Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed on February 1, 2010, Seagate Technology (Seagate or the Company) has decided to move its place of incorporation from the Cayman Islands to Ireland pursuant to a scheme of arrangement (the Scheme of Arrangement) under Cayman Islands law, which, upon effectiveness, will result in a newly formed Irish public limited company serving as the publicly traded parent of the Seagate group of companies. In this Current Report on Form 8-K, we refer to the transactions to be effected pursuant to the Scheme of Arrangement and the related transactions as the Transaction.

In connection with the Transaction, Seagate Technology International (STI) solicited consents (the Consent Solicitation) from the holders (the Holders) of its 10.00% Senior Secured Second-Priority Notes due 2014 (the Notes) to certain amendments (the Proposed Amendments) for the Indenture, dated as of May 1, 2009 (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, the Indenture), among STI, the Company, the other guarantors party thereto and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (the Trustee), pursuant to which the Notes were issued. STI required consents from Holders representing not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding to adopt the Proposed Amendments. The Consent Solicitation expired on March 18, 2010. STI has received the requisite number of consents from Holders to adopt the Proposed Amendments.

Third Supplemental Indenture

On March 19, 2010, STI entered into the Third Supplemental Indenture with Seagate, the other guarantors party thereto and the Trustee (the Third Supplemental Indenture).

Pursuant to the Third Supplemental Indenture, (i) Seagate Technology was deleted from the definition of Company under the Indenture (except in the case of certain limited exceptions), (ii) Seagate Technology plc (Seagate Ireland) was added to the definition of Company under the Indenture (except in the case of certain limited exceptions), (iii) Seagate Technology was added to the definition of Guarantor under the Indenture and (iv) certain other changes were made to the definition of Change of Control under the Indenture. In addition, the exception to the Indenture's restriction on consolidations, mergers or sales of assets was amended to provide that Seagate Ireland and STI may enter into such transactions with any Person (as defined in the Indenture) if (i) either (a) Seagate Ireland or STI (as applicable) is the continuing Person or (b) the resulting, surviving or transferee Person is a validly existing corporation organized (or incorporated) in Ireland (in the case of Seagate Ireland), the Cayman Islands or the United States or any jurisdiction thereof and (ii) certain other conditions are met.

The Third Supplemental Indenture shall become effective upon (i) the cash fee being paid to all Holders that delivered valid consents on a timely basis relating to the Proposed Amendments and (ii) the Transaction occurring.

The description of the Third Supplemental Indenture contained herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Third Supplemental Indenture, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
