Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

System Equipment Purchase Agreement with Nortel Networks, Inc.

On June 11, 2007, Cricket Communications, Inc. (Cricket, a wholly owned subsidiary of Leap Wireless International, Inc. (Leap)), Alaska Native Broadband 1 License LLC (ANB) and Nortel Networks Inc. (Nortel) entered into a System Equipment Purchase Agreement (the Nortel Agreement). Pursuant to the Nortel Agreement, Cricket agreed to purchase and/or license wireless communications systems, products and services designed to be Advanced Wireless Spectrum (AWS) functional at a current estimated cost to Cricket of approximately $113 million, which commitments are subject, in part, to the necessary clearance of spectrum in the markets to be built. The initial three-year term of the Nortel Agreement begins on June 11, 2007 and is subject to a one-year extension if Cricket is unable to complete build-outs of new markets due to certain spectrum clearing delays. Nortel, among other things, agreed to provide Cricket with certain pricing discounts, credits and incentives and to make certain technical training available to Cricket personnel.

Cricket and Nortel also agreed that the existing Amended and Restated System Equipment Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 20, 2002, as amended (the Prior Nortel Agreement), would be terminated and replaced by the Nortel Agreement, except with respect to certain continuing obligations relating to confidentiality, indemnification and other matters set forth in the Prior Nortel Agreement.

System Equipment Purchase Agreement with Lucent Technologies, Inc.

On June 14, 2007, Cricket, ANB and Lucent Technologies, Inc. (Lucent) entered into a System Equipment Purchase Agreement (the Lucent Agreement) with a term of five years. Pursuant to the Lucent Agreement, Cricket agreed to purchase and/or license approximately $126 million of wireless communications systems, products and services designed to be AWS functional for the build-out of new markets and upgrades of existing markets, which commitments are subject, in part, to the necessary clearance of spectrum in the markets to be built. Cricket is required to satisfy the foregoing commitments within the first three-years of the term, subject to an extension of up to two years to satisfy approximately $96 million of the foregoing commitments if Cricket is unable to complete build-outs of new markets due to certain spectrum clearing delays. Lucent, among other things, agreed to provide Cricket with certain pricing discounts, credits and incentives and to make certain technical training available to Cricket personnel.

Cricket and Lucent also agreed that the existing Amended and Restated System Equipment Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 30, 2000, as amended (the Prior Lucent Agreement), would be terminated and replaced by the Lucent Agreement, except with respect to certain continuing obligations relating to confidentiality, indemnification and other matters set forth in the Prior Lucent Agreement.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

The description set forth above in Item 1.01 with respect to the terminations of the Prior Nortel Agreement and the Prior Lucent Agreement are incorporated in this Item 1.02 by reference.
