ING provides update on voluntary delisting from Paris, Frankfurt and Swiss stock exchanges

In line with the announcement made on 18 November 2008, ING today provides an update on the process to voluntarily delist the ING shares from the Paris, Frankfurt and Swiss stock exchanges. Since the announcement, all relevant authorities and exchanges have approved the applications to delist.

NYSE Euronext has notified ING that the delisting from Euronext Paris will be effective on 20 January 2009, after the single order book for the Amsterdam, Brussels and Paris exchanges has been implemented. The last day of trading on Euronext Paris therefore will be 19 January. The delisting from the Frankfurt Stock Exchange is scheduled to be effective on 26 February 2009, with the last trading day 25 February. The delisting of ING shares from SIX Swiss Exchange is expected to be effective on 3 March 2009, with the last trading day 2 March.

The decision of ING to concentrate trading of its (depository receipts for) shares on the stock exchanges in Amsterdam, Brussels and New York was based on the low volume of shares traded on the other exchanges, the fact that the original reasons for a broad range of listings were no longer relevant and the costs associated with maintaining the listings.
