Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 26, 2007, Harman International Industries, Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with KHI Parent Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), and KHI Merger Sub Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub).

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Merger Sub and Parent are affiliates of Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co., L.P. (KKR) and GS Capital Partners (GSCP), and together with KKR, the Sponsors) formed by the Sponsors in order to acquire the Company.

In the Merger, each outstanding share of Company common stock, other than any shares held by the Company or Parent, will be converted into the right to receive $120.00 in cash, without interest (the Cash Election Price). Holders of Company common stock will have the right to elect to receive in lieu of cash, common stock of Parent (which will own the Company after the Merger), at a 1:1 ratio, up to a maximum of 8,333,333 shares in the aggregate. If Company stockholders elect to receive more than 8,333,333 shares, in the aggregate, then the 8,333,333 shares of Parent common stock will be allocated to electing stockholders on a pro-rated basis. If proration is necessary, Company stockholders will receive the Cash Election Price for any of their shares of Company common stock that are not converted in the Merger into Parent common stock. Holders of Company stock options issued under the Company's benefit plans will have the ability to participate in the same election for Parent common stock.

The Parent common stock issued in the Merger to electing stockholders is not required under the Merger Agreement to be listed on any stock exchange. Parent has agreed to file the reports specified in Section 13(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and the rules thereunder for a period of 2 years following the Merger closing. No Company stockholder will be required to elect to receive Parent common stock for their shares in lieu of cash. At the request of the Sponsors, Dr. Sidney Harman, the Company's Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, has agreed to elect to receive Parent shares in exchange for at least 1,700,000 shares of Company Common Stock he beneficially owns, subject to the same proration as is applicable to all other electing Company stockholders and option holders.

The Board of Directors of the Company has unanimously determined that the Merger is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and declared advisable, to enter into the Merger Agreement, approved the Merger Agreement and resolved to recommend adoption of the Merger Agreement by Company stockholders.

The closing of the Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders and antitrust clearance. Closing is not subject to any financing condition but the closing may be delayed in certain circumstances to facilitate financing. The merger is expected to be completed in the third calendar quarter of 2007.

The Merger Agreement contains a go-shop provision pursuant to which the Company has the right to solicit and engage in discussions and negotiations with respect to competing proposals through June 15, 2007. After that date, the Company may continue discussions with any Excluded Party, defined as a party (or group of parties) that submits a written proposal during the go-shop period that the Company's Board of Directors (1) believes in good faith to be bona fide and (2) determines in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisors and outside counsel, is or could reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement). Before the Merger Agreement is approved by stockholders of the Company, the Company may terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a Superior Proposal, provided that the Company complies with the requirements under the Merger Agreement, including, among other things, giving three business days advance notice to Parent and taking into account adjustments, if any, offered by Parent. If the Company so terminates the Merger Agreement in connection with a Superior Proposal submitted by an Excluded Party, the Company must pay a fee of $75 million to Parent.

After June 15, 2007, the Company is subject to further restrictions on its ability to solicit third-party proposals, provide information and engage in discussions with third parties other than continuing Excluded Parties. The Company may, in accordance with the requirements of the Merger Agreement, only provide information and participate in discussions with respect to unsolicited third-party proposals submitted after June 15, 2007 (other than from a continuing Excluded Party) that the Board of Directors of the Company (1) believes in good faith to be bona fide and (2) determines in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisors and outside counsel, is or could reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal and (3) after consultation with outside counsel, determines in good faith that the failure to take such action could violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law. If the Company terminates the Merger Agreement in connection with a Superior Proposal that is not submitted by an Excluded Party, the Company must pay a fee of $225 million to Parent.

The $225 million fee payable by the Company to Parent is also payable in other limited circumstances involving a competing proposal and termination of the Merger Agreement. In certain other circumstances where the Merger Agreement is terminated and no competing offer is involved, the Company must reimburse Parent for its expenses not to exceed $20 million.

The Merger Agreement provides that Parent will pay to the Company a fee of $225 million upon termination of the Merger Agreement under circumstances in which Parent has breached certain of its representations, warranties, obligations or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement or where the Merger is not completed within the specified time period and other conditions to closing have been satisfied. Upon such termination, Parent must pay the Company a $225 million fee, and payment of this fee is liquidated damages and the Company's sole recourse against Parent and its affiliates under the Merger Agreement. Affiliated funds of KKR and GSCP have each delivered to the Company limited guarantees of Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations to pay certain amounts under the Merger Agreement (including the $225 million fee), up to a maximum amount of $225 million in the aggregate, plus interest and other expenses, if applicable.

The Company has made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement and agreed to customary covenants, including covenants regarding operation of the business of the Company and its subsidiaries prior to the closing.

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, the Company's Board of Directors adopted and approved an amendment (the Amendment) to the Rights Agreement, dated as of December 13, 1999, by and between the Company and Mellon Investor Services LLC (formerly known as ChaseMellon Shareholder Services, L.L.C.), as rights agent (the Rights Agreement). The Amendment amends the Rights Agreement so that (a) neither the execution, delivery or performance of the Merger Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby will (i) cause the Rights (as defined in the Rights Agreement) to become exercisable, (ii) cause Parent, Merger Sub or any of their Affiliates or Associates (as such terms are defined in the Rights Agreement) to become an Acquiring Person (as defined in the Rights Agreement), or (iii) give rise to a Share Acquisition Date, a Distribution Date, a Flip-in Event, a Flip-over Event, or a Triggering Event (as such terms are defined in the Rights Agreement) and (b) the Rights will expire in their entirety immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger without any payment being made in respect thereof.

The foregoing summary of the Amendment, the Merger Agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and qualified in their entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement attached as Exhibit 2.1, and the full text of the Amendment, both of which are incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Parent, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by the Company, on the one hand, and by Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, made solely for the benefit of the other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. The disclosure letter delivered to Parent in connection with the Merger Agreement contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to stockholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement should not be relied on by any persons as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Company, Parent or Merger Sub at the time they were made or otherwise.
