SCHEDULE 14C INFORMATION STATEMENT

(Pursuant to Regulation 14C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended)

November 18, 2011

Dear Stockholder:

On August 25, 2011, Cycle Country Accessories Corp., a Nevada corporation (the Company), and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Cycle Country Accessories Corporation, an Iowa corporation (the Subsidiary and, together with the Company, the Sellers or we, our, or us), entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) for the sale (the Asset Sale) to Kolpin Outdoors, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation (the Buyer), of certain of the assets of the Company and the Subsidiary, which consists of assets related to its business of designing, manufacturing and selling aftermarket accessories for all-terrain vehicles and utility vehicles under the Cycle Country brand name (the Product Line), for an aggregate purchase price of $8,200,000, subject to certain adjustments and contingencies set forth in the Purchase Agreement and described more fully in this Information Statement.

Immediately following the closing of the Asset Sale and as required by the Purchase Agreement, the Company will file an amendment to its Articles of Incorporation to change its name to ATC Group Inc. A copy of the Purchase Agreement is attached as Annex A to this Information Statement.

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors of each of the Company and the Subsidiary have unanimously determined that the Asset Sale is advisable, expedient and in the best interest of the Subsidiary and the Company and the stockholders of the Company. On November 18, 2011, stockholders of the Company holding approximately 50.576% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the Common Stock), by written consent approved the Purchase Agreement and the Asset Sale. Action by written consent is sufficient to adopt the Purchase Agreement and approve the Asset Sale without any further action or vote of the stockholders of the Company. In accordance with Nevada law and the Company's Articles of Incorporation and its Amended and Restated Bylaws, you do not have appraisal or dissenters rights in connection with the Asset Sale.

This Information Statement is being provided to you for your information to comply with the requirements of Regulation 14C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). You are urged to read this entire Information Statement carefully. However, no action is required on your part in connection with the Purchase Agreement or the Asset Sale. This Information Statement is provided to the stockholders of the Company as of November 18, 2011 (the Record Date) only for informational purposes in accordance with Rule 14c-2 of the Exchange Act.

The Company intends to mail this Information Statement to its stockholders on or about November 18, 2011. Under Rule 14c-2(b) of the Exchange Act, the Asset Sale may be consummated no earlier than 20 calendar days after we have mailed the Information Statement to our stockholders. We anticipate that the closing of the Asset Sale will take place as soon as practicable after satisfaction of each of the closing conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, but, in any event, under applicable rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), no earlier than 20 calendar days after the mailing of this Information Statement.

Following the Asset Sale, the Company will retain the net proceeds of the Asset Sale and will continue to operate the Company's PlazCo, Imdyne, and Perf-Form businesses (collectively, the Retained Business). The Company also expects to manufacture the Cycle Country Product Line products for the Buyer following the closing until at least March 31, 2012. The Company will continue to exist, and its Common Stock will continue to be traded. It is the Board's intention to seek growth through the Retained Business, as well as through potential acquisitions or similar business combinations with other companies unrelated to the Product Line.

Sincerely,

/s/ Robert Davis

ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND ASSET SALE

SUMMARY TERM SHEET

This summary term sheet is intended to give you a brief description of the Asset Sale. This summary term sheet is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed information furnished elsewhere in this Information Statement and in the Purchase Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this Information Statement. We urge you to review this Information Statement and the Purchase Agreement to gain a more complete understanding of these transactions.

Overview of the Asset Sale

On August 26, 2011, we entered into the Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which the Company and the Subsidiary agreed to sell, and the Buyer agreed to purchase, substantially all of the assets of the Company and the Subsidiary relating to the Product Line, which assets constitute most of the Subsidiary's operating business. Such assets include, but are not limited to, the intellectual property related to the Product Line, tooling and fixtures used in the manufacture of the Product Line, customer lists, inventories and fixed assets (collectively, the Acquired Assets). The Acquired Assets exclude certain assets held by the Subsidiary, including cash, accounts receivable, the Company's manufacturing plant and associated real property in Spencer, Iowa, assets not related to the Product Line, and certain liquidation inventory. The Company will continue to operate the Retained Business. The Company also expects to manufacture the Cycle Country Product Line products for the Buyer following the closing until at least March 31, 2012.

To fully understand the Asset Sale, you should read this Information Statement and the Purchase Agreement completely. The Purchase Agreement constitutes the legal document that governs the Asset Sale and is attached as Annex A to this Information Statement. For a more complete description of the terms of the Purchase Agreement and the details of the transaction with the Buyer, please see the discussion below entitled THE ASSET SALE and THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

Purchase Price

The purchase price for the Assets is $8,200,000 (the Purchase Price), subject to certain adjustments. At the closing of the Asset Sale (the Closing), the Buyer will pay $3,200,000 to the Company in cash. An additional $1,000,000 is scheduled to be paid to the Company in two equal installments after the Closing (collectively, the Deferred Payments) as follows: the first payment of $500,000 is due on April 1, 2012; and the second payment of $500,000 is due on April 1, 2013; in each case subject to the Buyer's right to offset certain claims against such amount. Please see the discussion below entitled Ancillary Agreements Setoff Agreement. The Purchase Price is subject to adjustment, upwards or downwards, on a dollar-for-dollar basis to the extent that the value of the inventory included in the Asset Sale at the Closing (the Inventory) is greater than or less than $1,000,000. In addition, the Purchase Price is subject to reduction, on a 52 cent-per-dollar basis to the extent that the value of all Product Line products shipped from Seller between April 1, 2011 and December 31, 2011 is less than $8,000,000.

Edgar Filing: CYCLE COUNTRY ACCESSORIES CORP - Form DEFM14C

The balance of the Purchase Price of $4,000,000 is contingent (collectively, the Contingent Payments) and such amount represents the maximum amount the Company may receive under a contingent earn-out provision set forth in the Purchase Agreement. If the Buyer achieves certain net sales targets for two one-year periods specified in the Purchase Agreement, thereafter the Sellers will receive a percentage of the net sales generated until the maximum for each such period is reached. The maximum Contingent Payments that the Sellers can be paid under this provision is $4,000,000. Since the Contingent Payments are dependent on the Buyer's net sales for each applicable period, there can be no certainty how much, if any, of the Contingent Payments will be received by the Sellers. Contingent Payments are also subject to the Buyer's right to offset certain claims against such amount. Please see the discussion below entitled Ancillary Agreements Setoff Agreement .

To secure the Deferred Payments, the Buyer has agreed to deliver a guaranty by FCF Partners, LP, the private equity group that is the majority owner of the Buyer, for the Deferred Payments that make up the $1,000,000 due to the Company after the Closing. The Contingent Payments are not secured.

Closing

The Closing of the Asset Sale is expected to occur on December 30, 2011, subject to the satisfaction of each of the closing conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, but, in any event, under applicable rules of the SEC, no earlier than 20 calendar days after the mailing of this Information Statement to stockholders.

Material Terms of the Purchase Agreement

The Purchase Agreement sets forth the various rights and obligations of the Company, the Subsidiary and the Buyer. The Purchase Agreement also contains various representations and warranties by both the Company and the Subsidiary, on the one hand, and the Buyer, on the other hand, and other covenants and agreements including covenants and agreements concerning the conduct of the business of the Subsidiary prior to the consummation of the Asset Sale, the agreement of the Company not to solicit other purchasers before the Closing, and agreements concerning confidentiality.

Table of Contents

The Closing of the Asset Sale is subject to certain conditions, including that:

- the Company and the Subsidiary comply with their obligations under the Purchase Agreement;
- the Buyer receives the consent of its lender to the acquisition of the Product Line and confirmation that the Acquired Assets will be added to its eligible borrowing base under the Buyer's loan agreement; and
- the Buyer is satisfied with its due diligence review of the properties, books and records relating to the Product Line.

In the Purchase Agreement, the Company has made a number of agreements that will apply after the Closing of the Asset Sale. The Company, for itself and its affiliates, has agreed not to compete with the Product Line, for a period of five years in the United States or any country in which the Buyer is then conducting business. The Company also may not solicit the Buyer's employees for a period of two years after Closing. The Company also has agreed to certain confidentiality provisions.

The Buyer has agreed to operate the Product Line business in a manner consistent with the Sellers' historic business practices and will not take any actions intentionally designed to reduce the Contingent Payments. The Buyer also has agreed to administer warranty claims and perform warranty repairs for products sold prior to Closing subject to the Buyer's rights under the Setoff Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement contains indemnification obligations from the Company and the Subsidiary in favor of the Buyer, including reimbursement to the Buyer in the event the Buyer is harmed by a breach of the covenants or representations and warranties made by the Company and the Subsidiary in the Purchase Agreement. Most of the Company's and the Subsidiary's indemnity obligations survive for claims brought by the Buyer within eighteen (18) months of the Closing of the Asset Sale (except certain representations, which survive indefinitely or for the applicable statute of limitations), and the indemnity obligation is subject to a cap of $2,500,000.

Please see the discussion below entitled "ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT".

Ancillary Agreements

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company will be entering into the agreements listed below.

Master Supply Agreement

Edgar Filing: CYCLE COUNTRY ACCESSORIES CORP - Form DEFM14C

At the Closing, the Company and the Buyer will enter into a Master Supply Agreement (the Supply Agreement) pursuant to which the Buyer will grant the Company the exclusive right to manufacture for the Buyer the products set forth in the Supply Agreement (the Supplied Products) at the prices set forth in the Supply Agreement, and the Buyer will be obligated to purchase all of its requirements for such Supplied Products from the Company, subject to the conditions set forth in the Supply Agreement. The Supply Agreement will continue in effect until March 31, 2012, unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms. Please see the discussion below entitled Ancillary Agreements Master Supply Agreement .

Setoff Agreement

At the Closing, the Company, the Buyer and the Subsidiary will enter into a Setoff Agreement (the Setoff Agreement) pursuant to which the Buyer may setoff against the Deferred Payments and/or Contingent Payments due to the Company certain damages that may be incurred by the Buyer. In particular, if the Company breaches its warranty obligations under the Supply Agreement or if the Buyer is required to pay or honor a rebate, discount or marketing program offered by the Company prior to the Closing but redeemed by the customer after the Closing, the Buyer may setoff the damages incurred by the Buyer by deducting the applicable amount from the Deferred Payments and/or the Contingent Payments remaining due. Regardless of whether the Buyer sustains any actual damages in connection with any pre-closing warranty claims or any actual damages in excess of $50,000, the Buyer may setoff the amount of $50,000 against the Deferred Payments. Please see the discussion below entitled Ancillary Agreements Setoff Agreement .

Warehouse and Transition Services Agreement

At the Closing, the Company and the Buyer shall enter into a Warehouse and Transition Services Agreement (the Warehouse Agreement) pursuant to which the Buyer will engage the Company to provide certain warehousing, management and shipping services in exchange for the compensation set forth in the Warehouse Agreement. The Warehouse Agreement will continue in effect until March 31, 2012, unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms. Please see the discussion below entitled Ancillary Agreements Warehouse and Transition Services Agreement .

