1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. stock is traded on the NASDAQ market under ticker symbol FLWS.

References in this Annual Report on Form 10-K to "1-800-FLOWERS.COM" and the "Company" refer to 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and its subsidiaries. The Company's principal offices are located at One Old Country Road, Suite 500, Carle Place, NY 11514 and its telephone number at that location is (516) 237-6000.

The Origins of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM

The Company's operations began in 1976 when James F. McCann, its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, acquired a single retail florist in New York City, which he subsequently expanded to a 14-store chain. Thereafter, the Company modified its business strategy to take advantage of the rapid emergence of toll-free calling. The Company acquired the right to use the toll-free telephone number 1-800-FLOWERS, adopted it as its corporate identity and began to aggressively build a national brand around it. The Company believes it was one of the first companies to embrace this new way of conducting business.

To support the growth of its toll-free business and to provide superior customer service, the Company developed an operating infrastructure that incorporated the best available technologies. Over time, the Company implemented a sophisticated transaction processing system that facilitated rapid order entry and fulfillment, an advanced telecommunications system and multiple customer service centers to handle increasing call volume.

To enable the Company to deliver products reliably nationwide on a same-day or next-day basis and to market pre-selected, high-quality floral products, the Company created BloomNet(R), a nationwide network including independent local florists selected for their high-quality products, superior customer service and order fulfillment and delivery capabilities.

The Company's online presence has enabled it to expand the number and types of products it can effectively offer to its customers. As a result, the Company has developed relationships with customers who purchase products for both a broad range of celebratory gifting occasions as well as for everyday personal use. Since 1995, the Company has broadened its product offering to include products that a customer could expect to find in a high-end flower shop, including a wide assortment of cut flowers and plants, candy, balloons, plush toys, giftware and gourmet gift baskets. In addition, the Company has further expanded its product offering to include home and garden merchandise through its April 1998 acquisition of The Plow & Hearth, Inc.; unique and educational children's gifts through its acquisition of the HearthSong and Magic Cabin product lines in June 2001 and, more recently, weather-themed gifts and instruments through the acquisition of Wind & Weather in October 2005. The Company has also significantly expanded its presence in the food, wine and gift baskets category through a combination of organic initiatives and strategic acquisitions beginning with the purchase of GreatFood.com, Inc. in November 1999, followed by the purchase of certain assets of The Popcorn Factory in May 2002, the addition of wine gifts through the acquisition of The WineTasting Network in November 2004, the addition of cookies and other bakery gift items through the purchase of Cheryl & Co. in March 2005 and, most recently adding premium chocolates and confections with the acquisition of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. in May 2006.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

The Company's Strategy

1-800-FLOWERS.COM's objective is to become the leading authority on thoughtful gifting, to serve an expanding range of our customers celebratory needs, thereby helping our customers connect with the important people in their lives. The Company will continue to build on the trusted relationships with our customers by providing them with ease of access, tasteful and appropriate gifts, and superior service.

The Company believes that 1-800-FLOWERS.COM is one of the most recognized brands in the floral and gift industry. The strength of its brand has enabled the Company to extend its product offerings beyond the floral category into complementary products, which include home and garden merchandise, children's toys and games, gourmet popcorn, cookies and related baked and snack food products, premium chocolate and confections, as well as wine gifts. This extension of product offerings through its brands has enabled the Company to increase the number of purchases and the average order value by existing customers who have come to trust the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brand, as well as continue to attract new customers.

The Company believes its brands are characterized by:

- o Convenience. All of the Company's product offerings can be purchased either via the web, or via the Company's toll-free telephone numbers, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for those customers who prefer a personal gift advisor to assist them. The Company offers a variety of delivery options, including same-day or next-day service throughout the world.
- o Quality. High-quality products are critical to the Company's continued brand strength and are integral to the brand loyalty that it has built over the years. The Company offers its customers a 100% satisfaction guarantee on all of its products.
- o Delivery. The Company has developed a market-proven fulfillment infrastructure that allows delivery on a same-day, next-day and any-day basis. Key to the Company's fulfillment capability is an innovative "hybrid" model which combines BloomNet (comprised of independent florists operating retail flower shops and Local Fulfillment or Design Centers ("LFC's"), Company-owned stores, LFC's, and franchise stores), with its eight distribution centers located in California, Illinois, New York, Nevada, Ohio, and Virginia, and third-party vendors who ship directly to the Company's customers. These fulfillment points are connected by the Company's proprietary "BloomLink" communication system, a secure internet-based system through which orders and related information are transmitted.
- o Selection. Over the course of a year, the Company offers more than 2,000 varieties of fresh-cut flowers, floral arrangements and plants, more than 5,600 SKUs of gifts, gourmet foods, cookies, chocolates and wines, approximately 14,700 different SKUs for the home, including garden accessories, casual lifestyle furnishings, weather themed instruments and gift items, and unique and educational toys and games.
- o Customer Service. The Company strives to ensure that customer service, whether online, via the telephone, or in one of its retail stores is of the highest caliber. The Company operates five customer service facilities to provide helpful assistance on everything from advice on product selection to the monitoring of the fulfillment and delivery process.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

As part of the Company's continuing effort to serve the thoughtful gifting needs of its customers, and leverage its business platform, where appropriate, the Company intends to market other high-quality brands in addition to the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brand. The Company intends to accomplish this through organic growth, and where appropriate, through acquisition of complementary businesses. In keeping with this strategy, in May 2006, the Company acquired Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. a manufacturer and direct retailer of premium chocolates and confections, through its Fannie May(R), Harry London(R) and Fanny Farmer(R) brands, while in March 2005, the Company acquired Cheryl&Co., a manufacturer and direct marketer of premium cookies and related baked gift items, and in November 2004, The Winetasting Network, a distributor and direct-to-consumer marketer of wine. These acquisitions have enabled the Company to more fully develop its food, wine and gift baskets product line, which the Company has identified as having significant revenue and earnings growth potential. In November 2005, the Company acquired Wind & Weather, a direct-marketer of weather-themed instruments and gift items. In June 2001 the Company acquired The Children's Group, Inc. including its two brands of unique and educational children's toys and games, HearthSong and Magic Cabin, deepening its product assortment in the home and children's gift category which the Company first entered in 1998, through its acquisition of The Plow & Hearth, Inc., a direct marketer of home decor and garden merchandise. As a complement to the Company's own brands and product lines, the Company has formed relationships with Lenox(R), Waterford(R), Swarovski(R), Godiva(R), Hershey's(R), Gund(R), Crabtree and Evelyn(R), and Yankee Candle(R), as well as developing signature products with renowned celebrity floral artisans in order to provide its customers with differentiated signature products and further its position as a destination for all of their gifting needs.

Having now achieved a solid base of business, through organic efforts and strategic acquisitions, management's current focus is on improving the Company's earnings performance through a combination of gross margin improvement from expanded overseas product sourcing and expected manufacturing efficiencies, leveraging the Company's operating platform to reduce operating expenses, and changes in advertising and marketing strategies designed to increase effectiveness.

The Company's Products

The Company offers a wide range of products, including fresh-cut flowers, floral arrangements and plants, gifts, popcorn, gourmet foods, cookies, candy and wine, home and garden merchandise and unique toys and games for children. In addition to selecting its core products, the Company's merchandising team works closely with manufacturers and suppliers to select and design products that meet the seasonal, holiday and other special needs of its customers. For the years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005, and June 27, 2004, the sale of floral products represented 50.6%, 52.7%, and 52.2% of total combined telephonic and online net revenues, respectively.

The Company's differentiated and value-added product offerings creates the opportunity to have a relationship with customers who purchase items not only for gift-giving occasions but also for everyday consumption. The Company's merchandising team works closely with manufacturers and suppliers to select and design its floral, gourmet foods and wine, home and garden and children's toys, as well as other gift-related products that accommodate our customers' needs to celebrate a special occasion, convey a sentiment or cater to a casual lifestyle. As part of this continuing effort, the Company intends to continue to develop differentiated products and signature collections that our customers have embraced and come to expect from us while we eliminate marginal performers our product offerings.

Over the course of a year, the Company's product selection consists of:

Flowers & Plants. The Company offers more than 1,600 varieties of fresh-cut flowers and floral arrangements for all occasions and holidays, available for same-day delivery. The Company provides its customers with a choice of florist designed products, flowers delivered through its "Fresh From Our Growers (SM)" program, and most recently, the Company expanded its successful "celebrity" gift collections, including the unique floral creations of Jane Carroll, Julie McCann Mulligan, Jane Packer, Preston Bailey and Nico De Swert. The Company also offers approximately 400 varieties of popular plants to brighten the home and/or office, and accent gardens and landscapes.

Gourmet Foods, Wine and Gifts. The Company offers more than 800 premium popcorn and specialty snack products from The Popcorn Factory brand, as well as approximately 400 carefully selected gourmet food and sweet products from the GreatFood.com brand. Additionally, the Company has more than 900 premium cookies and baked gift items from Cheryl & Co., which are delivered in beautiful and innovative gift baskets and containers, providing customers with a variety of assortments to choose from. Through the Winetasting Network, the Company now offers its customer more than 500 different wines, primarily from the prestigious wine regions in California. Currently, restrictions exist in many states regarding interstate shipment of wine. As such, these items are only available in selected states. Most recently, in May 2006, through the acquisition of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. the Company offers more than 1,000 different selections of premium chocolate and candy. Many of the Company's gourmet products can be packaged in seasonal, occasion specific or decorative tins, fitting the "giftable" requirement of our individual customers, while also adding the capability to customize the tins with corporate logos and other personalized features for the Company's corporate customer's gifting needs. The Company offers more than 500 specially selected gift items, including plush toys from Gund(R), balloons, bath and spa items and gift baskets, candles from Yankee Candle(R), wreaths, ornaments, collectibles, home accessories and giftware.

Home and Children's Gifts. Through the Company's Plow & Hearth brands, including most recently added Wind & Weather in November 2005, the Company offers more than 7,800 SKUs for the home, hearth and outdoor living, including casual lifestyle furniture and home accessories, clothing, footwear, candles and lighting, vases, kitchen items and accents and approximately 2,500 gardening items, including tools and accessories, pottery, nature and weather-related products, books and related products. Through the HearthSong and Magic Cabin brands, the Company offers over 4,200 products, including environmentally friendly toys, plush stuffed animals, crafts and books with educational, nature and art themes, as well as, natural-fiber soft dolls, kits and accessories for children ages 3 through 12.

Marketing and Promotion

The Company's marketing and promotion strategy is designed to strengthen the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brands, increase customer acquisition, build customer loyalty, and encourage repeat purchases. The Company's goal is to make its brands synonymous with thoughtful gifting. To do this, the Company intends to continue to invest in its brands and acquisition of new customers through the use of selective on and off-line media, direct marketing, public relations and strategic internet relationships, while cost-effectively capitalizing on the

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Company's large and loyal customer base.

Enhance its Customer Relationships. The Company intends to deepen its relationship with its customers and be their trusted resource to fulfill their need for quality, tasteful gifts. We plan to encourage more frequent and extensive use of our branded Web sites, by continuing to provide product-related content and interactive features which will enable the Company to reach its customers during non-holiday periods, thereby increasing everyday purchases for birthday's, anniversaries, weddings, and sympathy. Through customer panel research, the 1-800-Flowers.com brand introduced a number of new signature products during fiscal 2006 designed to increase everyday purchases. From its celebrity floral artisan collection to the successful launch of its "Happy Hour" collection of margarita, martini and daiquiri inspired floral arrangements, which were advertised using innovative outdoor bus and billboard campaigns, the Company's marketing and product offerings continue to evolve to meet consumer needs. The Company will also continue to improve its customers' shopping experience by personalizing the features of its Web site and, in compliance with the Company's privacy policy, utilizing customer information to target product promotions, identify individual and mass market consumption trends, remind customers of upcoming occasions and convey other marketing messages. In addition, the Company plans to drive purchase frequency improvements through the use of loyalty, thank-you and reminder programs, as well as targeting catalog content and mailings based on consumers changing purchasing habits. For example, during fiscal 2006, the 1-800-Flowers.com brand introduced its Fresh Rewards Program(R) whereby customers earn credit towards future purchases upon achieving targeted spending levels. As of July 2, 2006, the Company's total database of unique customers numbered approximately 28.0 million (13.6 million of which have transacted business with the Company within the past 36 months).

Through its Business Gift Services division, the Company believes it has significant opportunity to expand its corporate customer base and leverage existing and/or develop successful gifting programs with corporate customers, many of which are included in the Fortune 1000, such as AT&T, Bank of America, General Electric, IBM, Verizon, Honeywell, Microsoft, Hewlett Packard, Ford, and UPS, to name a few. These programs focus on developing and/or strengthening strategic partnerships through the coordinated development of customized and personalized gifts for their clients and employees, and are tailored to meet the needs of small, mid-sized and large businesses. The Company helps its partners manage the Life Celebrations at Work(SM) programs, which include occasions such as Sympathy, Get Well, Anniversary, Birthday, Thank You and other daily floral needs. Additionally, through the many brands supported by the Company, the Business Gift Services division supports partners' holiday gifting, rewards and recognition programs, conferences and events, as well as client acquisition and customer retention programs to support their growth strategies.

Increase the Number of Online Customers. Online transactions are more cost efficient to process. Although the Company expects its customers to choose the most convenient channel available to them at the time of their purchase, the Company expects its trend of online growth to continue. In order to maximize the value of this trend, the Company intends to continue to:

- o further build brand awareness to drive customers directly to the Company's URLs, further reducing reliance on internet portals and search engines; currently, greater than 70% of online revenues comes directly to the Company's websites;
- o cost effectively promote its Web site through internet portals, online networks and search engines and affiliates;

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

- o aggressively market the Company's Web site in its marketing campaigns;
- o facilitate access to the Company's Web site for its corporate customers by implementing direct links from their internal corporate networks, and develop customized co-branded micro-sites for larger corporate partners; and
- o actively promote the Company's Fresh Rewards loyalty program to increase customer frequency and average order value.

