Year-End Guidance For New Services Increased Substantially

Comcast Digital Cable Guidance Increased from 2 Million to 2.2 Million Subscriptions

High-Speed Data Guidance Increased 27% to 950,000 Subscribers

QVC ACHIEVES OPERATING CASH FLOW GROWTH OF 19%

Philadelphia, PA - August 1, 2001...Comcast Corporation today reported results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001.

Brian L. Roberts, president of Comcast Corporation said, "We are pleased to report strong growth in all of Comcast's core businesses during the second quarter. Comcast Cable's marketing and sales efforts, aggressive plant upgrades and broadband service rollouts continue to yield industry-leading penetration results and double-digit cash flow growth while maintaining strong margins. Cable's impressive growth attests to the Company's ability to rapidly integrate and upgrade acquired systems and deliver new products, while driving cash flow margins on-par with or above the industry standard."

"As a result of strong market demand and our successful deployment strategies, we are also pleased to increase guidance on our digital cable and high speed data products. By year-end, we now anticipate having at least 2.2 million Digital Cable subscriptions and 950,000 high-speed data subscribers."

Mr. Roberts added, "Our Commerce and Content results are equally exciting. QVC again delivered outstanding results, with consolidated revenue growth of nearly 14% and consolidated operating cash flow growth of over 24% before start-up costs for QVC-Japan, our most recent new market entry. Our content businesses also generated double-digit revenue and cash flow growth, continuing to attract larger audiences."

Cable Division Results

Pro forma cable division revenues for the quarter ended June 30, 2001 were $1.285 billion, representing a 9.7% increase from the $1.171 billion in the second quarter of 2000. Pro forma operating cash flow for the quarter was $561.7 million, an increase of 13.0% over the $497.1 million for the same period of 2000. Pro forma cable results for the second quarter assume that the Prime acquisition, completed on August 1, 2000, the cable systems exchanges with AT&T Corp. and Adelphia Communications Corp. completed on December 31, 2000 and on January 1, 2001, respectively, and the acquisition of 585,000 cable subscribers from AT&T completed on April 30, 2001 were effective on January 1, 2000. Pro forma results exclude the acquisition of approximately 112,000 cable subscribers from AT&T completed on June 30, 2001.

Cable subscribers grew to 8.307 million, a twelve-month trailing growth rate of 1%. Continuing strong demand for Comcast Digital Cable contributed to a 6.7% increase in pro forma video revenues in the second quarter. High-speed data service revenue more than doubled over the second quarter of 2000. Pro forma advertising revenues grew 9.9% as the ongoing success of Comcast MarketLink, our regional fiber interconnects, in attracting new advertising business helped offset a generally weak advertising environment. Operating cash flow margins improved to 43.7% from 42.5% reflecting the successful integration and improved operating performance of recently acquired cable properties.

Mr. Roberts said, "The cable division continues to deliver terrific operating performance and growth, even as we integrate new cable systems and continue to make significant investments in our cable infrastructure. During the second quarter, we maintained our aggressive rebuild plan that will result in 95% of all our systems being upgraded by the end of this year."

The cable division added 200,900 Digital Cable subscriptions in the second quarter, a weekly average of approximately 15,500 to finish the quarter with 1.84 million Digital Cable units and a subscription penetration rate of nearly 23%. During the quarter, the cable division added more than 390,800 digital-ready subscribers to the Comcast Digital Cable footprint; this service is now available to nearly 97% of Comcast's cable subscribers.

During the quarter, the cable division added 101,300 Comcast@Home customers, a weekly average of approximately 7,800 net additions. At quarter end, 8.0 million homes, or nearly 60% of the homes in Comcast's footprint were marketed the Comcast@Home high-speed Internet service.

Commerce: QVC

QVC's consolidated revenues for the quarter ended June 30, 2001 were $876.0

million, representing a 13.7% increase from the $770.6 million reported in the second quarter of 2000. Consolidated operating cash flow for the quarter was $159.8 million, an increase of 19.3% over the $134.0 million reported in the prior year quarter. Excluding the results of QVC-Japan, consolidated operating cash flow increased 24.1% to $166.4 million.