Guaranty Agreement

At the Closing, the Company, the Subsidiary and FCF Partners, LP, a Delaware limited partnership and the private equity group that is the majority owner of the Buyer (the Guarantor), will enter into a Guaranty Agreement (the Guaranty) pursuant to which the Guarantor will guarantee the timely, complete and full payment and performance of the Deferred Payments due to the Company as part of the Purchase Price, and all reasonable fees, costs and expenses paid or incurred by either Seller in attempting to collect or enforce the Guaranty. Please see the discussion below entitled Ancillary Agreements Guaranty Agreement .

In connection with the entering into the Purchase Agreement, the Company also entered into certain agreements at the same time that it entered into the Purchase Agreement, including the following:

Sub-License Agreement

On August 26, 2011, the Company and the Buyer entered into side letter agreement (the Sub-License Agreement) pursuant to which the Company sub-licensed to the Buyer the Company's rights to manufacture and sell the - X-Factor and Dix-C product line of the Company (collectively, the Licensed Products), which rights the Company obtained under a License Agreement between the Company and Curt Hill, dated as of April 1, 2011 (the License Agreement). Under the Sub-License Agreement, the Company granted the Buyer a worldwide, non-transferable, royalty-free (except as provided below) sub-license to market and sell the Licensed Products under the Buyer's brand name. The term of the Sub-License Agreement is equal to the term of the License Agreement, but will automatically terminate upon the completion of the Closing. Please see the discussion below entitled Ancillary Agreements Sub-License Agreement .

No Fairness Opinion

The Board has not sought a written opinion from any financial advisor as to the fairness of the purchase price to be received by the Company in the Asset Sale. As discussed in The Asset Sale Background of the Asset Sale below, the Company received multiple offers for the Company's product line and fabrication capabilities. The Board decided not to obtain a fairness opinion because it believed, in light of these multiple competitive offers, it had received the best offer available for these assets. In addition, in light of the size of the transaction, the Board believed the cost of an opinion was prohibitive and outweighed the potential benefit of a fairness opinion.

Use of Proceeds from the Asset Sale

Following the Asset Sale, the Company will retain the net proceeds of the Asset Sale, and the Company will continue to operate the Retained Business. The Company also expects to manufacture the Cycle Country Product Line products for the Buyer following the Closing until at least March 31, 2012. The net proceeds will be used to repay the Company's outstanding line of credit and satisfy certain other obligations of the Company. However, the Company will continue to exist as an operating company, with the operations of the Retained Business. The Company's Common Stock will continue to be traded. It is the Board's intention to seek growth through the Retained Business, as well as through potential acquisitions or similar business combinations with other companies unrelated to the Product Line.

Reasons for the Asset Sale

The Board approved the Asset Sale because it believed that it was the strategic alternative most likely to maximize value for the stockholders of the Company.

In reaching its conclusion to approve the Asset Sale, the Board reviewed and considered the Company's current condition and future prospects, including its financial condition, results of operations, anticipated capital expenditures and capital structure, the value of the Company's assets, the Company's likely earning potential and other strategic alternatives for the Company, including the risks associated with these alternatives. After considering these factors and alternatives, the Board determined that the Asset Sale was advisable and in the best interests of the Company, its stockholders and creditors, and that the Company should proceed with the Asset Sale. For a more complete description of the history preceding the Board's decision to approve the Asset Sale, please see the discussion below entitled "THE ASSET SALE - Background of the Asset Sale".

Appraisal Rights

Under Nevada Law, which governs the Company and the rights of the Company's stockholders, stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights or other rights to demand fair value for their shares of stock as a result of the Asset Sale.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

As described in the discussion below entitled "THE ASSET SALE - Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences", and subject to the limitations and qualifications therein, the consolidated group, consisting of the Company and the Subsidiary, will recognize a gain or loss on the disposition of each of the Company's and the Subsidiary's assets pursuant to the Asset Sale. The amount of such gain or loss will be equal to the difference between the portion of the total purchase price allocable to each such asset and the Company's and the Subsidiary's adjusted tax basis in each asset. Any gain recognized by the consolidated group from the Asset Sale generally may be offset by other tax attributes of the consolidated group, such as consolidated net operating losses and/or tax credits to the extent they are available and allowed under the U.S. federal income tax laws.

Risk Factors

The Asset Sale involves a number of risks. You should read and carefully consider the information about such risks set forth the discussion below entitled "THE ASSET SALE - Background of the Asset Sale". Since the Purchase Agreement contains certain conditions to the obligations of the Buyer to consummate the Asset Sale, if any of those conditions should not be met, the Buyer would have the ability to terminate the Purchase Agreement and not purchase the Product Line. One of the conditions is a due diligence out, which permits the Buyer to terminate the Purchase Agreement if it is not satisfied in its reasonable discretion as to the results of its due diligence examination, or if it is not satisfied in its reasonable discretion that the representations and warranties made by the Sellers regarding the performance, condition, and prospects of the Product Line business are true and accurate and have been materially substantiated by the Buyer prior to Closing. Further, the Buyer has a financing contingency out, which permits the Buyer to terminate the Purchase Agreement if it has not received its lender's consent to the acquisition of the Acquired Assets and received confirmation from its lender that the Acquired Assets will be eligible as eligible borrowing base assets under the Buyer's loan agreement with such lender.

Voting Agreement; Written Action of Majority Stockholders

Pursuant to a Voting Agreement, dated August 26, 2011, by and among the Company, the Buyer and certain stockholders who beneficially own and have the right to vote an aggregate of 50.576 % of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, such stockholders have agreed to vote in favor of the Asset Sale pursuant to the Purchase Agreement. Thus, the Company currently has sufficient stockholder support to approve the Asset Sale.

THE ASSET SALE

General

On August 24, 2011, the Board approved the Asset Sale and adopted the Purchase Agreement, subject to obtaining stockholder approval.

The full text of the Purchase Agreement is set forth in Annex A attached to this Information Statement.

Contact Information of Each Party to the Purchase Agreement

The Company's and the Subsidiary's principal executive offices are located at 21701 38th Avenue West, Spencer, IA 51301. The Company's telephone number is (712) 262-4191.

The Buyer's principal executive offices are located at 205 N. Depot Street, Fox Lake, WI 53933. Buyer's telephone number is (920) 928-3118.

Business Conducted by the Parties to the Purchase Agreement

The Company was formed in 1981, and over the past thirty years has become a leading innovator, marketer and manufacturer in the category of aftermarket accessories for ATV's and UTV's sold exclusively through the Powersports distribution channel.

The Buyer was formed in 1943 and is a leading innovator and marketer of aftermarket accessories for ATVs and UTV's primarily sold to various Powersports channels.

Background of the Asset Sale

As part of its regular evaluation of our business, our Board regularly considers opportunities for business combinations, strategic transactions, and financing transactions in order to enhance shareholder value. In the late Spring of 2011, we were approached by the Buyer during an unrelated meeting regarding licensing of products, and they expressed an interest in having a discussion about a potential transaction. We met again in May of 2011, and began a gradually more serious discussion about their purchasing our Product Line. The Company had had previous discussions going back to at least 2008 with the Buyer about a potential transaction.

Over the course of the summer, we were approached by another party with a similar interest. Also over the course of the summer, we found ourselves in two additional discussions, each with a current supplier that had interest in acquiring our product line and fabricating capabilities.

Concurrent with these discussions, we were actively searching for new financing to replace our existing lender. To do so, our Board engaged Black Torch Capital LLC (Black Torch), an investment advisor, to assist us in evaluating options for both financing and a potential strategic divestiture.

The Board met on May 31, 2011 with our executive management team to discuss the current situation of the business and its future prospects. During that meeting, the executive management team gave the Board an overview of the status of our sales programs, prospects, strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities, looking out over the next 1-3 year time horizon.

On July 19, 2011, the Board met to discuss the options that had been presented by management regarding the divestiture and financing opportunities. The Board decided to continue the discussions with the current parties, but no decision was made at that time as to a specific direction. The Board discussed the idea of creating an auction or otherwise proactively shopping the Company to identify other alternative interests, but decided that due to the small, competitive nature of the industry, such activity would create substantial risk to the prospective opportunities under discussion.

The Board met again on August 3, August 8 and August 15, 2011, to continue to discuss the merits of the various transactions before it. During these meetings, the Board discussed the factors that it believed were relevant in the Asset Sale. The Board discussed how the efforts of management had improved the operations and reestablished important relationships and credibility of the Company, but also decided that it was necessary to consider alternatives to our current business model to protect stockholder value.

In particular, the discussion focused on the continued cash constraints of the Company, and the limited options we faced in the credit and equity markets, conditions which were becoming clearer through the work with Black Torch. Further, the Board discussed and understood the relevant cost of equity for the Company at this time. The Board discussed the limited opportunities for growth without additional capital, whether debt or equity.

The Board also discussed the drawbacks of entering into the Asset Sale. Most notably, the Board discussed the risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the sale, including the impact on our customers, employees, suppliers, and relationships with other third parties. In addition, the Board addressed the following potential risks associated with the proposed transaction:

- The conditions to the Buyer's obligation to complete the asset sale and the right of the Buyer to terminate the purchase agreement prior to closing;
- The risks and cost to the Company if the Asset Sale did not close, including the diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee and customer attrition, and the potential impact on the Company's business;
- The possibility of delays due to unforeseen circumstances and the impact of any such delays on the ultimate terms and timing for the completion of the transaction; and
- The period of time in which Buyer may make claims for indemnification under the purchase agreement.

On August 15, 2011, the Board approved the material terms of the Asset Sale to Kolpin subject to its final approval and negotiation of documents.

On August 24, 2011, the Board met telephonically to review the draft documents and directed management to continue to finalize and refine those documents with legal counsel.

On August 26, 2011, the parties signed the definitive transaction documents.

Required Approval of the Asset Sale

The Closing of the Asset Sale is subject to the approval by a majority vote of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock. Pursuant to the Voting Agreement by and among the Company, the Buyer and certain stockholders, the Company has the requisite vote to approve the Asset Sale. Stockholders representing 50.576 % in interest have executed a written action in lieu of meeting approving the Asset Sale and the Purchase Agreement.

Accounting Treatment of the Asset Sale

The Asset Sale will be accounted for as a sale of assets transaction. At the Closing of the Asset Sale, any excess in the purchase price received by the Subsidiary, less transaction expenses, over the net book value of the net assets sold will be recognized as a gain by the Company.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The Company intends the following discussion to provide only a general summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Asset Sale to the Company and its stockholders. Stockholders should consult their own tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences, as well as the effects of state, local and non-U.S. tax laws. This summary does not address the treatment of stockholders under the laws of any state, local or foreign taxing jurisdiction.

This discussion describes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Asset Sale. This discussion is based on currently existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, existing and proposed Treasury regulations thereunder and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change. Any such change, which may or may not be retroactive, could alter the tax consequences as described herein. This discussion is limited to U.S. citizens or residents, U.S. corporations, and U.S. trusts and estates that hold their shares as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular person or the tax consequences that may be relevant to persons subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (including, among others, foreign persons, tax-exempt organizations, dealers in securities or currencies, banks, insurance companies, financial institutions or persons that hold their Company stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction, persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, persons that are, or hold their Company stock through, partnerships or other pass-through entities, or persons who acquired their Company stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation). In addition, this discussion does not address any aspects of state, local, non-U.S. taxation or U.S. federal taxation other than income taxation.

