Despite diligent efforts, the work necessary to complete the accounting and reporting of income taxes for certain complex transactions, including the accounting and reporting related to certain valuation allowances related to foreign tax credits and completion of transfer pricing studies related to our operations in Mexico, as well as assessing the impact of those matters on our liabilities for uncertain tax positions, could not be completed without unreasonable expense and effort in sufficient time to permit filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three and six months ended July 1, 2007 on the scheduled due date of August 10, 2007.

The Company expects that it will be able to complete the remaining work described above in time for the Company to file its Form 10-Q for the three and six months ended July 1, 2007 within the five-day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.
