E-VIDEOTV, INC.
 (A Development Stage Company)
 NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 (Expressed in U.S. Dollars)
 June 30, 2001
 (Unaudited)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The company has not yet commenced its planned principal operations and it has not yet earned any revenue. The company's current operational focus is to acquire technologies and patent rights related to the electronic delivery of movies and videos and to sub-license those technologies and rights. The company has acquired the exclusive rights in the U.S.A. to license the use of Macrovision Corporation's analog copy protection for digital video transmissions received in Faster-Than-Real-Time (FTRT). The company also has an agreement with U.S.A. Video Interactive Corp. to exclusively sub-license their "Store and Forward Video System" patent in areas related to digital set-top boxes with hard-drives in the U.S.A.

The company expects the delivery of digital set-top boxes with caching hard-drives suitable for FTRT operations to grow substantially over the next several years. The company also intends to activate and acquire licenses in other territories and will require cash significantly in excess of its current resources to complete its plan. The ability of the company to execute its business plan is dependent on the company's ability to obtain additional financing.

The company is devoting significant efforts to obtaining private financing to fund the continued development and acquisition of related technologies. Significant cash will be required.

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis that the company is a going concern. These financial statements do not include adjustments that would be necessary should the company be unable to continue as a going concern.

2. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

On July 20, 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) 141, Business Combinations, and SFAS 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets. SFAS 141 is effective for all business combinations completed after June 30, 2001. SFAS 142 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001; however, certain provisions of this Statement apply to goodwill and other intangible assets acquired between July 1, 2001 and the effective date of SFAS 142. Major provisions of these Statements and their effective dates for the company are as follows:

-7-

- all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001 must use the purchase method of accounting. The pooling of interest method of accounting is prohibited except for transactions initiated before July 1, 2001.
- intangible assets acquired in a business combination must be recorded separately from goodwill if they arise from contractual or other legal rights or are separable from the acquired entity and can be sold, transferred, licensed, rented or exchanged, either individually or as part of a related contract, asset or liability.
- goodwill, as well as intangible assets with indefinite lives, acquired after June 30, 2001, will not be amortized. Effective January 1, 2002, all previously recognized goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives will no longer be subject to amortization.
- effective January 1, 2002, goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives will be tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an impairment indicator.
- all acquired goodwill must be assigned to reporting units for purposes of impairment testing and segment reporting.

Although it is still reviewing the provisions of these Statements, management's preliminary assessment is that these Statements will not have a material impact on the company's financial position or results of operations.

3. DISTRIBUTION RIGHTS AND SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT

Includes the net cost to date of an exclusive license to use certain technology for the analog copy protection of digital video transmissions received in Faster-Than-Real-Time (FTRT) and stored in home devices on set-top boxes for later viewing. This five-year license ends January 31, 2005. There is an extension provision to January 31, 2010. Usage royalties of 1% of gross transaction fees are payable to the licensor. Minimum annual royalties of $250,000 are payable in advance each January 31 from 2000 until 2004. Should the license be extended, royalties of $350,000 are payable each January 31.

The company paid the January 31, 2002 annual royalty prepayment during the quarter ended June 30, 2001. This prepaid royalty will be expensed over the period February 1, 2001 to January 31, 2002.

The company wrote off software costs of approximately $424,000 in 2000 as these software development costs were no longer applicable in the company's current business model of licensing.

STOCK OPTIONS

Subject to shareholder approval, the company's directors resolved to create an employee and director stock option plan that sets aside 5,000,000 shares of the company's common stock for issuance upon the exercise of stock options.

The company accounts for its stock option plan in accordance with the provisions of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. Had compensation cost for the stock option plan been determined based on the fair value at the grant date consistent with the method of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, the company's net loss and net loss per share would have been the pro forma amounts indicated below:

	Period from Inception to June 30 2001	Six Months Ended June 30 2001	Six Months Ended June 30 2000
	-----	-----	-----
Actual net loss	$ (3,471,601)	$ (763,132)	$ (528,719)
Actual net loss per share		$ (0.05)	$ (0.03)
Pro forma net loss	$ (4,355,041)	$ (1,646,572)	$ (528,719)
Pro forma net loss per share		$ (0.10)	$ (0.03)

The fair value of each option grant was estimated at the grant date using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model for the period from inception to December 31, 2000, assuming a risk-free interest rate of 4.88%, a volatility factor of 2.06%, zero dividend yield, and an expected life of five years.