In order to attract new customers and to increase purchase frequency and average order value of existing customers, the Company markets and promotes its brands and products as follows:

Direct Mail and Catalogs. The Company uses its direct mail promotions and catalogs to increase the number of new customers and to increase purchase frequency of its existing customers. Through the use of the Plow & Hearth, Wind & Weather, HearthSong, Magic Cabin, Popcorn Factory and Cheryl & Co. catalogs, the Company can utilize its extensive customer database to effectively cross-promote its products. In addition to providing a direct sale mechanism, these catalogs drive on-line sales and will attract additional customers to the Company's Web sites. For the year ended July 2, 2006, the Company mailed in excess of 130 million branded catalogs.

Off-line Media. The Company utilizes off-line media, including television, radio and print to market its 1-800-Flowers.com brand and products. Off-line media allows the Company to reach a large number of customers and to target particular market segments.

The Company's Strategic Online Relationships. The Company promotes its products through strategic relationships with leading internet portals, search engines and online networks. The Company's online relationships include, among others, AOL, Yahoo!, Microsoft, Google and Overture.

Affiliate and Co-Marketing Promotions. In addition to securing alliances with frequently visited Web sites, the Company developed an affiliate network that includes thousands of Web sites operated by third parties. Affiliate participation may be terminated by them or by the Company at any time. These Web sites earn commissions on purchases made by customers referred from their sites to the Company's Web site. In order to expand the reach of its marketing programs and stretch its marketing dollars, the Company has established a number of co-marketing relationships and promotions to advertise its products. For example, the Company has established co-marketing arrangements with American, United and Delta Airlines, as well as Upromise, Capital One, American Express, VISA and MasterCard, among others.

E-mails. The Company is able to capitalize on its customer database of approximately 28.0 million unique customers (13.6 million of which have transacted business with the Company within the past 36 months), 11.8 million of which have transacted business with the Company on-line (7.6 million of which have transacted business with the Company online within the past 36 months), by utilizing cost-effective, targeted e-mails to notify customers of product promotions, remind them of upcoming gifting occasions and convey other marketing messages.

The Company's Web Sites

The Company offers floral, plant, gift baskets, gourmet foods, chocolate and candies, plush and specialty gift products through its 1-800-FLOWERS.COM Web site (www.1800flowers.com). Customers can come to the web site directly or be linked by one of the Company's portal providers, search engine, or affiliate relationships. These include AOL (keyword:flowers), Yahoo!, Microsoft, Google and Overture, as well as thousands of its online affiliate program members.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

The Company also offers home and garden products through Plow & Hearth

(www.plowandhearth.com), weather-themed gifts through Wind & Weather (www.windandweather.com) premium chocolates and confections from Fannie May Confections Brands (www.fanniemay.com and www.harrylondon.com), gourmet food products through GreatFood.com (www.greatfood.com), premium popcorn and specialty food products through The Popcorn Factory (www.thepopcornfactory.com), exceptional baked cookies and baked gifts from Cheryl&Co. (www.cherylandco.com), children's gifts through its HearthSong (www.hearthsong.com) and Magic Cabin (www.magiccabin.com), and wine gifts from The Winetasting Network (www.ambrosiawine.com and www.winetasting.com) web sites. Greater than 70% of online revenues are derived from traffic coming directly to one of the Company's Universal Resource Locators ("URL's").

The Company's web sites allow customers to easily browse and purchase its products, promote brand loyalty and encourage repeat purchases by providing an inviting customer experience. The Company's web sites offer customers detailed product information, complete with photographs, personalized shopping services, including search and order tracking, contests, sweepstakes, gift-giving suggestions and reminder programs, home decorating and how-to-tips and information about special events and offers. The Company has designed its Web sites to be fast, secure and easy to use and allows customers to order products with minimal effort. The Company's Web sites include the following key features in addition to the variety of delivery and shipping options (same day/next day) and 24 hour/7 day customer service that are available to all its customers:

Technology Infrastructure

The Company believes it has been and continues to be a leader in implementing new technologies and systems to give its customers the best possible shopping experience, whether online or over the telephone. Through the use of customized software applications, the Company is able to retrieve, sort and analyze customer information to enable it to better serve its customers and target its product offerings. The Company's online and telephonic orders are fed directly from the Company's secure Web sites, or with the assistance of a gift advisor, into a transaction processing system which captures the required customer and recipient information. The system then routes the order to the appropriate Company warehouse, or for florist fulfilled or drop-shipped items, selects a vendor to fulfill the customer's order and electronically transmits the necessary information using BloomLink, the Company's proprietary communication system, assuring timely delivery. In addition, the Company's gift advisors have electronic access to this system, enabling them to assist in order fulfillment and subsequently track other customer and/or order information.

In prior years, the Company has invested heavily in building a scalable technology platform to support the Company's order volume growth. The Company employs a combination of in-house personnel which concentrate on core competencies, including strategic direction and system and project management and implementation. However, during fiscal 2006, the Company began outsourcing certain of its programming and support services in order to achieve cost efficiencies, allowing the Company to focus its resources on customer specific projects to ensure an enjoyable shopping experience while providing improved operational flexibility, additional capacity and system redundancy.

The Company's technology infrastructure, primarily consisting of the Company's Web sites, transaction processing, customer databases and telecommunications systems, is built and maintained for reliability, security, scalability and flexibility. To minimize the risk of service interruptions from unexpected component or telecommunications failure, maintenance and upgrades, the Company has built full back-up and system redundancies into those components of its systems that have been identified as critical. The Company plans to continue to invest in technologies that will improve and expand its e-commerce and telecommunication capabilities and utilize its informational technology expertise to improve the technology infrastructure of its recently acquired businesses to accommodate anticipated growth and improve their customers' shopping experiences.

Fulfillment and Manufacturing Operations

The Company's customers primarily place their orders either online or over the telephone. The Company's development of a hybrid fulfillment system which enables the Company to offer same-day, next-day and any-day delivery, combines the use of BloomNet (comprised of independent florists operating retail flower shops and LFC's, Company-owned stores and LFC's, and franchise stores), with the Company-owned distribution centers and brand-name vendors who ship directly to the Company's customers. While providing a significant competitive advantage in terms of delivery options, the Company's fulfillment system also has the added benefit of reducing the Company's capital investments in inventory and infrastructure. All of the Company's products are backed by a 100% satisfaction guarantee, and the Company's business is not dependent on any single third-party supplier.

To ensure reliable and efficient communication of online and telephonic orders to its BloomNet members and third party gift vendors, the Company internally-developed BloomLink(R), a proprietary and secure internet-based communications system which is available to all BloomNet members and third-party gift vendors. The Company also has the ability to arrange for international delivery of floral products through independent wire services and direct relationships.

The Company intends to improve its fulfillment capabilities to make its operations more efficient by:

- o strengthening relationships and increasing the number of its vendors and BloomNet member florists, as appropriate, to ensure geographic coverage and shorten delivery times;
- o continuing to improve warehousing operations and reduce fulfillment times in support of its floral, gifts, gourmet food and wines, and home product lines; and
- o expanding the use of cross-dock logistics, and work with additional third party carriers to increase volume capability and utilizing cross brand fulfillment capabilities to mitigate the impact of fuel cost increases.

Fulfillment of products is as follows:

Flowers and Plants. A majority of the Company's floral orders are fulfilled by one of the Company's BloomNet members, allowing the Company to deliver its floral products on a same-day or next-day basis to ensure freshness and to meet its customers' need for immediate gifting. In addition, the Company is better positioned to ensure consistent product quality and presentation and offer a greater variety of arrangements, which creates a better experience for its customers and gift recipients. The Company selects retail florists for BloomNet based upon the florist's design staff, facilities, quality of floral processing, and delivery capabilities and allocates orders to members within a geographical area based on historical performance of the florist in fulfilling orders, and the number of BloomNet florists currently serving the area. The Company regularly monitors BloomNet florists' performance and adherence to the Company's quality standards to ensure proper fulfillment.

The Company's relationships with its BloomNet members are non-exclusive. Many florists, including many BloomNet florists, also are members of other floral fulfillment organizations. The BloomNet agreements generally are cancelable by either party with ten days notification and do not guarantee any orders, dollar amounts or exclusive territories from the Company to the florist. In fiscal 2001, the Company began entering into Order Fulfillment Agreement(s) with selected BloomNet members to operate LFC's in high volume markets to facilitate the fulfillment of the Company's floral and gift orders, improving the economics of florist fulfilled transactions, and improving the Company's ability to control product quality and branding. As of July 2, 2006, the Company had entered into approximately 66 Order Fulfillment Agreements with selected BloomNet members to operate LFC's, providing coverage of all significant population centers across the United States. Generally, these agreements provide for a three-year term, terminable upon 30 days notice upon breach and immediately by the Company in the event of certain specified defaults by the operator of the LFC. In consideration of the operator's satisfactory performance, the Company agrees to use reasonable efforts to forward orders with a specified minimum merchandise value during each year of the agreement. The Company has not granted an exclusive territory to any operator.

In certain instances, the Company is required to fulfill orders through non-BloomNet members, and transmits these orders to the fulfilling florist using the communication system of an independent wire service or via telephone.

In addition to its Florist Designed product, the Company offers its customers an alternative to florist designed products through its Fresh From Our Growers(SM) program and by providing for a full array of products from bouquets to unique floral celebrity expert designed products.

As of July 2, 2006, the Company operates 15 floral retail stores, located primarily in the New York and Los Angeles metropolitan areas and 8 fulfillment centers. In addition, the Company has 85 franchised stores, located primarily in California, Colorado, New York and Texas. Company-owned stores serve as local points of fulfillment and enable the Company to test new products and marketing programs.

Gourmet Foods, Wine and Gifts. In order to take advantage of improved margins, better control quality and to offer premium branded signature products in the Food, Wine and Gift product category, which was identified by the Company as one of its fastest growing and most profitable product lines, the Company has recently acquired several gourmet food retailers with manufacturing operations. The Company's premium chocolates are manufactured and distributed from its 200,000 square foot production facility in Akron, Ohio, and the Company's cookie and baked gifts are fulfilled from its 51,000 square foot baking and distribution center in Westerville, Ohio, while its premium popcorn and related snack products are shipped from the Company's 148,000 square foot manufacturing and distribution center located in Lake Forest, Illinois. Most wine gift and fulfillment services are provided through the Company's 52,000 square foot fulfillment center in Napa, California. The remainder of the Company's wine and wine-related items are fulfilled by third-party gift vendors that ship products directly to the customer by next-day or other delivery options chosen by the customer.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Home and Children's Gifts. The Company packages and ships its home and children's gift products primarily from its 300,000 square foot distribution center located in Madison, Virginia, or through its 200,000 square foot distribution center in Vandalia, Ohio or by third-party product suppliers using next-day or other delivery options selected by the customer.

BloomNet Business

In order to further strengthen its florist designed fulfillment capabilities, and to compete in the profitable florist-to-florist business, during fiscal 2005, the Company began expanding its network of BloomNet florists. The Company's BloomNet business provides its members with products and services, including: (i) clearinghouse services, consisting of the settlement of orders between sending florists (including the 1-800-Flowers.com brand) and receiving florists, (ii) advertising, in the form of member directories, (iii) communication services, by which BloomNet florists are able to send and receive orders and communicate between members, using Bloomlink, the Company's proprietary electronic communication system, and (iv) wholesale products, which consist of branded and non-branded floral supplies, enabling member florists to reduce their costs through 1-800-Flowers purchasing leverage, while also ensuring that member florists will be able to fulfill 1-800-Flowers.com brand orders based on recipe specifications. While maintaining industry-high quality standards for its 1-800-Flowers.com brand customers, the Company offers florists a compelling value proposition, offering products and services that its florists need to grow their business and to enhance profitability. After a two year period of investment, during which time the Company increased its membership from a base of approximately 3,000 members, to approximately 9,000 members as of July 2, 2006, the Company expects that BloomNet operations will begin to generate increasing profitability during fiscal 2007.

Business Category Reorganization

With the addition of Fannie May Confections Brands and the growing importance of BloomNet to the Company's operating results, the Company plans to restructure its organization in fiscal 2007 in order to strengthen its execution and customer focus, and align resources to better meet the demands of the consumers that it serves and to deliver improved financial performance. To enhance the visibility of the growth and profit characteristics of its different business categories, the Company will provide results for its Consumer Floral, BloomNet, Home & Children's Gifts, and Food, Wine and Gift Baskets businesses.

Since the reorganization will not become effective until after fiscal 2006, the descriptions of the Company's business and its financial reporting in this report will be based on the Company's organization as in effect during fiscal 2006.

Seasonality

The Company's quarterly results may experience seasonal fluctuations. Due to the Company's expansion into non-floral products, including the acquisitions of The Winetasting Network and Cheryl & Co. during fiscal 2005, as well as, Wind & Weather and Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. in fiscal 2006, the Thanksgiving through Christmas holiday season, which falls within the Company's second fiscal quarter, generates the highest proportion of the Company's annual revenues.

In addition, as the result of a number of major floral gifting occasions, including Mother's Day, Administrative Professionals Week and Easter, revenues also rise during the Company's fiscal fourth quarter. Finally, results during the Company's fiscal first quarter will be negatively impacted by the aforementioned acquisitions due to their seasonal nature and the incremental overhead incurred during this slow period.

Competition

The growing popularity and convenience of e-commerce has continued to give rise to established businesses on the Internet. In addition to selling their products over the Internet, many of these retailers sell their products through a combination of channels by maintaining a Web site, a toll-free phone number and physical locations. Additionally, several of these merchants offer an expanding variety of products and some are attracting an increasing number of customers. Certain mass merchants have expanded their offerings to include competing products and may continue to do so in the future. These mass merchants, as well as other potential competitors, may be able to:

- o undertake more extensive marketing campaigns for their brands and services;
- o adopt more aggressive pricing policies; and
- o make more attractive offers to potential employees, distributors and retailers.

