indemnification agreement with Mr. Heller. The agreement requires the Company to indemnify Mr. Heller to the maximum extent permitted by law and to advance all expenses he may reasonably incur in connection with the defense of any claim or proceeding in which he may be involved as a party or witness. The agreement specifies certain procedures and assumptions applicable in connection with requests for indemnification and advancement of expenses and also requires the Company to continue to maintain directors and officers and fiduciary liability insurance for a six-year period following any change in control transaction. The rights provided to Mr. Heller under the indemnification agreement are in addition to any other rights he may have under the Company's restated certificate of incorporation or bylaws, applicable law or otherwise.

ITEM 5.02. DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR PRINCIPAL OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF PRINCIPAL OFFICERS.

On February 27, 2006, Northfield Laboratories Inc. issued a press release announcing the appointment of Alan L. Heller to its Board of Directors effective February 24, 2006.

Mr. Heller, age 53, served from 2004 to 2005 as the President and Chief Executive Officer of American Pharmaceutical Partners, a company that develops, manufactures and markets branded and generic injectable pharmaceutical products, which recently merged with American Bioscience Inc. During 2004, Mr. Heller was an investment advisor on life science transactions to One Equity Partners, a private equity arm of JP Morgan Chase/Bank One. Previously, Mr. Heller served as Senior Vice President and President Global Renal operations at Baxter Healthcare Corporation, where he had responsibility for global operations of the Renal and Transfusion Therapies divisions as well as global manufacturing and the office of the Chief Scientific Officer. Prior to joining Baxter, Mr. Heller spent 23 years at G.D. Searle. He served in a number of positions in general management, sales, marketing, business development and finance before being named Co-President and Chief Operating Officer, with responsibility for all commercial operations worldwide. Subsequent to Searle's acquisition by Pharmacia, Mr. Heller was Executive Vice President and President, Searle Operations, overseeing the Searle integration into Pharmacia, and also serving as a member of the Pharmacia Management Committee. Mr. Heller received a B.S. degree in accounting from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 1975 and an MBA degree from DePaul University in 1982.