The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options and warrants which have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected stock price volatility. Because the company's employee stock options and warrants have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, in management's opinion, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of its employee stock options.

During 1999, a former director of the company placed 345,000 shares of common stock into escrow. These shares were released to the former director on February 9, 2001.

In addition, all of the 6,623,016 common shares issued for the acquisition of e-VideoTV, Inc. were held in escrow at December 31, 2000. These shares were released from escrow on February 9, 2001.

7. INCOME TAXES

Edgar Filing: E VIDEOTV INC/DE - Form 10QSB/A

At June 30, 2001, the company had net operating losses carried forward of approximately $2,900,000 (December 31, 2000: $2,100,000) that may offset against future taxable income until 2020. The potential tax benefits of the losses carried forward are offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount as there is substantial uncertainty that the losses carried forward will not expire unused.

8. COMMITMENTS

ADVISORY SERVICES AGREEMENT

On January 30, 2001, the company entered into a 12 month exclusive agreement with a financial advisory company, which will provide advisory services to the company in the areas of corporate finance and capital placement transactions. Compensation varies depending on the type of service rendered and will be paid out of the proceeds of any financing obtained by this financial advisory company. The agreement specifies a minimum fee of $250,000 to be paid only if financing is secured.

PATENT LICENSING AGREEMENT

On June 27, 2001, the company entered into a short form sub-licensing agreement for certain digital video delivery technology with an international designer and supplier of high-tech internet streaming video and video-on-demand systems, services and innovative end-to-end solutions.

In consideration of this sub-license, the company has agreed to issue $300,000 of its common shares on the date a long form agreement is signed. The parties have yet to finalize this long form agreement.

Under the short form agreement, the company has committed to certain performance milestones in regard to royalties to be generated from the exploitation of this sub-license. Specifically, the company has agreed to generate a minimum of $250,000 of gross royalty fees in year 1, $500,000 in year 2, $1,000,000 in year 3 and in years 4 and thereafter the company agrees to grow these royalties at a rate of 15% per annum. The company will be entitled to retain 50% of all royalties generated in the event these minimum royalty targets are met.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On July 13, 2001, the company received $1,000,000 from the sale of 8% convertible debentures, due June 6, 2003, to a New York based financial institution. Interest only payments on the debentures are due quarterly commencing September 30, 2001, and the principal amount of the debenture is due in one lump sum on June 6, 2003. The number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the convertible debentures is based on the current calculation of a floating conversion price and could amount to as much as 4,761,905. In addition, 666,666 warrants to purchase shares of our common stock were issued to the firm in connection with this financing. These warrants have an exercise price of approximately $0.40 per share.

-15-

The floating conversion price for the convertible debentures is the lesser of (i) 80% of the average of the three lowest closing bid prices of the common stock for the twenty (20) trading days prior to the closing date, or (ii) 80% of the average of the three lowest closing bid prices of the common stock for the sixty (60) trading days prior to the conversion date, as defined in the convertible debenture. The maximum number of shares of common stock that the subscriber or group of affiliated subscribers may own after conversion at any given time is 4.99%.

In connection with the financing, the company entered into certain covenants including, but not limited to, the following: (i) the company may not redeem the convertible debentures without the consent of the holder; (ii) the company will pay to certain finders a cash fee of ten percent (10%) of the principal amount of the convertible debentures for location of the financings; (iii) the company has agreed to incur certain penalties for untimely delivery of the shares.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company continues to formulate its plan of operation to market technologies related to the video-on-demand industry. This includes exclusive rights in the USA to license the use of Macrovision Corporation's analog copy protection on digital video transmissions received in Faster Than Real Time (FTRT) and stored in home devices such as set-top boxes for later viewing. The Company has also recently signed an agreement (June 27, 2001) with USA Video Interactive Corp to license exclusively, the rights to sublicense their "Store and Forward Video System" patent for broadband applications in the USA. The Company intends to use this patent to increase its position in the satellite, cable and broadband industries.

