Item 8.01 Other Events.

On July 16, 2009, we executed a confidential settlement agreement with Matthew Hardey, our former Chief Financial Officer, relating to the claims asserted by Mr. Hardey against Newport Resources, Inc. (“Newpark”) and Paul L. Howes, our current Chief Executive Officer. As previously disclosed, in 2007 Mr. Hardey filed a lawsuit against Newport and Mr. Howes which included a variety of allegations arising from our internal investigation and Mr. Hardey’s termination, including breach of contract, unfair trade practices, defamation and negligence. We asserted claims in the litigation against Mr. Hardey for costs incurred by us in connection with the internal investigation, settlement costs associated with the class action and derivative litigation, and for recovery of defense costs advanced under the terms of Mr. Hardey’s indemnification agreement. The lawsuit is pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana. Pursuant to the settlement agreement, Mr. Hardey has released Newport and Mr. Howes from all claims including any claims under his employment contract and any present or future claims for indemnification and/or advancement of expenses relating to any ongoing investigations or actions. Likewise, Newport has released Mr. Hardey from all claims it asserted against him for recovery of costs, including claims that we were entitled to recover sums previously advanced to Mr Hardey under his indemnification agreement. The settlement agreement provides that the specific terms of the settlement are confidential; however, Newport believes that the terms of the settlement, whether viewed individually or in the aggregate, do not have a material adverse effect on Newport’s financial condition. The parties are requesting that the court dismiss the lawsuit, and we expect that to occur within the next 30 days.
