EXPLANATORY NOTE REGARDING CERTAIN FINANCIAL STATEMENTS INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE INTO THIS REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Section 11(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 provides that if any part of a registration statement at the time it becomes effective contains an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, any person acquiring a security pursuant to the registration statement (unless it is proved that at the time of the acquisition the person knew of the untruth or omission) may sue, among others, every accountant who has consented to be named as having prepared or certified any part of the registration statement or as having prepared or certified any report or valuation which is used in connection with the registration statement with respect to the statement in the registration statement, report or valuation which purports to have been prepared or certified by the accountant.

Our consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2001, and for the year ended December 31, 2001, incorporated by reference into this registration statement, were audited by our former independent auditor, Arthur Andersen LLP. However, we have not been able to obtain, after reasonable efforts, the written consent of Arthur Andersen LLP with respect to the inclusion of such consolidated financial statements in this registration statement.

Under these circumstances, Rule 437a under the Securities Act of 1933 permits us to file this registration statement without a written consent from Arthur Andersen LLP. Accordingly, Arthur Andersen LLP will not be liable under Section 11(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 because it has not consented to being named as an expert in the registration statement.

PART I

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE SECTION 10(a) PROSPECTUS

The documents containing the information specified in Part I of Form S-8 will be sent or given to the participants in The Allied Capital Corporation Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan as specified by Rule 428(b)(1) under the Securities Act of 1933. Such documents are not being filed with the SEC in accordance with the requirements of Part I of Form S-8, but constitute (along with the documents incorporated by reference into this registration statement pursuant to Part II hereof) a prospectus that meets the requirements of Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933.

PART II

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference.

We hereby incorporate, or will be deemed to have incorporated, herein by reference the following documents:

Our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003;

Our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2004; and

The description of our common stock contained in our registration statement on Form 8-A filed with the SEC on June 1, 2001.

Each document filed subsequent to the date of this registration statement pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment which indicates that all securities offered have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated in this registration statement by reference and to be a part hereof from the date of the filing of such documents. Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated herein by reference shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this registration statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

This registration statement covers the registration of Deferred Compensation Obligations (as defined below) to be offered under The Allied Capital Corporation Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan (the "DCP I") to executive officers, directors and consultants of Allied Capital Corporation (the "Company") who are designated as eligible to participate in the DCP I by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Compensation Committee").

The Company's obligations to pay participants in the DCP I, upon their retirement, termination of employment with the Company or in such other circumstances specified under the DCP I, annual salary, annual bonus and directors fees, the receipt of which the participants have elected to defer under the DCP I, are referred to as the "Deferred Compensation Obligations." The Deferred Compensation Obligations are general unsecured obligations of the Company to pay deferred compensation in the future in accordance with the terms of the DCP I from the general assets of the Company. The Company's obligation to pay such deferred compensation at a later date is not guaranteed and is subject to the Company's ability to pay.

The following is a brief description of the material features of the DCP I. Such description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the DCP I, which is incorporated by reference into this registration statement.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DCP I and other conditions that the Compensation Committee, as the administrator of the DCP I may determine, each participant may elect to defer all or a portion of his or her annual salary, annual bonus and directors' fees. The amount of compensation to be deferred by each participant is based on elections made by the participant in accordance with the terms of the DCP I.

All of the Company's senior officers, directors and consultants are eligible to participate in the DCP I. The Compensation Committee, in its sole discretion, shall designate the senior officers, directors and consultants who will participate in the DCP I.

Each participant must select from a range of investment alternatives chosen by the Compensation Committee, as the administrator of the DCP I against which to index their respective contributions, and the amount of the obligations payable to each participant will increase or decrease based on the investment returns of the chosen investment alternatives. A participant's selection of an investment alternative, the allocation of obligations to such investment alternative and the crediting and debiting of amounts to a participant's account under the DCP I are not to be construed as an actual investment made on his or her account in any such investment alternative or any investment made on his or her behalf by the Company.

Although all participant deferrals are placed in a trust, such participant deferrals become the general assets of the Company and, thus, the participants will not have an ownership interest in any of the assets of the DCP I or in the investment alternatives they choose, and the participant deferrals will be subject to the claims of the Company's general creditors.

