Prospect Capital Raises Bid for Allied Capital, Further Increasing Premium Over Ares Transaction

NEW YORK (Market Wire) January 26, 2010 Prospect Capital Corporation (NASDAQ: PSEC, Prospect ) announced today that it has delivered a letter to the Board of Directors of Allied Capital Corporation ( Allied ) raising its offer to acquire Allied. Set forth below is the full text of the letter:

January 26, 2010

Board of Directors

c/o John M. Scheurer

Chief Executive Officer and President

Allied Capital Corporation

1919 Pennsylvania Avenue N.W.

Washington, D.C. 20006

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We hereby increase our offer to acquire Allied Capital Corporation to 0.40 of a share of Prospect common stock for each share of Allied common stock. As discussed below, the implied value of our offer is now more than 20% greater than the implied value of Ares offer to Allied shareholders.

Revised Superior Value: Based on an after-market trading price of $12.56 per share of Prospect common stock on January 25, 2010, Prospect's offer represents a value of $5.02 per share of Allied common stock, which is an over 20% premium to the $4.17 value per Allied share implied by an exchange ratio of 0.325 of a share of Ares common stock in the Ares merger (based on a $12.84 after-market trading price of Ares common stock price on January 25, 2010).

Revised Superior Dividends: Based on our proposed exchange ratio and Ares' and our most recent quarterly dividend, our offer would provide Allied shareholders with a pro forma quarterly dividend of $0.164 per share of Allied common stock, which is more than 40% higher than the pro forma quarterly dividend of $0.114 per share of Allied common stock under the Ares merger.

Superior Upside Potential: Based on our proposed exchange ratio, Allied shareholders would receive 71.7 million shares of Prospect common stock, representing 53% of the ownership of the combined entity. A Prospect-Allied combination would preserve greater upside for existing shareholders of Allied than would a combination with Ares, where Allied shareholders would expect to own only 31% of the combined entity, after giving effect to the proposed equity offering Ares announced yesterday.

Transaction Certainty: We are confident that we can promptly consummate the proposed transaction. We have reviewed the merger agreement signed between Allied and Ares and are comfortable, subject to due diligence, executing an agreement with Allied substantially similar to Allied's agreement with Ares. We believe we can complete our due diligence within 15 business days once full access to due diligence materials has been granted. Given our access to debt and equity capital markets and our lower existing and pro forma leverage profile in comparison to Ares, we are confident we will be able to maintain or refinance Allied's existing institutional debt. Unlike Ares, we have successfully merged with another publicly traded business development company, Patriot Capital, following an auction, which should dispel any doubt as to our ability and resolve to complete this merger.

Streamlined Integration: While Ares has not made any public announcement about the fate of Allied's professional staff in Washington, D.C. or New York, we are interested in retaining a significant portion of the Allied team, in order to maximize continuity of asset management and monetization of the portfolio and to reduce integration risk.

We believe our offer represents a compelling strategic combination that will generate superior value for Allied shareholders in comparison to the Ares proposal. Allied has successfully restructured its institutional debt, does not face a liquidity crisis and has benefited from the improvement in the debt markets. Accordingly, we do not understand why the Allied board insists on barreling ahead with an inferior transaction with Ares without talking to us or engaging with us in any way. We do not see how completely ignoring a superior offer serves Allied shareholders. Should the Allied board continue to stiff arm us, we are prepared to pursue all available options, including bringing the matter directly to Allied shareholders.

We look forward to your favorable response by 5 P.M., Eastern Standard Time on Thursday, January 28, 2010.

Very truly yours,

Prospect Capital Corporation