The following discussion presents the opinion of the Company. No ruling has been requested from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) with respect to the anticipated tax treatment of the Asset Sale, and no assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below. Furthermore, the Company will not seek an opinion of counsel with respect to the anticipated tax treatment of the Asset Sale. If any of the conclusions stated herein proves to be incorrect, the result could be increased taxation at the Company and/or stockholder level.

Consequences to the Company

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Company and Subsidiary constitute a consolidated group. As such, the consolidated group will recognize gain or loss on the disposition of each of the assets of Subsidiary pursuant to the Asset Sale in an amount equal to the difference between the portion of the total purchase price allocable to each such asset and Subsidiary's adjusted tax basis in each asset. Any gain recognized by the consolidated group from the Asset Sale may be offset by other tax attributes of the consolidated group such as consolidated net operating loss carryforwards and/or tax credits to the extent they are available and allowed by the U.S. federal tax laws. The Company has not fully evaluated the adjusted tax basis of Subsidiary's assets and/or how the purchase price will be allocated among the assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Therefore, it is not able to fully analyze the tax treatment of the transaction to determine how much gain or loss will be realized in the transaction or provide additional disclosure in this report with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Asset Sale to the Company. The consolidated group anticipates that the consolidated group's net operating loss carryforwards will offset any gain on the sale of the assets; provided, however, that the Company could be subject to an alternative minimum tax.

Consequences to the Stockholders

The Asset Sale will not produce any separate and independent tax consequences to the Company's stockholders. However, upon distributions of any amounts (whether in cash or in kind) to the Company's stockholders, the stockholders may recognize income or gain and be subject to the payment of income tax at that time. No distributions to stockholders are intended as a result of the consummation of the Asset Sale.

Post-Closing; Use of Proceeds

Following the Asset Sale, the Company will continue to operate the Retained Business. The Company also expects to manufacture the Cycle Country Product Line products for the Buyer following the Closing until at least March 31, 2012. The net proceeds will be used to repay the Company's outstanding line of credit and satisfy certain other liabilities of the Company. However, the Company will continue to exist as an operating company, with the operations of the Retained Business. The Company's Common Stock will continue to be traded.

It is the Board's intention to seek growth through the Retained Business, as well as through potential acquisitions or similar business combinations with other companies unrelated to the Product Line. However, the Company is not currently engaged in meaningful negotiations with any such business.

It is also possible that the Company might not be successful in growing its Retained Business nor in finding a suitable company to acquire or merge with. If, over time, the Company fails to grow its Retained Business or to find a suitable company to acquire or merge with, then the Company may consider liquidating and dissolving. If liquidation were to occur, any remaining assets of the Company would be sold, and (after payment of the Company's remaining liabilities) the cash proceeds, together with all other cash then held by the Company, would be distributed to the Company's stockholders. If liquidation were to occur, the Company would then be dissolved and would cease to exist.

THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the Purchase Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Purchase Agreement, which is included as Annex A to this Information Statement. The following description is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, the Subsidiary or the Buyer. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by certain disclosures not reflected in the text of the Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement may have been made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between the parties instead of establishing matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement should not be viewed or relied on as characterizations of the actual state of facts about or conditions of the Company, the Subsidiary or the Buyer. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in our public disclosures. We urge you to read the full text of the Purchase Agreement because it is the legal document that governs the Asset Sale.

General

Subject to the conditions contained in the Purchase Agreement, the Buyer agreed to purchase the Acquired Assets from the Company and the Subsidiary for a purchase price of $8,200,000 in cash, subject to adjustment and contingencies as described below. The Buyer will also assume certain of the Subsidiary's liabilities associated with the Acquired Assets specifically described in the Purchase Agreement.

Assets

The Acquired Assets include a substantial portion of the assets of the Subsidiary's business of designing, manufacturing and selling aftermarket accessories for all-terrain vehicles and utility vehicles under the Cycle Country brand name (the Product Line) including, but not limited to:

- certain finished goods inventories and supplies, except for certain retained inventory to be liquidated;
- certain vehicles, equipment, fixtures and other tangible personal property;
- all rights in, to and under certain scheduled contracts, agreements, sales and purchase orders, commitments and other instruments related to the Product Line;
- all rights in and to any licenses, certificates, approvals, permits and other authorizations, to the extent assignable, issued or to be issued by any governmental authority;
- copies of all business and accounting records, data, supplier, dealer, broker, distributor and customer lists, manuals, books, files, procedures, systems, business records, production records, advertising materials and other proprietary information relating to the Product Line;
- all intellectual property relating to the Product Line;
- all claims, deposits, refunds, rebates, causes of action, choses in action, rights of recovery, rights of recoupment and other rights of action against third parties related to the Product Line, except to the extent the same relate to any excluded assets;
- all transferable warranties or similar rights related to the Product Line; and
- all other intangible personal property and the goodwill associated with the Product Line.

Purchase Price and Adjustments; Earnout; Ancillary Agreements

The Purchase Price for the Assets is $8,200,000, subject to certain adjustments. At the Closing, the Buyer will pay $3,200,000 to the Company in cash. An additional $1,000,000 in Deferred Payments is scheduled to be paid in two installments to the Company after the Closing, as follows: the first payment of $500,000 is due on April 1, 2012; and the second payment of $500,000 is due on April 1, 2013; in each case subject to the Buyer's right to offset certain claims against such amount. Please see the discussion below entitled "Ancillary Agreements - Setoff Agreement".

The balance of $4,000,000 in Contingent Payments represents the maximum amount the Company will receive under a contingent earn-out provision set forth in the Purchase Agreement. If the Buyer achieves certain net sales targets for two one-year periods specified in the Purchase Agreement, the Sellers will receive a percentage of the net sales received until the maximum for each such period is reached. The maximum Contingent Payments that the Sellers can be paid under this provision is $4,000,000. Since the Contingent Payments are contingent on the Buyer's net sales for each applicable period, there can be no certainty how much, if any, of the Contingent Payments will be received by the Sellers. Contingent Payments are also subject to the Buyer's right to offset certain claims against such amount. Please see the discussion below entitled "Ancillary Agreements - Setoff Agreement".

To the extent that the value of the Inventory at Closing is greater than or less than $1,000,000, the Cash Portion of the purchase price will be adjusted on a dollar-for-dollar basis by such difference. Within sixty (60) days of the Closing, the Buyer will prepare a closing worksheet on the same basis and applying the same accounting principles, policies and practices that were used in determining the estimated closing net finished goods inventory value and prepare the definitive closing Inventory value amount. To the extent such amount is less than $1,000,000, the Company will be responsible for paying the Buyer such shortfall. To the extent such amount exceeds $1,000,000, the Buyer will pay the Company such excess within approximately ninety (90) days after the Closing.

In addition, the Purchase Price is subject to reduction, on a 52 cent-per-dollar basis to the extent that the value of all Product Line products shipped from Seller between April 1, 2011 and December 31, 2011 is less than $8,000,000.

To secure the Deferred Payments, the Buyer has agreed to deliver a guaranty by FCF Partners, LP, the private equity group that is the majority owner of the Buyer, for the Deferred Payments that make up the $1,000,000 due to the Company after the Closing. The Contingent Payments are not secured.

- the representations and warranties made by Buyer in the Purchase Agreement are true and correct at and as of the Closing, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date (in which case such representations and warranties will be true and correct on and as of such earlier date);

Indemnification and Survival

In Article IX of the Purchase Agreement, the Company and its Subsidiary agreed to jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless Buyer against losses suffered by it (or certain of its affiliates) in connection with, but not limited to: (i) any representation or warranty made by the Subsidiary or the Company in or pursuant to the Purchase Agreement being untrue or incorrect in any respect; and (ii) any failure by the Subsidiary or the Company to observe or perform the covenants and agreements set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

The representations and warranties made by the Company and its Subsidiary in the Purchase Agreement generally survive the Closing for a period of eighteen (18) months. However, certain representations and warranties relating to the following survive indefinitely or until the applicable statute of limitations (as indicated below):

- due organization, valid existence and good standing of Subsidiary with requisite power and authority to carry on Subsidiary's business as currently conducted (indefinite);
- requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Purchase Agreement and certain related agreements and to consummate the Asset Sale (indefinite);
- tax matters and compliance with relevant laws (statute of limitations);
- title to property (indefinite); and
- brokerage fees (indefinite).

The Company's and Subsidiary's indemnification obligations arise only to the extent that the aggregate amount of Buyer's (or certain of its affiliates') losses exceed $2.5 million and then only for the amount by which such losses exceed $50,000 (except for certain claims, including, but not limited to, claims regarding Subsidiary's existence and good standing, authority to enter into the Purchase Agreement and consummate the Asset Sale, tax matters, brokerage fees or fraud, where claims may be made regardless of the amount of such losses).

Similarly, Buyer has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and Subsidiary against losses suffered by either the Company or Subsidiary (or certain affiliates) in connection with, but not limited to: (i) any representation or warranty made by Buyer being untrue or incorrect in any respect; and (ii) any failure by Buyer to observe or perform its covenants and agreements set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

Termination

Article X of the Purchase Agreement sets forth the rights of each party to terminate the Purchase Agreement prior to the Closing of the Asset Sale and provides that the Purchase Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to Closing:

- by mutual written consent of Subsidiary and Buyer;
- by either the Subsidiary or Buyer, by written notice to the other party, if there has been a material breach of the other party's covenants, representations or warranties or if there has been a failure on a scheduled closing date of satisfaction of the conditions to the obligations of the terminating party that, in any such case, has not been cured within ten (10) days after written notice thereof by the terminating party to the other party;
- by either Subsidiary or Buyer, by written notice to the other party, if the Asset Sale has not been consummated by November 30, 2011, and such failure to consummate is not caused by a breach of the Purchase Agreement (or any covenant, representation or warranty included herein) by the party electing to terminate;
- by the Company pursuant to the fiduciary out provided in the Purchase Agreement; or
- by either Subsidiary or Buyer, by written notice to the other party, if there is any law or regulation that makes consummation of the Asset Sale illegal or otherwise prohibited or if any judgment, injunction, order or decree enjoining Subsidiary or Buyer from consummating the Asset Sale is entered and becomes final.

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, Seller must pay the Buyer a break-up fee of $225,000 if Seller accepts a Superior Proposal, as that term is defined in the Purchase Agreement. Such Superior Proposal must relate to all of the outstanding capital stock or all or substantially all of the assets of the Product Line. The break-up fee is the Buyer's sole remedy in connection with such termination by Seller for a Superior Proposal.

Ancillary Agreements

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Company will be entering into certain agreements at Closing, including the agreements listed below.

Master Supply Agreement

At the Closing, the Company and the Buyer will enter into the Supply Agreement pursuant to which the Buyer will grant the Company the exclusive right to manufacture for the Buyer the Supplied Products at the prices set forth in the Supply Agreement, and the Buyer will be obligated to purchase all of its requirements for such Supplied Products from the Company, subject to certain conditions set forth in the Supply

Edgar Filing: CYCLE COUNTRY ACCESSORIES CORP - Form DEFM14C

Agreement. The Supply Agreement will continue in effect until March 31, 2012, unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms. Under the Supply Agreement:

- the Company will provide certain warranties to the Buyer with respect to the Supplied Products;
- each party agrees to indemnify the other with respect to losses it incurs arising out of breaches and defaults under the Supply Agreement, negligence and willful misconduct and, in the case of the Company, claims related to certain defects in the Supplied Products;
- each party will maintain business insurance at certain specified levels of coverage; and
- each party agrees that it will, during the term of the Supply Agreement and for a period of five years after its termination for any reason, neither use nor disclose any of the other party's confidential information, other than in performing its duties under the Supply Agreement.

