sustained results.

Implementation of Objectives

Base Salaries

The Company pays named executive officers, and other employees, base salaries to compensate them for services rendered during the fiscal year. Salaries for named executive officers are based on their responsibilities, prior experience and recent performance. Decisions regarding salary increases take into account a named executive officer's current salary, market conditions and the amounts paid to a named executive officer's peers within and outside the Company. Base salaries are typically reviewed on a 12-month or longer cycle, except where there is a significant change in the named executive officer's responsibilities during a shorter period of time. Such adjustments, if any, are determined by evaluating (i) the scope of any new responsibilities; (ii) the competitive market value of a named executive officer's role; (iii) the performance of the individual; and (iv) the performance of the Company. Neither the Compensation Committee nor the Company has retained a compensation consultant or similar organization for assistance in determining the salaries to be paid to the named executive officers.

Annual Bonuses

Each December, the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer reviews with the Compensation Committee the Company's estimated full-year results against the financial, strategic and operational goals established for the year, and the Company's performance in prior periods. After reviewing the actual results for the fiscal year, the Compensation Committee approves total bonuses to be awarded to all named executive officers, including the President and Chief Operating Officer.

The Compensation Committee, with input from the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, uses discretion in determining, for each named executive officer, the current year's bonus, which is typically equal to a percentage of an executive's base salary. The Compensation Committee evaluates the overall performance of the Company, the performance of the business or function that the executive leads and an assessment of each executive's performance against expectations, which were established at the beginning of the year.

The salaries paid and annual bonuses awarded to the Company's named executive officers are discussed below and shown in the Summary Compensation Table.

Equity Awards

The Company's 2002 Plan provides the opportunity for the Compensation Committee to award stock options or restricted stock grants to, among others, the Company's named executive officers. All of the Company's named executive officers have held stock options which have had varying exercise prices and expiration dates. Stock options were issued in 2002 and 2003 and are intended to motivate future superior performance, align the interests of the named executive officers with those of the Company's stockholders and retain the named executive officers through the term of the awards. The majority of the stock options issued to the Company's named executive officers had an expiration date of June 17, 2007; all of the named executive officers with options expiring on such date exercised such options prior to their termination. The Company has not issued any restricted stock grants under the 2002 Plan. No stock options were granted under the 2002 Plan in 2006.

The Company does not have any target levels of stock ownership applicable to any of its employees, including the named executive officers.

Retirement Benefits

Prior to December 31, 2005, the Company had a non-contributory defined benefit pension plan (the Pension Plan) covering a significant number of its employees, including Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson, two of the Company's named executive officers; Messrs. Lapin and Smith were not eligible to participate in the Pension Plan. On December 31, 2005, the Company froze the plan benefits under the Pension Plan for all hourly employees and certain salaried employees, including Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson. The Pension Plan continues in effect for certain other salaried employees.

On February 22, 2006, the Company entered into Supplemental Employee Retirement Plan Agreements (SERPA) with several employees of the Company, including Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson. The SERPA, which are effective as of January 1, 2006, provides certain retirement benefits based upon Messrs. Niemeyer's and Johnson's average annual wages and years of service (as defined in the SERPA). Benefits under the SERPA generally accrue from the effective date thereof through the earlier to occur of Messrs. Niemeyer's and Johnson's retirement, disability or termination of employment with the Company. The benefits payable under the SERPA replace, on an equivalent basis, those which otherwise would have been payable to Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson under the Pension Plan.

During 2006, the Company incurred a total expense of $230,000 for all SERPA, including compensation expense for Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson of $61,685 and $22,508, respectively. At December 31, 2006, the amount payable under all SERPA was $230,000, of which the amounts payable for Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson were $61,685 and $22,508, respectively.

On December 28, 2006, the Company assumed the obligations of IHC, an affiliate of the Company, under a retirement benefit agreement (the Retirement Agreement) for the benefit of Mr. Lapin. Mr. Lapin had originally entered into the Retirement Agreement on September 30, 1991; the Retirement Agreement related to services previously provided by Mr. Lapin to IHC.

