FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mittal Steel Company N.V.
Announces management organization at Mittal Steel USA

Rotterdam, The Netherlands, 15 April, 2005 Mittal Steel Company N.V. (NYSE and Euronext Amsterdam: MT) today announces the management organization for Mittal Steel USA, upon completion of its proposed merger with International Steel Group (ISG), which has not yet been completed.

Lou Schorsch, currently President & CEO of Ispat Inland, will become CEO of Mittal Steel USA, effective upon completion of the proposed merger with ISG.

Prior to joining Ispat Inland in October 2003, Mr Schorsh held various senior management positions in the consulting and e-commerce sectors, primarily relating to the steel industry. From 1985 until 2000, he was a Principal at McKinsey & Company, where he was co-leader of the firm's metal practice.

Rodney Mott, currently CEO of ISG, has decided to leave the organization for personal reasons, effective upon completion of the proposed merger with ISG.

Commenting, Lakshmi N. Mittal, Chairman and CEO, Mittal Steel, said:

Upon completion of the proposed transaction, we will have a real opportunity to build a premier steel producer providing the highest quality products to our customers. We have been very impressed with the operational excellence at ISG and its management team is to be complimented on the excellent job it has done in this regard, as well as on the very strong relationship it has built with the unions. We want to maintain and continue this spirit in the combined business. All of this provides a good platform from which to build a positive future and I am very excited about the opportunities that lie ahead.

Lou Schorsch is a very experienced leader and has done an outstanding job at Ispat Inland since his appointment as CEO in October 2003. I have every confidence that he will continue this excellent work as CEO of Mittal Steel USA. He has been leading the integration process of the two companies, which is already underway. Lou will be supported by a strong team that combines the complementary strengths of two successful, well-managed companies with the goals of achieving maximum synergies and increasing long-term value for Mittal Steel's stockholders.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Rodney Mott for the excellent job he has done in leading ISG since its formation, and wish him every success in his future endeavors.

Other key members of Mittal Steel USA will be as follows:

William Brake	Executive Vice President, Operations East
John Brett	Controller
Carlos M. Hernandez	General Counsel and Company Secretary
Kenneth M. Jakubowicz	Director, Purchasing
Greg Ludkovsky	Vice President Technology
John Mang	Executive Vice President, Operations West
Michael Rippey	Executive Vice President, Sales & Marketing
Tom Wood	Vice President Labor Relations

Commenting on his new team, Lou Schorsch added:

We will be putting together a very strong team of steel industry professionals, whose collective experience will enable us to ensure that Mittal Steel USA is at the forefront of the steel industry in North America. I know their knowledge and skill will be invaluable in helping us build on the strong heritage of both ISG and Ispat Inland to create a company that will bring new benefits to all of our stakeholders. In particular the broader capabilities of Mittal Steel USA will enable us to provide even higher levels of service to our customers.

Separately, Tom McCue has been appointed to manage Investor Relations in the US for Mittal Steel Company, reporting to Aditya Mittal, President and CFO of Mittal Steel, in this regard.

Mittal Steel USA will be headquartered in the Chicago-land area. Mittal Steel's US operations will be divided into two regions. The eastern regional office will be located in Richfield, Ohio, and the western regional office will be located in Burns Harbor, Indiana.

Mittal Steel's US Eastern Region will include the following ISG facilities: Cleveland and Warren (Ohio); Weirton (W.Va); Lackawanna (N.Y.); Coatesville and Conshocken (Pa); Sparrows Point (Md.).

The Western Region will include: ISG's facilities at Burns Harbor and Indiana Harbor (Indiana); Riverdale and Hennepin (Illinois); Columbus Coatings (Ohio) and Mittal Steel's Indiana Harbor (Indiana), I/N Tek, I/N Kote (Joint Venture companies with Nippon Steel Company) and Minorca Mine.