In addition, the Company faces intense competition in each of its individual product categories. In the floral industry, there are various providers of floral products, none of which is dominant in the industry. The Company's competitors include:

- o retail floral shops, some of which maintain toll-free telephone numbers and websites;
- o online floral retailers;
- o catalog companies that offer floral products;
- o floral telemarketers and wire services; and
- o supermarkets, mass merchants and specialty retailers with floral departments.

Similarly, the plant, gift basket, gourmet foods and wine, unique gifts, children's toys and home and garden categories are highly competitive. Each of these categories encompasses a wide range of products, is highly fragmented and is served by a large number of companies, none of which is dominant. Products in these categories may be purchased from a number of outlets, including mass merchants, telemarketers, retail specialty shops, online retailers and mail-order catalogs.

The Company believes the strength of its brands, product selection, customer relationships, technology infrastructure and fulfillment capabilities position it to compete effectively against its current and potential competitors in each of its product categories. However, increased competition could result in:

- o price reductions, decreased revenues and lower profit margins;
- o loss of market share; and
- o increased marketing expenditures.

These and other competitive factors may adversely impact the Company's business and results of operations.

Government Regulation and Legal Uncertainties

The Internet continues to evolve and there are laws and regulations directly applicable to e-commerce. Legislatures are also considering an increasing number of laws and regulations pertaining to the Internet, including laws and regulations addressing:

- o user privacy;

- o pricing;
- o content;
- o connectivity;
- o intellectual property;
- o distribution;

9

- o taxation;
- o liabilities;
- o antitrust; and
- o characteristics and quality of products and services.

Further, the growth and development of the market for online services may prompt more stringent consumer protection laws that may impose additional burdens on those companies conducting business online. The adoption of any additional laws or regulations may impair the growth of the Internet or commercial online services. This could decrease the demand for the Company's services and increase its cost of doing business. Moreover, the applicability to the Internet of existing laws regarding issues like property ownership, taxes, libel and personal privacy is uncertain. Any new legislation or regulation that has an adverse impact on the Internet or the application of existing laws and regulations to the Internet could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

States or foreign countries might attempt to regulate the Company's business or levy additional sales or other taxes relating to its activities. Because the Company's products and services are available over the Internet anywhere in the world, multiple jurisdictions may claim that the Company is required to do business as a foreign corporation in one or more of those jurisdictions. Failure to qualify as a foreign corporation in a jurisdiction where the Company is required to do so could subject it to taxes and penalties. States or foreign governments may charge the Company with violations of local laws.

Intellectual Property and Proprietary Rights

The Company regards its service marks, trademarks, trade secrets, domain names and similar intellectual property as critical to its success. The Company has applied for or received trademark and/or service mark registration for, among others, "1-800-FLOWERS.COM", "1-800-FLOWERS", "Plow & Hearth", "Wind & Weather", "GreatFood.com", "The Popcorn Factory", "TheGift.com", "HearthSong", "Magic Cabin", "Winetasting Network", "Cheryl&Co.", "Fannie May" and "Harry London". The Company also has rights to numerous domain names, including www.1800flowers.com, www.800flowers.com, www.flowers.com, www.plowandhearth.com, www.windandweather.com, www.greatfood.com, www.thepopcornfactory.com, www.hearthsong.com, www.magiccabin.com, www.ambrosiawine.com, www.winetasting.com, www.cherylandco.com, www.fanniemay.com and www.harrylondon.com. In addition, the Company has developed transaction processing and operating systems as well as marketing data, and customer and recipient information databases.

The Company relies on trademark, unfair competition and copyright law, trade secret protection and contracts such as confidentiality and license agreements with its employees, customers, vendors and others to protect its proprietary rights. Despite the Company's precautions, it may be possible for competitors to obtain and/or use the Company's proprietary information without authorization or to develop technologies similar to the Company's and independently create a similarly functioning infrastructure. Furthermore, the protection of proprietary rights in Internet-related industries is uncertain and still evolving. The laws of some foreign countries do not protect proprietary rights to the same extent as do the laws of the United States. The Company's means of protecting its proprietary rights in the United States or abroad may not be adequate.

The Company intends to continue to license technology from third parties, including Oracle, Microsoft, Verizon and AT&T, for its communications technology and the software that underlies its business systems. The market is evolving and the Company may need to license additional technologies to remain competitive. The Company may not be able to license these technologies on commercially reasonable terms or at all.

Third parties have in the past infringed or misappropriated the Company's intellectual property or similar proprietary rights. The Company believes infringements and misappropriations will continue to occur in the future. The Company intends to police against infringement and misappropriation. However, the Company cannot guarantee it will be able to enforce its rights and enjoin the alleged infringers from their use of confusingly similar trademarks, service marks, telephone numbers and domain names.

In addition, third parties may assert infringement claims against the Company. The Company cannot be certain that its technologies or its products and services do not infringe valid patents, trademarks, copyrights or other proprietary rights held by third parties. The Company may be subject to legal proceedings and claims from time to time relating to its intellectual property and the intellectual property of others in the ordinary course of its business. Intellectual property litigation is expensive and time-consuming and could divert management resources away from running the Company's business.

Employees

As of July 2, 2006, the Company had a total of approximately 3,700 full and part-time employees. During peak periods, the Company substantially increases the number of customer service, manufacturing and retail and fulfillment personnel. The Company's personnel are not represented under collective bargaining agreements and the Company considers its relations with its employees to be good.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Cautionary Statements Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

Our disclosures and analysis in this Form 10-K contain some forward-looking statements that set forth anticipated results based on management's plans and assumptions. From time to time, we also provide forward-looking statements in other statements we release to the public as well as oral forward-looking statements. Such statements give our current expectations or forecasts of future events; they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. We have tried, wherever possible, to identify such statements by using words such as "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe" and similar expressions in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial performance. In particular, these include statements relating to future actions; the effectiveness of our marketing programs; the performance of our existing products and services; our ability to attract and retain customers and expand our customer base; our ability to enter into or renew online marketing agreements; our ability to respond to competitive pressures; expenses, including shipping costs and the costs of marketing our current and future products and services; the outcome of contingencies, including legal proceedings in the normal course of business; and our ability to integrate acquisitions.

We cannot guarantee that any forward-looking statement will be realized, although we believe we have been prudent in our plans and assumptions. Achievement of future results is subject to risk, uncertainties and potentially inaccurate assumptions. Should known or unknown risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove inaccurate, actual results could differ materially from past results and those anticipated, estimated or projected. You should bear this in mind as you consider forward looking statements.

We undertake no obligation to publicly update forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. You are advised, however, to consult any further disclosures we make on related subjects in our 10-Q and 8-K reports to the SEC. Also note we provide the following cautionary discussion of risks, uncertainties and possibly inaccurate assumptions relevant to our business. These are factors that, individually or in the aggregate, we think could cause our actual results to differ materially from expected and historical results. We note these factors for investors as permitted by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You should understand that it is not possible to predict or identify all such factors. Consequently, you should not consider the following to be a complete discussion of all potential risks and uncertainties.

The Company's operating results may fluctuate, and this fluctuation could cause financial results to be below expectations. The Company's operating results may fluctuate from period to period for a number of reasons. In budgeting the Company's operating expenses for the foreseeable future, the Company assumes that revenues will continue to grow; however, some of the Company's operating expenses are fixed in the short term. Sales of the Company's products are seasonal, concentrated in the fourth calendar quarter, due to the Thanksgiving and Christmas-time holidays, and the second calendar quarter, due to Mother's Day and Administrative Professionals' Week. In anticipation of increased sales activity during these periods, the Company hires a significant number of temporary employees to supplement its permanent staff and the Company increases its inventory levels. If revenues during these periods do not meet the Company's expectations, it may not generate sufficient revenue to offset these increased costs and its operating results may suffer.

The Company's quarterly operating results may significantly fluctuate and you should not rely on them as an indication of its future results. The Company's future revenues and results of operations may significantly fluctuate due to a combination of factors, many of which are outside of management's control. The most important of these factors include:

- o seasonality;
- o the retail economy;
- o the timing and effectiveness of marketing programs;
- o the timing of the introduction of new products and services;
- o the Company's ability to find and maintain reliable sources for certain of its products;
- o the timing and effectiveness of capital expenditures;
- o the Company's ability to enter into or renew online marketing agreements; and
- o competition.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

The Company may be unable to reduce operating expenses quickly enough to offset any unexpected revenue shortfall. If the Company has a shortfall in revenue without a corresponding reduction to its expenses, operating results may suffer. The Company's operating results for any particular quarter may not be indicative of future operating results. You should not rely on quarter-to-quarter comparisons of results of operations as an indication of the Company's future performance. It is possible that results of operations may be below the expectations of public market analysts and investors, which could cause the trading price of the Company's Class A common stock to fall.

Consumer spending on flowers, gifts and other products sold by the Company may vary with general economic conditions. If general economic conditions deteriorate and the Company's customers have less disposable income, consumers may spend less on its products and its quarterly operating results may suffer.

If the Company's customers do not find its expanded product lines appealing, revenues may not grow and net income may decrease. The Company's business historically has focused on offering floral and floral-related gift products. Although the Company has been successful in its expanded product lines including plants, gift baskets, popcorn, gourmet food and wine, unique or specialty gifts, home and garden accessories, and children's gifts, it expects to continue to incur significant costs in marketing these products. If the Company's customers do not continue to find its product lines appealing, the Company may not generate sufficient revenue to offset its related costs and its results of operations may be negatively impacted.

If the Company fails to develop and maintain its brands, it may not increase or maintain its customer base or its revenues. The Company must continue to develop and maintain the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brands to expand its customer base and its revenues. In addition, the Company has introduced and acquired other brands in the past, and may continue to do so in the future. The Company believes that the importance of brand recognition will increase as it expands its product offerings. Many of the Company's customers may not be aware of the Company's non-floral products. If the Company fails to advertise and market its products effectively, it may not succeed in establishing its brands and may lose customers leading to a reduction of revenues.

The Company's success in promoting and enhancing the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brands will also depend on its success in providing its customers high-quality products and a high level of customer service. If the Company's customers do not perceive its products and services to be of high quality, the value of the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brands would be diminished and the Company may lose customers and its revenues may decline.

A failure to establish and maintain strategic online relationships that generate a significant amount of traffic could limit the growth of the Company's business. Although the Company expects a significant portion of its online customers will continue to come directly to its Website, it will also rely on third party Web sites, search engines and affiliates with which the Company has strategic relationships for traffic. If these third-parties do not attract a significant number of visitors, the Company may not receive a significant number of online customers from these relationships and its revenues from these relationships may decrease or remain flat. There continues to be strong competition to establish or maintain relationships with leading Internet companies, and the Company may not successfully enter into additional relationships, or renew existing ones beyond their current terms. The Company may also be required to pay significant fees to maintain and expand existing relationships. The Company's online revenues may suffer if it does not enter into new relationships or maintain existing relationships or if these relationships do not result in traffic sufficient to justify their costs.

If local florists and other third-party vendors do not fulfill orders to the Company's customers' satisfaction, customers may not shop with the Company again. In many cases, floral orders placed by the Company's customers are fulfilled by local independent florists, a majority of which are members of BloomNet. The Company does not directly control any of these florists. In addition, many of the non-floral products sold by the Company are manufactured and delivered to its customers by independent third-party vendors. If customers are dissatisfied with the performance of the local florist or other third-party vendors, they may not utilize the Company's services when placing future orders and its revenues may decrease.

If a florist discontinues its relationship with the Company, the Company's customers may experience delays in service or declines in quality and may not shop with the Company again. Many of the Company's arrangements with local florists for order fulfillment may be terminated with 10 days notice. If a florist discontinues its relationship with the Company, the Company will be required to obtain a suitable replacement located in the same geographic area, which may cause delays in delivery or a decline in quality, leading to customer dissatisfaction and loss of customers.

If a significant amount of customers are not satisfied with their purchase, the Company will be required to incur substantial costs to issue refunds, credits or replacement products. The Company offers its customers a 100% satisfaction guarantee on its products. If customers are not satisfied with the products they receive, the Company will either replace the product for the customer or issue the customer a refund or credit. The Company's net income would decrease if a significant number of customers request replacement products, refunds or credits and the Company is unable to pass such costs onto the supplier.

Increased shipping costs and labor stoppages may adversely affect sales of the Company's products. Many of the Company's products are delivered to customers either directly from the manufacturer or from the Company's fulfillment centers located in California, Illinois, New York, Ohio and Virginia. The Company has established relationships with Federal Express, United Parcel Service and other common carriers for the delivery of these products. If these carriers were to increase the prices they charge to ship the Company's goods, and the Company passes these increases on to its customers, its customers might choose to buy comparable products locally to avoid shipping charges. In addition, these carriers may experience labor stoppages, which could impact the Company's ability to deliver products on a timely basis to our customers and adversely affect its customer relationships.

If the Company fails to continuously improve its web site, it may not attract or retain customers. If potential or existing customers do not find the Company's Web site a convenient place to shop, the Company may not attract or retain customers and its sales may suffer. To encourage the use of the Company's web site, it must continuously improve its accessibility, content and ease of use. Customer traffic and the Company's business would be adversely affected if competitors' web sites are perceived as easier to use or better able to satisfy customer needs.

Competition in the floral, plant, gift basket, gourmet food and wine, specialty gift, children's toys and games and home and garden industries is intense and a failure to respond to competitive pressure could result in lost revenues. There are many companies that offer products in these categories. In the floral category, the Company's competitors include:

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

- o retail floral shops, some of which maintain toll-free telephone numbers and web sites;
- o online floral retailers;
- o catalog companies that offer floral products;
- o floral telemarketers and wire services; and
- o supermarkets, mass merchants and specialty gift retailers with floral departments.

Similarly, the plant, gift basket, gourmet food, cookie, candy, wine, specialty gift, children's toys and home and garden categories are highly competitive. Each of these categories encompasses a wide range of products and is highly fragmented. Products in these categories may be purchased from a number of outlets, including mass merchants, retail shops, online retailers and mail-order catalogs.

Competition is intense and the Company expects it to increase. Increased competition could result in:

- o price reductions, decreased revenue and lower profit margins;
- o loss of market share; and
- o increased marketing expenditures.

