(c)

On December 18, 2008, the Board of Directors (the Board) of LoopNet, Inc. (the Company) approved the recommendation of the Compensation Committee (the Committee) to maintain the annual base salaries of the Company's named executive officers at their current 2008 levels at this time.

On December 18, 2008, the Board also approved the recommendation of the Committee that the Company enter into change of control severance agreements (collectively, the Agreements), effective as of December 18, 2008, with the following five named executive officers (collectively, the Executives) of the Company: Richard J. Boyle, Jr., Thomas P. Byrne, Brent Stumme, Wayne Warthen and Jason Greenman. The Agreements provide that, subject to certain conditions, in the event that the Executive is terminated without cause or such Executive terminates employment for good reason at any time during the period commencing two months prior to a change of control and ending twelve months following a change of control of the Company, the Executives are entitled to certain severance benefits. Such severance benefits include (1) a lump sum amount payable in cash equal to one times the sum of (a) the Executive's annual base salary in effect at the time of the termination and (b) the average of the annual bonuses paid to such Executive over the last two years; (2) continuation of health benefits for the Executive and the Executive's dependents for twelve months following the date of the Executive's termination; and (3) full acceleration of any unvested equity awards upon termination. If the payments under each Agreement, including but not limited to accelerated vesting of options, would trigger a federal excise tax based on Internal Revenue Code 280G, then the total payments made to the Executive under the Agreement would be cut-back to a lesser amount which does not trigger the tax. Terms such as "good reason" and "change of control" are as defined in the Agreements.

The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form change of control severance agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 which is incorporated herein by reference.
