Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Effective as of March 20, 2008, Origen Financial, Inc. entered into a letter agreement with Benton E. Sergi, Origen's Senior Vice President of Operations. The following brief description of the agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1.

Under the agreement, Mr. Sergi will be paid a retention bonus equal to $215,250 (the amount of his current base salary) if (1) he remains employed by Origen or a successor of Origen for twelve months from the date of the agreement, or (2) if during such twelve-month period his employment is terminated by Origen for any reason other than insubordination, incompetency or dishonesty, and he is not offered employment by a successor to Origen. If payable, the retention bonus will be paid in accordance with Origen's payroll schedule over the course of one year.

Origen entered into the agreement with Mr. Sergi and similar agreements with other key employees to maximize stockholder value by providing for continuity and stability of management before, during and after a possible sale of Origen and to provide Mr. Sergi and such other employees with fair and reasonable protection from the risks presented by the possibility of a sale of Origen. These considerations are of particular importance given the current conditions in the credit markets described in Origen's recently filed Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. Among other things, these conditions recently have caused Origen to suspend originating manufactured housing loans for its own account, decrease its workforce by 16% and consider various strategic alternatives to satisfy its obligations to repay approximately $46 million under a credit facility that matures on June 13, 2008.
