PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation on behalf of the Board of Directors (the Board) of HMN Financial, Inc. (the Company) of proxies to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Meeting), which will be held at the Rochester Golf & Country Club, located at 3100 W. Country Club Road, Rochester, Minnesota, on April 25, 2006 at 10:00 a.m., local time, and any adjournments or postponements of the Meeting. The accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting and this Proxy Statement are first being mailed to stockholders on or about March 20, 2006.

Certain information provided herein relates to Home Federal Savings Bank (the Bank), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Voting of Proxies

All shares of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share (the Common Stock), represented at the Meeting by properly executed proxies, duly delivered to the Secretary of the Company prior to or at the Meeting, and not revoked, will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the instructions specified on the proxies. If no instructions are indicated, properly executed proxies will be voted FOR the nominees for director listed below and FOR the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board does not know of any matters, other than those described in the Notice of Annual Meeting and this Proxy Statement, that are to come before the Meeting. If any other matters are properly presented at the Meeting for action, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy and acting thereunder will have, to the extent permitted by law, the discretion to vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

Required Vote

Provided a quorum is present at the Meeting, (i) directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting and (ii) a majority of the votes cast shall be the act of the stockholders with respect to all other matters considered at the Meeting. If you do not vote your shares, you will not have a say in the important issues to be presented at the Meeting.

Effect of Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

If stockholders indicate on their proxy that they wish to abstain from voting on a particular proposal, including brokers holding their customers' shares of record who cause abstentions to be recorded, these shares are considered present and entitled to vote at the Meeting. These shares will count toward determining whether or not a quorum is present. However, these shares will not be considered cast with respect to the proposal for which they abstain from voting and will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of any of those proposals.

If a stockholder does not give a broker holding the stockholder's shares instructions as to how to vote the shares, the broker has authority under New York Stock Exchange rules to vote those shares for or against routine matters, such as the election of directors and the ratification of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. Brokers cannot vote on their customers' behalf on non-routine proposals. These rules apply to the Company notwithstanding the fact that shares of the Company's Common Stock are traded on The NASDAQ National Market. If a broker votes shares that are unvoted by its customers for or against a routine proposal, these shares are counted for the purpose of establishing a quorum and also will be counted for the purpose of determining the outcome of the routine proposals on which they cast. Shares held by a broker on behalf of a stockholder will not be considered cast with respect to any non-routine proposals and will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of any of non-routine proposals.

Quorum and Adjournment of Meeting

One third of the shares of the Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for purposes of the Meeting. If a quorum is not present at the Meeting, the chairman of the Meeting, or the stockholders present, by vote of a majority of the votes cast by stockholders present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote, may adjourn the Meeting, and at any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the Meeting as originally called.

Revocation of Proxies

A proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked at any time before it is voted. Proxies may be revoked by: (i) filing with Cindy K. Hamlin, the Secretary of the Company, at or before the Meeting a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the date on the proxy or (ii) duly executing a proxy dated a later date than the earlier proxy and relating to the same shares and delivering it to the Secretary of the Company at or before the Meeting.

Record Date and Number of Shares Entitled to Vote

The Common Stock is the only authorized and outstanding voting security of the Company. Stockholders of record as of the close of business on February 28, 2006 will be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock then held. As of February 28, 2006, the Company had 4,412,964 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. The number of issued and outstanding shares excludes 4,715,698 shares held in the treasury of the Company.

Expenses of Soliciting Proxies

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. The Company will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses incurred by them in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Common Stock. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and regular employees of the Company and the Bank may solicit proxies personally or by telephone without additional compensation.

Security Ownership of Management and Certain Beneficial Owners

The following table sets forth, as of February 28, 2006 (except as noted in the footnotes to the table), the beneficial ownership of: (i) each stockholder known by management to beneficially own more than five percent of the outstanding Common Stock, (ii) each of the executive officers listed in the Summary Compensation Table below (the Named Officers) and (iii) all directors, director nominees and executive officers of the Company as a group. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to this table, the listed beneficial owner has sole voting power and investment power with respect to the shares of Common Stock.

Director Attendance at Annual Meetings

Directors are expected to attend the annual meeting of stockholders. In 2005, eight directors attended the Company's annual meeting of stockholders.

