Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On December 17, 2002, immediately following stockholder approval of stockholders of Conductus, Inc (Conductus) and the Company, the merger of Conductus into a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company was consummated. The merger was accomplished by an exchange of Conductus securities for securities of the Company pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated October 10, 2002 by and among the Company, Conductus and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Each share of Conductus stock outstanding was converted into 0.6 of a share of Superconductor on a fixed-exchange ratio basis, and all outstanding options and warrants to purchase shares of Conductus were automatically converted into options to purchase shares of Superconductor common stock. Conductus is now a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. A copy of the press release announcing the merger is attached.

Item 5. Other Events.

The Company concurrently closed a $20 million private placement which is intended to finance the combined company. The financing consisted of the purchase of a total of 21,096,954 shares of the Company's common stock and 5,274,240 warrants to purchase common stock at $1.19 per share. A copy of the press release announcing closing of the transactions is attached.

In connection with the merger transaction and the placement, four new directors were appointed to the board of directors of the Company; three former Conductus directors and one director selected by the Special Situations family of funds, an investor in the placement.