The Company further intends to pursue several US operators licensed to use these devices by the end of 2002.

The Company is continuing to contact set top box manufacturers world-wide to advise them of our exclusive licensing rights and related technologies and determine their roll-out plans for set top boxes with hard disk drives in the US. The Company has signed NDAs with several manufacturers and continues to contact key cable, satellite, and broadband operators throughout the US to discuss its exclusive Macrovision license, the "Store and Forward Video System" license, and the technical and economic benefits of FTRT caching versus streaming for Video-On-Demand systems. The agreement with USA Video Interactive Corp was executed June 27, 2001 and the Company also intends to license this technology to set-top-box manufacturers and cable, satellite, and broadband operators.

For the six months ended June 30, 2001, the Company incurred a loss of $763,132. During this period, loans and private placements amounted to $496,677. Subsequent to the quarter ending June 30, 2001, the company completed the placement of an 8% convertible debenture of $1,000,000. This financing has provided the Company with necessary liquidity but the Company will continue to seek additional financing in order to fulfill its business model.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

During the quarter ending June 30, 2001, the Company received loans of $71,677, which combined with subscription agreements for $425,000 received in the quarter ending March 31, 2001, brought combined funds received for the first six months to $496,677. On July 6, 2001, the Company also completed the placement of an 8% convertible debenture for $1,000,000 with the Laurus Funds Group.

In February 2001, the Company prepaid its royalties to Macrovision for the year 2001 in accordance with the terms of its agreement. While the Company currently does have sufficient funds to continue operations, it does not have sufficient funds to carry it through the next 12 months without additional funding. It will therefore continue to pursue private placements, loans, and any other appropriate terms of financing.

The Company is continuing with the following program regarding VOD:

1. Licensing operators such as cable, satellite, wireless, DSL and other broadband distributors for FTRT VOD service.
2. Licensing set-top box manufacturers and strategic partners.
3. Developing technologies and acquiring patents and technologies to expand its licensing model with VOD operators and STB manufacturers.

According to Wall Street's Schroeder & Com., the home movie market in the USA had approximately $14 billion in sales and rental revenues last year. Of this, it is estimated that 85% is represented by new release movies. VOD content can be started at anytime thus there is no discernable need for recording of the program. It is expected that the movie industry will require new VOD new-release-content be copy protected similar to video store rentals. Macrovision is the accepted copy-protection standard.

The license rights from Macrovision Corp are for a five year period with an option to renew for an additional five years. The Company has complied with all requirements of its agreement with Macrovision Corp to date, and is cognizant of its obligations both now and in the future regarding its commitment to Macrovision.

In the next 12 months, the Company estimates it will require funding for: international licenses, operating licenses in various countries, patent purchases, and general working capital. Depending on the rollout of these items, and development in other countries, funding requirements could range from $5 - $10 million. The Company has financed its development stage to date by private placements of common stock. It also recognizes that it currently does not have sufficient funds to finance its operation over the next 12 months. The Company plans to complete additional financings to provide the necessary funds. The inability of the Company to arrange necessary financing will have a material adverse effect on proposed operations.

In the year 2001, the company intends to undertake additional R&D related to the head-end software, head-end servers, and set top box software to further support the download model for VOD content. The company intends to work closely with equipment manufacturers and vendors as appropriate in each of these areas. In addition, the company intends to explore the acquisition of patents and technologies related to its VOD licensing activities. Currently the company does have the resources to complete these initial R&D efforts but will continue to seek additional financing to achieve its long-term goals.

The Company further recognizes that its development schedule will be delayed unless additional capital required is available when needed.

Inflation has not been a factor during the quarter ending June 30, 2001.