Under the terms of the Retirement Agreement, Mr. Lapin is entitled to receive a cash payment of $1,174,750 on September 3, 2007, or at the termination of his employment with the Company prior to September 3, 2007 in an amount set forth in a time-adjusted payment schedule. IHC paid the Company $1,129,037 in connection with the assignment of the Retirement Agreement.

Following the assignment of the Retirement Agreement, the Company and Mr. Lapin entered into Amendment No. 1 to the Retirement Agreement whereby its term was extended until September 3, 2010, and the total potential payment thereunder was increased to $1,399,146, based on additional years of service to the Company by Mr. Lapin.

Most employees of the Company, including Messrs. Lapin and Smith, are eligible to participate in the Company's 401(k) savings plan. The Company matches employee contributions to the 401(k) savings plan at a rate of $.50 for every dollar contributed by each participant to a maximum 6% on compensation permitted by the Internal Revenue Service. Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson are eligible to participate in the Company's 401(k) savings plan, but are not entitled to any matching contributions from the Company.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

Messrs. Niemeyer and Johnson are eligible to participate in (as are all the Company's employees who meet service requirements under the several plans) the Company's medical and dental health insurance plans, life insurance plans and long term disability insurance plans.

The medical and dental plans require a contributory amount to be paid by all participants. While no participant contribution is required for the life insurance plan, the Company does include the cost of those benefits that exceed $50,000 in the participant's reported income to the Internal Revenue Service. The Company provides a long-term disability plan under which the Company pays the insurance premiums.

The Company believes that the several insurance plans that are offered are important components of the comprehensive benefit package which induces employees to remain in the Company's employ.

Messrs. Lapin and Smith do not participate in the Company's medical, dental, life insurance or disability insurance plans.

Employment Agreements and Severance Packages

The Company has not entered into any employment agreements with or guaranteed severance packages to any of the named executive officers.

Tax Implications

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), limits the Company's deductions for compensation paid to the named executive officers to $1 million unless certain requirements are met. The policy of the Compensation Committee with respect to Section 162(m) is to establish and maintain a compensation program which will optimize the deductibility of compensation. The Compensation Committee, however, reserves the right to use its judgment, where merited by the Compensation Committee's need to respond to changing business conditions or by an executive officer's individual performance, to authorize compensation which may not, in a specific case, be fully deductible to the Company. No named executive officer received compensation in 2006 in excess of the $1 million limitation provided by Section 162(m) of the Code.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee has reviewed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis, and discussed the Analysis with the Company's management. Based on that review and analysis, the Compensation Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in Amendment No. 1 to the Company's 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K and included in this proxy statement.

The foregoing report is provided by the undersigned members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The role of the Audit Committee is to assist the Company's Board of Directors in its oversight of the Company's financial reporting process, as is more fully described in its charter, which the Board of Directors has adopted. The Company's management is responsible for its financial reporting process, including its system of internal controls, and for the preparation and presentation of its consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The Company's independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements and expressing an opinion as to their conformity with GAAP. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and review these processes. It is not the Audit Committee's duty or responsibility to conduct auditing or accounting reviews of procedures. The members of the Audit Committee are not and may not be employees of the Company. Therefore, the Audit Committee has relied without independent verification on representations by the Company's management that its financial statements have been prepared with integrity and objectivity and in conformity with GAAP. The Audit Committee has also relied on representations of the Company's independent auditors included in their report on its financial statements. The Audit Committee's oversight does not provide the Audit Committee with an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or policies or appropriate internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions with the Company's management and independent auditors do not assure that the Company's financial statements are presented in accordance with GAAP, that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board or that the Company's independent auditors are in fact independent.

In the performance of its oversight function, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with the Company's management its audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006. The Audit Committee also discussed these financial statements with the Company's independent auditors, KPMG LLP (KPMG). The Audit Committee's discussions with the independent auditors included the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as currently in effect. The Audit Committee also discussed with them their independence and any relationship that might affect their objectivity or independence. In connection with these discussions, the Audit Committee received and reviewed the written disclosures from KPMG required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. Finally, the Audit Committee considered whether the non-audit services provided by the independent auditors are compatible with maintaining their independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee is not aware of any relationship between the independent auditors and the Company that affects the objectivity or independence of the independent auditors. Based on these discussions and the Audit Committee's review discussed above, and subject to the limitations on the role and responsibilities of the Audit Committee referred to above and in the Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee recommended to the Company's Board of Directors that its audited financial statements for fiscal 2006 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 for filing with the SEC.