Procedures Regarding Director Candidates Recommended by Stockholders

The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders of the Company if the recommended director candidate would be eligible to serve as a director under the Company's By-laws. The Company's By-laws require that directors have their primary domicile in a county where the Bank has a full service branch. This requirement may be waived by a majority of the Board so long as a majority of the directors currently serving on the Board have their primary residence in a county where the Bank has a full service branch.

In order to be considered by the Governance and Nominating Committee, a stockholder recommendation of a director candidate must set forth all information relating to the candidate that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act and Rule 14a-11 thereunder (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected).

The Governance and Nominating Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders in the same manner that it considers all director candidates. This consideration will include an assessment of each candidate's experience, integrity, competence, diversity, skills and dedication in the context of the needs of the Board. Each candidate will be evaluated in the context of the Board as a whole, with the objective of recommending a group of nominees that can best perpetuate the success of the business and represent stockholder interest through the exercise of sound judgment based on a diversity of experience.

Rather than recommending director candidates to the Governance and Nominating Committee, stockholders may directly nominate a person for election to the Board by complying with the procedures set forth in the Company's By-laws, any applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and any applicable laws. For more information regarding the submission of stockholder nominations of director candidates, please refer to the section entitled "Stockholder Proposals."

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2005, the Company's Compensation Committee was comprised of Messrs. Benson, Schneider, Fogarty and DeBoer (Chairman) and Ms. Himle. None of the members is an executive officer, employee or former employee of the Company, and no interlocking relationship exists between the Board or Compensation Committee and the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company.

Director Compensation

All directors of the Company also serve as directors of the Bank. During 2005, members of the Board of the Company and the Bank were paid the following fees for their services:

	Description of Fees
	Chairman of the Board	Non- employee Directors	Chairman of the Audit Committee	Other Committee Chairs
The Company and the Bank:
Monthly fee	$ 3,333	$ 1,250
Board meeting attendance fee	$ 1,000	$ 500
Audit Committee attendance fee		$ 500	$ 1,000
Other committees of the Board attendance fee		$ 300		$ 600

For 2006, the only anticipated change to the fees paid to directors is an increase to the Audit Committee Chair fee of $500 per meeting and an increase in the Other Committee Chairs fees of $300 per meeting.

The Company allows each member of the Board to elect to defer receipt of his or her fees until January 30 of the calendar year immediately following the date in which such member ceases to serve as a member of the Board. Deferred fees to be paid following a director's service are to be paid over a yearly period not to exceed ten years. The deferred fees earn interest at an interest rate equal to the Bank's cost of funds on November 30 of each year in which the fee is deferred. A director who is an officer or employee of the Company or the Bank receives no separate compensation for services as a director of the Company or the Bank.

Approval of Independent Auditor Services and Fees

The Audit Committee pre-approved 100% of the services provided by KPMG LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee has determined that the provision of the above non-audit services was compatible with maintaining the independence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee's current practice on pre-approval of services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm is to approve annually all audit services and, on a case-by-case basis, recurring permissible non-audit services to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm during the fiscal year. The Audit Committee reviews each non-audit service to be provided and assesses the impact of the service on the auditor's independence. In addition, the Audit Committee may pre-approve other non-audit services during the year on a case-by-case basis. Pursuant to a policy adopted by the Audit Committee, Mr. Geisler, the Chair of the Audit Committee, is authorized to pre-approve certain limited non-audit services described in Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act. In 2004, he pre-approved $8,500 of services performed by KPMG, LLP that were subsequently ratified by the entire committee.

Employment Agreement and Change-In-Control Agreements

The Bank and the Company have entered into an employment agreement with Mr. McNeil dated as of January 1, 2002. The agreement is designed to assist the Company and the Bank in maintaining stable and competent management. The agreement provides for an initial base salary of $200,000 but is subject to a potential annual upward adjustment based on a review of Mr. McNeil's performance by the Compensation Committee of the Board. Mr. McNeil's current base salary is $310,000. The agreement had an initial term of three years. On April 30 of each year, the term automatically extends for a period of twelve months in addition to the then-remaining term of employment, unless any party to the agreement gives contrary written notice or under certain other circumstances. The current term of the agreement extends through December 31, 2007. The agreement will terminate upon Mr. McNeil's death or disability, and Mr. McNeil may terminate the agreement upon notice to the Company or the Bank. In addition, the agreement may be suspended or terminated for certain regulatory reasons related to the Federal Deposit Insurance Act. In the event that Mr. McNeil terminates his employment for "good reason" or his employment is terminated by the Company or Bank, other than for cause, or by reason of his disability, he will continue to receive his salary and a reimbursement for the cost of premiums to maintain the same level of health insurance coverage as he was receiving before the date of termination through the remaining term of the agreement, unless he receives payment under his change-in-control agreement described below. "Good reason" includes an uncured material breach of the employment agreement by the Company or the Bank, a relocation of Mr. McNeil or a material reduction in base salary, perquisites or benefits that is not a result of a generally applicable reduction. The agreement also provides, among other things, for participation in an equitable manner in employee benefits applicable to executive personnel.