These and other competitive factors could materially and adversely affect the Company's results of operations.

If the Company does not accurately predict customer demand for its products, it may lose customers or experience increased costs. In the past, the Company did not need to maintain a significant inventory of products. However, as the Company expands the volume of non-floral products offered to its customers, the Company will be required to increase inventory levels and the number of products maintained in its warehouses. If the Company overestimates customer demand for its products, excess inventory and outdated merchandise could accumulate, tying up working capital and potentially resulting in reduced warehouse capacity and inventory losses due to damage, theft and obsolescence. If the Company underestimates customer demand, it may disappoint customers who may turn to its competitors. Moreover, the strength of the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brands could be diminished due to misjudgments in merchandise selection.

If the supply of flowers for sale becomes limited, the price of flowers could rise or flowers may be unavailable and the Company's revenues and gross margins could decline. A variety of factors affect the supply of flowers in the country-regionplaceUnited States and the price of the Company's floral products. If the supply of flowers available for sale is limited due to weather conditions or other factors, prices for flowers could rise and customer demand for the Company's floral products may be reduced, causing revenues and gross margins to decline. Alternatively, the Company may not be able to obtain high quality flowers in an amount sufficient to meet customer demand. Even if available, flowers from alternative sources may be of lesser quality and/or may be more expensive than those currently offered by the Company.

Most of the flowers sold in the United States are grown by farmers located abroad, primarily in Colombia, Ecuador and Holland, and the Company expects that this will continue in the future. The availability and price of flowers could be affected by a number of factors affecting these regions, including:

- o import duties and quotas;

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

- o agricultural limitations and restrictions to manage pests and disease;
- o changes in trading status;
- o economic uncertainties and currency fluctuations;
- o severe weather;
- o work stoppages;
- o foreign government regulations and political unrest; and
- o trade restrictions, including United States retaliation against foreign trade practices.

The Company's franchisees may damage its brands or increase its costs by failing to comply with its franchise agreements or its operating standards. The Company's franchise business is governed by its Uniform Franchise Offering Circulars, franchise agreements and applicable franchise law. If the Company's franchisees do not comply with its established operating standards or the terms of the franchise agreements, the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM brands may be damaged. The Company may incur significant additional costs, including time-consuming and expensive litigation, to enforce its rights under the franchise agreements. Additionally, the Company is the primary tenant on certain leases, which the franchisees sublease from the Company. If a franchisee fails to meet its obligations as subtenant, the Company could incur significant costs to avoid default under the primary lease. Furthermore, as a franchiser, the Company has obligations to its franchisees. Franchisees may challenge the performance of the Company's obligations under the franchise agreements and subject it to costs in defending these claims and, if the claims are successful, costs in connection with their compliance.

If third parties acquire rights to use similar domain names or phone numbers or if the Company loses the right to use its phone numbers, its brands may be damaged and it may lose sales. The Company's Internet domain names are an important aspect of its brand recognition. The Company cannot practically acquire rights to all domain names similar to www.1800flowers.com, or its other brands, whether under existing top level domains or those issued in the future. If third parties obtain rights to similar domain names, these third parties may confuse the Company's customers and cause its customers to inadvertently place orders with these third parties, which could result in lost sales and could damage its brands.

Likewise, the phone number that spells 1-800-FLOWERS is important to the Company's brand and its business. While the Company has obtained the right to use the phone numbers 1-800-FLOWERS, 1-888-FLOWERS and 1-877-FLOWERS, as well as common toll-free "FLOWERS" misdials, it may not be able to obtain rights to use the FLOWERS phone number as new toll-free prefixes are issued, or the rights to all similar and potentially confusing numbers. If third parties obtain the phone number which spells "FLOWERS" with a different prefix or a toll-free number similar to FLOWERS, these parties may also confuse the Company's customers and cause lost sales and potential damage to its brands. In addition, under applicable FCC rules, ownership rights to phone numbers cannot be acquired. Accordingly, the FCC may rescind the Company's right to use any of its phone numbers, including 1-800-FLOWERS (1-800-356-9377).

A lack of security over the Internet may cause Internet usage to decline and cause the Company to expend capital and resources to protect against security breaches. A significant barrier to electronic commerce over the Internet has been the need for secure transmission of confidential information and transaction information. Internet usage could decline if any well-publicized compromise of security occurred. Additionally, computer "viruses" may cause the Company's systems to incur delays or experience other service interruptions. Such interruptions may materially impact the Company's ability to operate its business. If a computer virus affecting the Internet in general is highly publicized or particularly damaging, the Company's customers may not use the Internet or may be prevented from using the Internet, which would have an adverse effect on its revenues. As a result, the Company may be required to expend capital and resources to protect against or to alleviate these problems.

Unexpected system interruptions caused by system failures may result in reduced revenues and harm to the Company's brand. In the past, particularly during peak holiday periods, the Company has experienced significant increases in traffic on its Web site and in its toll-free customer service centers. The Company's operations are dependent on its ability to maintain its computer and telecommunications systems in effective working order and to protect its systems against damage from fire, natural disaster, power loss, telecommunications failure or similar events. The Company's systems have in the past, and may in the future, experience:

- o system interruptions;
- o long response times; and
- o degradation in service.

The Company's business depends on customers making purchases on its systems, its revenues may decrease and its reputation could be harmed if it experiences frequent or long system delays or interruptions or if a disruption occurs during a peak holiday season.

If AT&T and Verizon do not adequately maintain the Company's telephone service, the Company may experience system failures and its revenues may decrease. The Company is dependent on AT&T and Verizon to provide telephone services to its customer service centers. Although the Company maintains redundant telecommunications systems, if AT&T and Verizon experience system failures or fail to adequately maintain the Company's systems, the Company may experience interruptions and its customers might not continue to utilize its services. If the Company loses its telephone service, it will be unable to generate revenue. The Company's future success depends upon these third-party relationships because it does not have the resources to maintain its telephone service without these or other third parties. Failure to maintain these relationships or replace them on financially attractive terms may disrupt the Company's operations or require it to incur significant unanticipated costs.

Interruptions in Teleflora's Dove System or a reduction in the Company's access to this system may disrupt order fulfillment and create customer dissatisfaction. A minimal portion of the Company's customers' orders are communicated to the fulfilling florist through a third party system. This system is an order processing and messaging network used to facilitate the transmission of floral orders between florists. If this system experiences interruptions in the future, the Company could experience difficulties in fulfilling some of its customers' orders and those customers might not continue to shop with the Company.

The Company's operating results may suffer due to economic, political and social unrest or disturbances. Like other American businesses, the Company is unable to predict what long-term effect acts of terrorism, war, or similar unforeseen events, may have on its business. The Company's results of operations and financial condition could be adversely impacted if such events cause an economic slowdown in the United States, or other negative effects that cannot now be anticipated.

If the Company is unable to hire and retain key personnel, its business may suffer. The Company's success is dependent on its ability to hire, retain and motivate highly qualified personnel. In particular, the Company's success depends on the continued efforts of its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, James F. McCann, and its President, Christopher G. McCann, as well as its senior management team which help manage its business. The loss of the services of any of the Company's executive management or key personnel or its inability to attract qualified additional personnel could cause its business to suffer and force it to expend time and resources in locating and training additional personnel.

Many governmental regulations may impact the Internet, which could affect the Company's ability to conduct business. Any new law or regulation, or the application or interpretation of existing laws, may decrease the growth in the use of the Internet or the Company's Web site. The Company expects there will be an increasing number of laws and regulations pertaining to the Internet in the United States and throughout the world. These laws or regulations may relate to liability for information received from or transmitted over the Internet, online content regulation, user privacy, taxation and quality of products and services sold over the Internet. Moreover, the applicability to the Internet of existing laws governing intellectual property ownership and infringement, copyright, trademark, trade secret, obscenity, libel, employment, personal privacy and other issues is uncertain and developing. This could decrease the demand for the Company's products, increase its costs or otherwise adversely affect its business.

Regulations imposed by the Federal Trade Commission may adversely affect the growth of the Company's Internet business or its marketing efforts. The Federal Trade Commission has proposed regulations regarding the collection and use of personal identifying information obtained from individuals when accessing Web sites, with particular emphasis on access by minors. These regulations may include requirements that the Company establish procedures to disclose and notify users of privacy and security policies, obtain consent from users for collection and use of information and provide users with the ability to access, correct and delete personal information stored by the Company. These regulations may also include enforcement and redress provisions. Moreover, even in the absence of those regulations, the Federal Trade Commission has begun investigations into the privacy practices of other companies that collect information on the Internet. One investigation resulted in a consent decree under which an Internet company agreed to establish programs to implement the principles noted above. The Company may become a party to a similar investigation, or the Federal Trade Commission's regulatory and enforcement efforts, or those of other governmental bodies, may adversely affect its ability to collect demographic and personal information from users, which could adversely affect its marketing efforts.

Unauthorized use of the Company's intellectual property by third parties may damage its brands. Unauthorized use of the Company's intellectual property by third parties may damage its brands and its reputation and may likely result in a loss of customers. It may be possible for third parties to obtain and use the Company's intellectual property without authorization. Third parties have in the past infringed or misappropriated the Company's intellectual property or similar proprietary rights. The Company believes infringements and misappropriations will continue to occur in the future. Furthermore, the validity, enforceability and scope of protection of intellectual property in Internet-related industries is uncertain and still evolving. The Company has been unable to register certain of its intellectual property in some foreign countries and, furthermore, the laws of some foreign countries are uncertain or do not protect intellectual property rights to the same extent as do the laws of the United States.

Defending against intellectual property infringement claims could be expensive and, if the Company is not successful, could disrupt its ability to conduct business. The Company cannot be certain that the products it sells, or services it offers, do not or will not infringe valid patents, trademarks, copyrights or other intellectual property rights held by third parties. The Company may be a party to legal proceedings and claims relating to the intellectual property of others from time to time in the ordinary course of its business. The Company may incur substantial expense in defending against these third-party infringement claims, regardless of their merit. Successful infringement claims against the Company may result in substantial monetary liability or may materially disrupt its ability to conduct business.

The Company may lose sales or incur significant expenses should states be successful in imposing broader guidelines to state sales and use taxes. In addition to the Company's retail store operations, the Company collects sales or other similar taxes in states where the Company's online and telephonic sales channels have applicable nexus. Our customer service and fulfillment networks, and any further expansion of those networks, along with other aspects of our evolving business, may result in additional sales and use tax obligations. A successful assertion by one or more states that we should collect sales or other taxes on the sale of merchandise could result in substantial tax liabilities for past sales, decrease our ability to compete with traditional retailers, and otherwise harm our business.

Currently, decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court restrict the imposition of obligations to collect state and local sales and use taxes with respect to sales made over the Internet. However, a number of states, as well as the U.S. Congress, have been considering various initiatives that could limit or supersede the Supreme Court's position regarding sales and use taxes on Internet sales. If any of these initiatives addressed the Supreme Court's constitutional concerns and resulted in a reversal of its current position, we could be required to collect additional sales and use taxes. The imposition by state and local governments of various taxes upon Internet commerce could create administrative burdens for us and could decrease our future sales.

A failure to integrate our acquisitions may cause the results of the acquired company to suffer as well as the results of the Company. The Company has opportunistically acquired a number of companies over the past several years. As part of the acquisition process, the Company embarks upon a project management effort to integrate the acquisition onto our information technology systems and management processes. If we are unsuccessful in integrating our acquisitions, the results of our acquisitions may suffer, management may have to divert valuable resources to oversee and manage the acquisitions, the Company may have to expend additional investments in the acquired company to upgrade personnel and/or information technology systems and the results of the Company may suffer.

Product liability claims may subject the Company to increased costs. Several of the products the Company sells, including perishable food and alcoholic beverage products, home and garden products, or children's toys may expose it to product liability claims in the event that the use or consumption of these products results in personal injury. Although the Company has not experienced any material losses due to product liability claims to date, it may be a party to product liability claims in the future and incur significant costs in their defense. Product liability claims often create negative publicity, which could materially damage the Company's reputation and its brands. Although the Company maintains insurance against product liability claims, its coverage may be inadequate to cover any liabilities it may incur.

The wine industry is subject to governmental regulation. The alcoholic beverage industry is subject to extensive specialized regulation under state and federal laws and regulations, including the following matters: licensing; the payment of excise taxes; advertising, trade and pricing practices; product labeling; sales to minors and intoxicated persons; changes in officers, directors, ownership or control; and, relationships among product producers, importers, wholesalers and retailers. While the Company believes that it is in material compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, in the event that it should be determined that the Company is not in compliance with any applicable laws or regulations, the Company could become subject to cease and desist orders, injunctive proceedings, civil fines, license revocations and other penalties which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and its results of operations.

In addition, the alcoholic beverage industry is subject to potential legislation and regulation on a continuous basis including in such areas as direct and Internet sales of alcohol. Certain states still prohibit the sale of alcohol into their jurisdictions from out of state wineries and/or retailers. There can be no assurance that new or revised laws or regulations, increased licensing fees, specialized taxes or other regulatory requirements will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and its results of operations.

While, to date, the Company has been able to obtain and retain licenses necessary to sell wine at retail, the failure to obtain renewals or otherwise retain such licenses in one or more of the states in which the Company operates would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and its results of operations. The Company's growth strategy for its wine business includes expansion into additional states; however, there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in obtaining the required permits or licenses in any additional states. From time to time, the Company may introduce new marketing initiatives, which may be expected to undergo regulatory scrutiny. There can be no assurance that such initiatives will not be stymied by regulatory criticism.

The Company is dependent on common carriers to deliver its wine shipments. The Company primarily uses FedEx and UPS to deliver its wine shipments. If FedEx or UPS were to terminate delivery services for alcoholic beverages in certain states, as it did in 1999 in Florida, Nevada and Connecticut, the Company would likely incur significantly higher shipping rates that would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and its results of operations. If any state prohibits or limits intrastate shipping of alcoholic beverages by third party couriers, the Company would likely incur significantly higher shipping rates that would have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and its results of operations.

