Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Compensation of Chairman of the Board

On November 22, 2005, the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors approved the payment of an annual retainer of $45,000 to James T. Treace, our interim Chairman of the Board, as compensation for his services in this capacity. This retainer is in addition to the $15,000 annual retainer that we pay to all non-employee directors. As a result, Mr. Treace will be paid a total of $60,000 per year as compensation for his services as a director and the interim Chairman of the Board.

Employment Agreements

On November 22, 2005, we entered into new employment agreements with the following executive officers:

F. Barry Bays, President and Chief Executive Officer

Jeffrey G. Roberts, Senior Vice President and Chief Technical Officer

John K. Bakewell, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

John R. Treace, Executive Vice President of U.S. Sales

Mr. Bays' agreement covers his current service as the interim President and Chief Executive Officer as well as his contemplated future service as the Executive Chairman of the Board once a replacement for his current position is elected.

The new employment agreements with Messrs. Bays, Roberts and Bakewell supersede the previous employment agreements that we entered into with them as of July 1, 2004, April 1, 2005, and April 1, 2005, respectively.

Term. Each agreement provides for a term of employment that ends on March 31, 2007, subject to earlier termination under certain circumstances.

Compensation. Each agreement establishes the initial annual base salary of the executive officer and provides that the Compensation Committee will review his compensation at least once per year and will make such increases in his base salary as are merited based on the executive officer's performance and are consistent with our compensation policies. The initial annual base salaries of the executive officers are set forth below.

Name	Initial Base Salary
F. Barry Bays	$ 270,000
Jeffrey G. Roberts	239,600
John K. Bakewell	235,000
John R. Treace	230,000

Mr. Bays' annual base salary will be reduced to $100,000 when he becomes the Executive Chairman of the Board.

Table of Contents

Each agreement provides that the executive officer is eligible to receive an annual performance incentive bonus pursuant to the Executive Performance Incentive Plan depending on whether, and to what extent, certain performance goals established by the Compensation Committee for such year have been achieved. The incentive bonus, if any, payable to an executive officer for any calendar year may not exceed two (2) times his base salary for such year.

Each agreement provides that the executive officer is eligible to receive stock options and other long-term, equity-based incentive awards granted under the 1999 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended, and any other plan administered by the Compensation Committee.

Restrictive Covenants. Each agreement imposes on the executive officer customary restrictive covenants prohibiting his disclosure of our confidential information, requiring him to assign to us any intellectual property developed in connection with his employment, and prohibiting him from competing and interfering with our business. The non-competition and non-interference covenants extend for a period following the executive officer's cessation of employment that is coterminous with the period with respect to which he receives post-employment pay and benefits from us.

Termination. Each agreement allows us to terminate the employment of the executive officer either upon his becoming disabled, for cause (as defined), or without cause. The agreement provides that the executive officer will receive (a) 12 months of post-employment pay and benefits if we terminate his employment due to disability, (b) up to 24 months of post-employment pay, as determined by us in our sole discretion, if we terminate his employment for cause or if he resigns, or (c) 12-24 months of post-employment pay and benefits, as determined by us in our sole discretion, if we terminate his employment without cause or if his employment is terminated without cause within 12 months after the term of his employment agreement expires following a change in control (as defined) affecting us. In each case, the executive officer's right to receive post-employment pay and benefits is subject to his compliance with the non-competition and non-interference covenants contained in the agreement.

Gross-Up Payment. Each agreement provides that we will make a gross-up payment (as defined) to the executive officer in the event that he becomes subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code. The gross-up payment will be equal to an amount such that after the executive officer timely pays the gross-up payment to the appropriate taxing authority(ies), his liability for all taxes would be the same as if no excise tax applied.

Copies of the employment agreements of Messrs. Bays, Roberts, Bakewell and Treace are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