This summary of the Supply Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Supply Agreement attached as Exhibit D to the Purchase Agreement attached as Annex A to this Information Statement.

Setoff Agreement

At the Closing, the Company, the Buyer and the Subsidiary will enter into the Setoff Agreement pursuant to which the Buyer will be entitled to setoff against the Deferred Payments and/or the Contingent Payments of the Purchase Price due to the Company certain damages that may be incurred by the Buyer. In particular, if the Company breaches certain of its warranty obligations under the Supply Agreement or if the Buyer is required to pay or honor a rebate, discount or marketing program offered by the Company prior to the Closing but redeemed by the customer after the Closing, the Buyer may setoff the damages incurred by the Buyer by deducting the applicable amount from the Deferred Payments and/or the Contingent Payments remaining due.

This summary of the Setoff Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Setoff Agreement attached as Exhibit C to the Purchase Agreement attached as Annex A to this Information Statement.

Warehouse and Transition Services Agreement

At the Closing the Company and the Buyer will enter into the Warehouse Agreement pursuant to which the Buyer will engage the Company to provide certain warehousing, management and shipping services in exchange for the compensation set forth in the Warehouse Agreement. The Warehouse Agreement will continue in effect until March 31, 2012, unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms. Under the Warehouse Agreement:

- the Buyer will retain the Company, on a non-exclusive basis, to provide warehouse space and all necessary equipment and services for the storage and handling of the Supplied Products;
- the Buyer will retain the Company, on a non-exclusive basis, to provide transition services relating to sales, product development, engineering and customer service for the Supplied Products;
- during the term of the Warehouse Agreement the Company will not provide similar services to any other business engaged in a business competitive with the Supplied Products; provided, however, that the Company's provision of services in connection with its contract manufacturing business through its Imdyne division in substantially the same manner as it has been conducting such business prior to the date of the Warehouse Agreement will not be a violation of this covenant;
- each party will maintain business insurance at certain specified levels of coverage;
- each party agrees to indemnify the other with respect to any losses it incurs arising out of any breach by such party under the Warehouse Agreement or the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such party or its employees; and
- each party agrees that it will maintain the confidentiality of the other party's confidential or proprietary information and not disclose any of such confidential or proprietary information to any third party without the prior written consent of such party.

This summary of the Warehouse Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Warehouse Agreement attached as Exhibit E to the Purchase Agreement attached as Annex A to this Information Statement.

Guaranty Agreement

At the Closing, the Company, the Subsidiary and the Guarantor will enter into the Guaranty pursuant to which the Guarantor guarantees the timely, complete and full payment and performance of the Deferred Payments due to the Company as part of the Purchase Price, and all reasonable fees, costs and expenses paid or incurred by either Seller in attempting to collect or enforce the Guaranty.

This summary of the Guaranty is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Guaranty attached as Exhibit F to the Purchase Agreement attached as Annex A to this Information Statement.

In connection with the entering into the Purchase Agreement, the Company also entered into the following agreement at the time that it entered into the Purchase Agreement.

Sub-License Agreement

On August 26, 2011, the Company and the Buyer entered into the Sub-License Agreement pursuant to which the Company sub-licensed to the Buyer the Company's rights to manufacture and sell the Licensed Products, which rights the Company obtained under the License Agreement. Under the Sub-License Agreement the Company granted the Buyer a worldwide, non-transferable, royalty-free (except as provided below) sub-license to market and sell the Licensed Products under the Buyer's brand name. The term of the Sub-License Agreement is equal to the term of the License Agreement, but will automatically terminate upon the completion of the Closing. If the Closing does not occur, the Buyer agrees to pay the Company a royalty equal to five percent (5%) of the net revenue from the sale of the Licensed Products, calculated in the manner provided in the License Agreement. The Buyer otherwise agrees to be bound by the provisions binding upon the Company as licensee under the License Agreement.

This summary of the Sub-License Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Sub-License Agreement attached as Annex B to this Information Statement.

No federal or state regulatory requirements must be complied with, or approval must be obtained, in connection with the Asset Sale.

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Description of the Amendment

This Information Statement is also being furnished to inform you that we have adopted an amendment to Article 1 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles"), which changes the name of the Company in the Articles from Cycle Country Accessories Corp. to ATG Group Inc. The amendment is being undertaken in connection with, and is a condition of, the Closing of the Asset Sale in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Agreement.

Actions Taken to Authorize the Amendment

The Company's Board of Directors adopted a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment to the Articles, declared its advisability, and submitted the resolution for stockholder approval by written consent of the holders of shares representing a majority in voting power of issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock. Under Nevada Law, stockholders may take action by written consent without a meeting of stockholders and without prior notice if the consent is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present. The amendment to the Articles requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of total issued and outstanding shares of our capital stock. Because the written consent of the holders of a majority in voting power of issued and outstanding shares of our capital stock satisfies all applicable stockholder voting requirements for the amendment of the Articles, we will not hold a stockholders meeting to consider the amendment to the Articles and are not asking you for a proxy or to take any other action at this time.

You are being provided with this Information Statement pursuant to Section 14C of the Exchange Act and Regulation 14C and Schedule 14C thereunder. As provided in these regulations, the amendment to the Articles may not be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada or become effective for at least 20 calendar days after we mail this Information Statement to our stockholders. This Information Statement is first being mailed on or about November 18, 2011 to all stockholders of record as of November 18, 2011. We expect the amendment to the Articles to become effective on or around December 31, 2011.

ARTICLE III
PURCHASE PRICE AND PAYMENT; CLOSING

3.1 Purchase Price. The aggregate purchase price for the Acquired Assets shall be the sum of $9,700,000, (i) plus or minus the adjustment amount as provided in Section 3.3, and (ii) minus the adjustment as provided in Section 3.6 (the "Purchase Price").

3.2 Payment. The Purchase Price shall be paid as follows:

- (a) $3,200,000 in cash at closing (the Closing Cash Consideration);

- (b) $333,333, subject to offset pursuant to the Setoff Agreement, on the date that is thirty (30) days following the Closing Date;

- (c) $333,333, subject to offset pursuant to the Setoff Agreement, on January 1, 2012;

(d) $333,334, subject to offset pursuant to the Setoff Agreement, on April 1, 2012; and

(e) the Contingent Payments shall be paid as provided in Section 3.6.

3.3 Purchase Price Adjustment. The Purchase Price shall be adjusted up or down, dollar for dollar, to the extent that the value of the Inventory as of the Closing Date is greater or less than $1,000,000, the value of the Inventory shown on Schedule 3.3 attached hereto.

3.4 Estimated Inventory Value. On or before the Closing Date, Seller shall submit to Buyer an Inventory report listing the Inventory being transferred to Buyer and the value for such Inventory, calculated in the manner used to value the Inventory shown in Schedule 3.3 (the Inventory Report). The Inventory Report shall be subject to the approval of Buyer. Buyer may object to the inclusion of any Inventory which is not Inventory of the Product Line, or which is not valued in accordance with Section 3.3. All such objections must be in writing setting forth in reasonable specificity the reason for the objection. If Buyer fails to object to the Inventory Report within three (3) days of receipt thereof, such Inventory Report shall be deemed accepted. If there is an objection and Seller disputes such objection, the estimated Inventory Value shall be deemed to be the estimated value established by the Seller, but Buyer's objection shall be reserved and Buyer may object to the final valuation in accordance with Section 3.5 below. At the Closing, the Closing Cash Consideration shall be adjusted up or down, dollar for dollar, to the extent that the value of the Inventory as shown on the approved Inventory Report is greater or less than $1,000,000, the value of the Inventory shown on Schedule 3.3.

3.5 Final Determination of Purchase Price. The final Purchase Price shall be calculated and paid in the manner set forth in this Section 3.5 upon completion of the Inventory count. At Buyer's option, Seller shall ship all Inventory, as Buyer's sole cost and expense, to Buyer's warehouse in Fox Lake, Wisconsin or continue to hold the Inventory in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Warehousing Agreement. Buyer shall have thirty (30) days to count the Inventory, and shall advise Seller of any discrepancy in the physical count of the Inventory shipped to Buyer or any dispute as to the valuation of the Inventory as shown on the Inventory Report, setting forth in reasonable specificity the reason for the objection (each an Objection, or collectively, the Objections). Thereafter, Buyer and Seller shall endeavor in good faith, for a period not to exceed twenty one (21) days from the date of delivery of such notice, to resolve the Objections. If Buyer fails to submit a written Objection within forty-five (45) days following the Closing, the value of the Inventory as set forth in such Inventory Report shall be deemed final and binding.

If at the end of the 21-day period there are any unresolved Objections, Seller and Buyer shall submit the calculation and resolution of such unresolved Objections to Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP or another independent public accounting firm of recognized national standing that they agree upon in writing. If Buyer and Seller have not agreed on an independent public accounting firm by the end of the 21-day period referred to above, such firm shall be selected by lot from those independent public accounting firms of recognized national standing in the United States that are willing to act (the independent public accounting firm selected pursuant to the foregoing procedures, the CPA Firm). The CPA Firm shall be instructed to resolve the Objections and such resolution shall be (i) set forth in writing and signed by the CPA Firm, (ii) delivered to Buyer and Seller as soon as practicable after the Objections are submitted to the CPA Firm but not later than the 30th day after such submission, (iii) made in accordance with this Agreement, and (iv) conclusive and binding on the Parties on the date of delivery of such resolution. The CPA Firm shall only be authorized on any one issue to decide in favor of and choose the position of either of the Parties or to decide upon a compromise position between the ranges presented by the Parties to the CPA Firm. The CPA Firm shall base its decision solely upon the presentations of the Parties to the CPA Firm at a hearing held before the CPA Firm and upon any materials made available by either Party and not upon independent review. If the foregoing procedure does not result in the selection of an CPA Firm or if the CPA Firm does not or is unwilling to resolve all of the Objections on or before the expiration of 30 days from the date of submission of the Objections, either Party shall be entitled to institute a lawsuit before a court of competent jurisdiction. The fees, costs and expenses of the CPA Firm shall be shared equally by Seller and Buyer. Seller and Buyer shall each be solely responsible for the fees and disbursements of their respective attorneys, accountants and advisors

To the extent that any item is taken into account in adjusting the Purchase Price downward in accordance with Section 3.1, it shall not form the basis for a claim for breach of any representation or warranty under this Agreement to the extent of such adjustment.

To the extent that (a) the estimated value of the Inventory determined under Section 3.4, is less than (b) the value of the Inventory as finally determined under this Section 3.5, the difference shall be paid by Buyer to Seller within ten (10) days after such final determination. To the extent that (x) the estimated value of the Inventory determined under Section 3.4, is more than (y) the value of the Inventory as finally determined under this Section 3.5, then at Buyer's option, the difference shall be paid by Seller to Buyer within ten (10) days after such final determination, or the difference shall be deducted by Buyer from payments due from Buyer to Seller pursuant to Section 3.2, or from outstanding payments due from Buyer to Seller, if any, pursuant to Section 3.6.