There are various health issues regarding wine consumption. Since 1989, federal law has required health-warning labels on all alcoholic beverages. Although an increasing number of research studies suggest that health benefits may result from the moderate consumption of wine, these suggestions have been widely challenged and a number of groups advocate increased governmental action to restrict consumption of alcoholic beverages. Restrictions on the sale and consumption of wine or increases in the taxes imposed on wine in response to concerns regarding health issues may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and operating results. There can be no assurance that there will not be legal or regulatory challenges to the industry as a whole, and any such legal or regulatory challenge may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and results of operations.

The price at which the Company's Class A common stock will trade may be highly volatile and may fluctuate substantially. The stock market has from time to time experienced price and volume fluctuations that have affected the market prices of securities, particularly securities of companies with Internet operations. As a result, investors may experience a material decline in the market price of the Company's Class A common stock, regardless of the Company's operating performance. In the past, following periods of volatility in the market price of a particular company's securities, securities class action litigation has often been brought against that company. The Company may become involved in this type of litigation in the future. Litigation of this type is often expensive and diverts management's attention and resources, and as such, could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business and its results of operations.

Additional Information

The Company's internet address is www.1800flowers.com. In addition to the above properties, the Company leases approximately 356,000 square feet for owned or franchised retail stores and local fulfillment centers with lease terms typically ranging from 5 to 20 years. Some of its leases provide for a minimum rent plus a percentage rent based upon sales after certain minimum thresholds are achieved. The leases generally require the Company to pay insurance, utilities, real estate taxes and repair and maintenance expenses. In general, our properties are well maintained, adequate and suitable for their purposes.

Item 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There are various claims, lawsuits, and pending actions against the Company incident to the operations of its businesses. It is the opinion of management, after consultation with counsel, that the ultimate resolution of such claims, lawsuits and pending actions will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

Item 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

No matters were submitted to a vote of our security holders during the last quarter of our fiscal year ended July 2, 2006.

Rights of Common Stock

Holders of Class A common stock generally have the same rights as the holders of Class B common stock, except that holders of Class A common stock have one vote per share and holders of Class B common stock have 10 votes per share on all matters submitted to the vote of stockholders. Holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock generally vote together as a single class on all matters presented to the stockholders for their vote or approval, except as may be required by Delaware law. Class B common stock may be converted into Class A common stock at any time on a one-for-one share basis. Each share of Class B common stock will automatically convert into one share of Class A common stock upon its transfer, with limited exceptions.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Holder

As of September 8, 2006, there were approximately 266 stockholders of record of the Company's Class A common stock, although the Company believes that there is a significantly larger number of beneficial owners. As of September 8, 2006, there were approximately 18 stockholders of record of the Company's Class B common stock.

Dividend Policy

Although the Company has never declared or paid any cash dividends on its Class A or Class B common stock, the Company anticipates that it will generate increasing free cash flow in excess of its capital investment requirements. As such, although the Company has no current intent to do so, the Company may choose, at some future date, to use some portion of its cash for the purpose of cash dividends.

Resales of Securities

39,931,543 shares of Class A and Class B common stock are "restricted securities" as that term is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act. Restricted securities may be sold in the public market from time to time only if registered or if they qualify for an exemption from registration under Rule 144 or 701 under the Securities Act. As of September 8, 2006, all of such shares of the Company's common stock could be sold in the public market pursuant to and subject to the limits set forth in Rule 144. Sales of a large number of these shares could have an adverse effect on the market price of the Company's Class A common stock by increasing the number of shares available on the public market.

Purchases of Equity Securities by the Issuer

On May 12, 2005, the Company's Board of Directors increased the Company's authorization to repurchase the Company's Class A common stock up to $20 million, from the previous authorized limit of $10 million. Any such purchases could be made from time to time in the open market and through privately negotiated transactions, subject to general market conditions. The repurchase program will be financed utilizing available cash. As of July 2, 2006, the Company had repurchased 1,510,050 shares of common stock for $11.1 million, of which $1.3 million and $9.8 million was repurchased during the fiscal years ending July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, respectively.

The following table sets forth, for the months indicated, the Company's purchase of Class A common stock during the fiscal year ending July 2, 2006, which includes the period July 4, 2005 through July 2, 2006.

Item 6. SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

The selected consolidated statement of income data for the years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004 and the consolidated balance sheet data as of July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, have been derived from the Company's audited consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. The selected consolidated statement of income data for the years ended June 29, 2003 and June 30, 2002, and the selected consolidated balance sheet data as of June 27, 2004, June 29, 2003 and June 30, 2002, are derived from the Company's audited consolidated financial statements which are not included in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The following tables summarize the Company's consolidated statement of income and balance sheet data. The Company acquired Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. in May 2006, Wind & Weather in October 2005, Cheryl & Co. in March 2005, The Winetasting Network in November 2004 and The Popcorn Factory, Inc. in May 2002. The following financial data reflects the results of operations of these subsidiaries since their respective dates of acquisition. This information should be read together with the discussion in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and the Company's consolidated financial statements and notes to those statements included elsewhere in this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Net revenues consist primarily of the selling price of the merchandise, service or outbound shipping charges, less discounts, returns and credits. The Company's revenue growth of 16.6% during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006 was due to a combination of organic growth, as well as the acquisitions of Cheryl & Co., a manufacturer and direct marketer of cookies and baked gifts, acquired on March 28, 2005, Wind & Weather, a direct marketer of weather-themed gifts, acquired on October 31, 2005, and Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc., a manufacturer and multi-channel retailer of premium chocolates and other confections, acquired on May 1, 2006. Excluding the impact of acquisitions, and adjusted for the additional week of sales during fiscal 2005 which consisted of 53 weeks, compared to fiscal 2006 which consisted of 52 weeks, total revenue growth during fiscal 2006 was 9.3%, reflecting: (i) the Company's strong brand name recognition, (ii) continued leveraging of its existing customer base, and (iii) increased spending on its marketing and selling programs, designed to improve customer acquisition and accelerate top-line growth. Total revenue growth during fiscal 2005 was 11.0%, reflecting: (i) organic growth of approximately 8%, (ii) the aforementioned acquisition of Cheryl & Co., and the acquisition of The Winetasting Network on November 15, 2004, as well as the inclusion of an additional week of sales, due to its 53 week year.

The Company fulfilled approximately 11,315,000, 10,213,000, and 9,322,000 orders through its combined online and telephonic sales channels during the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005, and June 27, 2004, respectively, representing increases of 10.8% and 9.6% over the respective prior fiscal years. Order volume through the Company's online sales channel, which contributed 60.9%, 58.1% and 53.9% of the total combined online and telephonic revenues during the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004, increased 14.7% and 17.5%, during the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, respectively, as a result of increased marketing efforts through search engines and affiliates, and the incremental online revenue generated by Cheryl & Co., which was acquired in March 2005 and Wind & Weather acquired in October 2005. During fiscal 2006 the Company's telephonic channel order volume increased 4.6%, which was primarily attributable to the additional revenue from Cheryl & Co. and Wind & Weather, whereas fiscal 2005 telephonic order volume decreased 1.1%, due to continued migration of customers to the Company's online sales channel. During fiscal 2006 the Company's combined online and telephonic sales channel average order value increased 2.6% to $62.39, as a result of increased service and shipping charges implemented to align them with industry norms, and to partially offset the impact of increased fuel costs passed on from freight carriers. During fiscal 2005, the Company's average sale from its combined online and telephonic sales channel of $60.79 declined slightly as a result of product mix, compared with $61.20 in fiscal 2004.

During the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006, non-floral gift products accounted for 49.4% of total combined telephonic and online net revenues, compared to 47.3% and 47.8% during the years ended July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004, respectively.

Retail/fulfillment revenues for the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005 increased in comparison to the prior years, primarily as a result of its recent acquisitions of The Winetasting Network, Cheryl & Co, and Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. as well as increased membership and sales of products to the Company's BloomNet members.

At the start of the second half of fiscal 2005, the Company initiated a strategy designed to extend the Company's leadership position in the floral and thoughtful gift marketplace, and implemented plans to increase its marketing spending to drive increased customer acquisition, particularly in the core floral gift category. While the Company was successful in achieving strong revenue growth during this period, the growth was below the level that the Company targeted to achieve with its increased marketing spend, resulting in lower than anticipated earnings. Having now achieved a solid base of business, through a combination of organic efforts and strategic acquisitions, management's current focus is on improving the Company's earnings performance. As such, the Company expects that its organic revenue growth may decrease slightly from its current rate of greater than 9%, but result in improved profitability.

Gross Profit

	Years Ended				June 27, 2004
	July 6, 2006	% Change	July 3, 2005	% Change
	(in thousands)
Gross profit	$325,644	18.1%	$275,651	9.0%	$252,8
Gross margin %	41.7%		41.1%		41.9

Gross profit consists of net revenues less cost of revenues, which is comprised primarily of florist fulfillment costs (primarily fees paid directly to florists), the cost of floral and non-floral merchandise sold from inventory or through third parties, and associated costs including inbound and outbound shipping charges. Additionally, cost of revenues include labor and facility costs related to direct-to-consumer merchandise operations. Gross profit increased during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006, as a result of the revenue growth described above, and improved gross margin percentage, which increased 60 basis points to 41.7% in comparison to prior year. The improved gross margin percentage during fiscal 2006 resulted from a combination of product mix, including the additions of the Cheryl & Co. and Wind & Weather product lines, which have higher gross margins and pricing initiatives related to both delivery surcharges during the Valentine's Day holiday and increases in base service/shipping charges. During fiscal 2005, gross margin percentage declined by 80 basis points in comparison to the prior fiscal year, due to a combination of product mix, increased promotional pricing, and increased carrier fuel surcharges and shipping costs associated with the Monday placement of the Valentine's Day Holiday.

During fiscal 2007, although varying by quarter due to seasonal changes in product mix, the Company expects that its gross margin percentage will continue to improve primarily through: (i) growth of its higher margin non-floral gift lines, including Cheryl & Co., Wind & Weather, and most recently, Fannie May Confections Brands, (ii) improved product sourcing, pricing initiatives and customer service and fulfillment enhancements which are expected to substantially mitigate continued pressure on shipping costs, and (iii) the contribution of the BloomNet florist business, which has completed its roll-out investment phase, including the absorption of incremental sales and technology personnel in order to develop a member directory, increase Bloomlink penetration and expand membership, which increased from approximately 3,000 members as of June 27, 2004 to over 9,000 members as of July 2, 2006.

Marketing and Sales Expense

	Years Ended				June 2004
	July 2, 2006	% Change	July 3, 2005	% Change
	(in thousands)
Marketing and sales	$239,573	20.4%	$198,935	15.5%	$172,2
Percentage of sales	30.6%		29.7%		28.5

Marketing and sales expense consists primarily of advertising and promotional expenditures, catalog costs, online portal and search agreements, retail store and fulfillment operations (other than costs included in cost of revenues) and customer service center expenses, as well as the operating expenses of the Company's departments engaged in marketing, selling and merchandising activities. Marketing and sales expense increased as a percentage of net revenues during the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, as a result of several factors including: (i) the Company's efforts to increase new customer acquisition and accelerate top-line growth through increased marketing efforts both online and via broadcast advertising, (ii) investments required to expand its BloomNet business-to-business floral operations, (iii) incremental expenses associated with the Company's recent acquisitions, which, while contributing to revenue growth and achieving higher gross product margins, also incur higher marketing expenses, and (iv) the impact of adopting SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment" - refer to Footnote 2 of the Company's Annual Financial Statements for further details. During the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006, the Company added 3,556,000 new customers, compared with 3,311,000 and 3,141,000 in fiscal 2005 and fiscal 2004, respectively. Of the 6,631,000 customers who placed orders during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006, approximately 46.4% represented repeat customers, consistent with the prior year. Repeat customers represented 45.0% of total customers during fiscal 2004.

As referenced above, while the Company's marketing programs achieved strong revenue growth in fiscal 2006 and 2005, this growth has been below the level that was targeted with the Company's increased level of marketing spend. During fiscal 2007, the Company is focused on improving its operating expense ratio through a number of cost saving initiatives, including catalog printing and e-mail pricing improvements, as well as a review of the type, quantity and effectiveness of its marketing programs. In addition to the improved operating results expected now that the Company has completed the investment phase of its BloomNet florist business, the Company expects that marketing and sales expense, as a percentage of revenue, will decrease in comparison to the prior year.

Technology and development expense consists primarily of payroll and operating expenses of the Company's information technology group, costs associated with its Web sites, including hosting, design, content development and maintenance and support costs related to the Company's order entry, customer service, fulfillment and database systems. Technology and development expense increased as a percentage of net revenues during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006, primarily as a result of: (i) incremental expenses associated with system improvements required by The Winetasting Network, and integration projects for Wind & Weather, which was absorbed into the Company's Madison, Virginia operations, (ii) content development for the upgrade of the Company's 1-800-Flowers.com branded website which was launched in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2006, (iii) increases in the cost of maintenance and license agreements required to support the Company's technology platform, and (iv) the impact of adopting SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment" - refer to Footnote 2 of the Company's Annual Financial Statements for further details. Technology and development expenses increased by 6.9% during fiscal 2005 in comparison to prior year, but decreased as a percentage of net revenues primarily as a result of the incremental expenses of The Winetasting Network and Cheryl & Co., both of which were acquired during fiscal 2005. During the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005, and June 27, 2004, the Company expended $33.6 million, $24.0 million, and $22.8 million, respectively, technology and development, of which $13.8 million, $9.2 million, and $9.0 million, respectively, has been capitalized.

The Company believes that continued investment in technology and development is critical to attaining its strategic objectives. While many of its acquisition-related integration projects are complete, as a result of incremental expenses associated with it most recently acquired businesses, the Company expects that its spending in fiscal 2007 will remain consistent or decrease slightly as a percentage of net revenues.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative	$43,978	23.6%	$35,572	17.0%
Percentage of sales	5.6%		5.3%	5

General and administrative expense consists of payroll and other expenses in support of the Company's executive, finance and accounting, legal, human resources and other administrative functions, as well as professional fees and other general corporate expenses. General and administrative expense increased during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006 in comparison to the prior year, primarily as a result of: (i) incremental expenses associated with the Company's acquired businesses, (ii) expenses associated with the Company's corporate headquarters relocation, and (iii) the impact of adopting SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment" - refer to Footnote 2 of the Company's Annual Financial Statements for further details.