Mr. Roberts said, "QVC's domestic business increased revenue by 15% and continued to drive sustainable improvements in productivity that resulted in operating cash flow growth of nearly 23% and cash flow margin expansion from 20.6% to 22.0%."

Content

Comcast's content businesses include E! Networks, Comcast-Spectacor, Home Team Sports, acquired on February 14, 2001, and The Golf Channel, consolidated effective June 2001, when Comcast increased its equity ownership to 91%. Pro forma results assume that the Home Team Sports acquisition and the consolidation of The Golf Channel occurred on January 1, 2000.

Solid growth in carriage continued to drive the results of E! Networks and The Golf Channel, contributing to double-digit increases in revenue and operating cash flow for both cable networks. As a whole, Comcast's content business segment reported pro forma revenue and operating cash flow growth of 15.0% and 21.1%, respectively, in the second quarter.

Business Communications

The Company's business communications results include the operating results of new initiatives in both the U.S. and Europe.

Comcast Business Communications (CBC) reported revenues of $9.6 million and an operating cash flow loss of $15.9 million in the second quarter as it continued to build out its network in central and northern New Jersey and Philadelphia. CBC has been established to further leverage Comcast's domestic cable infrastructure by providing a complete voice, data and Internet service bundle to small and medium-sized businesses in eight key markets served by Comcast Cable.

Consolidated Financials

For the three months ended June 30, 2001, the Company reported consolidated revenues of $2.299 billion, a 20.2% increase from the $1.912 billion reported in the second quarter of 2000. Consolidated operating cash flow increased 16.2% to $700.4 million from the $602.8 million reported in the second quarter of 2000. The Company's consolidated results include the Prime acquisition, completed on August 1, 2000, the cable systems exchanges with AT&T Corp. and Adelphia Communications Corp. completed on December 31, 2000 and on January 1, 2001, respectively, the acquisition of 585,000 cable subscribers from AT&T completed on April 30, 2001, the acquisition of Home Team Sports on February 14, 2001, and the consolidation of The Golf Channel as of June, 2001. Pro forma results assume that all acquisitions and exchanges were effective on January 1, 2000. Pro forma results exclude the acquisition of approximately 112,000 cable subscribers from AT&T completed on June 30, 2001 although these assets are included in the Company's balance sheet. On a pro forma basis, and excluding the effects of the Company's new business communications initiatives, the Company's consolidated revenues and operating cash flow for the quarter ended June 30, 2001 increased

Edgar Filing: AT&T CORP - Form 425

11.4% and 16.0%, respectively, over the second quarter of 2000.

For the six months ended June 30, 2001, the Company reported consolidated revenues of $4.495 billion, a 16.7% increase from the $3.851 billion reported in the first half of 2000. Consolidated operating cash flow increased 12.7% to $1.341 billion from the $1.190 billion reported for the six months ended June 30, 2000. On a pro forma basis, and excluding the effects of the Company's new business communications initiatives, the Company's consolidated revenues and operating cash flow for the six months ended June 30, 2001 increased 10.0% and 14.7%, respectively, over the same 2000 period.

Financial Guidance: 2001

Comcast is reiterating 2001 revenue and cash flow growth guidance for its cable, commerce and content operations and its new business communications initiatives. Comcast is increasing its guidance for cable new service units and cable capital expenditures as follows:

- o Comcast Cable expects to have 2.2 million Digital Cable subscriptions at year-end 2001, up from previous guidance of 2.0 million Digital Cable subscriptions.
- o Comcast Cable expects to have 950,000 Comcast@Home high-speed data customers at year-end 2001, up from previous guidance of 750,000 customers.
- o As a result of its accelerated rebuild program and higher Digital Cable and Comcast@Home year-end customer targets, Comcast Cable expects to invest $1.75 billion in capital expenditures in 2001, up from previous guidance of $1.45 billion.