3.6 Contingent Payments. As additional consideration for the Acquired Assets, Buyer will pay to Seller an amount equal to a percentage of the Net Sales (as defined below) in excess of the lower end of the applicable Net Sales Targets but less than the higher end of the applicable Net Sales Target, in accordance with the following schedule (collectively, the Contingent Payments):

Period		Net Sales Target		Percent of Net Sales
June 1, 2011	May 31, 2012	$8,000,000	$10,000,000	50%
June 1, 2012	May 31, 2013	$8,000,000	$10,000,000	50%
		$10,000,000	$15,000,000	25%
June 1, 2013	May 31, 2014	$8,000,000	$10,000,000	50%
		$10,000,000	$15,000,000	25%

The Contingent Payments shall be payable for each month within thirty (30) days following the end of each month of an applicable Period after the lower end of the Net Sales Target for the applicable Period is reached. For the avoidance of doubt, Seller shall not be entitled to any Contingent Payments for Net Sales in excess of the higher end of the Net Sales Target for an applicable Period. Each such payment shall be accompanied by a report setting forth the Net Sales for such applicable Period, and Buyer's computation of the Contingent Payments due. Buyer shall keep true and accurate records regarding the basis for determining Net Sales and such record shall be made available to Seller upon ten (10) days prior notice, for inspection and copying by Seller and its duly authorized agents and representatives for purposes of verifying Buyer's compliance with the provisions of this Section 3.6. Such records shall be maintained by Buyer for a period of three (3) years following the end of the payment of the Contingent Payments. For purposes of this Section 3.6, the term "Net Sales" shall mean receipts from sales of all Eligible Products (as defined below) for which payments have been actually received minus discounts, allowances, write-offs, returns, sales taxes, freight charges and the like all determined in a manner consistent with past practice of Buyer prior to Closing. For purposes of this Agreement, "Eligible Products" shall mean snow plows for ATV's and UTV's and products, accessories and components related thereto, excluding the products, accessories and components described on Schedule 3.6 hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, Net Sales of Eligible Products by Seller between June 1, 2011 and the Closing Date shall be credited to Net Sales for the applicable Period and calculation of the Contingent Payments for such Period. The obligation to pay Contingent Payments runs with the Acquired Assets and the Product Line, so any third party that may acquire any part of the Acquired Assets or the Product Line shall be responsible for timely paying the Contingent Payments to Seller. In the event of a Catastrophic Breach, subject to any applicable cure period, if any, under the Manufacturing Agreement prior to January 31, 2012, Seller shall immediately forfeit and shall have no further right to receive any Contingent Payments. The parties acknowledge that the aggregate maximum amount of Contingent Payments that Seller may be entitled to receive hereunder is $5,500,000 (assuming that the higher end of the Net Sales Target is achieved during each period). To the extent that the Net Sales Targets are not achieved, the Purchase Price shall be deemed to be automatically reduced, dollar for dollar, by an amount equal to the difference between the maximum amount of the Contingent Payment that Seller would have received if the Net Sales Targets were fully achieved during the applicable period and the Contingent Payment actually received by Seller based on actual Net Sales during such period.

3.7 Allocation of Purchase Price. The Purchase Price shall be allocated among the Assets in accordance with Section 1060 of the Code as set on Schedule 3.7. Buyer and Seller shall make all required submissions to Tax Authorities on a basis consistent with such allocation, including the reports required to be filed under Section 1060 of the Code. Seller and Buyer shall not take any position for Tax purposes (whether in audits, Tax returns or otherwise) that is inconsistent with such allocation unless required to do so by Applicable Law. In the event an adjustment to the Purchase Price (or any items constituting consideration for Tax purposes and including any adjustment thereto) is made pursuant to this Agreement, the parties shall make appropriate adjustments to the allocation to reflect such adjustments.

3.8 Closing. The closing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "Closing") shall take place at the offices of Seller, 5929 Baker Road, Suite 400, Minnetonka, MN 55345, beginning at 10:00 a.m. local time three (3) business days after the conditions in Article VII are satisfied, or such other location or date as the parties may mutually determine (the "Closing Date").

3.9 Deliveries at Closing. At the Closing, (i) Seller will execute and deliver to Buyer the various certificates, instruments and documents referred to in Section 7.1 and such other items as may be reasonably requested by Buyer or its counsel; (ii) Buyer will deliver the Closing Cash Consideration in accordance with Section 3.2 and will execute and deliver to Seller the various certificates, instruments and documents referred to in Section 7.2 and such other items as may be reasonably requested by Seller and its counsel.

In the event Buyer hires any former employee of Seller immediately subsequent to Closing, such employees shall become eligible for Buyer's employee benefit plans in accordance with their terms.

The Parties shall cooperate in good faith and make reasonable efforts to assist the other(s) to obtain all consents and authorizations necessary or desirable in connection with the Transactions that were not obtained prior to the Closing, including consents and authorizations arising from, in connection with or incident to all contracts, mortgages, Permits, leases, or regulations to which Seller is a party or is bound.

8.3 Mutual Cooperation after Closing; Receipt of Other Party's Accounts Receivable. At any time and from time to time after the Closing Date, any party hereto shall, upon the request of another party hereto, execute, acknowledge and deliver any agreements or other documents and will take any actions as may be reasonably requested by the requesting party in connection with carrying out and effectuating the intent and purpose hereof and all transactions and things contemplated by this Agreement, including relating to the assignment of the Acquired Assets, the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities, in connection with the preparation, review or audit of any tax returns or accounting records, in connection with litigation (provided there is no conflict of interest). out-of-pocket expenses incurred in providing such assistance. Each party agrees to promptly deliver any payments made by customers on accounts receivable received by one party but which is owed to the other party. At Closing, Seller will provide to Buyer a copy of Seller's accounts receivable.

8.4 Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation; Confidentiality.

(a) Non-Competition. Seller, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, covenants and agrees that for a period ending five (5) years after the Closing Date, none of them shall anywhere in the United States or another country where Buyer is then conducting business, directly or indirectly, as owner, partner, joint venturer, stockholder, broker, agent, principal, trustee, licensor, or in any other capacity whatsoever (as applicable) (i) engage in, become financially interested in, be employed by, render any consultation or business advice to, or have any connection with, any person, firm, corporation, business or other enterprise engaged in a similar business to, or which is otherwise competitive with, the Product Line business, or (ii) knowingly interfere with, disrupt or attempt to disrupt any then existing relationship, contractual or otherwise, of the Product Line business with any of its customers, suppliers, employees, agents or other persons with whom it deals. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall preclude Seller from continuing to operate its contract manufacturing business through its Imdyne division in substantially the same manner as it has been conducting such business prior to the Closing Date.

(b) Non-Solicitation. Seller covenants and agrees that for a period ending two (2) years after the Closing Date it will not, without Buyer's prior written consent (i) solicit for employment as an employee or consultant any employee of Buyer or (ii) offer to or discuss with any employee of Buyer employment as an employee or consultant.

(c) Confidentiality. Seller covenants and agrees that it will not, at any time following the Closing Date, disclose, directly or indirectly, or make available to any Person, or in any manner use for its own benefit, any confidential information or trade secrets relating to the Product Line business or Buyer (collectively, the Group), including, without limitation, business strategies, operating plans, acquisition strategies (including the identities of, and any other information concerning, possible acquisition candidates), pro forma financial information, market analysis, acquisition terms and conditions, personnel information, product information, sources of leads and methods of obtaining new business, know-how, customer lists and relationships, supplier lists, manufacturing and distribution methods or any other methods of doing and operating the business of the Group, or other non-public proprietary and confidential information relating to the Group, except to the extent that such information (i) is obtained from a third party whom Seller does not have any reason to believe is bound by a duty of confidentiality, (ii) relates to information that is or becomes generally known to the public other than as a result of a breach thereof, or (iii) is required to be disclosed by law (including without limitation any federal regulations) or judicial administrative process (in which case prior to such disclosure the disclosing party shall promptly provide prior written notice of such required disclosure to Buyer in order to afford Buyer the opportunity to seek an appropriate protective order preventing such disclosure).

(d) Injunctive Relief. Seller acknowledges and agrees that a breach by it or its Affiliates of any of the provisions of this Section 8.4 will cause irreparable harm and damage to Buyer and that, in the event of such breach, Buyer shall have, in addition to any and all remedies at law, the right to an injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief to prevent the violation of the obligations of Seller hereunder without the necessity of proving such irreparable harm or damage or the inadequacy of remedies at law and without the necessity of posting any bond.

(e) Severability. Seller acknowledges and agrees that each provision of this Section 8.4 shall be treated as a separate and independent clause, and the unenforceability by any one clause shall in no way impair the enforceability of any of the other clauses herein. Furthermore, if one or more of the provisions contained in this Section 8.4 shall for any reason be held to be excessively broad as to geographical scope, duration, activity or otherwise so as to be unenforceable at law, such provision or provisions shall be construed by the appropriate body by limiting and reducing it or them, as the case may be, so as to be enforceable to the maximum extent compatible with the applicable law as it shall then appear.

(f) Administration and Handling of Warranty Claims. Buyer shall administer and perform the product repairs or replacements under all warranty claims of the Product Line business occurring or arising out of products sold by Seller prior to the Closing Date.

(g) Sales Tax. Seller shall pay all sales Tax, if any, payable with respect to the transfer of the Acquired Assets. Seller shall prepare, subject to review and approval of Buyer, any Tax returns or other documents with respect to such sales Taxes and shall file such returns in a timely manner following the Closing Date.

(h) Corporate Name Change. Within five (5) days of the Closing Date, Seller shall change its corporate name to a name not confusingly similar to Cycle Country.

8.5 Operation of the Product Line Business. After the Closing and through May 31, 2014 (the Contingency Period), Buyer shall act in good faith in operating the Product Line business in a manner consistent with Buyer's historic business practices and shall not take any action intentionally designed to reduce the Contingency Payments; provided, however, that intentional acts taken with respect to the Product Line business that otherwise have reasonable justification but indirectly have the affect of reducing the Contingency Payments shall not be deemed to violate this Section 8.5. Buyer shall continue to offer the products and services of the Product Line as offered by Seller as of the Closing Date, with such subsequent generation products, replacements, modifications, additions and deletions as are appropriate in light of changing market and economic conditions. Buyer shall not take efforts to divert clients or revenues from the Product Line business.

8.6 Reports.

(a) Determination: Reports. Within fifteen (15) days after the end of each calendar month, Buyer will provide Seller a calculation of the Net Sales of the Eligible Products for the preceding calendar month and Contingency Period to date and the amount of the Contingency Payment, if any, payable to the Seller for such Period calculated in accordance with Section 3.6 (each a Contingency Payment Statement, collectively the Contingency Payment Statements).

