Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 6, 2007, Timothy R. Eller, chairman and chief executive officer of Centex Corporation (the Company), advised the Company of his intent to exercise options for 762,808 shares of Centex common stock. Approximately half of these stock options were awarded in April 1998, and the remainder were awarded in April 2001. All of these options will expire in April 2008. The options will be exercised from time to time in cashless exercise, exercise and hold or net exercise transactions, or a combination of those, at market prices until the option expiration dates, except during Company blackout periods.

Robert S. Stewart, senior vice president strategy and corporate development; Brian J. Woram, senior vice president and chief legal officer; and David L. Barclay, president, western region of Centex Homes (a subsidiary of the Company), each executive officers of the Company, also plan to exercise stock options awarded in April 1998 and/or April 2001 that also expire in April 2008. The number of options to be exercised are: Mr. Stewart (44,440 shares); Mr. Woram (59,550 shares); and Mr. Barclay (63,994 shares).

The exercises of the options will be reported through appropriate filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Additional information about the options to be exercised is included in the Company's proxy statement for its July 2007 annual meeting. The Company does not undertake to report any additional information concerning the option exercises, except to the extent required by law.

SIGNATURES
