This filing contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of a merger between SunTrust and Wachovia Corporation, including future financial and operating results, cost savings and accretion to reported and cash earnings that may be realized from such merger; (ii) statements with respect to SunTrust's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "intends", "plans", "targets", "projects" and similar expressions. These statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of SunTrust's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the businesses of SunTrust and Wachovia may not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; (2) expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame; (3) revenues following the merger may be lower than expected; (4) deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers, may be greater than expected following the merger; (5) the regulatory approvals required for the merger may not be obtained on the proposed terms or on the anticipated schedule; (6) the failure of SunTrust's and Wachovia's stockholders to approve the merger; (7) competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly and may have an effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues; (8) the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which the combined company will conduct operations may be different than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on the combined company's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses; (9) changes in the U.S. and foreign legal and regulatory framework; and (10) adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions) and the impact of such conditions on the combined company's capital markets and asset management activities. Additional factors that could cause SunTrust's results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in SunTrust's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to SunTrust or any person acting on its behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. SunTrust does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

Dear Wachovia Shareholder:

On May 14, SunTrust proposed a merger with Wachovia at a premium price well in excess of the value of the proposed First Union merger. We were convinced then, and we are convinced today, that a SunTrust/ Wachovia combination would create the premier Southeastern financial services franchise by uniting two complementary banking institutions and cultures. Like SunTrust, Wachovia has been committed to local markets, quality service and relationship-based banking.

We believe our proposal is superior in every way to the proposed First Union merger, offering a higher current value - $915 million more - a simpler and better dividend, and SunTrust's stronger currency and track record. A SunTrust/Wachovia combination would also result in far fewer job losses and branch closings than under the First Union plan - clearly better for Wachovia's customers and employees.

You have an important decision to make on August 3. If you reject the First Union merger, Wachovia could immediately begin merger negotiations with SunTrust or a third party. We urge you to vote AGAINST the First Union merger on your BLUE proxy card. This will send your Board a clear and unequivocal message that you want a better deal.

We've built our success for many years by working for our shareholders and partnering with our employees, customers and the Southeastern communities we serve. We're proud of our track record and we'd like to share our future success with you.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Phil Humann