General and administrative expense increased during the fiscal year ended July 3, 2005 in comparison to the prior year, due to: (i) incremental expenses associated with the Company's wine gift product line and additional overhead added during a seasonally slow period for Cheryl & Co., which was acquired in March 2005, (ii) an increase in professional fees associated with Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, and (iii) increased travel and entertainment related to the Company's BloomNet business-to-business expansion.

Although the Company believes that its current general and administrative infrastructure is sufficient to support existing requirements and drive operating leverage, as a result of the incremental expenses associated with the recently acquired businesses, as well as the impact of the adoption of SFAS 123(R), the Company expects that its general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net revenue during fiscal 2007 will be consistent with the prior year period.

Depreciation and Amortization

	Years Ended
	July 2, 2006	% Change	July 3, 2005	% Change	June 2, 2004

Depreciation and amortization expense increased during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006 in comparison to the prior year period, due primarily to the incremental amortization expense related to the intangibles established as a result of the acquisitions of Cheryl & Co., Wind & Weather and more recently Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. Depreciation and amortization expense decreased slightly during the fiscal year ended July 3, 2005 in comparison to the prior year period, as a result of the Company's then declining rate of capital additions. During both fiscal 2006 and 2005, depreciation and amortization expense, as a percentage of revenue, decreased over their respective prior year periods, reflecting the Company's leverage of its existing infrastructure.

The Company believes that continued investment in its infrastructure, primarily in the areas of technology and development, including the improvement of the technology platforms are critical to attaining its strategic objectives. As a result of these improvements, but primarily as a result of an increase in amortization expense associated with intangibles established as a result of recent acquisitions, the Company expects that depreciation and amortization for fiscal 2007 will increase slightly as a percentage of net revenues in comparison to the prior year.

Other Income (Expense)

	-----		-----		-----
	$ (141)	(110.5)%	$1349	321.6%	$3

Other income (expense) consists primarily of interest income earned on the Company's investments and available cash balances, offset by interest expense, primarily attributable to the Company's capital leases, long-term debt, and revolving line of credit. In order to finance the acquisition of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. on May 1, 2006, the Company entered into a $135.0 million secured credit facility with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and a group of lenders (the "2006 Credit Facility"). The 2006 Credit Facility includes an $85.0 million term loan and a $50.0 million revolving facility, which bear interest at LIBOR plus 0.625% to 1.125%, with pricing based upon the Company's leverage ratio. At closing, the Company borrowed $85.0 million of the term facility to acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc.

The decrease in other income (expense) during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006, in comparison to fiscal 2005 was the result of higher interest expense on the Company's 2006 Credit Facility, as well as lower interest income, resulting from a decrease in average cash balances, due to the acquisitions of The Winetasting Network in November 2004, Cheryl & Co. in March 2005, Wind & Weather in November 2005, and Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. in May 2006, which was partially funded from the Company's existing cash balances, as well as the Company's stock buy-back program.

The increase in other income (expense) during the fiscal years ended July 3, 2005, in comparison to the fiscal 2004 was primarily attributable to higher interest income resulting from an increase in interest rate returns, as well as lower interest expense due to maturing debt and capital lease obligations.

Income Taxes

During the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, the Company recorded income tax expense of $3.2 million and $5.4 million, respectively. The Company's effective tax rate for the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005 was 50.0% and 40.7%, respectively. The effective tax rate during the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006 includes the impact of share-based compensation recognized in accordance with SFAS No. 123(R), and resulted in an increase in the annual effective income tax rate for fiscal 2006 of approximately 8.5%, resulting primarily from the associated book/tax differences in accounting for incentive stock options. Additionally, the Company's effective tax rate for the fiscal years ended July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005 differed from the U.S. federal statutory rate of 35% primarily due to state income taxes, partially offset by various tax credits.

During the fiscal year ended June 27, 2004, the Company recorded an income tax benefit of approximately $19.2 million (net) due to the removal of the Company's valuation allowance on its deferred tax assets which consisted primarily of net operating loss carryforwards (see below), offset in part by income tax expense for federal alternative minimum tax and various state taxes resulting from state tax law changes that deferred the use of available net operating losses for state purposes.

At June 27, 2004, management of the Company reassessed the valuation allowance previously established against its net deferred tax assets. Based on the Company's earnings history and projected future taxable income, management determined that it was more likely than not that the deferred tax assets would be realized. Accordingly, the Company removed the valuation allowance of approximately $30.0 million from its deferred tax assets resulting in the recognition of an income tax benefit of approximately $20.8 million, a reduction of goodwill of approximately $3.1 million, related to the acquired net operating losses of GreatFood.com, and an increase in additional paid-in-capital of approximately $6.1 million related to income tax benefits associated with employee stock option exercises. The favorable impact of the income tax benefit has distorted the trends in our net income and will impact the comparability of our net income with other periods.

At July 2, 2006, the Company's federal and state net operating loss carryforwards were approximately $63.4 million, which, if not utilized, will begin to expire in fiscal year 2020.

Quarterly Results of Operations

The following table provides unaudited quarterly consolidated results of operations for each quarter of fiscal years 2006 and 2005. The Company believes this unaudited information has been prepared substantially on the same basis as the annual audited consolidated financial statements and all necessary adjustments, consisting of only normal recurring adjustments, have been included in the amounts stated below to present fairly the Company's results of operations. The operating results for any quarter are not necessarily indicative of the operating results for any future period.

The Company's quarterly results may experience seasonal fluctuations. Due to the Company's expansion into non-floral products, including the acquisitions of The Winetasting Network and Cheryl & Co. during fiscal 2005 as well as Wind & Weather and Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. during fiscal 2006, the Thanksgiving through Christmas holiday season, which falls within the Company's second fiscal quarter, generates the highest proportion of the Company's annual revenues. Additionally, as the result of a number of major floral gifting occasions, including Mother's Day, Administrative Professionals Week and Easter, revenues also rise during the Company's fiscal fourth quarter. Results during the Company's fiscal first quarter will be negatively impacted by the aforementioned acquisitions due to their seasonal nature and the incremental overhead incurred during this slow period. Also, it should be noted that the operating expenses for their respective quarterly periods in fiscal 2006 reflect the impact of adopting SFAS No.123(R), "Share-Based Payment" - refer to audited financial statement Note (2) for further details.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At July 2, 2006, the Company had working capital of $41.2 million, including cash and equivalents of $24.6 million, compared to working capital of $41.7 million, including cash and equivalents and short-term investments of $46.6 million, at July 3, 2005.

31

Net cash provided by operating activities of $14.7 million for the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006 was primarily attributable to earnings, adjusted for depreciation and amortization, share-based compensation expense, deferred income taxes and other non-cash charges, which in total amounted to $26.1 million, offset in part by increases in inventory due to lead times required to source lower cost foreign products, and decreases in accounts payable and accrued expenses.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Net cash used in investing activities of $110.7 million for the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006 was primarily attributable to funding acquisitions ($96.9 million), including Wind & Weather ($5.0 million) and Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. ($91.9 million), as well as capital expenditures, primarily related to the Company's technology infrastructure, offset in part by net proceeds from the sale of the Company's short-term investments.

Net cash provided by financing activities of $80.6 million for the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006, was due primarily to bank borrowings against the Company's 2006 Credit Facility which was used to fund the acquisition of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. in May 2006, as well as net proceeds received upon the exercise of employee stock options, offset in part by cash used to repay outstanding debt and long-term capital lease obligations, as well as repurchase 182,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock, which were placed in treasury, for approximately $1.3 million.

On May 1, 2006, the Company entered into a $135.0 million secured credit facility with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and a group of lenders (the "2006 Credit Facility"). The 2006 Credit Facility includes an $85.0 million term loan and a $50.0 million revolving credit facility, which bear interest at LIBOR plus 0.625% to 1.125%, with pricing based upon the Company's leverage ratio. At closing, the Company borrowed $85.0 million of the term facility to acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. The Company is required to pay the outstanding term loan in quarterly installments, with the final installment payment due on May 1, 2012. The 2006 Credit Facility contains various conditions to borrowing, and affirmative and negative financial covenants. Concurrent with the 2006 Credit Facility, the Company's previous $25.0 million revolving credit facilities were terminated. The Company expects to draw down on its revolving credit facility towards the end of its fiscal first quarter in order to fund pre-holiday manufacturing and inventory purchases.

The Company has historically utilized cash generated from operations to meet its cash requirements, including all operating, investing and debt repayment activities. Due to the Company's continued expansion into non-floral products, including the aforementioned acquisitions of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. the Company expects to utilize its existing $50.0 million line of credit during its fiscal first and second quarter to fund working capital requirements, which have increased during this time period as a result of increased inventory and pre-holiday manufacturing requirements.

At July 2, 2006, the Company's contractual obligations consist of:

On May 12, 2005, the Company's Board of Directors increased the Company's authorization to repurchase the Company's Class A common stock up to $20 million, from the previous authorized limit of $10 million. Any such purchases could be made from time to time in the open market and through privately negotiated transactions, subject to general market conditions. The repurchase program will be financed utilizing available cash. As of July 2, 2006, the Company had repurchased 1,510,050 shares of common stock for $11.1 million, of which $1.3 million and $9.8 million was repurchased during the fiscal years ending July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, respectively.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The Company's discussion and analysis of its financial position and results of operations are based upon the consolidated financial statements of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc., which have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an ongoing basis, management evaluates its estimates, including those related to revenue recognition, inventory and long-lived assets, including goodwill and other intangible assets related to acquisitions. Management bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. Management believes the following critical accounting policies, among others, affect its more significant judgments and estimates used in preparation of its consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

Net revenues are generated by online, telephonic and retail fulfillment operations and primarily consist of the selling price of merchandise, service or outbound shipping charges, less discounts, returns and credits. Net revenues are recognized upon product shipment. Shipping terms are FOB shipping point.

Accounts Receivable

The Company maintains allowances for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of its customers or franchisees to make required payments. If the financial condition of the Company's customers or franchisees were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances may be required.

Inventory

The Company states inventory at the lower of cost or market. In assessing the realization of inventories, we are required to make judgments as to future demand requirements and compare that with inventory levels. It is possible that changes in consumer demand could cause a reduction in the net realizable value of inventory.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets acquired and is evaluated annually for impairment. The cost of intangible assets with determinable lives is amortized to reflect the pattern of economic benefits consumed, on a straight-line basis, over the estimated periods benefited, ranging from 3 to 16 years.

The Company performs an annual impairment test as of the first day of its fiscal fourth quarter, or earlier if indicators of potential impairment exist, to evaluate goodwill. Goodwill is considered impaired if the carrying amount of the reporting unit exceeds its estimated fair value. In assessing the recoverability of goodwill, the Company reviews both quantitative as well as qualitative factors to support its assumptions with regard to fair value. Judgment regarding the existence of impairment indicators is based on market conditions and operational performance of the Company. Future events could cause the Company to conclude that impairment indicators exist and that goodwill and other intangible assets associated with our acquired businesses is impaired.

Capitalized Software

The carrying value of capitalized software, both purchased and internally developed, is periodically reviewed for potential impairment indicators. Future events could cause the Company to conclude that impairment indicators exist and that capitalized software is impaired.

Stock-based Compensation

SFAS No. 123R requires the measurement of stock-based compensation expense based on the fair value of the award on the date of grant. The Company determines the fair value of stock options issued by using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The Black-Scholes option-pricing model considers a range of assumptions related to volatility, dividend yield, risk-free interest rate and employee exercise behavior. Expected volatilities are based on historical volatility of the Company's stock price. The dividend yield is based on historical experience and future expectations. The risk-free interest rate is derived from the US Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. The Black-Scholes model also incorporates expected forfeiture rates, based on historical behavior. Determining these assumptions are subjective and complex, and therefore, a change in the assumptions utilized could impact the calculation of the fair value of the Company's stock options. Prior to July 3, 2005, the Company followed APB No. 25, and related interpretations. Under APB No. 25, no stock-based compensation expense was recognized related to the Company's stock option program, as all options granted had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock price on the date of grant.

Income Taxes

The Company has established deferred income tax assets and liabilities for temporary differences between the financial reporting bases and the income tax bases of its assets and liabilities at enacted tax rates expected to be in effect when such assets or liabilities are realized or settled. The Company has recognized as a deferred tax asset the tax benefits associated with losses related to operations, which are expected to result in a future tax benefit. Realization of this deferred tax asset assumes that we will be able to generate sufficient future taxable income so that these assets will be realized. The factors that we consider in assessing the likelihood of realization include the forecast of future taxable income and available tax planning strategies that could be implemented to realize the deferred tax assets.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 applies to all tax positions accounted for under SFAS no. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" and defines the confidence level that a tax position must meet in order to be recognized in the financial statements. The interpretation requires that the tax effects of a position be recognized only if it is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained by the taxing authority as of the reporting date. If a tax position is not considered "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained then no benefits of the position are to be recognized. FIN 48 requires additional disclosures and is effective as of the beginning of the first fiscal year beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of FIN 48 will have on its consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

Item 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company's earnings and cash flows are subject to fluctuations due to changes in interest rates primarily from its investment of available cash balances in money market funds and investment grade corporate and U.S. government securities. Under its current policies, the Company does not use interest rate derivative instruments to manage exposure to interest rate changes.

Item 8. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA

Annual Financial Statements: See Part IV, Item 15 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Selected Quarterly Financial Data: See Part II, Item 7 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

None.

