Item 1.01 Entry Into Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 22, 2006, Spectrum Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Development and Marketing Agreement (the Agreement) with PAR Pharmaceutical Companies, Inc. (PAR) whereby PAR agreed, and obtained an exclusive license, to market, sell and distribute all of the Company s current as well as certain future generic drugs in the United States. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Company is responsible for the development of and regulatory filings for the generic drugs and the Company will receive payments upon regulatory approval of each abbreviated new drug application. The Agreement also provides for a share of the profits from the sale by PAR of the Company s generic products. The term of the Agreement is determined on a product by product basis from the effective date of the Agreement until the date that is ten years following the commercial launch of the relevant product. In addition, PAR shall provide financial and legal support, including the payment of all legal expenses going forward, for the ongoing patent challenge for sumatriptan injection. Within twenty-four months of the effective date of the Agreement, the Company has the right to request PAR to make an equity investment in the Company which is subject to due diligence and the negotiation of definitive documents at that time. The Company could receive an aggregate of over $10 million under the Agreement if the equity investment is made and all the regulatory approvals are obtained.

On February 28, 2006, the Company and Cura Pharmaceutical Co., Inc. (Cura) entered into a First Amendment to the Distribution and Supply Agreement dated April 12, 2005 (the Supply Agreement). The Supply Agreement was amended to modify Cura s right to distribute, promote and sell the Company s generic carboplatin injection in the United States from an exclusive right to a semi-exclusive right, which gives the Company the ability to grant a similar semi-exclusive right to another third party. No other terms were modified.