Mr. McNeil entered into a change-in-control agreement with the Bank as of March 1, 2004. The agreement expires on March 31, 2006, but it provides for an automatic extension from year to year thereafter unless either applicable party gives notice of termination. Each of Messrs. Eberle, Krehbiel and Jorgensen and Ms. Kolling entered into a change-in-control agreement with the Bank as of May 7, 2004. The agreements expire on August 28, 2006, but they provide for an automatic extension for one year and from year to year thereafter unless either applicable party gives notice of termination. These agreements are designed to assist the Company and the Bank in maintaining a stable and competent management team. In the event that employment with the Company or the Bank is terminated in connection with certain change of control events or the employee voluntarily terminates employment (under certain circumstances) in connection with such events, the agreements provide for a cash payment equal to a percentage of the employee's annual average base salary. Mr. McNeil is entitled to receive a cash payment equal to 299% of his annual average base salary. Messrs. Eberle, Jorgensen and Krehbiel and Ms. Kolling are entitled to receive a cash payment equal to 200% of their respective annual average base salaries. With respect to Mr. McNeil, the amount is in addition to the payment of his salary for the remainder of the term of his employment pursuant to his employment agreement. These agreements also provide that the employees may participate in the health, disability and life insurance plans and programs that the employees were entitled immediately prior to such termination. The amounts payable pursuant to these agreements will be reduced by the amount of any severance pay that the employees receive from the Bank, its subsidiaries or its successors. Based on their average salaries over the past five years, if the employment of Messrs. McNeil, Eberle, Jorgensen and Krehbiel and Ms. Kolling had been terminated as of December 31, 2005 under circumstances giving rise to the salary payment described above, such individuals would have been entitled to receive maximum lump-sum cash payments of approximately $685,208, $186,126, $194,615, $216,584 and $186,878, respectively.

Pension Plan

The Bank's employees are included in the Financial Institutions Retirement Fund, a multi-employer comprehensive pension plan (the "Pension Plan"). This non-contributory defined benefit retirement plan covers all employees who have met minimum service requirements. Employees become 100% vested in the Pension Plan after five years of eligible service (as defined in the Pension Plan). The Bank's policy is to fund the maximum amount that can be deducted for federal income tax purposes. In 2005, a contribution in the amount of $205,744 was made to the Pension Plan. On September 1, 2002, benefits for the all of Bank's existing participants under the Pension Plan were frozen, and as a result, no additional benefits will be earned after that date. In addition, the Bank no longer offered enrollment in the Pension Plan for its employees as of September 1, 2002. When Messrs. McNeil, Eberle, Jorgensen and Krehbiel and Ms. Kolling retire, they will be entitled to annual payments of $5,667, $4,141, $28,247, $2,567 and $23,779, respectively.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Compensation Policy. The Compensation Committee of the Company has designed the compensation for the executive officers in order to attract and retain individuals who have the skills, experience and work ethic to provide a coordinated work force that will effectively and efficiently carry out the policies adopted by the Board and to manage the Company and its subsidiaries to meet the Company's mission, goals and objectives.

To determine the compensation for the executive officers of the Company, the Compensation Committee (i) reviews the actual financial performance of the Bank over the most recently completed fiscal year (principally net income, return on equity, general and administrative expense, CAMELS rating (a bank regulatory evaluation tool), compliance rating and quality of assets) compared to Bank's expected results and the results at comparable companies within the banking industry, and (ii) compares the responsibilities and performance of each individual executive officer and the compensation levels of such persons with the compensation of persons with similar responsibilities at other comparable companies within the banking industry. The Compensation Committee evaluates all factors subjectively in the sense that they do not attempt to tie any factors to a specific level of compensation.