Item 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, we have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) or 15d-15(e) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that, as of the end the period covered by this report, these disclosure controls and procedures are effective in alerting them in a timely manner to material information required to be disclosed in the Company's periodic reports filed with the SEC. There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) during the fiscal quarter ended July 2, 2006 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal controls over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. Internal control over financial reporting is defined in Rules 13-a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act as a process designed by, or under the supervision of, the Company's principal executive and principal financial officers and effected by the Company's board of directors, management and other personnel to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and includes those policies and procedures that:

- o pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company;
- o provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorization of management and directors of the Company; and
- o provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management assessed the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of July 2, 2006. In making this assessment, management used the criteria established in "Internal Control-Integrated Framework," issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO).

Based on this assessment, management believes that, as of July 2, 2006 the Company's internal control over financial reporting is effective.

The Company acquired Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. on May 1, 2006, and has excluded the acquired company from its assessment of and conclusion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. For the year ended July 2, 2006, the acquired business accounted for 0.7% of the Company's total net revenue. As of July 2, 2006, the acquired business accounted for 8.4% of the Company's total assets, excluding $75.5 million of goodwill and other intangible asset amounts that were recorded in connection with the acquisition.

Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, has issued a report on management's assessment and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting, as of July 2, 2006; their report is included in Item 9A.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries

We have audited management's assessment, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting, that 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries (the "Company") maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of July 2, 2006, based on criteria established in Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (the COSO criteria). 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc.'s management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assessment and an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, evaluating management's assessment, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

As indicated in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting in Item 9A, management's assessment of and conclusion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting did not include the internal controls of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc., which are included in the Fiscal 2006 consolidated financial statements of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries and constituted 8.4% of total assets as of July 2, 2006, excluding $75.5 million of goodwill and other intangible asset amounts recorded in connection with these acquisitions, and 0.7% of revenues for the fiscal year then ended. Our audit of internal control over financial reporting of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries also did not include an evaluation of the internal control over financial reporting of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc.

In our opinion, management's assessment that 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of July 2, 2006, is fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the COSO criteria. Also, in our opinion, 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of July 2, 2006, based on the COSO criteria.

We have also audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheets of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries as of July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended July 2, 2006 and our report dated September 13, 2006 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholders of
1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries (the "Company") as of July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended July 2, 2006. Our audits also included the financial statement schedule listed in the index at Item 15(a). These financial statements and schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. and Subsidiaries at July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended July 2, 2006, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Also, in our opinion, the related financial statement schedule, when considered in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein.

As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment," as revised, effective July 4, 2005.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the effectiveness of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as of July 2, 2006, based on criteria established in Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission and our report dated September 13, 2006 expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Note 1. Description of Business

1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. ("1-800-FLOWERS.COM") is a leading gift retailer, providing a broad range of thoughtful gift products including flowers, plants, gourmet foods, cookies, cakes, candies, wine, gift baskets, and other unique gifts to our customers around the world. The 1-800-FLOWERS.COM family of brands also includes Plow & Hearth, a direct marketer of home decor and garden merchandise, GreatFood.com, a source for gourmet products, The Popcorn Factory, a manufacturer and direct marketer of premium popcorn and specialty food gifts, HearthSong and Magic Cabin, direct marketers of unique children's toys and games, The Winetasting Network, a distributor and direct-to-consumer wine marketer, Cheryl&Co., a manufacturer and direct marketer of premium cookies and baked gift items and Fannie May Confections Brands, a manufacturer, direct marketer and retailer of premium chocolates and confections. The Company operates in one business segment, providing its customers with convenient, multi-channel access via the Internet, telephone, catalogs and retail stores. During fiscal 2006, approximately 61% of total revenues were derived from floral and floral-related products.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year is a 52- or 53-week period ending on the Sunday nearest to June 30. Fiscal years 2006 and 2004, which ended on July 2, 2006 and June 27, 2004, respectively, consisted of 52 weeks, while fiscal 2005, which ended on July 3, 2005, consisted of 53 weeks.

Basis of Presentation

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of 1-800-FLOWERS.COM and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company"). All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Equivalents

Cash and equivalents consist of demand deposits with banks, highly liquid money market funds, United States government securities, overnight repurchase agreements and commercial paper with maturities of three months or less when purchased.

Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market using the first-in, first-out method of accounting.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment is recorded at cost reduced by accumulated depreciation. Depreciation expense is recognized over the assets' estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Amortization of leasehold improvements and capital leases are calculated using the straight-line method over the shorter of the lease terms, including renewal options expected to be exercised, or estimated useful lives of the improvements. Estimated useful lives are periodically reviewed, and where appropriate, changes are made prospectively. The Company's property plant and equipment is depreciated using the following estimated lives:

Buildings	40 years
Leasehold Improvements	3-10 years
Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment	3-10 years
Software	3-5 years

F-6

Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets

Goodwill and indefinite-lived intangibles are not amortized, but are evaluated annually in the Company's fiscal fourth quarter for impairment. To date, there has been no impairment of these assets.

The cost of intangible assets with determinable lives is amortized to reflect the pattern of economic benefits consumed, on a straight-line basis, over the estimated periods benefited, ranging from 3 to 16 years.

Deferred Catalog Costs

The Company capitalizes the costs of producing and distributing its catalogs. These costs are amortized in direct proportion with actual sales from the corresponding catalog over a period not to exceed 26-weeks. Included within other assets was $4.3 million and $3.7 million at July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, respectively, relating to prepaid catalog costs.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Investments

The Company considers all of its debt and equity securities, for which there is a determinable fair market value and no restrictions on the Company's ability to sell within the next 12 months, as available-for-sale. Available-for-sale securities are carried at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity. For the years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004, there were no significant unrealized gains or losses. Realized gains and losses are included in other income. The cost basis for realized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities is determined on a specific identification basis.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments

The recorded amounts of the Company's cash and equivalents, short-term investments, receivables, accounts payable, and accrued liabilities approximate their fair values principally because of the short-term nature of these items. The fair value of investments, including available-for-sale securities, is based on quoted market prices where available. The fair value of the Company's long-term obligations are estimated based on the current rates offered to the Company for obligations of similar terms and maturities. Under this method, the Company's fair value of long-term obligations was not significantly different than the carrying values at July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to significant concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and equivalents, investments and accounts receivable. The Company maintains cash and equivalents and investments with high credit, quality financial institutions. Concentration of credit risk with respect to accounts receivable are limited due to the Company's large number of customers and their dispersion throughout the United States, and the fact that a substantial portion of receivables are related to balances owed by major credit card companies. Allowances relating to consumer, corporate and franchise accounts receivable ($2.3 million and $1.5 million at July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, respectively) have been recorded based upon previous experience and management's evaluation.

Revenue Recognition

Net revenues are generated by online, telephonic and retail fulfillment operations and primarily consist of the selling price of merchandise, service or outbound shipping charges, less discounts, returns and credits. Net revenues are recognized upon product shipment. Shipping terms are FOB shipping point.

Cost of Revenues

Cost of revenues consists primarily of florist fulfillment costs (fees paid directly to florists), the cost of floral and non-floral merchandise sold from inventory or through third parties, and associated costs including inbound and outbound shipping charges. Additionally, cost of revenues includes labor and facility costs related to direct-to-consumer merchandise production operations.

Marketing and Sales

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Marketing and sales expense consists primarily of advertising and promotional expenditures, catalog costs, online portal and search expenses, retail store and fulfillment operations (other than costs included in cost of revenues), and customer service center expenses, as well as the operating expenses of the Company's departments engaged in marketing, selling and merchandising activities.

The Company expenses all advertising costs, with the exception of catalog costs (see Deferred Catalog Costs above) at the time the advertisement is first shown. Advertising expense was $127.4 million, $107.8 million and $91.1 million for the years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004, respectively.

Technology and Development

Technology and development expense consists primarily of payroll and operating expenses of the Company's information technology group, costs associated with its Web sites, including hosting, content development and maintenance and support costs related to the Company's order entry, customer service, fulfillment and database systems. Costs associated with the acquisition or development of software for internal use are capitalized if the software is expected to have a useful life beyond one year and amortized over the software's useful life, typically three years. Costs associated with repair, maintenance or the development of Web site content are expensed as incurred as the useful lives of such software modifications are less than one year.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company's employee stock based compensation plans are described more fully in Note 9. Prior to July 4, 2005, as permitted under SFAS No. 123, the Company accounted for its stock option plans following the recognition and measurement principles of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. Accordingly, no stock-based compensation had been reflected in net income for stock options, as all options granted had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant and the related number of shares granted was fixed at that point in time.

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment." This Statement revised SFAS No. 123 by eliminating the option to account for employee stock options under APB No. 25 and requires companies to recognize the cost of employee services received in exchange for awards of equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value of those awards (the "fair-value-based" method).

Effective July 4, 2005, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123(R) using the modified prospective application method. Under this transition method, compensation cost recognized on a straight-line basis during the year ended July 2, 2006 includes amounts of: (a) compensation cost of all stock-based payments granted prior to, but not yet vested as of, July 4, 2005 (based on grant-date fair value estimated in accordance with the original provisions of SFAS No. 123, and previously presented in the pro-forma footnote disclosures), and (b) compensation cost for all stock-based payments granted subsequent to July 3, 2005 (based on the grant-date fair value estimated in accordance with the new provision of SFAS No. 123(R)). In accordance with the modified prospective method, results for prior periods have not been restated. Prior to the Company's adoption of SFAS No. 123(R), benefits of tax deduction in excess of recognized compensation costs were reported as operating cash flows. SFAS No. 123(R) requires excess tax benefits be reported as a financing cash inflow rather than as a reduction of taxes paid. There were no significant excess tax benefits for the year ended July 2, 2006.

F-8

The following table summarizes the effect of adopting SFAS No. 123(R) as of July 4, 2005:

Compensation expense related to the amortization of restricted stock awards was recognized prior to the implementation of SFAS No. 123(R). Total stock based compensation expense, which includes both expense from stock options and restricted stock awards, totaled $4.3 million ($3.2 million, net of tax, or $0.05 per diluted share) during the year ended July 2, 2006.

Under the modified prospective application method, results for prior periods have not been restated to reflect the effects of implementing SFAS No. 123(R). The following pro-forma information, as required by SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure, an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123," is presented for comparative purposes and illustrates the effect on net income and net income per common share for the periods presented as if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123 to stock-based employee compensation prior to July 4, 2005:

F-9

- (1) During fiscal 2005, the Company accelerated the vesting of all unvested stock options awarded to employees and officers which had an exercise price greater than $10.00 per share. Options to purchase approximately 0.8 million shares became exercisable immediately as a result of the vesting acceleration. The Company sought to balance the benefit of eliminating the requirement to recognize compensation expense in future periods with the need to continue to motivate employee performance through previously issued, but currently unvested, stock option grants. With those factors being considered, management determined it to be appropriate to accelerate only those unvested stock options where the strike price was reasonably in excess of the Company's then current stock price.

The effect of the acceleration was an increase in pro-forma stock based employee compensation expense for the year ended July 3, 2005 of $3.0 million ($0.05 per basic and diluted share). The decision to accelerate the vesting of the identified stock options will reduce the Company's share-based compensation expense of approximately $2.1 million in fiscal 2006 and $0.9 million in fiscal 2007.

- (2) During fiscal 2004, FAS 123 stock based compensation is net of the income tax benefit of $6.1 million, associated with the removal of the valuation allowance on deferred tax assets arising from employee stock option exercises.

Comprehensive Income

For the years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004, the Company's comprehensive income was equal to the respective net income for each of the periods presented.

Net Income Per Share

Basic net income per common share is computed using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share is computed using the weighted-average number of common and dilutive common equivalent shares (consisting primarily of employee stock options and restricted stock awards) outstanding during the period.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 applies to all tax positions accounted for under SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" and defines the confidence level that a tax position must meet in order to be recognized in the financial statements. The interpretation requires that the tax effects of a position be recognized only if it is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained by the taxing authority as of the reporting date. If a tax position is not considered "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained then no benefits of the position are to be recognized. FIN 48 requires additional disclosures and is effective as of the beginning of the first fiscal year beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of FIN 48 will have on its consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

Reclassifications

Certain balances in the prior fiscal years have been reclassified to conform with the presentation in the current fiscal year.

Note (1): Effective July 4, 2005, the Company adopted the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123(R) using the modified prospective application method. The impact of the adoption, which reduced net income per common share for the fiscal year ended July 2, 2006 by $0.05 is described in further detail in Note 2.

Note (2): During the fiscal year ended June 27, 2004, the Company recorded an income tax benefit of $19.2 million ($0.28 per diluted share) due to the removal of the Company's valuation allowance on its deferred tax assets which consisted primarily of net operating loss carry forwards.

Note (3): The effect of options to purchase 5.9 million, 3.8 million and 3.5 million shares for the years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004, respectively were excluded from the calculation of net income per share on a diluted basis as their effect is anti-dilutive.

Note 4. Acquisitions

The Company accounts for its business combinations in accordance with SFAS No. 141, "Business Combinations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for business combinations and requires that all such transactions be accounted for using the purchase method. Under the purchase method of accounting for business combinations, the aggregate purchase price for the acquired business is allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values at the acquisition date.

Acquisition of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc.

On May 1, 2006, the Company acquired all of the outstanding common stock of Fannie May Confections Brands, Inc. (hereafter referred to as "Fannie May Confections Brands"), a manufacturer and multi-channel retailer and wholesaler of premium chocolate and other confections under the well-known Fannie May, Harry London and Fanny Farmer brands. The acquisition, for a purchase price of approximately $91.9 million in cash, including estimated working capital adjustments and transaction costs, includes a modern 200,000-square foot manufacturing facility in North Canton, Ohio and 52 Fannie May retail stores in the Chicago area, where the chocolate brand has been a tradition since 1920. The purchase price is subject to "earn-out" incentives which amount to a maximum of $4.5 million during the year ending July 1, 2007 and $1.5 million during the year ending June 29, 2008, upon achievement of specified earnings targets. Fannie May Confections Brands generated revenues of approximately $75.0 million in its most recent fiscal year ended April 30, 2006.