(b) Inspection. Seller and its agents and representatives shall have the right, at Seller's expense, upon reasonable advance notice during normal business hours and no more frequently than once per quarter, to inspect and audit the books and records and financial statements of Buyer related to the Product Line; provided that such inspections and audits do not unreasonably disrupt the normal operations of Buyer. Seller agrees to execute such confidentiality agreement as Buyer may require in connection with any inspection or audit. Buyer shall use reasonable efforts to make personnel available to explain or provide further information regarding the underlying data and information used in the calculation of Net Sales and the Contingency Payment for the applicable Period.

(c) Dispute Resolution. Seller shall give written notice of any objection to a Contingency Payment Statement within thirty (30) days after Seller's receipt of the Contingency Payment Statement. The notice shall specify the nature of the objection to the Contingency Payment Statement. If the Seller does not so object within thirty (30) days following delivery of the Contingency Payment Statement, it shall be conclusive and binding upon the parties. If Seller does object, any dispute which is not resolved within fifteen (15) days after receipt by Buyer of written notice by Seller shall be submitted to the Referral Firm. Buyer and Seller shall present in writing to the Referral Firm a complete list of the items disputed, the basis upon which such party is taking its position and all other information reasonably requested by the Referral Firm to reach its determination. The Referral Firm shall be directed to cause an audit partner to reach a decision as soon as possible. Each of Buyer and Seller shall use all commercially reasonable efforts, including supplying requested information, to assist the Referral Firm in reaching its decision as soon as possible. The decision of the Referral Firm shall be final and binding on all parties to this Agreement, and shall be unreviewable by any court. In resolving any disputed item, the Referral Firm shall calculate Net Sales in the manner described in Section 3.6 and the Referral Firm may not assign a value to any item greater than the greatest value for such item claimed by either party or less than the smallest value for such item claimed by either party. The fees, costs, and expenses of the Referral Firm (A) shall be borne by Buyer in the proportion that the aggregate dollar amount of such disputed items so submitted that are unsuccessfully disputed by Buyer (as finally determined by the Referral Firm) bears to the aggregate dollar amount of such items so submitted and (B) shall be borne by Seller in the proportion that the aggregate dollar amount of such disputed items so submitted that are successfully disputed by Buyer (as finally determined by the Referral Firm) bears to the aggregate dollar amount of such items so submitted.

8.7 License. For a period of eighteen (18) months following the Closing Date, Buyer hereby grants to Seller a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free license to use the domain name www.atvgear.com solely for the purpose of selling the Liquidation Inventory. In addition, during the term of the transition services under the Warehousing Agreement, Buyer hereby grants to Seller a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty-free license to use the Domain Names, trade names and telephone numbers included in the Acquired Assets solely for the purpose of performing the transition services under the Warehousing Agreement.

ARTICLE IX
SURVIVAL, INDEMNIFICATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

9.1 Survival of Representations and Warranties; Agreements. All representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the closing of the transactions consummated pursuant to this Agreement for a period of eighteen (18) months after the Closing Date; provided, however, that (i) the warranties and representations of Seller set forth in Sections 4.1 - 4.3, Section 4.6, and Section 4.16, above, shall survive the Closing indefinitely, (ii) the warranties and representations of Buyer set forth in Article V, above, shall survive the Closing indefinitely, (iii) the warranties and representations of Seller set forth in Sections 4.5 and 4.14, above, shall survive the Closing until the expiration of the relevant statute of limitations. All covenants and obligations in this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents will survive indefinitely except to the extent specifically limited by their terms. No indemnification claim made under Section 9.2, written notice of which is presented prior to an applicable expiration date set forth in the preceding sentence, shall be affected in any way by the expiration of any warranty or representation pursuant to this Section 9.1.

9.2 Indemnification.

(a) Seller, jointly and severally, hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and its officers, directors, stockholders, employees, agents, representatives and affiliates, and their respective successors and assigns (the Buyer Indemnitees), from and against any claim, suit, action, liability, loss, damage, deficiency, fee, cost or expense of any nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, interest, penalties and reasonable attorneys fees and litigation costs (individually, Loss ; collectively, Losses) arising out of, based upon or resulting from:

(i) the breach of the representations and warranties in Article IV;

(ii) the assertion by any third party against a Buyer Indemnitee of any Retained Liabilities or any claim or demand for payment thereof; or

(iii) any failure by Seller to perform or fulfill any covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Buyer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Seller and its respective officers, directors, stockholders, employees, agents, representatives and affiliates, and its respective successors and assigns (the Seller Indemnitees), from and against any Losses arising out of, related to, or resulting from:

(i) the breach of the representations and warranties of Buyer;

(ii) the failure of Buyer to perform or fulfill any of its covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement; or

(iii) the assertion by any third party against a Seller Indemnitee of any of the Assumed Liabilities or any claim or demand for payment thereof.

(c) If a party hereto (the Indemnitee) receives notice of any claim or the commencement of any action or proceeding with respect to which any other party (or parties) is obligated to provide indemnification (the Indemnifying Party) pursuant to Section 9.2(a) or 9.2(b), the Indemnitee shall promptly give the Indemnifying Party notice thereof. The failure of the Indemnitee to give timely notice as provided herein shall not constitute a defense (in part or in whole) to any claim for indemnification by such party, except and only to the extent that such failure shall result in any material prejudice to the Indemnifying Party. The Indemnifying Party may compromise or defend, at such Indemnifying Party's own expense and by such Indemnifying Party's own counsel, any such matter involving the asserted liability of the Indemnitee. In any event, the Indemnitee, the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnifying Party's counsel shall cooperate in the compromise of, or defense against, any such asserted liability. Both the Indemnitee and the Indemnifying Party may participate in the defense of such asserted liability (each at their own expense) and neither may settle or compromise any claim over the reasonable objection of the other. If the Indemnifying Party chooses to defend any claim, the Indemnitee shall provide reasonable assistance and cooperation to the Indemnifying Party in the defense thereof by making personnel available and providing continuing access to the books, records or other documents within its control, and shall provide such other documents, as are necessary or appropriate for such defense, for which assistance the Indemnifying Party will pay to the Indemnitee all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

(d) Failure by the Indemnifying Party to notify the Indemnitee of its election to assume the defense of any such claim within thirty (30) calendar days after its receipt of notice thereof shall be deemed a waiver by the Indemnifying Party of its right to assume the defense of such claim. In such event, the Indemnitee may defend against such claim in any manner it deems appropriate. The Indemnitee may settle such claim or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect thereto, provided that it acts reasonably and in good faith. The Indemnifying Party shall promptly reimburse Indemnitee (i) for the amount of all costs and expenses, legal or otherwise, reasonably incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with the defense against or settlement of such claims, and (ii) if no settlement of such claim is made, for the amount of any final judgment with respect to such claim, to the extent that such amount has been actually paid.

(e) Seller shall not be liable under Section 9.2(a)(i) above until the aggregate amount of losses, liabilities, claims, damages, costs and expenses incurred by Buyer exceeds $50,000 (the Deductible), and then only for the excess over the Deductible; provided, however, that the Deductible shall not apply to representations and warranties referenced in clauses (i) and (iii) of Section 9.1 or intentional misrepresentations or fraud. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the aggregate amount of losses, liabilities, claims, damages, costs and expenses that Seller shall be liable for under Section 9.2(a)(i) above shall not exceed $2,500,000 (the Cap); provided, however, that the Deductible shall not apply to representations and warranties referenced in clauses (i) and (iii) of Section 9.1 or intentional misrepresentations or fraud.

(f) Neither Seller nor Buyer shall be deemed to have breached any representation, warranty, or covenant if (i) the other party hereto has, prior to the Closing, actual knowledge of the breach of, or inaccuracy in, or of any facts or circumstances constituting or resulting in the breach of or inaccuracy in, such representation, warranty or covenant, and (ii) such other party has permitted the Closing to occur and, for purposes of this Agreement, are thereby deemed to have waived such breach or inaccuracy.

9.3 Source of Recovery.

(a) When a claim asserted against Seller under Section 9.2(a) has been Finally Resolved:

(i) any payment then due and payable to Seller under Section 3.2 or Section 3.6 hereof shall be reduced by the amount of any reduction to the Purchase Price to which Buyer is entitled; and

(ii) to the extent that payment then due and payable to Seller under Section 3.2 or Section 3.6 hereof is insufficient, the deficiency shall be paid by Seller within ten (10) days after Buyer has given notice making demand for such payment. Any amounts not paid within such period shall accrue interest until paid, at the lesser of twelve percent (12%) per annum or the highest legal rate permitted under the laws of the State of Minnesota.

(b) When a claim asserted against Buyer under Section 9.2(b) has been Finally Resolved, the deficiency shall be paid by Buyer within ten (10) days after Seller has given notice making demand for such payment. Any amounts not paid within such period shall accrue interest until paid, at the lesser of twelve percent (12%) per annum or the highest legal rate permitted under the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claim against Seller that results in a Loss shall be deemed to be a reduction of the Purchase Price.

9.4 Dispute Resolution: Mediation: Arbitration.

(a) Except as provided in Section 3.3, any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including without limitation any questions regarding the existence, validity, interpretation or termination hereof shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures specified in this Section 9.4, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such disputes.

(b) Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall first be submitted to mediation by a mutually acceptable mediator in a non-binding mediation after written notice by a party of such dispute. The fee of such mediator shall be paid one-half by Seller and one-half by Buyer.

(c) If any part of a dispute is not resolved by mediation within sixty (60) days from the notice of such dispute provided under Section 9.4(b), either party may commence a lawsuit in the state or federal courts sitting in Hennepin County, Minnesota. The parties agree that exclusive jurisdiction shall be in the state and federal courts sitting in Hennepin County, Minnesota, and any objections to jurisdiction or venue are hereby waived.

ARTICLE X
TERMINATION

10.1 Termination by Mutual Consent or Outside Date. This Agreement may be terminated (i) at any time prior to the Closing Date by the mutual written consent of Buyer and Seller, or (ii) by Buyer or Seller in the event the Closing has not occurred on or before the sixtieth (60th) day after execution of this Agreement (the Outside Date), provided that the right to terminate pursuant to this clause (ii) shall not be available to any party whose action or failure to act has been the cause of or resulted in the failure of the Transaction to occur on or before the Outside Date.

10.2 Termination by Buyer. Buyer may terminate this Agreement by written notice to Seller at any time prior to the Closing Date, or earlier as specified below, if:

(a) within thirty (30) days of the date of this Agreement the conditions to performance specified in Section 7.1(l) are not satisfied; and Buyer will be deemed to have waived such condition if Buyer fails to terminate this Agreement as a result of such condition not being satisfied prior to expiration of such thirty (30) day period;

(b) any other condition to the performance of Buyer set forth herein shall not be fulfilled on or before the date specified for the fulfillment thereof, unless such failure is a result of acts or failures to act of Buyer;

(c) a default under or a breach of this Agreement or a misrepresentation or a breach of any warranty or covenant of Seller set forth in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered by Seller pursuant hereto shall have occurred, which default, misrepresentation or breach would or would be reasonably expected to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 to not be satisfied, unless the same is curable and is cured by Seller within twenty (20) days of written notice thereof from Buyer; or

(d) if any party to a Voting Agreement (other than Buyer) breaches the terms and conditions of a Voting Agreement.