Respectfully submitted,

The Aristotle Corporation Audit Committee

James G. Tatum (Chairperson)

John L. Lahey

John A. Whritner

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions

The Company reviews all relationships and transactions in which the Company and its directors and executive officers or their immediate family members are participants to determine whether such persons have a direct or indirect material interest. The Company's legal and accounting staff is primarily responsible for the development and implementation of processes and controls to obtain information from the directors and executive officers with respect to related party transactions and then determining, based on facts and circumstances, whether the Company or a related person has a direct or indirect material interest in the transaction. As required under SEC rules, transactions that are determined to be directly or indirectly material to the Company or a related person are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K or in its proxy statement. In addition, the Audit Committee reviews and approves or ratifies any related party transaction as required by the relevant Nasdaq requirements.

As set forth in the Audit Committee Charter, and as a matter of practice, the Audit Committee considers the following items in its review of related party transactions:

The nature of the related person's interest in the transaction;

The
material terms of the transaction,
including,
without limitation,

the amount and type of transaction;

The
importance
of the transaction
to the related person;

The importance
of the transaction
to the Company;

Whether the transaction would impair the judgment of a director or executive officer to act in the best interest of the Company;
and

Any other matters the Audit Committee deems appropriate.

Any member of the Audit Committee who is a related person with respect to a transaction under review may not participate in the deliberations or vote respecting approval or ratification of the transaction; provided, however, that such director may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Audit Committee called to consider such transaction.

Related Party Transactions

The Company and Geneve operate under cost-sharing arrangements pursuant to which certain administrative items, such as certain executive officer compensation and benefits, are allocated between the companies. During 2006, the Company accrued and paid to Geneve approximately $.9 million under such arrangements. Included in these amounts is consideration paid by the Company to Geneve for the Company's use of office space at Geneve's corporate headquarters. In addition, certain directors, officers and/or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, who are also directors, officers and/or employees of Geneve, received compensation and benefits from Geneve for services rendered thereto since January 1, 2006.

The Company (including certain qualifying domestic subsidiaries) is included in the Federal income tax return and certain State income tax returns of Geneve. The provision for income taxes for the Company is determined on a separate return basis in accordance with the terms of a tax sharing agreement with Geneve, and payments for Federal and certain State income taxes are made to Geneve. The Company made income tax payments to Geneve under such arrangement of $.7 million in 2006.

In fiscal 2005, the Company invested $8.2 million in an investment limited partnership. No additional amounts were invested in the limited partnership in 2006. At December 31, 2006, the value of the Company's investment in the limited partnership was $14.6 million. The general partner of the limited partnership is an affiliate of the Company. The funds invested in the limited partnership are managed exclusively by a non-affiliate of the Company. None of the Company's affiliates received material compensation in connection with such investment activities.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and approved or ratified the foregoing transactions.

On May 22, 2006, the Company received a proposal from Geneve (the "Geneve Proposal") to acquire in a merger transaction (i) the balance of the outstanding shares of Common Stock for a cash purchase price of $8.06 per share, and (ii) all of the outstanding shares of Series I Preferred Stock for a cash purchase price of $8.25 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends to the closing date. At the request of Geneve, the Board of Directors of the Company established the Special Committee composed of the Company's independent directors solely to consider Geneve's proposal. Despite extensive efforts, Geneve and the Special Committee were unable to reach agreement; as a result, on September 18, 2006, Geneve withdrew its proposal.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee approved and adopted pre-approval policies and procedures for non-audit services proposed to be performed by the Company's independent auditors. The policies and procedures were implemented in 2002. Departmental requests for non-audit services are reviewed by management and, once approved, are forwarded to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee for pre-approval. In addition, the Audit Committee reviewed the professional fees billed by KPMG, and determined that the provision of non-audit services was compatible with the maintenance of the auditors' independence. All non-audit services billed to the Company by KPMG in 2006 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.