F-11

As described further under "Long-Term Debt," in order to finance the acquisition, on May 1, 2006, the Company entered into a $135.0 million secured credit facility with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and a group of lenders (the "2006 Credit Facility"). The 2006 Credit Facility includes an $85.0 million term loan and a $50.0 million revolving facility, which bear interest at LIBOR plus 0.625% to 1.125%, with pricing based upon the Company's leverage ratio. At closing, the Company borrowed $85.0 million of the term facility to acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Fannie May Confections Brands.

Acquisition of Wind & Weather

On October 31, 2005, the Company acquired all of the outstanding common stock of Wind & Weather, a Fort Bragg, California based direct marketer of weather-themed gifts, with annual revenues of approximately $14.4 million during its then most recently completed fiscal year ended March 31, 2005. The purchase price of approximately $5.2 million, including acquisition costs, was funded utilizing the Company's line of credit which was repaid during the Company's second quarter utilizing cash generated from operations, and excludes the assumption of Wind & Weather's $1.2 million balance on its seasonal working capital line. The

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Company has since relocated the operations of Wind & Weather to its Madison, Virginia facility, and terminated operations in California.

The Company is in the process of obtaining independent appraisals for the purpose of allocating the purchase price to individual assets acquired and liabilities assumed as a result of the acquisition of Fannie May Confections Brands. This will result in potential adjustments to the carrying value of Fannie May Confections Brands recorded assets and liabilities, the establishment of certain additional intangible assets, revisions of useful lives of intangible assets, some of which will have indefinite lives not subject to amortization, and the determination of any residual amount that will be allocated to goodwill. The preliminary allocation of the purchase price included in the current period balance sheet is based on the best estimates of management and is subject to revision based on final determination of asset fair values and useful lives. The following table summarizes the allocation of purchase price to the estimated fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisitions of Fannie May Confections Brands and Wind & Weather:

Acquisition of Cheryl & Co.

On March 28, 2005, the Company acquired all of the outstanding common stock of Cheryl & Co., a Westerville, Ohio-based manufacturer and direct marketer of premium cookies and related baked gift items, with annual revenues of approximately $33 million during its then most recent year ended January 29, 2005. The purchase price of approximately $41.1 million, including acquisition costs, was funded utilizing the Company's available cash and investment balance, and included $6.3 million used to retire Cheryl & Co.'s outstanding debt.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Acquisition of The Winetasting Network

On November 15, 2004, the Company acquired all of the outstanding common stock of The Winetasting Network, a Napa, California based distributor and direct-to-consumer wine marketer. The purchase price of approximately $9.7 million, including acquisition costs was funded utilizing the Company's available cash and investment balance and included $2.4 million used to retire The Winetasting Network's long-term debt.

(1) Term loan and revolving credit line - In order to finance the acquisition of Fannie May Confections Brands, on May 1, 2006, the Company entered into a $135.0 million secured credit facility with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and a group of lenders (the "2006 Credit Facility"). The 2006 Credit Facility includes an $85.0 million term loan and a $50.0 million revolving facility, which bear interest at LIBOR (5.33%) plus 0.625% to 1.125%, with pricing based upon the Company's leverage ratio (5.96% at July 2, 2006). At closing, the Company borrowed $85.0 million of the term facility to acquire all of the outstanding capital stock of Fannie May Confections Brands. The Company is required to pay the outstanding term loan in escalating quarterly installments, with the final installment payment due on May 1, 2012. The 2006 Credit Facility contains various conditions to borrowing, and affirmative and negative financial covenants. Concurrent with the establishment of the 2006 Credit Facility, the Company's previous $25.0 million revolving credit facilities were terminated. The obligations of the Company and its subsidiaries under the 2006 Credit Facility are secured by liens on all personal property of the Company and its subsidiaries. No amounts were outstanding under the revolving credit facility at July 2, 2006.

(2) Commercial note - Bank note relating to obligations arising from, and collateralized by, the underlying assets of the Company's Plow & Hearth facility in Madison, Virginia. The note, dated June 27, 2003, in the amount of $6.6 million, bears interest at 5.44% per annum, and

At June 27, 2004, management of the Company reassessed the valuation allowance previously established against its net deferred income tax assets. Based on the Company's earnings history and projected future taxable income, management determined that it is more likely than not that the deferred income tax assets would be realized. Accordingly, the Company removed the valuation allowance of approximately $30.0 million from its deferred income tax assets resulting in the recognition of an income tax benefit of approximately $20.8 million, a reduction of goodwill of approximately $3.1 million, related to the acquired net operating losses of GreatFood.com, and an increase in additional paid-in-capital of approximately $6.1 million related to income tax benefits associated with employee stock option exercises.

At July 2, 2006, the Company's federal and state net operating loss carryforwards were approximately $63.4 million, which, if not utilized, will begin to expire in fiscal year 2020.

Note 10. Capital Stock

Holders of Class A common stock generally have the same rights as the holders of Class B common stock, except that holders of Class A common stock have one vote per share and holders of Class B common stock have 10 votes per share on all matters submitted to the vote of stockholders. Holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock generally vote together as a single class on all matters presented to the stockholders for their vote or approval, except as may be required by Delaware law. Class B common stock may be converted into Class A common stock at any time on a one-for-one share basis. Each share of Class B common stock will automatically convert into one share of Class A common stock upon its transfer, with limited exceptions.

On May 12, 2005, the Company's Board of Directors increased the Company's authorization to repurchase the Company's Class A common stock up to $20 million, from the previous authorized limit of $10 million. Any such purchases could be made from time to time in the open market and through privately negotiated transactions, subject to general market conditions. The repurchase program will be financed utilizing available cash. As of July 2, 2006, the Company had repurchased 1,510,050 shares of common stock for $11.1 million, $1.3 million (182,000 shares) of which was repurchased during the fiscal year ending July 2, 2006, and $9.8 million (1,328,050 shares) was repurchased during the fiscal year ending July 3, 2005.

Note 11. Stock Based Compensation

In December 2003, the Company's Board of Directors and shareholders approved the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM 2003 Long Term Incentive and Share Award Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan is a broad-based, long-term incentive program that is intended to attract, retain and motivate employees, consultants and directors to achieve the Company's long-term growth and profitability objectives, and therefore align stockholder and employee interests. The Plan provides for the grant to eligible employees, consultants and directors of stock options, share appreciation rights ("SARs"), restricted shares, restricted share units, performance shares, performance units, dividend equivalents, and other share-based awards (collectively "Awards"). The Plan reserves 7,500,000 shares of Common Stock, which is approximately the amount of shares which had been previously available for issuance under the Company's 1999 Stock Incentive Plan. No further awards will be issued under the 1999 Stock Incentive Plan. During a calendar year i) the maximum number of shares with respect to which options and SARs may be granted to an eligible participant under the Plan will be 1,000,000 shares, and ii) the maximum number of shares with respect to which Awards intended to qualify as performance-based compensation other than options and SARs may be granted to an eligible participant under the Plan will be 500,000 shares.

The Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee or such other Board committee (or the entire Board) as may be designated by the Board (the "Committee"). Unless otherwise determined by the Board, the Committee will consist of two or more members of the Board who are non-employee directors within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and "outside directors" within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Committee will determine which eligible employees, consultants and directors receive awards, the types of awards to be received and the terms and conditions thereof. The Chief Executive Officer shall have the power and authority to make Awards under the Plan to employees and consultants not subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, subject to limitations imposed by the Committee.

At July 2, 2006, the Company has reserved approximately 15.1 million shares of common stock for issuance, including options previously authorized for issuance under the 1999 Stock Incentive Plan.

Stock Options Plans

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

The weighted average fair value of stock options on the date of grant, and the assumptions used to estimate the fair value of the stock options using the Black-Scholes option valuation model, were as follows:

	Years ended
	July 2, 2006	July 3, 2005	June 2
Weighted average fair value of options granted	$3.16	$4.44	$
Expected volatility	46%	61%
Expected life (in years)	5.3	5.0
Risk-free interest rate	4.6%	3.8%
Expected dividend yield	0.0%	0.0%

The expected volatility of the option is determined using historical volatilities based on historical stock prices. The expected life of options granted in fiscal 2005 was based on the Company's historical share option exercise experience. Due to minimal exercising of stock options, in fiscal 2006, the Company estimated the expected life of options granted to be the average of the Company's historical expected term from vest date and the midpoint between the average vesting term and the contractual term. The risk-free interest rate is determined using the yield available for zero-coupon U.S. government issues with a remaining term equal to the expected life of the option. The Company has never paid a dividend, and as such the dividend yield is 0.0%.

The following table summarizes stock option activity during the year ended July 2, 2006:

	Options	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term
Outstanding at July 3, 2005	9,477,461	$8.35
Granted	1,312,500	$6.65
Exercised	(124,162)	$4.50
Forfeited/Expired	(562,308)	$9.90
Outstanding at July 2, 2006	10,103,491	$8.09	5.8 years
Options vested or expected to vest at July 2, 2006	9,850,505	$8.12	0.5 years
Exercisable at July 2, 2006	6,480,678	$8.74	4.7 years

The aggregate intrinsic value in the table above represents the total pre-tax intrinsic value (the difference between the company's closing stock price on the last trading day of fiscal 2006 and the exercise price, multiplied by the number of in-the-money options) that would have been received by the option holders had all option holders exercised their options on July 2, 2006. This amount changes based on the fair market value of the company's stock. The total intrinsic value of options exercised for the year ended July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005 was $0.3 million and $0.7 million, respectively.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

The following table summarizes information about stock options outstanding at July 2, 2006:

	10,103,491	5.8 years	$8.09	6,480,678	$8.73

As of July 2, 2006, the total future compensation cost related to nonvested options not yet recognized in the statement of income was $7.2 million and the weighted average period over which these awards are expected to be recognized was 1.5 years.

The Company grants shares of Common Stock to its employees that are subject to restrictions on transfer and risk of forfeiture until fulfillment of applicable service conditions and, in certain cases, holding periods (Restricted Stock). In fiscal 2005, the Company recorded the grant date fair value of unvested shares of Restricted Stock as unearned stock-based compensation ("Deferred Compensation"). In accordance with SFAS No. 123(R), in fiscal 2006, the Company reclassified the balance of Deferred Compensation against additional paid-in capital, and reduced its shares of Class A Common Stock issued accordingly.

The following table summarizes the activity of non-vested restricted stock during the year ended July 2, 2006:

	Shares	Weighted Average Grant Date Fair Value
Non-vested at July 3, 2005	155,919	$8.39
Granted	168,399	$6.59
Vested	(9,500)	$7.09
Forfeited	(21,137)	$9.23

Non-vested at April 2, 2006	293,681	$7.44

The fair value of nonvested shares is determined based on the closing stock price on the grant date. As of July 2, 2006, there was $1.2 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to non-vested restricted stock-based compensation to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 2.5 years.

Edgar Filing: 1 800 FLOWERS COM INC - Form 10-K

Note 12. Employee Stock Purchase Plan

In December 2000, the Company's Board of Director's approved the 1-800-FLOWERS.COM, Inc. 2001 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP), a non-compensatory employee stock purchase plan under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code, to provide substantially all employees who have completed six months of service, an opportunity to purchase shares of the Company's Class A common stock. Employees may contribute a maximum of 15% of eligible compensation, but in no event can an employee purchase more than 500 shares on any purchase date. Offering periods have a duration of six months, and the purchase price per share will be the lower of: (i) 85% of the fair market value of a share of Class A common stock on the last trading day of the applicable offering period, or (ii) 85% of the fair market value of a share of Class A common stock on the last trading day before the commencement of the offering period. The ESPP was terminated effective as of June 30, 2005.

F-19

Note 13. Profit Sharing Plan

The Company has a 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan covering substantially all of its eligible employees. All full-time employees who have attained the age of 21 are eligible to participate upon completion of one year of service. Participants may elect to make voluntary contributions to the 401(k) plan in amounts not exceeding federal guidelines. On an annual basis the Company, as determined by its board of directors, may make certain discretionary contributions. Employees are vested in the Company's contributions based upon years of service. The Company made contributions of $0.4 million, $0.3 million, and $0.3 million, for the years ended July 2, 2006, July 3, 2005 and June 27, 2004, respectively.

Note 14. Commitments and Contingencies

Leases

The Company currently leases office, store facilities, and equipment under various operating leases through fiscal 2019. As these leases expire, it can be expected that in the normal course of business they will be renewed or replaced. Most lease agreements contain renewal options and rent escalation clauses and require the Company to pay real estate taxes, insurance, common area maintenance and operating expenses applicable to the leased properties. The Company has also entered into leases that are on a month-to-month basis. All leases and subleases with an initial term of greater than one year are accounted for under SFAS No. 13, Accounting for Leases. These leases are classified as either capital leases, operating leases or subleases, as appropriate.

The Company leases certain computer, telecommunication and related equipment under capital leases, which are included in property and equipment with a capitalized cost of approximately $18.0 million and $17.9 million at July 2, 2006 and July 3, 2005, respectively, and accumulated amortization of $17.9 million and $17.1 million, respectively. In addition, the Company subleases land and buildings (which are leased from third parties) to certain of its franchisees. Certain of the leases, other than land leases which have been classified as operating leases, are classified as capital leases and have initial lease terms of approximately 20 years (including option periods in some cases).

During fiscal 2001, the Company entered into a $5.0 million equipment lease line of credit with a bank. Interest under this line, which is renewable annually, is determined on the date of each commitment to borrow and is based on the bank's base rate on such date. At July 2, 2006, approximately $0.3 million is outstanding, and no further borrowings are permitted under this lease line unless it is renewed by the Company and the lending bank. The borrowings, which bear interest at rates ranging from 5.39% to 6.36% annually, are payable in 60 monthly installments of principal and interest commencing in February 2001. Borrowings under the line are collateralized by the underlying equipment purchased and an equal amount of pledged investments.

As of July 2, 2006, future minimum payments under non-cancelable capital lease obligations and operating leases with initial terms of one year or more consist of the following:

Litigation

There are various claims, lawsuits, and pending actions against the Company and its subsidiaries incident to the operations of its businesses. It is the opinion of management, after consultation with counsel, that the ultimate resolution of such claims, lawsuits and pending actions will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or liquidity.