10.3 Termination by Seller. Seller may terminate this Agreement by written notice to Buyer at any time prior to the Closing Date if:

(a) Seller notifies Buyer in writing on or prior to the Closing Date that Seller's Board of Directors and/or stockholders have approved and/or recommended a Superior Proposal, and in conjunction therewith Seller pays to Buyer in immediately available funds to a bank account designated in writing by Buyer a break-up fee of $225,000 which shall be the sole remedy of Buyer in connection with any such termination;

(b) a condition to the performance of Seller set forth herein shall not be fulfilled on or before the date specified for the fulfillment thereof, unless such failure is a result of acts or failures to act of Seller;

(c) a default under or a breach of this Agreement or a misrepresentation or a breach of any warranty or covenant of Buyer set forth in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered by Buyer pursuant hereto shall have occurred, which default, misrepresentation or breach would or would be reasonably expected to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 to not be satisfied, unless the same is curable and is cured by Buyer within twenty (20) days of written notice thereof from Seller; or

(d) any right of Seller to terminate this Agreement shall be effective notwithstanding the fact that Seller's stockholders have approved the transactions contemplated hereby pursuant to the Voting Agreement.

10.4 Effect of Termination. Except as provided in Section 10.3(a), in the event of the termination and abandonment hereof prior to the Closing Date pursuant to the provisions of this Article X, this Agreement shall become void and have no effect, and each party shall pay all of its own expenses incurred in connection herewith, without any liability on the part of any party or its partners, directors, officers or stockholders, except for any liability of any party for default or breach of this Agreement; provided, however, that no party shall be liable for, and no party may recover, consequential damages (including lost profits), exemplary or punitive damages as a result of the termination for breach of this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement, Buyer shall promptly return to Seller all confidential information received in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby. THIS VOTING AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is made and entered into as of the 26th day of August, 2011, by and among Kolpin Outdoors, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation (Buyer), and the undersigned stockholder (the Stockholder) of Cycle Country Accessories Corp., a Nevada corporation (Seller).

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, Stockholder owns, or has the sole power to direct the voting of, the number of Shares (as defined below) set forth opposite such Stockholder's name on Schedule I hereto;

WHEREAS, Buyer, Seller and Cycle Country Accessories Corporation, an Iowa corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Seller (Iowa), propose to enter into, simultaneously herewith, an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement; terms used but not defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement), providing for the acquisition by Buyer of certain assets of Seller and Iowa (the Transaction);

WHEREAS, Stockholder is entering into this Agreement as a material inducement and consideration to Buyer to enter into the Purchase Agreement; and

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, certain other stockholders of the Seller are entering into similar voting agreements.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein and in the Purchase Agreement, and intending to be legally bound hereby, Stockholder hereby agrees as follows:

1. Voting Agreement. Stockholder, by this Agreement, with respect to his or its Shares, hereby agrees to vote, at any meeting of the stockholders of the Seller or in any action taken by the stockholders of the Seller without a meeting, all of such Stockholder's Shares (a) in favor of the approval and adoption of the Purchase Agreement and approval of the Transaction and all other transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and this Agreement, and (b) against any action, agreement or transaction (other than the Purchase Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby) or proposal (including any Superior Proposal) that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Seller or Iowa under the Purchase Agreement or that could result in any of the conditions to the Seller's or Iowa's obligations under the Purchase Agreement not being fulfilled. Upon the execution of this Agreement by Stockholder, Stockholder hereby revokes any and all other proxies given by such Stockholder with respect to the Stockholder's Shares. Stockholder acknowledges receipt and review of a copy of the Purchase Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, Shares shall mean all shares of common stock of the Seller (Seller Common Stock), as set forth opposite such Stockholder's name on Schedule I, and any and all other shares of Seller Common Stock acquired by Stockholder or over which Stockholder has sole voting power after the date hereof and prior to the Closing.

2. Transfer of Shares. Stockholder agrees that he or it shall not, directly or indirectly, during the period from the date of this Agreement through the Expiration Date (as defined below), (a) sell, assign, transfer (including by operation of law), lien, pledge, dispose of or otherwise encumber any of the Shares or otherwise agree to do any of the foregoing, (b) deposit any Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement or arrangement or grant any proxy or power of attorney with respect thereto that is inconsistent with this Agreement, (c) enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or undertaking with respect to the direct or indirect acquisition or sale, assignment, transfer (including by operation of law) or other disposition of any Shares, or (d) take any action that would make any representation or warranty of such Stockholder herein untrue or incorrect in any material respect or have the effect of preventing or disabling the Stockholder from performing his or its obligations hereunder.

3. Appraisal Rights. Stockholder agrees not to exercise any rights of appraisal or any dissenters' rights that such Stockholder may have (whether under applicable law or otherwise) or could potentially have or acquire in connection with the Transaction.

4. Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, the Expiration Date shall be defined as, and the obligations of Stockholder under this Agreement shall terminate upon, the earliest of (a) the Closing, (b) the date that the Purchase Agreement is validly terminated in accordance with its terms, and (c) upon the written consent of Stockholder and Buyer. (b) If such Stockholder is an individual, such Stockholder has all necessary capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform his obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such Stockholder and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Buyer, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Stockholder, enforceable against such Stockholder in accordance with its terms.

(c) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Stockholder, the consummation by such Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby or compliance by such Stockholder with any of the provisions hereof shall not (i) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any third party right of termination, cancellation, material modification or acceleration) under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, license, contract, commitment, arrangement, understanding, agreement or other instrument or obligation of any kind to which such Stockholder is a party or by which such Stockholder or any of such Stockholder's properties or assets may be bound, or (ii) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, judgment, order, statute, rule or regulation applicable to such Stockholder or any of such Stockholder's properties or assets.

(d) Such Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Buyer is entering into the Purchase Agreement in reliance upon such Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(e) From time to time after the date hereof, at any other party's request and without further consideration, such Stockholder shall execute and deliver such additional documents and take all such further lawful action as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6. Representations and Warranties of Buyer. Buyer hereby represents and warrants to Stockholder as follows:

(a) Buyer (i) is a corporation, which is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation and (ii) Buyer has all necessary capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Buyer and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Stockholder and the Seller, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Buyer, enforceable against Buyer in accordance with its terms.

(b) (i) No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any state or federal public body or authority or any other person or entity is necessary for the execution of this Agreement by Buyer, and the consummation by Buyer of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby and (ii) none of the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Buyer, the consummation by Buyer of the transactions contemplated hereby or compliance by Buyer with any of the provisions hereof shall (A) conflict with or result in any breach of any applicable organizational documents of Buyer, (B) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any third party right of termination, cancellation, material modification or acceleration) under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, license, contract, commitment, arrangement, understanding, agreement or other instrument or obligation of any kind to which Buyer is a party or by which its properties or assets may be bound, or (C) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, judgment, order, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Buyer or any of its properties or assets.

7. Miscellaneous.

(a) This Agreement may not be modified or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the parties hereto.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise, by any of the parties hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties, provided, however, that no such assignment shall relieve the assigning party of its obligations hereunder if such assignee does not perform such obligations.

(c) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Minnesota, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof.

(d) This Agreement may be executed and delivered (including by facsimile transmission) in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

(e) This Agreement and the Purchase Agreement constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(f) If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party.

(g) This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

(h) The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any provision of this Agreement was not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that the parties shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or in equity.

(i) Each of the parties hereto hereby waives to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law any right it may have to a trial by jury with respect to any litigation directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(j) The use of words of the masculine gender is intended to include, wherever appropriate, the feminine or neuter gender and vice versa. The use of words of the singular is intended to include, wherever appropriate, the plural and vice versa.

(k) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing herein shall affect the ability of Stockholder, who is a director of the Seller, to take any action as a director of the Seller permissible under the Purchase Agreement or as such director may determine to be otherwise necessary to comply with his fiduciary duties as a director of the Seller, whether or not such actions are consistent with the obligations of such Stockholder under this Agreement. Stockholder is entering into this Agreement solely in his capacity as a stockholder of the Seller, and not as a director of the Seller.

(l) Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to vest in Buyer any direct or indirect ownership or incidence of ownership of or with respect to any Shares. All rights, ownership and economic benefits of and relating to any Shares shall remain and belong to Stockholder, and Buyer shall not have any authority to exercise any power or authority to manage, direct, superintend, restrict, regulate, govern or administer any of the policies or operations of the Seller or exercise any power or authority to direct Stockholder in the voting of any of the Shares, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement.

RECITALS

A. Seller and Kolpin Outdoors, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation (Buyer), are parties to an Asset Purchase Agreement dated August 26, 2011 (the Asset Purchase Agreement) pursuant to which Buyer has agreed to acquire certain assets of Seller.

B. As a material inducement for Seller to enter into the Asset Purchase Agreement, Guarantor has agreed to enter into this Guaranty pursuant to which Guarantor guarantees certain of Buyer's obligations under the Asset Purchase Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the recitals set forth above, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor does hereby agree as follows:

GUARANTY OF PAYMENT

1. The Guaranty.

1.1 Guarantor's Agreement. Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to Seller, the timely, complete and full payment and performance when due of the Liabilities (as defined below). Guarantor acknowledges that Seller has given sufficient consideration for the guarantee under this Guaranty by closing the transactions contemplated under the Asset Purchase Agreement. Guarantor acknowledges that Seller is closing the transactions contemplated under the Asset Purchase Agreement in reliance on the terms of this Guaranty. Seller agrees to give Guarantor thirty (30) days prior written notice to Seller taking any action to enforce its rights under this Guaranty.

1.2 Liabilities. Except as otherwise provided in this Guaranty, the term Liabilities shall mean for all purposes hereof all obligations of Buyer to Seller pursuant to Section 3.2(b), (c) and (d) of the Asset Purchase Agreement and the payment of all Expenses (as such term is defined below).

1.3 Expenses. For all purposes of this Guaranty, the term Expenses shall mean all reasonable attorneys fees, court costs, and other reasonable legal expenses and all other costs and expenses of any kind which Seller may at any time pay or incur in attempting to collect, compromise or enforce in any respect this Guaranty, whether or not suit is ever filed, and whether or not in connection with any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement or other similar proceeding involving Buyer or Guarantor. If Seller pays any such Expenses, the amount of Expenses so paid, if not reimbursed by Guarantor upon demand, shall thereafter accrue interest, and Guarantor shall pay such Expenses to Seller with interest, at a rate of 10% per annum, accruing from the date of such demand until such Expenses shall be paid to Seller in full.

2. Representations and Warranties. Guarantor hereby represents and warrants to Seller with respect to Guarantor as follows:

2.1 Review of Guaranty and Liabilities. Guarantor has reviewed with the benefit of legal counsel the terms of this Guaranty and the Liabilities;

2.3 Financial Benefit to Guarantor. Guarantor is deriving a material financial benefit from the Asset Purchase Agreement;

2.4 Enforceability. Each obligation under this Guaranty is legal, valid, binding and enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with the terms except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity;

2.5 No Existing Defaults and No Litigation. Guarantor is not in default under any agreement, the effect of which could materially and adversely affect performance of its obligations under this Guaranty. There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the best of its knowledge, threatened against Guarantor before any court or any other governmental authority of any kind which could materially and adversely affect performance of its obligations under this Guaranty;

2.6 Guaranty Will Cause No Violations of Law or Other Defaults. Neither the execution and delivery of this Guaranty nor compliance with its terms will (a) violate any presently existing order, writ, injunction or decree of any court or other governmental authority of any kind relating to Guarantor, or (b) result in any default by Guarantor under any other document or agreement of any kind; and

2.7 No Misstatements or Omissions. This Guaranty does not contain any untrue statement of fact or omit to state any fact material to this Guaranty.

