Express Scripts Urges Caremark Stockholders to Reject Value
Destruction of Proposed Acquisition by CVS

St. Louis, February 2, 2007 In an advertisement published today in The Wall Street Journal, Express Scripts, Inc. (Nasdaq: ESRX) urged Caremark Rx, Inc. (NYSE: CMX) stockholders to consider the enhanced value that an Express Scripts/Caremark combination offers to stockholders, plan sponsors and patients. By contrast, the proposed acquisition of Caremark by CVS Corporation (NYSE: CVS) is strategically and financially flawed.

The text of the advertisement follows:

ATTENTION CAREMARK RX INC. STOCKHOLDERS

An Express Scripts/Caremark combination delivers enhanced value to stockholders, plan sponsors and patients. By contrast, the proposed acquisition of Caremark by CVS is strategically and financially flawed.

EXPRESS SCRIPTS OFFER PROVIDES SUPERIOR AND MORE CERTAIN VALUE

§ The CVS deal is at virtually no premium with only a recently added $2.00 dividend, of which Caremark stockholders are financing 45.5%, for a total of $1.09 per share

§ Better currency: Express Scripts has outperformed CVS over the past 10 years: 1,531% versus 315%. Which company's stock would you prefer to own?

§ More cash: Express Scripts is offering $29.25 per share in cash versus $2.00 in the CVS deal

MAKE NO MISTAKE EXPRESS SCRIPTS BOTTOM LINE IS PROOF POSITIVE OF ITS ABILITY TO INNOVATE AND EXECUTE

§ Express Scripts has delivered outstanding growth through innovation and execution generating a return to stockholders in excess of 8,500% over the past 15 years

§ Our fundamental business model is hitting on all profit generating cylinders: greater use of generics, home delivery, and specialty pharmacy

§ By marshalling the best and brightest minds in pharmacy benefits management, our proposed value-enhancing horizontal merger with Caremark will fuel further innovation and execution to meet growing, shifting client and patient needs

CAREMARK S CLIENT RETENTION BOGEYMAN

§ Each time Express Scripts has made an acquisition, the result has been an increase in the number of customers beyond what both companies had previously

§ About one-third of business in our industry comes up for renewal or is at risk every year, completely unrelated to any acquisition activity

§ Over the past three years, Express Scripts has taken more than two times as many clients from Caremark than vice versa demonstrating the attractiveness of Express Scripts to Caremark s book of business

VERTICAL PBM INTEGRATIONS DESTROY SHAREHOLDER VALUE

§ Historically, vertical integrations involving a PBM have resulted in value destruction, on average, of 36%

§ Here s what experts are saying:

The news [of Express Scripts offer] is consistent with our critical view of the CMX/CVS deal, and we think such a valuation premium is appropriate given a more logical horizontal combination that will eliminate the conflicts of interests inherent in a vertical transaction...CMX s board will be hard pressed to credibly thwart such an offer. *

(Robert M. Willoughby, Bank of America, 12.18.06) ...we believe it is important to recognize the historical issues associated with vertical integration in this sector could unfavorably impact P/E multiple of CVS/CMX entity. *

(Robert Summers, Bear Stearns, 01.17.07)

§ Don t bet on a risky, unproven plan that is at odds with what history teaches

EXPRESS SCRIPTS IS COMMITTED TO ITS OFFER FOR CAREMARK

We have:

§ Executed a commitment letter providing all required financing

§ Commenced an exchange offer bringing the offer directly to Caremark stockholders

§ Nominated a slate of four directors for election to Caremark s board at its 2007 annual meeting

§ Requested repeatedly that Caremark meet with us and allow us to conduct confirmatory due diligence

§ Determined to refile notification under the Hart-Scott- Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, seeking to clear the transaction without the need for a second request

SEND A MESSAGE TO THE CAREMARK BOARD:

That You Will Not Settle for Inferior Value and an Uncertain Future

That it Must Engage in a Discussion with Express Scripts About Our Clearly Superior Offer

This message is being sent to all Annual Bonus Plan participants.

At the Jan. 18 Management Briefing, George Paz encouraged you to submit questions about our proposed acquisition of Caremark. This update includes answers to some of the questions we've received. Please watch for future updates with answers to more of your questions.

This information is for internal use only. If you have questions about our proposed acquisition of Caremark, please send them to Corporate Communications.

Q: We are re-filing our notification under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act. Why are we doing this?

A: This is not an unusual step in matters like our proposed acquisition of Caremark. The re-filing gives the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) an additional 30 days to review our proposed acquisition before deciding whether to issue a second request for more information. We will use the next 30 days to continue the process with the FTC, seeking to clear the transaction.

Q: Caremark has repeatedly alleged that our proposed acquisition would result in a loss of clients. What are the facts?

A: We disagree with Caremark's allegations:

1. Each time we've made an acquisition, the result has been an increase in the number of customers beyond what both companies had previously.
2. About one-third of the business in our industry comes up for renewal or is at risk every year. This is completely unrelated to any acquisition activity.
3. During the past three years, we have taken more than two times as many clients from Caremark than it has taken from Express Scripts. This demonstrates the attractiveness of Express Scripts to Caremark's book of business.

Q: Caremark has run several ads, encouraging its shareholders to vote in favor of the merger with CVS. Why so many ads, and what are we doing to encourage Caremark shareholders to vote against the merger with CVS?

A: In matters like this, it is common for companies to communicate with shareholders through several channels, including news releases, letters, conference calls, investor meetings and ads. We are using the same channels, and our first ad ran in today's Wall Street Journal.

Q: When will shareholders vote on the proposed Caremark/CVS merger?

A: Caremark shareholders will vote on Feb. 20, and CVS shareholders will vote on Feb. 23. We are soliciting proxies from Caremark shareholders and are actively urging Caremark shareholders to vote against the proposed merger.