Benefits. All employees and executive officers participate on an equal, nondiscriminatory basis in the Bank's medical insurance plan, medical reimbursement plan, childcare plan, long-term disability plan and group life insurance plan. The Bank also provides to all employees and executive officers on a nondiscriminatory basis participation in a 401(k) Plan, the ESOP, and the Pension Plan until the benefits relating to all Bank employees were frozen as of September 1, 2002. As a result of the freezing of the pension plan benefits, employees may no longer enroll in the Pension Plan. Nondiscretionary cash bonuses (up to a maximum of $150) are awarded annually to all employees based upon years of service, with an additional nondiscretionary cash bonus awarded to employees every five years of service. Messrs. McNeil and Krehbiel also are provided with use of a Company car and Mr. McNeil is provided with a country club membership and is reimbursed for certain travel expenses.

In addition, executive officers are provided an opportunity to earn a bonus to be paid in cash and/or through the grant of restricted stock. With respect to the President and Chief Executive Officer, a portion of the bonus is determined in accordance with the Company's consolidated earnings in relation to its annual budget set by the Board, and the other portion is determined in relation to certain non-quantitative strategic goals for the President and Chief Executive Officer as set forth at the beginning of the year. In 2005, the President and Chief Executive Officer was eligible to receive a bonus of up to $150,000 for attaining the earnings goals and up to $25,000 for attaining the non-quantitative strategic goals and the portion of the bonus awarded for achieving these specified goals was $150,000 for achieving the earnings goals and $10,000 for attaining the non-quantitative strategic goals. In 2006, the President and Chief Executive Officer is eligible to receive a bonus of up to $200,000 for attaining the earnings goals. The Compensation Committee awarded other executives and certain other officers discretionary bonuses in 2005 based upon the individuals' and Company's consolidated performance during 2005.

Omnibus Plan. The Omnibus Plan was designed to reward Board members and the Company's management for the future long term performance of the Company, based on the responsibilities of the Board and of the executive officers and other senior managers to manage the Bank and the Company. Messrs. McNeil, Eberle, Jorgensen and Krehbiel, and Ms. Kolling received restricted stock grants in 2006 for 2,583, 1,083, 882, 1,250 and 919 shares of Common Stock, respectively, under the Omnibus Plan. One-third of the shares vest on each of the first three anniversaries of the date of grant.

Report on Chief Executive Officer Compensation. The President and Chief Executive Officer's compensation was based on the same factors as those applied to all employees and executive officers. Except for the bonus mentioned above, there were no special bonus programs designed especially for the President and Chief Executive Officer or any other executive officer. In 2005, the Company's consolidated earnings were in line with its annual financial goals and, as a result, the executive officers received 100% of the maximum potential bonus amount. As shown in the table set forth under Security Ownership of Management and Certain Beneficial Owners, the President and Chief Executive Officer holds an interest in the Company's Common Stock. It is the philosophy of the Compensation Committee that part of the financial rewards and incentives for the executive officers come from increases in the value of the Company's Common Stock. Other financial rewards for executive officers are based on individual and Company performance and financial results. The Compensation Committee plans to follow the same philosophy in the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer.

Certain Transactions

The Bank follows a policy of granting loans to eligible directors, officers, employees and members of their immediate families for the financing of their personal residences and for consumer purposes. The rate charged on mortgage loans is generally equal to the then current rate offered to the general public, although certain fees are reduced or waived. The employee rate charged on consumer loans is generally 1% below the then current rate offered to the general public. At December 31, 2005, the aggregate amount of the Bank's loans to directors, executive officers, affiliates of directors or executive officers, and employees was approximately $595,250 or .66% of the Company's stockholders equity. All of these loans were current at December 31, 2005. All of the loans to directors and executive officers (a) were made in the ordinary course of business, (b) were made on substantially the same terms, including collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, except for the employee interest rate, fee reduction or fee waiver and (c) did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or other unfavorable features.

PROPOSAL II RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board has appointed KPMG LLP, independent accountants, to be the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006 subject to ratification by the stockholders. KPMG LLP has audited the financial statements of the Company or the Bank since 1966. Representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to attend the Meeting to respond to appropriate questions and to make a statement if they so desire.

In connection with the engagement of KPMG LLP, the Company entered into an engagement agreement with KPMG LLP that sets forth the terms pursuant to which KPMG LLP will perform its audit services for the Company. That agreement is subject to alternative dispute resolution procedures and an exclusion of punitive damages.

While it is not required to do so, the Audit Committee is submitting the appointment of that firm for ratification in order to ascertain the view of stockholders. If the stockholders do not ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will review the appointment.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2006.