The Company's obligation to pay deferred compensation to a participant will become due in the event of the participant's retirement, death, other termination of employment or disability or the Company's change of control or on such other date as the participant elects, and in the form elected by the participant in accordance with the terms of the DCP I. Participants may also petition for early distributions without a penalty in the event of hardship. All distributions made by the Company under the DCP I will be in the form of cash.

The DCP I will be administered by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee will have full power and authority, subject to the provisions of the DCP I, to promulgate such rules and regulations as it deems necessary for the proper administration of the DCP I, to interpret the provisions and supervise the administration of the DCP I, and to take all actions in connection therewith or in relation thereto as it deems necessary or advisable.

The DCP I is a non-qualified plan, and no participant or other person will own any interest in particular assets of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries by reason of the right to receive any payment under the DCP I.

The Board of Directors of the Company reserves the right to amend, terminate, or discontinue the DCP I, provided that no such action will adversely affect a participant's rights under the DCP I with respect to the amounts in his or her deferral account. Upon termination of the DCP I, any amounts credited to the deferral account of a participant will be distributed in full to such participant.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 2-418 of the Maryland General Corporation Law provides that a Maryland corporation may indemnify any director of the corporation and any person who, while a director of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan, made a party to any proceeding by reason of service in that capacity unless it is established that the act or omission of the director was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and was committed in bad faith or was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty; or the director actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services; or, in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. Indemnification may be made against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses actually incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding, but if the proceeding was one by or in the right of the corporation, indemnification may not be made in respect of any proceeding in which the director shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Such indemnification may not be made unless authorized for a specific proceeding after a determination has been made, in the manner prescribed by the law, that indemnification is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the applicable standard of conduct. On the other hand, the director must be indemnified for expenses if he or she has been successful in the defense of the proceeding or as otherwise ordered by a court. The law also prescribes the circumstances under which the corporation may advance expenses to, or obtain insurance or similar cover for, directors.

The law also provides for comparable indemnification for corporate officers and agents.

The Restated Articles of Incorporation of Allied Capital Corporation provide that its directors and officers shall, and its agents in the discretion of the board of directors may be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted from time to time by the laws of Maryland (with such power to indemnify officers and directors limited to the scope provided for in Section 2-418 as currently in force), provided, however, that such indemnification is limited by the Investment Company Act of 1940 or by any valid rule, regulation or order of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder. Allied Capital Corporation's bylaws, however, provide that Allied Capital Corporation may not indemnify any director or officer against liability to Allied Capital Corporation or its security holders to which he or she might otherwise be subject by reason of such person's willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office unless a determination is made by final decision of a court, by vote of a majority of a quorum of directors who are disinterested, non-party directors or by independent legal counsel that the liability for which indemnification is sought did not arise out of such disabling conduct.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Allied Capital Corporation pursuant to the provisions described above, or otherwise, Allied Capital Corporation has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Allied Capital Corporation of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person in the successful defense of an action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by a director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Allied Capital Corporation will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of the court of the issue.

Allied Capital Corporation carries liability insurance for the benefit of its directors and officers on a claims-made basis of up to $50,000,000, subject to a $1,000,000 retention and the other terms thereof. Allied Capital Corporation also maintains an additional $10 million of insurance coverage for the benefit of its directors and officers.

In February 2004, Allied Capital Corporation entered into indemnification agreements with its directors and 12 senior officers. The indemnification agreements attempt to provide these directors and senior officers the maximum indemnification permitted under Maryland law and the Investment Company Act of 1940. Each indemnification agreement provides that Allied Capital Corporation shall indemnify the director or senior officer who is a party to the agreement (an Indemnitee) if, by reason of his or her corporate status, the Indemnitee is, or is threatened to be, made a party to or a witness in any threatened, pending, or completed proceeding, other than a proceeding by or in the right of Allied Capital Corporation.

At present, there is no pending litigation or proceeding involving an Indemnitee where indemnification would be required or permitted under the indemnification agreement.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act);

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of a prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) above shall not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