3. Certain Events Not Affecting Obligations of Guarantor. The continuing and absolute obligations of Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected by any of the following: (a) the release or discharge of Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer in any creditors receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, or other proceeding; (b) the rejection or disaffirmance in any such proceeding of any amounts owed by Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer under the Liabilities; (c) the impairment or modification of any amounts owed by Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer under the Liabilities, or of any remedy for the enforcement thereof, or of the estate of Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer in bankruptcy, resulting from any present or future federal or state bankruptcy law or any other law of any kind or from the decision or order of any court or other governmental authority; (d) any defense of Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer; (e) the cessation of the liability of Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer for any cause whatsoever; (f) any sale, assignment, transfer or other conveyance (including any conveyance in lieu of foreclosure or any collateral sale pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code) of any of the security for any amounts owed by Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer under the Liabilities; or (g) any disability or defense of any kind with respect to any provision of this Guaranty.

5. Miscellaneous.

5.1 Continuing Guaranty. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Guaranty shall in all respects be a continuing guarantee, remaining in full force and effect (notwithstanding, without limitation, that from time to time all amounts owed by Buyer or any subsidiary of Buyer under the Liabilities have been satisfied in full).

RE: Asset Purchase Agreement dated August 26, 2011 (the Agreement) by and between Kolpin Outdoors, Inc., Cycle Country Accessories Corp. and Cycle Country Accessories Corporation

Dear Bob:

The purpose of this letter agreement is to set forth our agreement with respect to certain modifications to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement dated as of August 26, 2011 (the Agreement) by and between Kolpin Outdoors, Inc. (Buyer or Kolpin), Cycle Country Accessories Corp. (Cycle Country-Nevada) and Cycle Country Accessories Corporation (Cycle Country-Iowa and together with Cycle Country-Nevada, collectively, Seller or Cycle Country). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Agreement.

By execution of this letter agreement below, the Buyer and the Seller hereby agree to the following amendments and modifications to the terms of the Agreement.

1. Purchase Price. Section 3.1 of the Agreement shall be revised to delete the number $9,700,000 and substitute the number $8,200,000 in lieu thereof.

2. Payment. Section 3.2 shall be revised to read as follows:

3.2 Payment. The Purchase Price shall be paid as follows:

(a) $3,200,000 in cash at closing, subject to reduction as provided in paragraph 3 of this letter agreement (the Closing Cash Consideration);

(b) $500,000 on April 1, 2012 (the First Deferred Payment), subject to offset pursuant to the Setoff Agreement, and subject to forfeiture as provided in Paragraph 3 of this letter agreement;

(c) $500,000 on April 1, 2013 or such earlier date as specified in Paragraph 3 of this letter agreement (the Second Deferred Payment), subject to offset pursuant to the Setoff Agreement, and subject to forfeiture or reduction as provided in Paragraph 3 of this letter agreement.

3. Reduction or Forfeiture of Purchase Price. The Purchase Price shall be subject to reduction or forfeiture as follows:

(a) If, as of December 31, 2011, the aggregate value of all products under the Product Line shipped by the Seller from April 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011 equals or exceeds $8,000,000, the Buyer shall pay Seller $3,200,000 as Closing Cash Consideration. If, as of December 31, 2011, the aggregate value of all products under the Product Line shipped by the Seller from April 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011 is less than $8,000,000, then the Closing Cash Consideration shall be reduced by 52.5% of each dollar that the value of such shipped products is less than $8,000,000. For purposes hereof, the value of the products shipped under the Product Line shall mean the invoice amount of such products, net of discounts, allowances, write-offs, returns, sales taxes, freight charges and the like all determined in a manner consistent with the past practice of the Seller prior to Closing.

For example purposes only, if the value of all products shipped under the Product Line as of December 31, 2011 is equal to $7,000,000, the Closing Payment will equal $2,675,000.

(b) The First Deferred Payment, subject to offset as provided in the Setoff Agreement, will be paid by the Buyer to the Seller on April 1, 2012; provided that in the event of a Major Breach (as defined in the Manufacturing Agreement) by the Seller with respect to the purchase order submitted by the Buyer for its requirements for the Products (as defined in the Manufacturing Agreement) for the 90-day period commencing January 1, 2012, the First Deferred Payment shall be forfeited by the Seller and the Buyer shall have no obligation to make such payment.

(c) The Second Deferred Payment will be paid by the Buyer if the aggregate value (determined in accordance with subparagraph (a) above) of all Eligible Products shipped by the Buyer during the period from April 1, 2012 through March 31, 2013 equals or exceeds $8,000,000. The Second Deferred Payment shall be payable on the date that the Buyer achieves such targeted amount. If, as of March 31, 2013, the aggregate value of all Eligible Products shipped by the Buyer during the period from April 1, 2012 through March 31, 2013 is less than $8,000,000, then the Second Deferred Payment shall be reduced by 52.5% of each dollar that the value of such shipped products is less than $8,000,000.

For example purposes only, if the value of all products shipped under the Product Line during the period from April 1, 2012 through March 31, 2013 is equal to $7,500,000, the Second Deferred Payment will equal $237,500.

2. Contingent Payments. The Table set forth in Section 3.6 of the Agreement regarding the calculation of the Contingent Payments shall be modified as follows:

Period		Net Sales Target		Percent of Net Sales
April 1, 2011	March 31, 2012	$8,000,000	$10,000,000	0%
April 1, 2012	March 31, 2013	$8,000,000	$10,000,000	25%
		$10,000,000	$15,000,000	25%
April 1, 2013	March 31, 2014	$8,000,000	$10,000,000	50%
		$10,000,000	$15,000,000	25%

In the event of a Catastrophic Breach (as defined in the Manufacturing Agreement), subject to any applicable cure period, by the Seller under the Manufacturing Agreement with respect to the purchase order submitted by the Buyer for its requirements for the Products for the 90-day period commencing January 1, 2012, the Seller shall immediately forfeit and shall have no further right to receive any Contingent Payments.

3. Forecast and Purchase Order. The Buyer shall provide the Seller with its forecasted requirements for the Products for the 90-day period commencing January 1, 2012 no later than December 1, 2011 (which forecast will reflect the Buyer's good faith estimate of its requirements for such period and will not be binding on the Buyer). On or before December 15, 2011, Buyer shall submit its non-cancellable purchase order for its requirements for the Products for such period. Such purchase order shall be reasonable in amount, and shall not be in excess of Seller's average historical experience. The purchase order will provide for reasonable lead times. Seller shall have seven (7) days to notify Buyer, in writing, of any objections. If Seller objects to any portion of the purchase order, the parties will negotiate in good faith a resolution of any such issues. Section 2 of the Manufacturing Agreement to be executed at closing will be revised accordingly.

4. Contingencies. In addition to the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 of the Agreement, the obligation of the Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Agreement will also be subject to the Buyer's receipt, no later than December 15, 2011, of evidence satisfactory to the Buyer that the Seller has obtained requisite approval by the Seller's stockholders of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5. Termination. Subject to satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 and 7.2 of the Agreement, the Closing shall occur no later than December 30, 2011 or on such earlier date as the Seller and the Buyer may determine. If the Closing has not occurred by December 30, 2011, the Buyer or the Seller may terminate the Agreement upon written notice to the other, subject to the proviso set forth in Section 10.1 of the Agreement and subject to Section 10.4 of the Agreement.

6. Additional Setoff Rights. The Buyer shall have the right to setoff certain Assumed Liabilities described in Section 2.3 of the Agreement against any amounts owing from the Buyer to the Seller, including under any purchase orders for products purchased by the Buyer from the Seller prior to the Closing Date or any amounts to be due by the Buyer to the Seller following the Closing Date, including any amounts owing under the Warehousing Agreement or the Manufacturing Agreement. The Warehousing Agreement and the Manufacturing Agreement to be executed at Closing shall be revised to provide for terms and conditions consistent with this letter agreement.

7. Setoff Agreement. The Setoff Agreement to be executed at Closing shall be revised to provide the terms and conditions consistent with this letter agreement and shall be in the form of the Setoff Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. Information Statement. On or prior to November 18, 2011, the Seller shall file all necessary documents, and take all other necessary action with respect to the preliminary Information Statement filed with the SEC on October 25, 2011, including without limitation, the filing with the SEC of the definitive Information Statement. Immediately upon such filing, the Seller shall mail the definitive Information Statement to the stockholders of record of Seller as of the record date set forth in the Information Statement. In the event the Seller fails to comply with this Paragraph 8, the Buyer may terminate the Agreement upon written notice to the Seller.

In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this letter agreement and the terms of the Agreement, this letter agreement shall control. Except as otherwise modified by this letter agreement, the terms of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

RE: Kolpin Outdoors, Inc.

Dear Bob:

The purpose of this letter is to set forth our understanding regarding the license arrangement between Kolpin Outdoors, Inc. (Kolpin) and Cycle Country Accessories Corp. (Cycle Country). Kolpin and Cycle Country have engaged in discussions regarding the potential purchase by Kolpin of Cycle Country's snow plow and related accessories product line for ATV's and UTV's (the Proposed Transaction). In connection with the execution and delivery of the definitive agreement for the Proposed Transaction, Kolpin desires to sub-license from Cycle Country, and market and sell under the Kolpin brand, the X factor and dixie product line of Cycle Country (the Licensed Products). The right to manufacture and sell the Licensed Products is licensed by Cycle Country from Curt Hill (Hill) pursuant to that certain License Agreement, dated as of April 1, 2011 (the License Agreement).

Cycle Country hereby grants to Kolpin a worldwide, non-transferable, royalty-free (except as provided below) sub-license (the Sub-License) to market and sell the Licensed Products under the Kolpin brand. The term of the Sub-License provided for herein shall be for the term of the License Agreement. This letter agreement and the Sub-License shall automatically terminate upon the closing of the Proposed Acquisition. In the event that the Proposed Acquisition does not close, Kolpin agrees to pay to Cycle Country a royalty equal to five percent (5%) of the Net Revenue from the sale of the Licensed Products by Kolpin during the term of the Sub-License, calculated in the manner described in the License Agreement. Such royalty payments shall be calculated and paid by Kolpin at the times and in the manner specified in the License Agreement. Kolpin acknowledges that it has read the License Agreement and agrees to be bound by the provisions binding upon Cycle Country as licensee under the License Agreement, as if Kolpin was the licensee under the License Agreement. Kolpin further acknowledges that Kolpin's rights are subject to the rights of Hill, as licensor, under the License Agreement, including, specifically, the right of Hill to terminate the license upon the failure to achieve certain minimum annual sales of Licensed Products.

This Agreement is not assignable by Kolpin without Cycle Country's prior written consent. Notwithstanding anything to the foregoing, Kolpin is not assuming any obligation of Cycle Country under the License Agreement.

Please confirm your agreement to the terms of this letter by signing where indicated below and returning a copy to the undersigned.

Very truly yours,
